THE VIRGINIA QUARTERLY REVIEW

A National Journal of Literature & Discussion

ONE WEST RANGE • CHARLOTTESVILLE • VIRGINIA

January 8, 1958

Dear Mr. Silver:

The Virginia Quarterly Review would like to present in the Spring issue an informed and interesting essay review of Wilcomb E. Washburn's new book on Bacon's Rebellion, THE GOVERNOR AND THE REBEL, and we shall be deeply gratified if we can persuade you to take on the task.

The review need not be a long one, say about a thousand words, and our deadline for the Spring number is not until the first of February. Perhaps I should mention here that although the Virginia Quarterly pays for its articles it is able to reward its reviewers only with copies of the books reviewed and its grateful thanks. We hope to remedy that soon. The book is already here and we can send it to you at once.

I know that we are asking a great deal of you in both time and energy, but we are asking because we want so much to have the pleasure of presenting your comments to our readers. We shall look forward to hearing from you. Will you wire us your answer collect?

Very sincerely yours,

Charlotte Kohler
