Sunday Night.

My own dear Mother,

I had a letter from you yesterday morning and was glad to get it. Your letter seems to good to be true up here. I am really tired of this place and don't suppose I will have but two more nights to spend here.

Mr. Guy Clark give him the address so that he can send the Register. He said that he was going to send it to me. It will be worth 1 dollar per copy to to-day. This morning I was been alone so I neglected doing it.

It will certainly be

she comes up here for another partner. I have been in the same room every since I came.

Once upon a time I had a real desire to live in New York but I am glad to say that I have not that same desire any longer.
All boys pass through a period when they want to find adventure and travel. I am glad that I had the chance to see this the greatest of all cities.

But you find so few people of the real and true type. I suppose it would be quite different if I were to go out in the residential sections and find a higher class. There are
