dowment Fund in 1981 with a contribution of $2,000 to commemorate his retirement from Kwansei Gakuin University in Nishinomiya, Japan. Professor Kojima had been a regular attendee at the quadrennial World Congresses of Accounting Historians, but was unable to attend the recent meeting in Sydney because of illness. He was to have been the coordinator for the 1992 Congress in Japan. His Japanese colleagues will now carry out his intentions as it was Professor Kojima's dying wish that the 1992 World Congress be a success.

Memorials may be made to Professor Kojima with contributions to the Academy's Endowment Fund. Send memorials to Dr. Ashton Bishop, Secretary, School of Accounting, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA 22807.
