Dear Jim:

As you know, the program committee of the Southern Historical Association met last week at the Mississippi Valley Historical Association convention in Louisville to discuss the program for this fall's Tulsa meeting. At that time the committee approved the following session:

BUSINESS AND LABOR IN THE NEW SOUTH

Chairman: James W. Silver, University of Mississippi

"Historians of the New South and Their Industrial Revolution"

Gustavus G. Williamson, Jr., University of South Carolina

"Labor in Politics: The Case of Texas, 1904-1914"

James A. Tinsley, University of Houston

"Anarchy and Order in Gastonia, 1929"

William M. Geer, University of North Carolina

COMMENT

F. Ray Marshall, Louisiana State University

All of the members have agreed to participate on the program, which is tentatively set up for the 2:30 P.M. session on Thursday, November 10, in the Mayo Hotel. Here are approximate time limits for participants: papers, 20 minutes; comment 15 minutes.

You and the other participants will later receive more detailed instructions from Professor Edward Younger of the University of Virginia, chairman of the program committee. The session will be announced in the S H A program as it appears above. If any participant wishes to make any minor alteration in the title of his paper, he should notify Professor Younger or myself as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Ed

Edwin A. Miles
