

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Clippings

James W. Silver Collection

12-12-1962

Mail Pouch: U.P.I. Unler Oxford

J. H. Hanna

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_clip

Recommended Citation

Hanna, J. H., "Mail Pouch: U.P.I. Unler Oxford" (1962). Clippings. 278.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_clip/278

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the James W. Silver Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Clippings by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

MAIL POUCH

Florence, Miss.

Dec. 12, 1962.

Mr. Charles Hills.

Dear Sir:

U. P. I. Under Oxford headlines, among other things claimed the postcard campaign for the removal of all integrationist from the payroll of Ole Miss has been a dismal flop.

They claim to have received only about 25 cards and that half of them had not been signed. U. P. I. claimed this information came from one of the faculty.

For their information I wish to say someone is lying or the U. S. A. Post Office is very careless with the mail.

I personally got 30 people to sign cards and mailed them myself. I can get everyone who signed a card to say they did, and if necessary sign another.

Yours truly,

J. H. Hanna.