Evidence of increasing internationalization of accounting education and practice

Academy of Accounting Historians
EVIDENCE OF INCREASING INTERNATIONALIZATION OF ACCOUNTING EDUCATION AND PRACTICE

The Academy of Accounting Historians cosponsored a history session at the Center for International Education and Research at the University of Illinois on March 29-31, 1990. Three classifications of accounting history papers were presented:

FINANCIAL REPORTING PRACTICES

GERMAN ACCOUNTING: THEORY & PRACTICE

“Developments in German Cost Accounting,” Hanns-Martin Schoenfeld (University of Illinois).

DEVELOPMENT OF ACCOUNTING: BRITISH & AMERICAN PERSPECTIVES

“Accounting and Contracting: The Role of Statement of Affairs in Nineteenth Century Canada,” Cheryl S. McWatters (Queens University).

“The Internationalization of Professional Accounting: The Role of the Chartered Association of Certified Accountants,” Moyra J. M. Kedslie (University of Hull) and Richard J. Briston (University of Hull).

“The Roots of Value for Money Auditing in English Speaking Countries,” Dale L. Flesher (University of Mississippi).

“Quality and Extent of Financial Information Disclosure In Jordan: Test With International Accounting Standards No. 1 and No. 5,” Cigdem Solas (Yarmouk University).

Requests for papers should be sent directly to the authors.

Maureen Berry, Patti Mills, Barbara Merino, and Ross Tondkar served as discussants. The conference brought out the common interests shared by accounting historians and international accounting researchers and the useful interaction between the two groups. Thanks are due to Vern Zimmerman, Hanns-Martin Schoenfeld, and Maureen Berry for their help in making this joint effort come to fruition.
