Dear Jim:

I thought you might be interested in reading the memorandum to the Selection Committees for the Rhodes Scholarships. I certainly hope that you will encourage Billy to apply. As you can see from the memorandum, great stress is laid on the fact that a Rhodes Scholar must not be merely a bookworm. I feel sure, from what I know of Billy's career, that he would be an excellent candidate and, even if he should not be successful, the experience of applying is a rewarding one.

We certainly enjoyed seeing you and Dutch at homecoming. We shall be very much displeased if you cannot find an opportunity to drop by and see us sometime during the next year.

With warmest personal regards, I remain

Yours very sincerely,

GWRJr/la
