APP A Consulting Review Program Guidelines
HOW TO USE THIS VOLUME

Scope of the Volume . . .

This volume brings together the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews and the policies, procedures, checklists, and programs developed by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee for use when administering, arranging, and carrying out quality reviews.

How This Volume Is Arranged . . .

The contents of this volume are arranged as follows:

- Introduction
- Information About the Administration of the Quality Review Program
- Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews
- Guidance for Writing a Letter of Comments
- On-Site Quality Reviews for Firms That Perform Audits
- On-Site Review Engagement Checklists
- Summaries of On-Site Review Engagement Findings
- Off-Site Quality Reviews for Firms That Perform No Audits
- Guidelines for Involvement by Associations of CPA Firms in the Quality Review Program
- Inspection Guidance
- Consulting Review Program Guidelines

How to Use This Volume . . .

The arrangement of material is indicated in the general table of contents at the front of the volume. There is a detailed table of contents covering the material within each major division.

The major divisions are subdivided into sections, each with its own section number. Where possible, each paragraph within a subdivision is decimally numbered. For example, QRP section 2000.01 refers to the first paragraph of section 2000, "Information About the Administration of the Quality Review Program." Section and paragraph numbers located on each page are provided as corner references at the bottom of each page.
QRP Section 1000

INTRODUCTION

.01 Members of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants who are engaged in the practice of public accounting in the United States or its territories are required to be practicing as proprietors, partners, shareholders, or employees of firms enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program in order to retain their membership in the Institute beyond specified periods. A firm enrolled in the AICPA quality review program or a member firm in the AICPA Division for CPA Firms is deemed to be enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program (an enrolled firm). (See sections 2.2.3 and 2.3.4 of the bylaws of the AICPA and the implementing Council resolutions under those sections.)

.02 The AICPA Board of Directors has established a quality review division within the Institute, which is governed by an executive committee having senior technical committee status with the authority to establish and conduct a quality review program in cooperation with state CPA societies that elect to participate. This Committee is called the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee.

.03 This manual has been prepared by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee. The standards, policies, programs and checklists set forth in this manual have been developed to assist—

a. Reviewers carrying out quality reviews.

b. State societies that participate in the administration of the program.

c. Associations of CPA firms that assist their members in arranging and carrying out quality reviews.

d. The AICPA Quality Review Division itself.

.04 In performing quality reviews, review teams must complete all relevant programs and checklists issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee in a professional manner. Failure to do so creates a presumption that the review has not been performed in conformity with the standards governing the program.

.05 The manual is in loose-leaf format in anticipation of updating and expansion. Changes are expected to arise from three sources:

a. Comments and suggestions from individuals or groups in the program.

b. Needs identified by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee.

c. Issuance of new official pronouncements by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, the AICPA Auditing Standards Board, and other senior AICPA committees.

.06 Comments and suggestions should be addressed to:

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual
QRP Section 2000

Information About the Administration of the Quality Review Program

General

.01 This section has been developed by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee to provide information on the administration of the AICPA quality review program. The section does not have the authority of pronouncements issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee.

Enrollment Requirements

.02 Every CPA firm that is not a member of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms should enroll in the quality review program, whether or not it has an accounting or auditing practice. To enroll in the program, a firm should submit a “Quality Review Program Enrollment Form” to the AICPA Quality Review Division at 1211 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036. Quality Review Program Enrollment Forms can be obtained from the AICPA or participating state CPA societies.

.03 Every CPA firm, regardless of its size, must have a system of quality control for its accounting and auditing practice. However, preparation of a quality control document is not required to have a quality review. Completion of a brief quality control questionnaire is all that is required.

.04 An enrolled firm must have a quality review in accordance with the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews (see QRP Section 3000) once every three years if it performs audits, reviews or compilations. (See also paragraphs .08 through .13 of this section.)

.05 At least one of the proprietors, partners, or shareholders of an enrolled firm must be a member of the AICPA.

.06 A firm may not resign during the course of a review because, for example, it expects to receive a qualified report or the reviewer has discovered a substandard engagement on which the firm must take some action under applicable professional standards. A review commences when an engagement letter is signed and returned to the entity that is forming the review team or when the reviewed firm enters orally into the agreements usually included in an engagement letter. A review is deemed completed when the firm has taken any actions deemed necessary by the committee as a result of that review and has been so notified.

.07 Receipt of a resignation in the circumstances described in .06 above will be considered evidence of a failure to cooperate and could lead to a hearing to consider whether sanctions should be imposed on the firm.

Timing of Reviews

.08 Initial reviews of firms that enroll at the inception of the program will be phased in over a five-year period starting in 1989. During the phase-in period, firms with more than ten professionals that perform audits of historical or prospective financial statements ("audits" of prospective financial statements are referred to as "examinations" in relevant professional standards) will go first. Smaller firms will follow, and then sole practitioners. The AICPA Quality Review Division notifies firms of the timing of their reviews.

.09 The due date assigned to firms for initial quality reviews will be determined by a random, computer-assisted selection process in accordance with the timetable in Exhibit 1.
.10 Firms enrolling in the program after June 30, 1989, shall be required to have their initial reviews within eighteen months of enrolling in the program or by July 31 of the first year in the range noted in the transition timetable for the category in which the firm falls, if later.

.11 Firms without audit, review or compilation clients will not be reviewed. However, if the firm gets an audit, review or compilation client, it will be expected to have a review within 18 months of the fiscal year-end of the first auditing and accounting client accepted.

.12 A firm may find that it cannot have its quality review by the date assigned. In these circumstances, the firm should submit a letter to the entity responsible for administering the firm’s review prior to the due date of the review. Ordinarily, that letter should be submitted at least sixty days prior to the due date and should cite the reasons why the firm cannot have the review and should offer an alternative date for the review. However, extensions should be hard to get since a quality review focuses on the quality of a firm’s engagements—if a firm is doing quality work, it should have no problem with quality review. And if it’s not, it’s better to find out sooner, not later.

.13 If a firm has any questions regarding the date by which it is due for review, it should contact the AICPA Quality Review Division at 212/575-6650.

Sources of Reviewers

.14 A quality review may be performed by:

a. A team appointed by the AICPA Quality Review Division or by a state CPA society participating in the Quality Review Program (a committee-appointed review team or "CART")

b. A team formed by a firm engaged by the firm under review (a firm review)

c. A team formed by an association of CPA firms that is authorized to form such teams (an association review)—This is available for On-Site Reviews only.

Committee-Appointed Review Teams

.15 Periodically, usually in November, the AICPA will ask managing partners, managing shareholders, and proprietors of enrolled firms to nominate individuals for service as a reviewer. Each proposed reviewer will be asked to submit a resume form (see Exhibit 3). Individuals who are included in the bank of reviewers will be asked to update their resume forms annually.

.16 Announcement of the above actions will be published in The CPA Letter so that other interested and qualified parties can submit profile information.

.17 The information submitted on the resume forms will be contained in the master reviewer data file maintained by the AICPA and will be available to participating state CPA societies.

Firm Reviews

.18 Periodically, usually in November, the AICPA will ask the managing partners, managing shareholders, and proprietors of enrolled firms to indicate whether their firms, including which offices of their firms, would accept engagements to perform quality reviews of other firms. Each firm will be asked to complete a reviewing firm interest form which will include, among other things, the locations of the offices of the firm that would be interested in conducting quality reviews (see Exhibit 4).

.19 The information submitted will be included in a master reviewing firm data bank maintained by the AICPA and will be available to participating state CPA societies. Upon request, firms may obtain a listing of the firms located in a particular geographic area that are included in the data bank. The inclusion of a name on a listing does not constitute an endorsement of the listed firm or a team selected therefrom. After a team is formed by a firm engaged to perform a review, the arrangements will be reviewed by the entity administering the review.

Associations of CPA Firms

.20 A list of associations of CPA firms that have been authorized to arrange quality reviews for its members will be maintained. This list will be periodically updated. Section QRP 8000 of this manual discusses the guidelines for association involvement in the quality review program.

Review Team Working Papers

General

.21 Working papers must be prepared by the review team to document the work performed and the findings and conclusions reached on on-site and off-site quality reviews. Working papers, including engagement review checklists, should not name or otherwise identify the reviewed firm’s clients.

.22 In performing quality reviews, review teams must complete all relevant programs and checklists issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee in a professional manner. Failure to do so creates a presumption that the review has not been performed in conformity with the standards governing the program.

Submission of Working Papers

.23 Within thirty days of the date of an on-site quality review exit conference, the team captain should submit to the entity administering the review copies of the report and letter of comments, if any, and the working papers specified in the checklists issued by the Quality Review Executive Committee.

.24 Other working papers for on-site firm reviews should be retained by the reviewing firm. Other working papers for on-site association reviews should be retained by the respective association. Therefore, a review team captain should notify the entity administering the review of when the on-site quality review working papers will be available for review and where they are being held by submitting a properly completed review completion form (Appendix B to the Team Captain Checklist—On-Site Quality Reviews).

.25 Within thirty days of the completion of an off-site quality review, the reviewer should submit a copy of the report, the review completion form, and all working papers prepared on the review to the entity administering the review.

.26 When the timing guidelines discussed above are not met, the administering entity’s staff or a member of the applicable quality review committee should determine the reasons for the delay and act accordingly. If, in their opinion, after consultation with the chairman of the applicable quality review committee—

a. The delay arises from an unresolved problem or disagreement in the review, an attempt should be made to resolve the matter.

b. The delay arises from a failure to perform the quality review in a timely, professional manner, the applicable quality review committee should decide at its next meeting whether to file a complaint against the quality reviewer with the AICPA Professional Ethics Division and the applicable state CPA society’s professional ethics committee, citing violation of Article V, Due Care of the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct. (This article states: “A member should observe the profession’s technical and ethical standards, strive continually to improve competence and the quality of services, and discharge professional responsibility to the best of the member’s ability.”)

c. The delay arises from a failure by the reviewed firm to cooperate with the reviewer, the administering entity’s quality review committee should decide at its next meeting whether to refer the matter to the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee; in these instances, the Quality Review Executive Committee will decide whether to begin taking actions leading to the termination of the firm from the quality review program.

Working Paper Retention Policies

.27 All working papers, reports, and letters prepared during a quality review, with the exception of those described in paragraphs .28 and .29 below, should be retained by the entity that formed the review team until ninety days after the AICPA or state quality review committee has issued a letter accepting the quality review report, and, if applicable, the letter of comments and the response thereto, unless the committee indicates that the working papers should be retained for a longer period of time because, for example, the firm has been required to take certain corrective, remedial actions or the committee believes that it needs to further monitor the activities of the firm.

.28 The following quality review documents should be retained from an on-site review until the subsequent review required of the firm or until the time for such review has elapsed:

a. The quality review report.

b. The letter of comments and the firm’s response thereto, if applicable.

c. The letter accepting the quality review report and, if applicable, the letter of comment and the firm’s response.

.29 The following quality review documents should be retained from an off-site review until the subsequent review required of the firm or until the time for such review has elapsed:

a. The quality review report.

b. The firm’s response to the quality review report, if applicable.

c. The letter accepting the quality review report and the firm’s response, if applicable.

.30 All working papers will be subject to oversight or review by the administering entity, the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee, or other bodies that the Committee may designate, including their staff.

.31 All working papers, notes, or other documentation prepared by a participating state CPA society in connection with the scheduling, performance, or acceptance of reviews are also subject to oversight.

Submission of Quality Review Documents

.32 Firms enrolled in the quality review program are required under paragraph 14 of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews to arrange and schedule their reviews in compliance with the administrative procedures established by the entities administering the reviews and to cooperate with those entities in all matters related to the review.

.33 Within thirty days of receiving the report and letter of comments, if any, the reviewed firm should submit a copy of the report, the letter of comments, if any, and its response to all matters discussed in the report or letter of comments to the entity administering the review.

.34 The AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee has adopted a resolution (see Exhibits 5 and 6) that provides procedures for dropping or terminating the enrollment of a firm from the quality review program for failure to file with the entity administering the firm’s review information concerning the arrangements for a mandatory review; to have a review by the required date; to file the report, the letter of comments, if any, and its response to all matters discussed in the report or letter of comments or to cooperate with the entity administering the firm’s review, including completion of required corrective or monitoring actions.
Fees and Expenses

.35 Entities administering quality reviews (that is, the AICPA and participating state societies) shall be authorized to establish dues or registration fees within its jurisdiction to fund the administration of the program.

.36 The AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee has adopted a resolution (see Exhibit 6) that provides procedures for dropping a firm from the quality review program for failure to pay fees charged by state CPA societies for the administration of the quality review program.

.37 Entities administering quality reviews shall also be authorized to establish the rates at which reviewers will be paid for service on review teams they form. While the rates established may be stratified based on the size and nature of the reviewed firm, the rates should be used uniformly throughout the jurisdiction for review teams it arranges. Firms that perform reviews and associations of CPA firms that assist their members in arranging such reviews may set their own rates in consultation with the reviewed firm.

.38 A firm that arranges for the AICPA, a participating state society, another firm, or an association of CPA firms to perform its quality review is obligated to pay in full the fees and expenses of the review team to which it agreed prior to the review.

.39 The AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee has adopted a resolution that provides procedures for firms that fail to pay the fees and expenses of a review (see Exhibit 7). In applying these procedures, the entity that formed the review team should notify the reviewed firm in writing (by certified mail) that it has failed to pay the fees and expenses. The notice—

a. Should not be mailed to a reviewed firm until at least 90 days after the firm has been billed for the services.

b. Should indicate that the administering entity’s quality review committee will be asked to review the situation, including the reasons for the nonpayment, and decide whether to recommend that the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee drop the firm from the quality review program due to this failure pursuant to the established procedures.

c. Should indicate that the reviewed firm has 30 days from the date of the notice in which to pay the unpaid fees and expenses.

d. Should include a copy of the resolution in Exhibit 7.

.40 In deciding on whether to request that a firm be dropped from the quality review program, consideration should be given to whether a disagreement exists between the reviewer, the reviewed firm, and/or the Committee.

SAMPLE ENGAGEMENT LETTER

[Letterhead of Administering Entity for CART Reviews]

(Firm Contact)

(Firm Name)

Re: Review Number______________________________

Dear (Mr. or Ms. Firm Contact):

You have requested that a review team be appointed to perform a quality review of your firm’s accounting and auditing practice. We are willing to arrange for such an engagement, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this letter.

The attachment to this letter contains information on the review team. If any changes need to be made in the review team, we will notify you immediately and ask you to authorize those changes.

Scope of the Review

The review will be performed in accordance with the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews, issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee. These standards require, among other things, that the review be conducted in compliance with the confidentiality requirements set forth in the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct. Information concerning the review firm or any of its clients or personnel, including the findings of the review, that is obtained as a consequence of the review is confidential. Such information shall not be disclosed by review team members to anyone not involved in carrying out the review or administering the program or used in any way not related to meeting the objectives of the quality review program unless authorized by your firm. Also, no review team member will have contact with clients of your firm.

If it is necessary to obtain the consent of your clients for review of files and records pertaining to them, you will assume the responsibility for obtaining such consent.

Liability and Subpoena

You agree not to take, or assist in, any action seeking to hold liable, jointly or singly, us or the review team—including any staff, assistants, committees or the review team’s firms—for damages on account of any good faith act or omission or on account of any deficiency in the files overall, unless those damages arise from malice, gross negligence, or recklessness. Also, you agree not to subpoena any of those persons or organizations, or otherwise call them to testify, in any action to which they are not a party, with respect to any of the work performed, reports made, or information acquired or developed in connection with this review. However, this provision shall not apply if some other person has done that successfully and you conclude you must do so in response.

Timing of Review and Fees

We anticipate that the review will begin on (date of commencement) and take between _____ and _____ hours to complete. However, this is only an estimate and reviewer time will be billed at actual.
The billing rates are set forth in the attachment. Your firm will also be expected to pay for all reviewer out-of-pocket expenses and the administrative fees established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for the scheduling of the review and the evaluation of the review results. The administrative fee structure is also set forth in an attachment to this letter.¹

Invoices are due upon presentation. Normally, fees will be billed after the report is issued on the review. However, under certain circumstances, progress billings may be rendered.²

* * * * *

If you accept these terms and conditions, please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter. This letter, including the attachments, will then become a contract between you and us.

Sincerely,

AICPA QUALITY REVIEW EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(Resolution adopted July 24, 1991)

WHEREAS, a firm enrolled in the quality review program is required to have a quality review once every three years and to bear the direct costs of the review; and

WHEREAS, under paragraph 15 of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews, a review team may be formed by (1) a firm engaged by the firm under review, (2) a participating state CPA society or the AICPA Quality Review Division (a committee-appointed review team), or (3) an association of CPA firms authorized to assist its members by organizing review teams; and

WHEREAS, a firm is required to pay the fees and expenses of the review team in compliance with paragraph .38 in Section 2000 of the Quality Review Program Manual;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the enrollment of a firm that has reached an agreement on the terms for the performance of a review by a review team formed by a participating state CPA society or the AICPA Quality Review Division will be dropped from the quality review program by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee, without a hearing for disciplinary purposes, thirty days after the AICPA Quality Review Division notifies the firm by certified mail that the firm has failed to pay in full the fees and expenses of the review team, and such failure is not sooner corrected or explained to the satisfaction of the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee; however the Committee may at its discretion decide to hold such a hearing and, whether a hearing is held or not, the firm will have the right to appeal to the AICPA Joint Trial Board.

STANDARDS FOR PERFORMING AND REPORTING ON QUALITY REVIEWS

NOTICE TO READERS

Members of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants who are engaged in the practice of public accounting in the United States or its territories are required to be practicing as proprietors, partners, shareholders, or employees of firms enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program in order to retain their membership in the Institute beyond specified periods.

The AICPA Board of Directors has established a Quality Review Division within the Institute, which is governed by an executive committee having senior technical committee status with authority to establish and conduct a quality review program in cooperation with state CPA societies that elect to participate.

A firm enrolled in the AICPA quality review program or a member firm of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms is deemed to be enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program (an enrolled firm). (See sections 2.2.3 and 2.3.4 of the bylaws of the AICPA and the implementing Council resolutions under those sections.)

The Quality Review Executive Committee has issued these standards for performing and reporting on all reviews conducted under the quality review program. These standards are applicable to firms enrolled in that program (the term firms includes sole practitioners), to individuals and firms who perform and report on such reviews, to state CPA societies that participate in the administration of the program, to associations of CPA firms that assist their members in arranging and carrying out quality reviews, and to the AICPA Quality Review Division itself.

QRP Section 3000

Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews

Introduction

.01 Quality in the performance of accounting and auditing engagements by AICPA members is the goal of the quality review program. The program seeks to achieve its goal through education and remedial, corrective actions. This goal serves the public interest and, at the same time, enhances the significance of AICPA membership.

.02 Participants in the quality review program need to—
   a. Understand what is necessary for quality practice.
   b. Establish appropriate quality control policies and procedures.
   c. Have an independent review of their accounting and auditing practices at least every three years.¹
   d. Take remedial, corrective actions as needed.

.03 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1, System of Quality Control for a CPA Firm, issued in November 1979, requires every CPA firm, regardless of its size, to have a system of quality control for its accounting and auditing practice. It identifies nine elements of quality control and states that a firm shall consider each of those elements, to the extent applicable to its practice, in establishing its quality control policies and procedures. In that connection, the statement recognizes that the nature and extent of a firm’s quality control policies and procedures depend on a number of factors, such as its size, the degree of operating autonomy allowed its personnel and its practice offices, the nature of its practice, its organization, and appropriate cost-benefit considerations.

.04 The objectives of the quality review program are achieved through the performance of reviews involving procedures tailored to the size of the firm and the nature of its practice. Firms that perform audits of historical or prospective financial statements (audits of prospective financial statements are referred to as examinations in relevant professional standards) will have on-site reviews, while firms that provide only compilation or review services will have an off-site review of selected reports on those services, unless they elect to have an on-site quality review. Firms enrolled in the program that do not provide those services will not be reviewed.

.05 Upon completing a quality review, the review team prepares a written report and, when applicable in an on-site quality review, a letter of comments in accordance with these standards. The reviewed firm transmits these documents and, when applicable, a letter outlining its response to the review team’s findings and recommendations to the entity administering its review (a state CPA society or the AICPA Quality Review Division). These documents are not public documents, but the reviewed firm may make them available to the public if it so chooses after they have been formally accepted by the entity administering the review as meeting the requirements of the quality review program.

.06 The program is based on the principle that a systematic monitoring and educational process is the most effective way to attain high-quality performance throughout the profession. Thus, it depends on mutual trust and cooperation. The reviewed firm is expected to take appropriate actions in response to significant deficiencies in its quality controls or in its compliance with them. These actions will be positive and remedial. Disciplinary actions

¹ The initial review under the program will be phased in based on the size of the firm and the nature of its practice over the five-year period from 1989 to 1993. However, firms that perform audits subject to Government Auditing Standards, issued by the U.S. General Accounting Office (the “yellow book”), should be aware that they must have “an external quality control review within three years from the effective date of the GAO standards,” which is January 1, 1989.

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual

QRP § 3000.06
(that is, actions that can result in the termination of a firm's participation in the program and the subsequent loss of membership in the AICPA by its partners or shareholders and its employees) will be taken only for a failure to cooperate or for deficiencies that are so serious that remedial or corrective actions are not suitable.

General Considerations

Enrollment Requirements

.07 At least one of the proprietors, partners, or shareholders of a firm that seeks to be enrolled in the AICPA quality review program must be a member of the AICPA.

Confidentiality

.08 A quality review must be conducted in compliance with the confidentiality requirements set forth in the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct. Information concerning the reviewed firm or any of its clients or personnel, including the findings of the review, that is obtained as a consequence of the review is confidential. Such information should not be disclosed by review team members to anyone not involved in carrying out the review or administering the program or used in any way not related to meeting the objectives of the program.

.09 It is the responsibility of the reviewed firm to take such measures, if any, as may be necessary to satisfy its obligations concerning client confidentiality any time state statutes or ethics rules promulgated by state boards of accountancy do not clearly provide an exemption from confidentiality requirements when quality reviews are undertaken. In all cases, the reviewed firm may advise its clients that it will have a quality review and that accounting or auditing work for that client may be subject to review.

Independence

.10 Independence must be maintained with respect to the reviewed firm by a reviewing firm, by review team members, and by any other individuals who participate in or are associated with the review. The concepts in the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct should be considered in making independence judgments. In that connection, the specific requirements set forth in appendix A apply.

Conflict of Interest

.11 A reviewing firm or an individual participating in carrying out or administering a review must not have a conflict of interest with respect to the reviewed firm or those of its clients whose engagements are selected for review. Such firms and individuals should avoid contacts with clients or personnel of the reviewed firm that could be asserted to be evidence of a conflict of interest.

Competence

.12 A review team conducting an on-site quality review must have current knowledge of the type of practice to be reviewed. Individuals reviewing engagements, on-site or off-site, must have a familiarity with the specialized industry practices, such as those found in the banking and insurance industries, of the clients that should be selected for review.

Due Professional Care

.13 Due professional care must be exercised in performing and reporting on the review. This imposes an obligation on all those involved in carrying out the review to fulfill assigned responsibilities in a professional manner similar to that of an independent auditor examining financial statements.

2 The AICPA maintains a list of states, available upon request, that do not clearly provide such an exemption. That list and related guidance material for reviewed firms have been provided to state CPA societies.
Administration of Reviews

.14 Reviews intended to meet the requirements of the AICPA quality review program must be carried out in conformity with these standards under the supervision of a state CPA society authorized by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee to administer quality reviews or under the supervision of the AICPA Quality Review Division. This imposes an obligation on reviewed firms to arrange and schedule their reviews in compliance with the administrative procedures established by those entities and to cooperate with those entities in all matters related to the review.

Organization of the Review Team

.15 A review team may be formed by a firm engaged by the firm under review (a firm review), by a state CPA society participating in the program, or by the AICPA Quality Review Division (a committee-appointed review team). Also, the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee may authorize an association of CPA firms to assist its members by organizing review teams to carry out on-site, but not off-site, quality reviews (an association review).

.16 A review team comprises one or more individuals, depending upon the size and nature of the reviewed firm’s practice. One member of the review team is designated the team captain. That individual is responsible for organizing and conducting the review, for communicating the review team’s findings to the reviewed firm and to the entity administering the review (a participating state CPA society or the AICPA Quality Review Division), and for preparing the report and, if applicable, the letter of comments on the review. Team captains on on-site and off-site quality reviews should test the work performed by other reviewers to the extent deemed necessary in the circumstances.

Qualifications for Service as a Reviewer

General

.17 Performing and reporting on quality reviews requires the exercise of professional judgment by peers. Accordingly, an individual serving as a reviewer (whether for on-site or off-site quality reviews) must be a member of the AICPA licensed to practice as a certified public accountant and must possess current knowledge of applicable professional standards.

On-Site Quality Reviews

.18 Reviewers participating in on-site quality reviews must be currently active in public practice at a supervisory level in the accounting and auditing function of a firm enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program (that is, a firm enrolled in the AICPA quality review program or a firm that is a member of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms) as one of the following:

a. A proprietor, partner, or shareholder

b. A manager or person with equivalent supervisory responsibilities

All on-site review team members must have at least five years’ experience in the practice of public accounting in the accounting and auditing function. A team captain must be a proprietor, partner, or shareholder of an enrolled firm and must have completed a training course that meets requirements established from time to time by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee. A team captain must also be associated with a firm that has received 3 The plan of administration adopted by an association of CPA firms that assists its members in arranging and carrying out quality reviews may provide that the association will communicate the review team’s findings to the entity administering the review.

4 The Quality Review Executive Committee recognizes that practitioners often perform a number of functions, including tax and consulting work, and cannot restrict themselves to accounting and auditing work. This standard is not intended to require that reviewers be individuals who spend all their time on accounting and auditing engagements. However, CPAs who wish to serve as reviewers should carefully consider whether their day-to-day involvement in accounting and auditing work is sufficiently comprehensive to enable them to perform a quality review with professional expertise.
an unqualified report on its system of quality control within the previous three years.\(^5\) A team captain should have a familiarity gained through personal experience with the types of problems encountered by the reviewed firms.

.19 An individual who serves as the team captain for two successive reviews of the same firm may not serve in that capacity for the firm's next quality review.

.20 Where required by the nature of the reviewed firm's practice, individuals with expertise in specialized areas who need not be CPAs may assist the review team in a consulting capacity. For example, computer specialists, statistical sampling specialists, actuaries, or educators expert in continuing professional education may participate in certain segments of the review.

Off-Site Quality Reviews

.21 All reviewers participating in off-site quality reviews (available to firms that perform no audits of historical or prospective financial information) should have had at least five years' experience in the accounting or auditing function \(^6\) of a firm enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program \(^7\) within the most recent ten years, culminating in a position as (1) a proprietor, partner, or shareholder, or (2) a manager or person with equivalent supervisory responsibilities.

Performing On-Site Quality Reviews

Objectives

.22 An on-site quality review is intended to provide the reviewer with a reasonable basis for expressing an opinion on whether during the year under review—

a. The reviewed firm's system of quality control for its accounting and auditing practice met the objectives of quality control standards established by the AICPA (see Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1, System of Quality Control for a CPA Firm).\(^8\)

b. The reviewed firm's quality control policies and procedures were being complied with in order to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards.

.23 Firms that perform audits of historical or prospective financial statements must have on-site quality reviews because of the public interest in the quality of such audits and the importance to the accounting profession of maintaining the quality of those services.

Basic Requirements

.24 An on-site quality review should include a study and evaluation of the quality control policies and procedures that the reviewed firm had in effect for its accounting and auditing practice during a period of one year mutually agreed upon by the reviewed firm and the team captain. Unless the state CPA society administering the review or the AICPA Quality Review Division, as applicable, agrees to another period because of unusual circumstances, the review year must not end before the end of the previous calendar year.

.25 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 requires every CPA firm, regardless of its size, to have a system of quality control for its accounting and auditing practice. It states that a firm shall consider each of the following elements of quality control, to the extent applicable to its practice, in establishing its quality control policies and procedures: independence, assigning personnel to engagements, consultation, supervision, hiring,

\(^5\) This provision does not become effective until January 1, 1992, except that if the team captain's firm has had a quality review or a peer review before that date, the report on the review must be unqualified.

\(^6\) See note 4.

\(^7\) This requirement is applicable only if the reviewer was associated after July 12, 1988, with the firm as a proprietor, partner, or shareholder, or as a manager or person with equivalent supervisory responsibilities.

QRP § 3000.19 Copyright © 1989, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Inc.
professional development, advancement, acceptance and continuance of clients, and inspection. Accordingly, the review team should obtain a general understanding of the reviewed firm's quality control policies and procedures with respect to each of those nine elements of quality control. Ordinarily, this understanding can be obtained from reading the reviewed firm's responses to a questionnaire developed by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee. The review team should also perform appropriate compliance tests related to broad functions.

.26 In smaller firms, senior personnel of the firm are usually directly involved in decisions with respect to assignment of personnel, hiring, advancement, and acceptance and continuance of clients. Various factors inherent in their operations (for example, the limitations imposed by the size of the firm, the relative infrequency of certain events, or the informal, cooperative style of management that might be followed by the firm) may make it efficient and perhaps necessary for senior personnel to make those decisions based on the application of professional judgment in the specific circumstances rather than by the application of previously defined criteria and policies. Similarly, those firms may find that ongoing supervision and monitoring of their practices by senior personnel is an effective way to achieve many of the objectives of a formal inspection program. When those circumstances exist in firms with up to ten professionals (defined as CPAs and those expected to seek that status) during the majority of the review year, the team captain would ordinarily decide to restrict compliance tests of broad functions (for example, tests of administrative and personnel files) to those related to independence, consultation, supervision, and professional development. This would be appropriate when the team captain concludes that the review of selected engagements and interviews with firm personnel will provide an adequate means of identifying failures, if any, to achieve the objectives inherent in the other five elements of quality control.

.27 An on-site quality review should also include—a. Review of selected engagements, including the relevant working paper files and reports, with fiscal years ending during the review year—unless a more recent report has been issued—constituting a reasonable cross section of the reviewed firm’s accounting and auditing practice. If the reviewer notes significant deficiencies in the performance of such engagements or the reporting thereon, he or she should identify actions the firm should consider taking to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that such deficiencies will not recur. In that connection, it might be necessary for the reviewer to expand compliance tests of broad functions to identify such actions. In addition, the reviewed firm shall consider whether it is required to take additional actions under relevant professional standards whenever the review team believes that the firm’s report on previously issued financial statements may be inappropriate or that the firm’s work may not support the report issued. In such cases, the reviewed firm shall provide the review team with its conclusions in writing (generally on a “Matter for Further Consideration” form prepared by the reviewer).

b. Attendance at an exit conference by senior members of the reviewed firm and at least the team captain to discuss the review team’s findings and recommendations and the type of report it will issue.

c. Preparation of a written report on the results of the review and, if applicable, a letter of comments (see "Reporting on Reviews").

d. Preparation by the reviewed firm, if applicable, of a written response to the letter of comments outlining the actions the firm plans to take with respect to the recommendations made by the review team (see "Reporting on Reviews").

e. Appropriate consideration of the results of the review by a duly constituted committee of a participating state CPA society, or by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee or an AICPA committee appointed for that purpose. Such consideration should include, where applicable, an evaluation of the adequacy of the corrective actions the firm has represented it will take and a determination on whether other remedial, corrective actions and/or monitoring of the firm’s action plan should be required (see "Acceptance of Reviews").
The AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee has authorized the issuance of programs and checklists, including engagement review checklists, to guide team captains and other members of the review team in carrying out their responsibilities under these standards. Failure to complete all relevant programs and checklists in a professional manner creates the presumption that the review has not been performed in conformity with these standards. Such a review cannot be accepted as meeting the requirements of the quality review program.

Other Requirements

.29 The requirements set forth in the paragraphs that follow supplement the basic requirements set forth above.

Scope of the Review

.30 The review should cover a firm's accounting and auditing practice which, for purposes of quality reviews under these standards, is limited to all auditing, review, and compilation services covered by Statements on Auditing Standards, Statements on Accounting and Review Services, Statements on Standards for Accountants' Services on Prospective Financial Information, and standards for financial and compliance audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the U.S. General Accounting Office (the "yellow book").

.31 The review should be directed to the professional aspects of the firm's accounting and auditing practice; it should not include the business aspects of that practice. Moreover, review team members should not have contact with or access to any client of the reviewed firm in connection with the review.

.32 The review team will be provided with basic background information about the reviewed firm by the state CPA society administering the review, the AICPA Quality Review Division, or, where applicable, an authorized association of CPA firms. The review team captain should consider whether to request other useful information from the firm in planning the review. In all cases, the team captain should obtain the reviewed firm's last quality review or peer review report and, if applicable, the letter of comments and the response thereto, should consider whether the matters discussed require additional emphasis in the current review, and in the course of the review should evaluate the actions of the firm in response to the prior report and letter of comments.

.33 A divestment of a portion of the practice of a reviewed firm during the year under review may have to be reported as a scope limitation if the review team is unable to assess compliance for reports issued under the firm's name during that year. A review team captain who is considering whether a review report should be modified in these circumstances should consult with the entity administering the review.

.34 A reviewed firm may have legitimate reasons for not permitting the working papers for certain engagements to be reviewed. For example, the financial statements of an engagement selected for review may be the subject of litigation or investigation by a government authority, or the firm may have been advised by a client that it will not permit the working papers for its engagement to be reviewed. In such circumstances, the review team should satisfy itself as to the reasonableness of the explanation. Also, in order to reach a conclusion that the excluded engagements do not have to be reported as a scope limitation, the review team needs to consider the number, size, and relative complexity of the excluded engagements, and should review other engagements in a similar area of practice as well as other work of the supervisory personnel who participated in the excluded engagements.

.35 In reviewing a practice office, the accounting and auditing practice to be reviewed includes reports issued for or to another office of the reviewed firm, a correspondent firm, or an affiliated firm. For those situations in which engagements selected in the practice office being reviewed include use of the work of another office, correspondent, or affiliate, the review team may limit its review to portions of the engagements performed by the practice office being reviewed but should evaluate the appropriateness of the instructions issued by the reviewed office and the adequacy of the procedures followed to comply with professional standards.
Study and Evaluation of Quality Controls

.36 The review team should begin its review by a study and evaluation of the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures over its accounting and auditing practice in relation to the guidance material contained in Quality Control Policies and Procedures for CPA Firms, Establishing Quality Control Policies and Procedures,9 and in the program for reviewers issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee. As previously stated, team captains on reviews of firms with up to ten professionals would ordinarily restrict compliance tests of broad functions to those related to the quality control elements of independence, consultation, supervision, and professional development. This study and evaluation, which should be continuously reevaluated during the course of the review, assist the review team in deciding whether the reviewed firm has adopted appropriately comprehensive and suitably designed policies and procedures that are relevant to the size and nature of its practice.

Extent of Compliance Tests

.37 Based on its consideration of the background information provided by the firm, including the results of the firm’s last quality review or peer review, and on its study and evaluation of the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures, the review team should consider whether any modifications to the programs and checklists issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee are appropriate. The team captain should then develop a general plan for the conduct of the review, including the nature and extent of compliance tests. The compliance tests should be tailored to the practice of the reviewed firm and, taken as a whole, should be sufficiently comprehensive to provide a reasonable basis for concluding whether the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures were complied with to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of its accounting and auditing practice. Such tests should be performed at the practice office(s) visited and should relate either to broad functions or to individual engagements. The tests should include—a. Review of selected engagements, including working paper files and reports, to evaluate their conformity with professional standards and compliance with relevant firm quality control policies and procedures in their conduct.

b. Interviews with firm professional personnel at various levels and, if applicable, other persons responsible for a function or activity, to assess their understanding of and compliance with the firm’s quality control policies and procedures.

c. Obtaining other evidential matter as appropriate, for example, by review of selected administrative or personnel files, correspondence files documenting consultations on technical or ethical questions, files evidencing compliance with continuing professional education requirements, and the firm’s library.

Selection of Offices

.38 The process of office selection in a multi-office firm involves the exercise of considerable professional judgment. Visits to practice offices should be sufficient to enable the review team to evaluate whether the firm’s quality control policies and procedures are adequately communicated throughout the firm and whether they are being complied with. Accordingly, the practice offices visited should provide a reasonable cross section of the reviewed firm’s accounting and auditing practice and the office selection process should include consideration of the following factors:

a. Number, size, and geographic distribution of offices

b. The degree of centralization of accounting and auditing practice control and supervision

c. The review team’s evaluation, where applicable, of the firm’s inspection program

3028 Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews

d. Recently merged or recently opened offices

e. The significance of industry concentrations (including concentrations of engagements in high-risk industries) and of specialty practice areas, such as governmental compliance audits or regulated industries, to the firm and to individual offices

.39 Although the process of office selection is not subject to definitive criteria, a review team should select at least one of the larger offices and one to three others in a multi-office firm with up to fifteen offices and 15 to 25 percent of the offices in a firm with more than fifteen offices.

.40 Reviewers should ask the entity administrating the review about any requirements of relevant state boards of accountancy that must be met for the review to be accepted by such board(s) as the equivalent of one performed under the board’s own positive enforcement program.

Selection of Engagements

.41 When combined with other procedures performed, the number and type of accounting and auditing engagements selected by the review teams for review (see “Scope of the Review”) should be sufficient to provide the review team with a reasonable basis for its conclusions regarding whether the reviewed firm’s quality control system met the objectives of quality control standards established by the AICPA and was being complied with during the year under review.

.42 Engagements selected for review should provide a reasonable cross section of the reviewed firm’s accounting and auditing practice. However, the number of review and compilation engagements selected for review may be significantly limited when a substantial portion of the firm’s accounting and auditing hours are devoted to audit engagements. Also, greater weight should be given to audit engagements that meet the following criteria:

a. Engagements in which there is a significant public interest, such as publicly held clients, financial and lending institutions, and brokers and dealers in securities

b. Engagements in other specialized industries

c. Engagements that are large, complex, or high-risk or that are the reviewed firm’s initial audits of clients

In addition, the sample of engagements selected for review should include at least one audit conducted pursuant to Government Auditing Standards issued by the U.S. General Accounting Office (the “yellow book”).

.43 Although the process of engagement selection, like office selection, is not subject to definitive criteria, the review team generally should review work that represents 5 to 10 percent of the accounting and auditing hours of the reviewed firm. However, the review team will frequently find that meeting all of the criteria discussed above would cause it to select engagements representing accounting and auditing hours substantially in excess of these percentage guidelines. In such circumstances, the review team should carefully consider whether—

a. Adequate consideration has been given to the key audit area approach to engagement review. (This is discussed more fully in the AICPA programs and checklists.)

b. Too much weight is being given to the desirability of reviewing work performed by all or most supervisory personnel.

c. Adequate consideration has been given to engagement selection on a firm-wide basis. For example, if two offices are selected for review and each has a large client in the same specialized industry, consideration should be given to selecting only one of those engagements for review.

QRP § 3000.39 Copyright © 1989, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Inc.
Extent of Engagement Review

.44 The review of engagements should include review of financial statements, accountants’ reports, working paper files, and correspondence, as well as discussions with professional personnel of the reviewed firm. The review of audit engagements should ordinarily include all key areas of the engagements selected to determine whether well-planned, appropriately executed, and suitably documented procedures were performed in accordance with professional standards and the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures.

.45 For each engagement reviewed (audits, reviews, and compilations), the review team must document whether anything came to its attention that caused it to believe that—

a. The financial statements were not presented in all material respects in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (or, if applicable, an other comprehensive basis of accounting).

b. The firm did not have a reasonable basis under applicable professional standards for the report issued.

c. The documentation on the engagement did not support the report issued.

d. The firm did not comply with its quality control policies and procedures in all material respects.

.46 If the review team reaches a negative conclusion with respect to items a, b, or c, the team captain should promptly inform an appropriate member of the reviewed firm (generally on a “Matter for Further Consideration” form). The reviewed firm should investigate the matter questioned by the review team and determine what action, if any, should be taken. The reviewed firm should advise the team captain of the results of its investigation and document the actions taken or planned or its reasons for concluding that no action is required. If the reviewed firm believes that it can continue to support its previously issued report and the review team continues to believe that there may be a significant failure to reach appropriate conclusions in the application of professional standards, the review team should pursue any remaining questions with the reviewed firm and, if necessary, with the entity administering the review. The review team should also consider whether it is necessary to expand the scope of the review by selecting additional engagements to determine the extent and cause of significant departures from professional standards.

.47 In evaluating the reviewed firm’s response, the review team should recognize that it has not made an examination of the financial statements in question in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and that it has not had the benefit of access to client records, discussions with the client, or specific knowledge of the client’s business. Nevertheless, a disagreement on the resolution of the matter may persist in some circumstances and the reviewed firm should be aware that it may be requested to refer unresolved matters to the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee for a final determination.

Exit Conference

.48 Prior to issuing its report and, if applicable, letter of comments, the review team must communicate its conclusions to senior members of the reviewed firm at an exit conference, which may also be attended by individual(s) with oversight responsibilities. The reviewed firm is entitled to be informed at the exit conference about any matters that may affect the review report and about all significant findings and recommendations that will be included in the letter of comments. Accordingly, except in rare circumstances which should be explained to the reviewed firm, the exit conference should be postponed if there is any uncertainty about the report to be issued or the matters to be included in the letter of comments. The exit conference is also the appropriate vehicle for providing suggestions to the firm that do not have an effect on the report or letter of comments.

Performing Off-Site Quality Reviews

Objectives

.49 The objective of an off-site quality review is to provide the reviewer with a reasonable basis for expressing limited assurance that the financial statements and related accountant’s report on the review and compilation engagements submitted for review do not depart in a material respect from the requirements of professional standards. This objective is different from the objectives of an on-site quality review in recognition of the fact that off-site quality reviews are available only to firms that perform review or compilation engagements but perform no audits of historical or prospective financial information. An accountant’s review report clearly expresses only limited assurance about the financial statements, and an accountant’s compilation report states that the accountant expresses no opinion or other form of assurance on the historical or prospective financial statements. Such firms will only be required to have an off-site quality review unless they elect to have an on-site quality review. However, this does not relieve such firms from their obligation to have a system of quality control (see paragraph .03).

Basic Requirements

.50 Off-site quality reviews are administered only by participating state CPA societies or by the AICPA Quality Review Division. Associations of CPA firms are not authorized to arrange or carry out off-site quality reviews. Also, compliance with the positive enforcement program of a state board of accountancy does not constitute compliance with the AICPA practice-monitoring requirement.

.51 The reviewed firm shall provide summarized information showing the number of its review or compilation clients and the nature of the highest level of service provided to those clients, classified into major industry categories. That information shall be provided for each proprietor, partner, or shareholder of the firm who is responsible for the issuance of review or compilation reports. On the basis of that information, the reviewer or the entity administering the review shall select the types of engagements to be submitted for review, in accordance with the following guidelines:

a. Select one review or compilation engagement involving a report on a complete set of financial statements as opposed to compilation reports on financial statements that omit substantially all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles or an other comprehensive basis of accounting, for each proprietor, partner, or shareholder responsible for the issuance of such reports. However, at least two engagements must be selected for the firm.

b. In selecting engagements for review, include both review and compilation engagements, if both levels of service are provided. Also, attempt to include clients operating in different industries and engagements involving prospective financial statements as well as those involving historical financial statements.

c. In addition to the selection made in a, select, where applicable, one set of financial statements that omit substantially all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles or an other comprehensive basis of accounting and the related accountant’s compilation report. However, if the firm’s accounting practice consists only of compilation reports on financial statements that omit substantially all required disclosures, the firm must submit the financial statements and related accountant’s report for two such engagements.

The reviewed firm shall submit the appropriate financial statements and accountant’s report, masking client identity if it desires, along with specified background information and representations about each engagement.

.52 An off-site quality review consists only of reading the historical or prospective financial statements submitted by the reviewed firm and the accountant’s review or compilation report thereon, together with certain background information and representations provided by the reviewed firm. The objective of the review of these engagements is to consider whether the financial statements appear to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles or, if applicable, with an other comprehensive basis of accounting, and whether the accountant’s report appears to conform with professional standards. An off-site quality review does not include a review of the working papers prepared on the engagements submitted for review, tests of the firm’s administrative or personnel files, interviews of selected firm personnel, or other procedures performed in an on-site quality review.
Accordingly, an off-site quality review does not provide the reviewer with a basis for expressing any form of assurance on the firm’s quality control policies and procedures for its accounting practice. The reviewer’s report does indicate, however, whether anything came to the reviewer’s attention that caused him or her to believe that the review and compilation reports submitted for review did not conform with the requirements of professional standards.

A firm that has an off-site quality review must respond promptly to questions raised in the review, whether those questions are raised orally or in writing on a “Matter for Further Consideration” form. The reviewer will contact the firm, before issuing the review report, to resolve questions raised in the review.

Although an off-site quality review does not provide the reviewer with a basis for expressing any form of assurance on the firm’s quality control policies and procedures for its accounting practice, it may provide the reviewer with a basis for expressing a conclusion that the firm did not have reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year under review (an adverse report). In those circumstances, the reviewed firm will be expected to take appropriate remedial, corrective actions with respect to its system of quality control and with respect to engagements with significant deficiencies. In addition, it will ordinarily be required to have another off-site quality review within twelve months.

The reviewer performing an off-site quality review must document the work performed using the programs and checklists issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee for that purpose. Failure to complete all relevant programs and checklists in a professional manner creates the presumption that the review has not been performed in conformity with these standards. Such a review cannot be accepted as meeting the requirements of the quality review program.

Reporting on Reviews

General

Within thirty days of the date of the exit conference or the date of completion of an off-site quality review, the team captain should furnish the reviewed firm with a written report and, where required, a letter of comments. A report on a review performed by a firm is to be issued on the letterhead of the firm performing the review. A report by a review team formed by an association of CPA firms is to be issued on the association’s letterhead. All other reports are to be issued on the letterhead of the entity administering the review, which may be a state CPA society or the AICPA Quality Review Division. The report on an on-site quality review ordinarily should be dated as of the date of the exit conference. The report on an off-site quality review ordinarily should be dated as of the completion of the review procedures.

The team captain or, where provided by its plan of administration, an authorized association of CPA firms should notify the entity administering the review that the review has been completed and should submit to that entity a copy of the report and letter of comments, if any, and the working papers specified in the programs and checklists issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee.

The reviewed firm should submit a copy of the report, the letter of comments, if any, and its response to all matters discussed in the report or letter of comments to the entity administering the review within thirty days of the date it received the report and letter.

The reviewed firm should not publicize the results of the review or distribute copies of the report to its personnel, its clients, or others until it has been advised that the report has been accepted by the state CPA society administering the review or by the AICPA Quality Review Division as meeting the requirements of the quality review program. Those entities may not make the results of the review available to the public, but may disclose on request the following information:

- The firm’s name and address
- The firm’s participation in the quality review program
Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews

c. The date of, and the period covered by, the firm's last review

d. If applicable, the termination of the firm from the program

Reports on On-Site Quality Reviews

.61 The written report on an on-site quality review should indicate the scope of the review, including any limitations thereon; a description of the general characteristics of a system of quality control; an opinion on whether the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of the reviewed firm met the objectives of quality control standards established by the AICPA and was being complied with during the year reviewed to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards; and a description of the reason(s) for any modification of the opinion.

.62 A team captain may issue an unqualified, qualified, or adverse report on the review. In deciding on the type of report to be issued, the team captain should be guided by the considerations discussed in appendix B. The standard form of an unqualified report is illustrated in appendix C. Illustrations of qualified and adverse reports are presented in appendix D.

Reports on Off-Site Quality Reviews

.63 The written report on an off-site quality review should describe the limited scope of the review and disclaim an opinion or any form of assurance about the firm's quality control policies and procedures for its accounting practice; indicate whether anything came to the reviewer's attention that caused the reviewer to believe that the review and/or compilation reports submitted for review did not conform with the requirements of professional standards in all material respects; and, if applicable, describe the general nature of significant departures from those standards. The report should also, where applicable, include the reviewer's conclusion that the firm did not have reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year under review.

.64 In deciding on the type of report to be issued, the team captain should be guided by the considerations in appendix G. The standard form for an unmodified report on an off-site quality review is illustrated in appendix H. Illustrations of other types of reports are presented in appendix I. Appendix J includes an illustration of the way in which a firm might respond to a modified review report.

Letters of Comments

.65 A letter of comments is required to be issued in connection with an on-site quality review when there are matters that resulted in modification(s) to the standard form of report or when there are matters that the review team believes resulted in conditions being created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements. Such a letter should provide reasonably detailed recommendations for remedial, corrective actions by the reviewed firm so that the state CPA society administering the review or the AICPA Quality Review Division can evaluate whether the firm's response to significant deficiencies noted in the review is a positive one consistent with the objectives of the quality review program and whether the actions taken or planned by the firm appear appropriate in the circumstances.

.66 The letter of comments should be prepared in accordance with the guidance and illustrations in appendix E. An illustration of a response by a reviewed firm is included in appendix F.

.67 When a letter of comments is issued along with a qualified or adverse report, the report on the review must make reference to the letter. No reference should be made to the letter of comments in an unqualified report.

Acceptance of Reviews

.68 A committee or committees should be appointed by each participating state CPA society and by the AICPA for the purpose of considering the results of reviews administered by them and undertaken to meet the requirements of the quality review program. The activities of such committees (hereafter, the committee) should be carried out in accordance with administrative procedures issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee.

.69 The committee’s responsibility is to consider whether—

a. The review has been performed in accordance with these standards and related guidance materials.

b. The report, letter of comments, if any, and the response thereto are in accordance with these standards and related guidance material.

c. It should require any remedial, corrective actions in addition to those described by the reviewed firm in its letter of response. Examples of such corrective actions are requiring certain individual(s) to obtain specified types and amounts of continuing professional education, requiring the firm to carry out a more comprehensive inspection program, or requiring it to engage another CPA to perform preissuance reviews of financial statements and reports, or to attempt to strengthen its professional staff.

d. It should monitor the corrective actions implemented by the reviewed firm. Examples of monitoring procedures are requiring the firm to submit information concerning continuing professional education obtained by firm personnel, inspection reports, or reports by another CPA engaged to perform preissuance reviews of financial statements and reports. Revisits by team captains and accelerated quality reviews are other examples of monitoring procedures.

.70 If no additional corrective actions are deemed necessary, the committee will accept the report and so notify the reviewed firm. If additional actions by the reviewed firm or if monitoring procedures are deemed necessary, the firm will be required to evidence its agreement in writing before the report is accepted.

.71 In the rare event of a disagreement between the committee and the review team or the reviewed firm that cannot be resolved by ordinary good-faith efforts, the committee may request that the matter be referred to the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee for final resolution. In these circumstances, the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee may consult with representatives of AICPA technical or ethical committees or with appropriate AICPA staff.

.72 In reaching its conclusions, the committee is authorized to make whatever inquiries or initiate whatever actions it considers necessary in the circumstances, including requesting revision of the report, the letter of comments, or the reviewed firm’s response, with due regard for the fact that the quality review program is intended to be positive and remedial in nature, and is based on mutual trust and cooperation. Accordingly, in deciding on the need for and nature of any additional corrective actions or monitoring procedures, the committee should consider the nature, significance, pattern, and pervasiveness of engagement deficiencies. It should evaluate whether the recommendations of the review team appear to address those deficiencies adequately and whether the reviewed firm’s responses to those recommendations appear comprehensive, genuine, and feasible. In a subsequent review, its conclusions should be significantly influenced by a finding that the reviewed firm did not adequately implement significant corrective actions it had represented it would take and by the committee’s assessment of the reason for such a failure. If such a failure continues despite requirements for corrective actions and appropriate monitoring, the committee should consider whether requirements for remedial, corrective actions are adequate responses to the situation.

.73 If a reviewed firm refuses to cooperate, fails to correct material deficiencies, or is found to be so seriously deficient in its performance that education and remedial, corrective actions are not adequate, the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee may take actions, pursuant to due process procedures that it will establish, leading to the termination of the firm from the quality review program. However, if a decision is made to terminate a firm’s enrollment, the firm will have the right to appeal to the AICPA Joint Trial Board for a review of the findings. The trial board will have the authority to confirm or to reduce the severity of the findings, but it will not have the authority to increase their severity. The fact that a firm’s enrollment in the quality review program has been terminated shall be reported in an AICPA membership periodical.

Qualifications of Committee Members

.74 Each member of a committee charged with the responsibility for acceptance of reviews must be currently active in public practice at a supervisory level in the accounting or auditing function of a firm enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program as a proprietor, partner, shareholder, or as a manager or person with equivalent supervisory responsibilities. A majority of the members must also possess the qualifications required of on-site quality review team captains. A member may not participate in any discussion or have any vote with respect to a reviewed firm as to which the member lacks independence or has a conflict of interest.
.75 Appendix A

Independence Requirements

Reciprocal Reviews

1. Reciprocal reviews are not permitted. This means that a firm may not perform a review of the firm that performed its most recent quality review or peer review. It also means that no professional may serve on a review team carrying out a review of a firm whose professional personnel participated in the most recent review of that professional’s firm.

Relationships With Clients of the Reviewed Firm

2. Review team members and, in the case of a review performed by a firm, the reviewing firm and its personnel are not precluded from owning securities in or having family or other relationships with clients of the reviewed firm. However, a review team member who owns securities of a reviewed firm’s client shall not review the engagement of that client, since that individual’s independence would be considered to be impaired. In addition, the effect on independence of family and other relationships and the possible resulting loss of the appearance of independence must be considered when assigning team members to engagements.

Relationships With the Reviewed Firm

3. Reviewing firms should consider any family or other relationships between the senior managements at organizational and functional levels of the reviewing firm and the firm to be reviewed and should assess the possibility of an impairment of independence.

4. If the fees for correspondent work, whether paid by the referring firm or by the client, involving the reviewed firm and the reviewing firm or the firm of any member of the review team, are material to any of those firms, independence for the purposes of this program is impaired.

5. If continuing arrangements exist between the reviewed firm and the reviewing firm or the firm of any member of the review team whereby fees, office facilities, or professional staff are shared, independence for the purposes of this program is impaired. Similarly, independence would be considered to be impaired by sharing arrangements involving, for example, frequent continuing education programs, extensive consultation, preissuance reviews of financial statements and reports, and audit and accounting manuals. In such circumstances, the firms involved are sharing materials and services that are an integral part of their quality control systems. However, the impairment would be removed if an independent review was made of the shared materials (such as continuing education programs or an audit and accounting manual) before the quality review commenced and that independent review was accepted by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee or the relevant state CPA society (or by a peer review committee of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms) before that date. (Firms that share materials and services are advised to consult with the AICPA Quality Review Division if an independent review of such shared materials and services appears necessary.) Also, independence for the purposes of this program is not impaired by the performance of a review of a firm’s quality control document, of a preliminary quality control procedures review or consulting review, or an inspection.
.76 Appendix B

Considerations Governing the Type of Report Issued on an On-Site Quality Review

Limitation on Scope of Review

1. A modified report should be issued when the scope of the review is limited by conditions that preclude the application of one or more review procedures considered necessary in the circumstances and the review team cannot accomplish the objectives of those procedures through alternate procedures. For example, as indicated in the Standards, a review team may be able to apply appropriate alternate procedures when one or more engagements have been excluded from the scope of the review for legitimate reasons but ordinarily would be unable to apply alternate procedures when a significant portion of the firm’s accounting and auditing practice during the year reviewed had been divested before the review began. A review team captain who is considering modifying the review report for a scope limitation should consult with the entity administering the review.

The Nature and Significance of Engagement Deficiencies

2. The overriding objective of a system of quality control is to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of its accounting and auditing practice. When a review team encounters significant failures to reach appropriate conclusions, particularly those requiring the application of the AICPA’s Professional Standards, volume 1, AU section 390, “Consideration of Omitted Procedures After the Report Date,” or AU section 561, “Subsequent Discovery of Facts Existing at the Date of the Auditor’s Report,” the team is faced with a clear indication that, in those engagements, the firm did not comply with professional standards. The review team’s first task in such circumstances is to try to determine why the failure occurred. The cause of the failure to reach appropriate conclusions might be systems-related and might affect the type of report issued when, for example—

a. The failure related to a specialized industry practice and the firm had no experience in that industry and made no attempt to acquire training in the industry or to obtain appropriate consultation and assistance.

b. The failure related to a matter covered by a recent professional pronouncement and the firm had failed to identify through professional development programs or appropriate supervision the relevance of that pronouncement to its practice.

c. The failure should have been detected if the firm’s quality control policies and procedures had been followed.

d. The failure should have been detected by the application of quality control policies and procedures commonly found in firms similar in size or nature of practice. That judgment can often be made by the reviewer based on personal experience or knowledge; in some cases, the reviewer will wish to consult with the entity administering the review before reaching such a conclusion.

3. The failure to reach appropriate conclusions on an engagement may be the result of an isolated human error and, therefore, does not necessarily mean that the review report should be modified. However, when the reviewer believes that the probable cause (for example, a failure to provide or follow appropriate policies for supervision of the work of assistants) of a significant failure to reach appropriate accounting and auditing conclusions on one engagement also exists in other engagements, even though no significant deficiencies were noted in those engagements, the reviewer needs to consider carefully the need for a qualified or adverse report.

QRP § 3000.76 Copyright © 1989, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Inc.
The Pattern and Pervasiveness of Engagement Deficiencies

4. The review team must consider the pattern and pervasiveness of engagement deficiencies and their implications for compliance with the firm’s system of quality control as a whole, in addition to their nature and significance in the specific circumstances in which they were observed. As in the preceding section, the review team’s first task is to try to determine why the deficiencies occurred. In some cases, the design of the firm’s system of quality control may be deficient as, for example, when it does not provide for timely partner involvement in the planning process. In other cases, there may be a pattern of noncompliance with a quality control policy or procedure as, for example, when firm policy requires the completion of a financial statement disclosure checklist but such checklists often were used only as a reference and not filled out. That, of course, makes effective partner review more difficult and increases the possibility that the firm might not comply with professional standards in a significant respect. On the other hand, the types of deficiencies noted may be individually different, not individually significant, and not directly traceable to the design of or compliance with a particular quality control policy or procedure. This may lead the reviewer to the conclusion that the deficiencies were isolated cases of human error.

Design Deficiencies

5. There may be circumstances when the reviewer finds few deficiencies in the work performed by the firm and yet may conclude that the design of the firm’s quality control system needs to be improved. For example, a firm that is growing rapidly and adding personnel and clients may not be giving appropriate attention to necessary policies and procedures in areas such as hiring, assigning personnel to engagements, advancement, and client acceptance and continuance. A reviewer might conclude that these conditions could create a situation in which the firm would not have reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in one or more important respects. However, in the absence of deficiencies in the engagements reviewed, the reviewer would ordinarily conclude that the matter should be dealt with in the letter of comments.

* * * *

6. In order to give appropriate consideration to the evidence obtained and to form appropriate conclusions, the review team must understand the elements of quality control and exercise professional judgment. The exercise of professional judgment is essential because the significance of the evidence obtained cannot be evaluated primarily on a quantitative basis.

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of [Name of Firm] (the firm) in effect for the year ended June 30, 19XX. Our review was conducted in conformity with standards for on-site quality reviews established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. We tested compliance with the firm’s quality control policies and procedures to the extent we considered appropriate. These tests included a review of selected accounting and auditing engagements.

In performing our review, we have given consideration to the quality control standards issued by the AICPA. Those standards indicate that a firm’s system of quality control should be appropriately comprehensive and suitably designed in relation to the firm’s size, organizational structure, operating policies, and the nature of its practice. They state that variance in individual performance can affect the degree of compliance with a firm’s quality control system and, therefore, recognize that there may not be adherence to all policies and procedures in every case.

In our opinion, the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of [Name of Firm] in effect for the year ended June 30, 19XX, met the objectives of quality control standards established by the AICPA and was being complied with during the year then ended to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of that practice.

[or Name of Reviewing Firm]
Illustrations of Qualified and Adverse Reports on an On-Site Quality Review

Report Qualified for Design Deficiency

[Separate paragraph after the standard first two paragraphs]

As discussed in our letter of comments under this date, our review disclosed that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures for supervision regarding audit planning were not appropriately designed to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards.

[Opinion paragraph]

In our opinion, except for the deficiency described in the preceding paragraph, the system of quality control.

Report Qualified for Noncompliance

[Separate paragraph after the standard first two paragraphs]

As discussed in our letter of comments under this date, our review disclosed that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures for supervision regarding completion of financial statement reporting and disclosure checklists were not followed in a manner to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards.

In our opinion, except for the deficiency described in the preceding paragraph, the system of quality control.

Adverse Report

[Separate paragraph after the standard first two paragraphs]

As discussed in our letter of comments under this date, our review disclosed several failures to adhere to professional standards in reporting on material departures from generally accepted accounting principles, in applying other generally accepted auditing standards, and in complying with the standards for accounting and review services. In that connection, our review disclosed that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures were not appropriately designed because they do not require the preparation of a written audit program, which is required by generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, our review disclosed failures to complete financial statement reporting and disclosure checklists required by firm policy and failures to review engagement working papers in the manner required by firm policy.

In our opinion, because of the significance of the matters discussed in the preceding paragraph, the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of [Name of Firm] in effect for the year ended June 30, 19XX, did not meet the objectives of quality control standards established by the AICPA, was not being complied with during the year then ended [include when there are compliance as well as design deficiencies] and did not provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of that practice.

Guidelines for and Illustration of a Letter of Comments on an On-Site Quality Review

Guidelines

1. The objectives of the letter of comments on an on-site quality review are set forth in the Standards. Such letters are expected to be issued on most on-site reviews.

2. The letter should be addressed, dated, and signed in the same manner as the report on the on-site quality review, and should include—a. A reference to the report on the review, indicating, where applicable, that the report was qualified or adverse.

   b. A description of the purpose of the on-site quality review.

   c. A statement that the review was performed in accordance with standards established by the AICPA.

   d. A description of the limitations of a system of quality control.

   e. The findings on the review and related recommendations. (This section should be separated between those findings, if any, that resulted in a modified report and those that did not. In addition, the letter should identify, where applicable, any comments that were also made in the letter of comments issued on the firm's previous on-site quality review or peer review.)

   f. A statement that the matters discussed in the letter were considered in determining the opinion on the system of quality control.

3. In addition to matters that resulted in a modified report, which must always be included in the letter, the letter of comments should include, according to the Standards, "matters that the review team believes resulted in conditions being created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements." The letter should include comments on such matters even if they did not result in deficiencies on the engagements reviewed. When engagement deficiencies, particularly instances of nonconformity with professional standards, were attributable to deficiencies in the design of the firm's system of quality control or nonconformance with significant firm policies and procedures that are included in the letter, that fact should be noted in the comment.

4. Although isolated instances of nonconformance with the firm's quality control policies and procedures ordinarily would not be included in a letter of comments, their nature, importance, causes (if determinable), and implications for the firm's quality control system as a whole should be evaluated in conjunction with the review team's other findings before making a final determination.

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of [Name of Firm] (the firm) in effect for the year ended June 30, 19XX, and have issued our report thereon dated August 31, 19XX (which was modified as described therein). This letter should be read in conjunction with that report.

Our review was for the purpose of reporting upon the firm’s system of quality control and its compliance with that system. Our review was performed in accordance with standards for on-site quality reviews established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; however, our review would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system or all instances of noncompliance with it because our review was based on selective tests.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognized in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of quality control. In the performance of most control procedures, departures can result from misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes of judgment, carelessness, or other personal factors. Projection of any evaluation of a system of quality control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedure may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the procedure may deteriorate.

Matters That Resulted in a Modified Report*

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures do not require partner involvement in the planning stage of audit engagements. Generally accepted auditing standards permit the auditor with final responsibility for the engagement to delegate some of this work to assistants, but emphasize the importance of proper planning to the conduct of the engagement. We found one engagement in which, as a result of a lack of involvement, including timely supervision, by the engagement partner in planning the audit, the work performed on receivables and inventory did not appear to support the firm’s opinion on the financial statements. (As a result of this finding, the firm performed the necessary additional procedures to provide a satisfactory basis for its opinion.)

Recommendation—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures should be revised to provide, at a minimum, for timely audit partner review of the preliminary audit plan and the audit program.

Matters That Did Not Result in a Modified Report*

Finding—Our review disclosed several engagements for which financial statement disclosures were missing or incomplete. None of the missing or incomplete disclosures represented significant departures from professional standards, but in each case we noted that the firm had not complied with its policy requiring completion of a financial reporting and disclosure checklist.

Recommendation—The firm should comply with its policy requiring completion of its financial reporting and disclosure checklist. We recommend that the firm emphasize the importance of this policy to all personnel in its training sessions.

* Include these captions only when the report is modified.
Finding—Our review disclosed that the firm’s reference library contains outdated editions of industry audit and accounting guides for industries in which some of the firm’s clients operate. As a result, we found a few instances where financial statement formats departed, although not in material respects, from current practice.

Recommendation—The firm should assign the responsibility for ensuring that the library is comprehensive and up-to-date to one individual. That individual should monitor new publications, determine which should be obtained, and periodically advise professional personnel of additions to the library.

The foregoing matters were considered in determining our opinion set forth in our report dated August 31, 19XX, and this letter does not change that report.

Illustration of Response by a Reviewed Firm to a Letter of Comments on an On-Site Quality Review

The purpose of a letter of response is to describe the remedial, corrective actions that the firm has taken or will take to prevent a recurrence of each matter discussed in the letter of comments. If the reviewed firm disagrees with one or more of the findings or recommendations in the letter of comments, its response should describe the reasons for such disagreement. The letter of response should be carefully prepared because of the important bearing it may have on the decisions reached in connection with acceptance of the report on the review (see the section of these Standards on "Acceptance of Reviews").

[Addressed to the Entity Administering the Review, which may be the AICPA Quality Review Division or a participating State Society of CPAs]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter represents our response to the letter of comments issued in connection with our firm's on-site quality review for the year ended June 30, 19XX. The matters discussed herein were brought to the attention of all professional personnel at a training session held on September 10, 19XX.

Matters That Resulted in a Modified Report

Partner Involvement in Audit Planning—The firm modified its quality control policies and procedures to require partner involvement in the planning stage of all audit engagements. In addition, we identified review engagements that are sufficiently large or complex to warrant partner involvement in the planning stage. The revised policies and procedures require the engagement partner to document his or her timely involvement in the planning process in the planning section of the written work program. The importance of proper planning, including timely partner involvement, to quality work was emphasized in the training session referred to above.

Matters That Did Not Result in a Modified Report

Financial Reporting and Disclosure Checklists—All professional personnel were reminded of the importance of complying with the firm's policy requiring completion of its financial reporting and disclosure checklist at the training session held on September 10, 19XX. In addition, the firm's engagement review questionnaire is being revised to require the engagement partner to document his or her review of the completed checklist. (The engagement review questionnaire is a brief form completed by the engagement partner and manager at the conclusion of an audit to document their completion of their assigned responsibilities.)

Responsibility for Reference Library—The responsibility for keeping the firm's reference library comprehensive and up-to-date and for advising professional personnel of additions to the library has been assigned to an experienced audit manager. Current editions of industry audit and accounting guides have been ordered.

We believe these actions are responsive to the findings of the review.

Sincerely,

[Name of Firm]

Considerations Governing the Type of Report Issued on an Off-Site Quality Review

Significant Departures Requiring Disclosure in the Report

1. The objective of an off-site quality review is to provide the reviewer with a reasonable basis for expressing limited assurance that the financial statements and related accountant’s report on review and compilation engagements submitted for review do not depart in a material respect from the requirements of professional standards. Accordingly, when the review discloses significant departures from professional standards in the engagements reviewed, those departures should be clearly described in the review report as exceptions to the limited assurance expressed in the report. In this context, a significant departure from professional standards involves—

   a. A departure from the measurement or disclosure requirements of generally accepted accounting principles or, where applicable, an other comprehensive basis of accounting, that can have a significant effect on the user’s understanding of the financial information presented and that is not described in the accountant’s report. Examples might include a failure to provide an allowance for doubtful accounts when it is probable that a material amount of accounts receivable is uncollectible; the use of an inappropriate method of revenue recognition; a failure to capitalize financing leases or to make important disclosures about significant leases; a failure to disclose significant related party transactions; or a failure to disclose key assumptions in a financial forecast.

   b. The issuance of a review or compilation report that is misleading in the circumstances. Examples might include a review report on financial statements that omit substantially all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles; a compilation report that does not refer to such omission; or a review report that refers to conformity with generally accepted accounting principles when the financial statements have been prepared on an other comprehensive basis of accounting.

Circumstances Calling for an Adverse Report

2. As indicated in these Standards, an off-site quality review does not provide the reviewer with a basis for expressing any form of assurance on the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures, but it may provide the reviewer with a basis for expressing a conclusion that the firm did not have reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year under review. Deciding whether the findings of an off-site quality review support the expression of such an opinion requires the careful exercise of professional judgment. In reaching a decision, the reviewer would ordinarily consider—

   a. The pattern and pervasiveness of significant departures from professional standards, as described above, that were disclosed by the review. For example, an adverse opinion might not be appropriate if the departures were isolated to the work of one partner or to engagements in one industry or related to the same accounting or reporting issue.

   b. The response of the reviewed firm to the departures noted.

Other Departures That May Require Disclosure

3. The reviewer may note other departures from professional standards that are not deemed to be significant departures but that should be considered by the reviewed firm in evaluating the quality control policies and procedures over its accounting practice. The reviewer should describe these findings in the review report.

Standard Form for an Unmodified Report on an Off-Site Quality Review

[AICPA, State Society, or Firm letterhead, as applicable]

To John B. Able, CPA

We have performed an off-site quality review with respect to the accounting practice of [Name of Firm] for the year ended June 30, 19XX, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. [Name of Firm] has represented to us that it performed no audits of historical or prospective financial statements during the year ended June 30, 19XX.

An off-site quality review consists only of reading selected financial statements and the accountant’s compilation or review report thereon, together with certain information and representations provided by the firm, for the purpose of considering whether the financial statements appear to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles or, if applicable, with an other comprehensive basis of accounting, and whether the accountant’s report appears to conform with the requirements of professional standards. An off-site quality review does not provide the reviewer with a basis for expressing any assurance as to the firm’s quality control policies and procedures for its accounting practice, and we express no opinion or any form of assurance on them.

In connection with our off-site quality review, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the compilation and review reports submitted for review by [Name of Firm] and issued in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year ended June 30, 19XX, did not conform with the requirements of professional standards in all material respects.

Appendix I

Illustrations of Modified Reports on an Off-Site Quality Review

Disclosure of Significant Departures in the Report

[Modified concluding paragraphs after the first two standard paragraphs]

In connection with our off-site quality review, with the exception of the matters described in the following paragraph, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the compilation and review reports submitted for review by [Name of Firm] and issued in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year ended June 30, 19XX, did not conform with the requirements of professional standards in all material respects.

The firm’s review report on the financial statements of one of the engagements submitted for review did not disclose the failure to capitalize a financing lease, as required by generally accepted accounting principles. Also, financial statement disclosure deficiencies related to the components of income tax expense and related party transactions were noted in several of the engagements reviewed.

Adverse Report on an Off-Site Quality Review

[Separate paragraph after the first two standard paragraphs]

Our review disclosed several failures to adhere to professional standards in reporting on material departures from generally accepted accounting principles and in complying with standards for accounting and review services. Specifically, the firm did not disclose in certain compilation and review reports failures to comply with generally accepted accounting principles in accounting for leases, in accounting for revenues from construction contracts, and in disclosures made in the financial statements or the notes thereto concerning various matters important to an understanding of those statements.

[Modified concluding paragraph]

Because of the significance of the matters described in the preceding paragraph, in our opinion, [Name of Firm] did not have reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year ended June 30, 19XX.

Disclosure of Other Departures in the Report

[Separate paragraph after the first two standard paragraphs]

Our review identified disclosure deficiencies in the financial statements on several of the engagements submitted for review. Also, on one engagement, the firm’s review report did not indicate the degree of responsibility being taken for supplementary information accompanying the basic financial statements, as required by professional standards. However, none of these matters were considered to be significant departures from professional standards.

[Standard concluding paragraph]

In connection with our off-site quality review, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the compilation and review reports submitted for review by [Name of Firm] and issued in the conduct of its accounting practice during the year ended June 30, 19XX, did not conform with the requirements of professional standards in all material respects.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter represents (our) (my) response to the report on the off-site quality review of (our firm’s) (my) accounting practice for the year ended June 30, 19XX. That report commented on the failure to capitalize a financing lease in financial statements (we) (I) had reviewed and noted that there were financial statement disclosure deficiencies in several of the engagements reviewed.

(The firm has) (I have) recalled all copies of the review report on the financial statements that did not reflect the capitalization of a financing lease in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and corrected financial statements are being prepared.

To prevent the recurrence of this situation, as well as to prevent the other disclosure deficiencies referred to in the report on the off-site quality review, (we) (I) have obtained copies of the AICPA’s reporting and disclosure checklists. These checklists will be completed on all review engagements and on selected compilation engagements.

In addition, (our) (my) staff have been advised of the importance of consultation within the firm when they encounter unfamiliar situations and have been encouraged to use the AICPA Technical Information Hotline in those circumstances.

(We) (I) believe these actions are responsive to the findings of the review.

Quality Review Standards Interpretations

Interpretations of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews are developed in open meetings by the Quality Review Executive Committee for reviews conducted under the quality review program. Interpretations of standards need not be exposed for comment and are not the subject of public hearings. These interpretations are applicable to firms enrolled in the quality review program, individuals and firms who perform and report on such reviews, state CPA societies that participate in the administration of the program, associations of CPA firms that assist their members in arranging and carrying out quality reviews, and the AICPA Quality Review Division itself.

Interpretation No. 1—Reviews of Sole Practitioners, With No Professional Staff Who Audit Historical or Prospective Financial Statements

.01 Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews requires firms that perform audits of historical or prospective financial statements to have on-site quality reviews (AICPA Quality Review Manual, QRP section 3000.04). The review should provide the reviewer with a reasonable basis for expressing an opinion on whether during the year under review the reviewed firm’s system of quality control for its accounting and auditing practice met the objectives of quality control standards established by the AICPA and was being complied with in order to provide the reviewed firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards.

.02 To achieve those objectives, the reviewer is required to test administrative and personnel files; review selected engagements, including the relevant working paper files and reports; interview firm personnel; access other evidential matter, as appropriate; and communicate his or her conclusions to senior members of the reviewed firm at an exit conference. It was contemplated that these procedures would be performed in the most practicable, cost-effective manner during a visit to the reviewed firm and, thus, the term "on-site quality reviews" was used in the Standards. However, many sole practitioners believe that their reviews could be carried out at less cost if they were permitted to bring the required files, reports, and other evidential matter to the reviewer.

.03 A review conducted at the reviewer’s office or another agreed-upon location can achieve the objectives of an on-site quality review and can be described as such in the reviewer’s report provided that (1) the reviewed firm is a sole practitioner with no professional staff; 1 (2) the sole practitioner does not employ or engage other individuals to participate in the conduct of audit(s); (3) the sole practitioner has a personal meeting with the reviewer to discuss the practitioner’s responses to the questions in the “Quality Control Policies and Procedures Questionnaire for Sole Practitioners With No Professional Staff” (the Questionnaire) (see QRP section 4200) and to discuss the reviewer’s conclusions on the review; and (4) in addition to materials outlined in the “Instructions to Firms Having an On-Site Quality Review” (see QRP section 4100.07), the sole practitioner sends the following materials to the reviewer prior to the review:

(a) All documentation related to the resolution on independence questions (a) identified during the year under review with respect to any audit or accounting client or (b) related to any of the audit or accounting clients selected for review, no matter when the question was identified if the matter still exists during the review period.

1 At the end of 1989, approximately 7,000 such practitioners were enrolled in the Quality Review Program. The Quality Review Executive Committee believes that the cost of a visit by a reviewer to larger firms, including firms with only two professional personnel, is justified by its benefits.
Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews

(b) The most recent independence confirmations received from other firms of CPAs engaged to perform segments of engagements on which the sole practitioner acted as principal auditor or accountant.

c) Documentation, if any, of consultations with outside parties during the year under review in connection with audit or accounting services provided to any client.

d) A list of relevant technical publications used as research materials, as referred to in question B.4 of the Questionnaire (see QRP section 4200.02.B.4).

e) A list of audit and accounting materials, if any, identified in response to the questions in the “Supervision” section of the Questionnaire (see QRP section 4200.02.C).

(f) CPE records sufficient to demonstrate compliance with state and AICPA continuing professional education requirements.

(g) The relevant working paper files and reports on the engagements selected for review.

(h) Any other evidential matter requested by the reviewer.

§ .04 In the event that deficiencies are noted during the review of selected engagements, the scope of the review may have to be expanded before the review can be completed.

§ .05 A sole practitioner and the reviewer should mutually agree on the appropriateness of this approach to the quality review.

Interpretation No. 2—Selection in On-Site Quality Reviews of Audits Conducted Pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974

§ .06 Question: During 1990, regulators and legislators focused attention on the quality of audits conducted pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). If the firm performs such audits, should one of those engagements be selected for review in an on-site quality review?

§ .07 Interpretation: The Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews require that the engagements selected for review in an on-site quality review provide a reasonable cross section of the reviewed firm’s accounting and auditing practice and that greater weight be given to audit engagements that meet the following criteria:

a. Engagements in which there is a significant public interest, such as publicly held clients, financial and lending institutions, and brokers and dealers in securities.

b. Engagements in other specialized industries.

c. Engagements that are large, complex or high risk or that are the reviewed firm’s initial audits of clients.

In addition, the Standards require that the sample of engagements include at least one audit conducted pursuant to Government Auditing Standards issued by the U.S. General Accounting Office (AICPA Quality Review Program Manual, QRP section 3000.41-42).

§ .08 In selecting engagements for review, the reviewer should consider whether “high-risk” engagements and engagements with a “significant public interest” have been identified by the firm as a result of the application of its quality control policies and procedures on, for example, acceptance and continuance of clients, supervision, or consultation. The reviewer should also consider whether certain industries represented in the reviewed firm’s accounting and auditing practice should be given greater weight in the engagement selection process because engagements in those industries pose a higher risk because of economic or business conditions or because there is a significant public interest in those engagements as evidenced by, for example, regulatory or legislative.
requirements or developments. The reviewer should also consider requirements that may have been published by regulatory agencies with respect to the peer or quality review process.

.09 Regulatory and legislative developments during 1990 have made it clear that there is a significant public interest in audits conducted pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Accordingly greater weight should be given in the engagement selection process on on-site reviews to those audits if the firm performs such engagements.

Interpretation No. 3—Team Captain Qualifications: Association with a Firm That Had an Unqualified Review Within the Previous Three Years

.10 Question: If a reviewer’s firm has not had a review within the previous three years because the firm’s review was postponed by the administering entity, is the reviewer permitted to serve as a team captain on a quality review?

.11 Interpretation: The Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews requires that a team captain be associated with a firm that has received an unqualified report on its system of quality control within the previous three years (AICPA Quality Review Manual, QRP section 3000.18). The Standards also state that the requirement becomes effective on January 1, 1992. However, if the firm has had a review prior to that date, the report on the review must be unqualified.

.12 In rare circumstances, reviews may be postponed as the result of a request by the AICPA or another administering entity to balance its administrative workload. In such circumstances, the requirement that a team captain’s firm must have a review within the previous three years may be waived for a period of time equal to the length of the postponement provided that (1) all of the other requirements for service as a team captain are met and (2) the firm’s most recent review resulted in an unqualified report.

Interpretation No. 4—Requirements for Off-Site Reviews Conducted by Members of Associations of CPA Firms

.13 Question: May a member of an association of CPA firms perform an off-site review of a firm that is a member of the same association?

.14 Interpretation: The Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews permits associations of CPA firms to assist its members by organizing review teams to carry out on-site reviews for its members but prohibits associations from arranging or carrying out off-site quality reviews (AICPA Quality Review Program Manual, QRP sections 3000.15 and 3000.50).

.15 Reviewers associated with firms that are members of an association of CPA firms may perform off-site reviews for other members of the association provided that the association is not involved in arranging or carrying out these reviews and provided the firms are independent of each other.

.16 Assisting association members in carrying out or arranging a review includes, but is not limited to, the following activities:

- Verifying the qualifications of off-site reviewers.
- Providing program materials for the performance of off-site reviews.
- Providing consultations on technical accounting, ethics and quality review program matters.
- Resolving disagreements and disputes.
- Monitoring the completion of reviews.
- Receiving review working papers.
Interpretation No. 5—Off-Site Reviewer Qualifications: Association with a Firm That Has Had a Review

.17 Question: Must an off-site reviewer who is in the practice of public accounting be associated with a firm that has had a previous review and must the report on that review be unqualified?

.18 Paragraphs 17 and 25 of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews (Standards), (AICPA Quality Review Program Manual, QRP sections 3000.17 and 3000.21) indicate that an off-site reviewer must:

- Be a member of the AICPA licensed to practice as a certified public accountant.
- Possess current knowledge of applicable professional standards.
- Have at least five years’ experience in the accounting or auditing function of an enrolled firm within the last 10 years, culminating in a position as either a proprietor, partner, shareholder, or manager or person with equivalent supervisory responsibilities.

.19 The Standards also state (AICPA Quality Review Program Manual, QRP sections 3000.18) that an on-site quality review team captain must be associated with a firm that has received an unqualified report on its system of quality control within the previous three years. This provision becomes effective January 1, 1992, except if the team captain’s firm has had a review before that date, the report on the review must also be unqualified. However, the Standards are silent regarding the application of this requirement to firms or reviewers in the practice of public accounting who perform off-site quality reviews.

.20 Interpretation: Although the Standards are silent regarding the application of the requirement for an unqualified report to an off-site review, there is no logical basis for concluding that the requirement should not be equally applicable to off-site reviews. (Moreover, the Quality Review Executive Committee is authorized to establish procedures for the administration of the program, and this is more a matter of appropriate administrative policy than the strict interpretation of Standards.) Accordingly, effective January 1, 1992, an off-site reviewer who is in the practice of public accounting must be associated with a firm that has had a review. If the firm has an on-site review, the report must be unqualified. If the firm has an off-site review, the report must not be adverse or modified for significant departures from professional standards. (See Appendix H and I of the Standards for the types of reports.) If the firm has a review before January 1, 1992, the report on that review must meet the same requirements.

.21 If a reviewer is associated with more than one firm, then all of the firms subject to a peer or quality review must not have received an adverse report or a report modified for significant departures from professional standards. Also, if any of the firms with which the reviewer is associated have had an on-site peer or quality review, those firms must have received an unqualified report.

Interpretation No. 6—Off-Site Reviewer Qualifications: Performance of Firm-on-Firm Off-Site Reviews

.22 Question: Can firms not enrolled in a practice-monitoring program perform firm-on-firm off-site reviews?

.23 Interpretation: No. In order to perform firm-on-firm off-site reviews, an individual must be associated with a firm enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program.

GUIDANCE FOR WRITING A LETTER OF COMMENTS

This guide has been developed by the AICPA Division for CPA Firms’ Private Companies Practice Section Peer Review Committee, the SEC Practice Section Peer Review Committee and the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee to provide practice monitoring reviewers with additional guidance on preparing letters of comments. The examples included in this section are for illustrative purposes only. Actual letters of comments should be prepared based on the specific facts and circumstances.

QRP Section 3600
Guidance for Writing a Letter of Comments

Introduction

.01 The criteria for including an item in the Letter of Comments is whether the item resulted in a condition being created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements. Because this is a very low threshold, most reviews result in the issuance of a Letter of Comments.

Objectives

.02 The major objectives of the letter are to—

a. Report matters (including the matters, if any, that resulted in a qualified report) that the review team believes resulted in conditions being created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements, and to set forth recommendations regarding those matters.

b. Provide information about the effectiveness of the firm’s quality control system.

c. Provide the practice-monitoring review committees and public oversight board, if applicable, with some of the information necessary to evaluate the appropriateness of the reviewed firm’s responses to significant deficiencies noted in the review and whether the actions taken or planned by the firm appear appropriate in the circumstances.

General Guidelines

.03 The letter should be addressed, dated, and signed in the same manner as the report. It should include—a. A reference to the report indicating if it was qualified.

b. A description of the purpose of the practice monitoring review.

c. A statement that the review was performed in accordance with the standards promulgated by the section.

d. A description of any limitations on the scope of the review.

e. A description of the limitations of a system of quality control.

f. The reviewer’s findings and recommendations.

g. A statement that the matters discussed in the letter were considered in determining the opinion on the system of quality control.

Matters to Be Included in the Letter of Comments

.04 The letter of comments should include comments, as described below, regarding the design of the reviewed firm’s system of quality control, or its compliance or documentation of its compliance with that system or with the membership requirements.¹ In addition, if a qualified practice monitoring review report is issued, the letter should include a section on the matters that resulted in the qualification. This section would ordinarily include an elaboration of the findings discussed in the qualifying paragraph of the report.

.05 In order to give appropriate consideration to the evidence obtained and to reach conclusions regarding the matters to be included in the letter of comments, the review team must understand the elements of quality control and exercise professional judgment. The exercise of professional judgment is essential because the significance of the evidence obtained during the review must be evaluated qualitatively and not primarily on a quantitative basis. Reviewers should take the necessary time to investigate findings and understand the underlying cause of the finding from the perspective of the quality control system.

.06 The review findings should be based on professional standards and not on personal preferences. Reviewers are occasionally surprised to find that some "generally accepted professional standards" are, in reality, only a preferred treatment by their firm.

.07 If any of the matters to be included in the letter were included in the letter issued in connection with the firm's previous peer review or quality review, that fact ordinarily should be noted. The letter may also include comments concerning actions taken by the reviewed firm.

Reporting Considerations

Comments Regarding the Design of the Firm's Quality Control System

.08 A design deficiency exists when the reviewed firm's quality control policies and procedures, even if fully complied with, are not likely to accomplish an applicable quality control objective.

.09 Deficiencies in the design of the reviewed firm's quality control system should be included in the letter of comments if the design of the system resulted in one or more quality control objectives not being accomplished, and, as a result, a condition was created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements, even though there was reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards.

.10 When engagement deficiencies, particularly instances of nonconformity with professional standards, were attributable to such design deficiencies, the presence of the engagement deficiencies ordinarily should be noted in the comment along with the description of the design deficiency.

Noncompliance with the Firm's Quality Control System

.11 The best system of quality control can only be effective when the firm complies with that system. Although firms have good intentions for following their systems of quality control, other factors, such as lack of communication within the firm, lack of understanding of the system, and complacency can cause compliance problems.

.12 Instances of noncompliance with significant firm policies or procedures, either because of a lack of performance or a lack of adequate documentation of performance, should be included in the letter whenever the degree of such noncompliance created a condition in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements, even though the degree of noncompliance was not such as to warrant a qualified report.

.13 Documentation deficiencies are deficiencies in which the reviewer has become convinced, through discussions with the members of the engagement team or other appropriate means, that the engagement team is knowledgeable about the matter under discussion and that the work in question was performed, but was not documented in the working papers.

2 For purposes of this section, professional standards refers to (a) currently effective pronouncements on professional standards issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), (b) currently effective statements of financial accounting standards issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), (c) other materials issued by the AICPA or its committees and by the FASB, (d) government auditing standards, and (e) governmental accounting and financial reporting standards issued by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board.

.14 In assessing whether the degree of noncompliance created a condition in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements, the review team should consider the nature, causes, pattern, and pervasiveness of the instances of non-compliance noted, as well as the implications for the firm’s quality control system as a whole, not merely the importance in the specific circumstances in which the instances were observed. In order to do this, the review team should evaluate the instances of noncompliance, both individually and collectively, recognizing that adherence to certain policies or procedures is more critical to assuring conformity with professional standards than adherence to others. Accordingly, a higher degree of compliance should be expected for the more critical policies and procedures. However, noncompliance with quality control policies and procedures that are less critical to assuring conformity with professional standards may also be reportable in a letter of comments. For example, a higher degree of noncompliance with a hiring policy relative to the obtaining of background information might be tolerated than with a policy which requires an independent partner to review the report and accompanying financial statements prior to issuance of the report.

.15 When engagement deficiencies—particularly instances of nonconformity with professional standards—were attributable to instances of noncompliance with significant firm policies or procedures that are described in the letter, that information ordinarily should be included in the description of the finding.

.16 When the nature and degree of noncompliance at one or more offices of a multi-office firm were of such significance that a condition was created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the office would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements, the review team should consider whether the matter should be included in the letter of comments, even though the degree of compliance for the remainder of the firm did not create such a condition with respect to the firm as a whole. In these instances, the identity of the office should not be revealed in the letter of comments.

Noncompliance with Membership Requirements

.17 The review team should evaluate whether the firm complied in all material respects with each of the membership requirements. When the firm has not achieved a very high degree of compliance with a membership requirement—especially those directly related to the quality of performance on accounting and auditing engagements—that fact ordinarily should be included in the letter.3

Matters That Should Not Be Included in the Letter of Comments

.18 In the course of its work, a review team may note matters that do not merit reporting in the letter of comments because such matters do not create a condition in which there is more than a remote possibility that the firm will not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements. However, such matters may be communicated to the firm orally.4 Examples of such matters are described in the following paragraphs.

Apparent Deficiencies in Design or Compliance Wholly or Partially Offset by Other Compensating Policies and Procedures

.19 If a firm’s quality control system does not include a procedure that the review team considers significant (such as the use of a financial statement disclosure or report review checklist) but it does include other compensating procedures (such as a second management-level preissuance review that is functioning effectively),

3 Ibid., footnote 2.

4 Such matters may be communicated in a written letter of suggestions. This letter should be prepared on the letterhead of the team captain’s firm since it is a private communication between the team captain and the reviewed firm only. A copy of this letter should not be included in the working papers.
the matter should not be included in the letter. The design deficiency is offset by other compensating procedures and no further action is required.

Recommendations Regarding the Firm’s Quality Control Document

.20 Reviewers may notice that a firm’s quality control document does not provide for all circumstances that may arise. For example, a firm may not have established consultation policies relative to specialized industries because, at the present time, it has no clients in any specialized industries. Such matters may be discussed with the reviewed firm; however, they should not be included in the letter of comments.

.21 Reviewers may find that a firm does not comply with certain policies and procedures that, in practice, are excessive or redundant and not necessary to assure conformity with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements. Such findings should be discussed with the firm, but they should not be included in the letter of comments.

Isolated Occurrences

.22 Ordinarily, an isolated instance of noncompliance should not be included in the letter. However, the review team should evaluate the nature, significance, and cause of the isolated occurrence and its implications for the firm’s quality control system, as a whole. The review team also should consider the results of its evaluation in conjunction with its other instances of noncompliance findings to determine if the item does, in fact, represent an isolated occurrence. For example, a single disclosure deficiency, an instance of noncompliance with a quality control procedure, and a single documentation deficiency may all appear to be isolated but, in fact, may have resulted from the same underlying cause. Such instances of noncompliance should be included in the letter of comments if they created a condition in which there was more than a remote possibility that the firm would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements.

Administrative Matters

.23 Matters relating to poor firm administration or engagement inefficiencies ordinarily do not create a condition in which there is more than a remote possibility that the firm will not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements. Therefore, such matters should not be reported in a letter of comments.

Points to Consider When Writing the Letter of Comments

.24 The objectives of the letter of comments are more likely to be met when the letter is written in a clear, concise manner. The following points should be considered when writing a letter:

a. If a qualified report is issued, the letter should be divided into two sections: (a) Matters that resulted in a modified (adverse) report, and (b) Matters that did not result in a modified (adverse) report. However, if the report is not qualified, do not include the phrase “matters that did not result in a modified (adverse) report.”

b. Use the format recommended in this section of “findings” and “recommendations for improvement.” Separate, clearly captioned paragraphs should be used to report the findings and related recommendations.

c. Include headings for each quality control element for which there is a comment.

d. Items included in the letter should have a “systems” orientation. That is to say, identify the underlying weakness in the quality control system which caused a particular engagement deficiency to occur. It should not just describe the engagement deficiency.
e. Identify the likely causes of the deficiencies (for example, describe the deficiencies as either design deficiencies or compliance deficiencies [performance or documentation]).

f. Group findings caused by the same deficiency into a single comment. For example, if the review team notes various disclosure deficiencies that are caused by the failure to use a disclosure checklist or to perform other appropriate procedures, a single comment on the cause of all the disclosure deficiencies is preferable to numerous comments on individual deficiencies. The letter should not list each disclosure deficiency noted by the review team.

g. Do not group unrelated findings into one comment. For example, disclosure deficiencies should be separated from comments regarding insufficient documentation unless they relate to the same quality control deficiency.

h. Describe the findings in a complete manner, but avoid excessive or unnecessary detail in the letter of comments.

i. Use general terms to indicate frequency of occurrence. Terms such as "in some instances" or "frequently" are preferable to the specific number of instances.

j. Do not identify specific engagements, individuals, or offices by name or otherwise. For example, do not refer to "the firm’s SEC engagement".

k. Do not include personal preferences in the letter when they relate to procedures (such as engagement letters or time budgets) that are not required by the firm’s quality control system and are not essential to the reviewed firm’s conformity with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements. Such matters may be communicated to the firm orally.

l. Avoid references to specific technical standards, where possible. In most instances, a general reference to "professional standards" will suffice. If a reference to a specific technical standard is necessary, always include a complete description of the topic to which it relates.

m. When a finding describes a performance deficiency where the firm may have departed from professional standards, include a sentence advising the reader whether additional actions are necessary on the engagement reviewed ("close the loop"). If corrective actions are necessary, a description of the actions taken or planned by the reviewed firm should be included. Ordinarily, the reviewer need not "close the loop" for documentation deficiencies.

n. Use general terms when referring to purchased practice aids, instead of the names of specific publishers.

o. If any of the matters to be included in the letter of comments were included in the letter issued in connection with the firm’s previous peer or quality review, this fact ordinarily should be noted in describing the matter. In this regard, comments should not be written in a general manner such that they may be "automatically repeated" in the documents issued in connection with the firm’s next review.

p. Be careful not to overemphasize the use of standardized forms and checklists as a recommendation for improving the firm’s quality control system. Although forms and checklists may be helpful in many circumstances, their use will not cure all deficiencies. Think carefully about the cause of the deficiency and whether a more effective recommendation would provide a cure.

q. Have someone in your firm unfamiliar with the findings on the review read the letter of comments before it is finalized. Ask them whether they understand the findings and recommendations without asking any questions.

General Guidelines for Describing the Review Team’s Findings

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual
.25 In describing a deficiency in the design of the reviewed firm's system or instances of noncompliance, the findings ordinarily can be described in the following manner:

a. Design deficiency—(1) state what the system does or does not require; (2) if appropriate, state whether engagement deficiencies—particularly those that caused the reviewers to conclude that the reviewed firm (a) should consider taking action pursuant to the AICPA Professional Standards, vol. 1, AU sections 390 and 561 or (b) lacked a reasonable basis under the standards for accounting and review services for the reports issued—were attributable to the design deficiency; and (3) describe the effect, if any, that the deficiency had on the financial statements issued.

b. Instances of noncompliance (performance or documentation)—(1) state what the system requires; (2) state the frequency of noncompliance in general terms; (3) if appropriate, state whether engagement deficiencies—particularly those that caused the reviewers to conclude that the reviewed firm (a) should consider taking action pursuant to the AICPA Professional Standards, vol. 1, AU sections 390 and 561, or (b) lacked a reasonable basis under the standards for accounting and review services for the reports issued—were attributable to the instances of noncompliance; and (4) describe the effect, if any, that the instances of noncompliance had on the financial statements issued.

.26 Under the above guidelines:

a. A good way to start a letter of comment finding would be with the following words: "The firm's quality control policies and procedures. . . ." Then go on to state what the system does or does not require. This informs the reader of the status of the quality control system.

b. The second sentence of the finding explains the result, such as "As a result. . . ." or "However, the firm did not always comply with these policies and as a result. . . ."

c. The last sentence should "close the loop" if the finding relates to an engagement performance deficiency. Some examples of "closing the loop" are:

- None of the missing or incomplete disclosures represented significant departures from professional standards.
- None of the missing disclosures were of such significance to make the financial statements misleading.
- We noted financial statements that did not include all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles, and, in one instance, financial statements that were materially misstated. The report on the latter financial statements has been recalled, and the financial statements are being revised.
- We were satisfied that the firm performed the necessary procedures even though they were not documented.
- We found one engagement in which, as a result of a lack of involvement by the engagement partner in planning the audit, the work performed on receivables and inventory did not appear to support the firm's opinion on the financial statements. As a result of this finding, the firm performed the necessary additional procedures to provide a satisfactory basis for its opinion.

.27 Appendix A illustrates how the foregoing matters may be covered in a letter of comments under the peer review programs.

.28 Appendix B illustrates how the foregoing matters may be covered in a letter of comments under the quality review program.

.29 Appendix C contains a checklist for reviewing drafts of letters of comments.
Illustrative Examples That Might Be Included in the Letter of Comments

.31 The rest of this section contains illustrative examples of items that might be included in letters of comments.

.32 A reviewer must evaluate whether the reviewed firm’s system meets the objectives of the quality control standards applicable to its practice and whether the system was being complied with to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards. By considering the nature, cause, pattern and pervasiveness of a particular deficiency or group of deficiencies, a reviewer will decide whether a peer review report should be qualified, or a matter should be included in a letter of comments, communicated orally, or not communicated at all based on:

a. The extent to which the designed system meets these objectives, and

b. The instances of noncompliance with the policies and procedures established by the firm.

As a result, some of the examples may warrant the issuance of a qualified report in certain circumstances, while an unqualified report will be appropriate in other situations with the matter being included in the letter of comments or communicated orally.

Independence

Quality Control Objective

.33 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that persons at all organizational levels maintain independence to the extent required by the rules of conduct of the AICPA. Rule 101 of the rules of conduct contains examples of instances wherein a firm’s independence will be considered to be impaired.5

Illustrative Examples of Design Deficiencies

.34 Finding—The firm’s independence policies and procedures have been appropriately communicated to the firm’s professional personnel through its quality control document and through training programs. However, the firm’s policies and procedures do not require that professional personnel be informed of all new attest engagements on a timely basis. Nonetheless, we were able to determine that the firm’s independence had not been impaired on any attest engagements.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should, on a periodic basis, communicate in writing to all personnel new attest engagements accepted by the firm. This communication should also request that any personnel with a possible independence problem with respect to the new engagements contact the administrative partner immediately.

.35 Finding—The firm’s independence policies and procedures do not require confirmation of the independence of another firm engaged to perform segments of an engagement. As a result, on the firm’s only engagement where it was the principal auditor, there was no documentation indicating that the firm engaged to perform a segment of the engagement was independent of the client. Through discussions with firm personnel, it was determined that the firm had received an oral representation from the correspondent firm that it was independent.

Guidance for Writing a Letter of Comments

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm’s policies and procedures be revised to require that a written independence representation be obtained from other firms engaged to perform segments of an engagement when the firm is acting as the principal auditor.

36 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require appropriate evaluation and resolution of all questions regarding independence. However, the firm does not require that such resolutions be documented. As a result, the firm did not document the resolution of several independence matters that were identified by its staff in their annual independence statements. However, we were able to satisfy ourselves that appropriate resolutions had been reached.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures be revised to require documentation of the resolution of independence questions.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

37 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require that written independence representations be obtained annually from all partners and professional staff. During our review, we noted that several of the firm’s professional staff had failed to sign such a representation. However, we did not note any instances where the firm was not independent with respect to the financial statements on which it reported.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm reemphasize its policy of obtaining annual independence representations from all professional personnel. The firm should also ensure that all professionals understand the firm’s independence policies and that they disclose instances where they are not independent of the firm’s clientele.

38 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require an evaluation and resolution of all questions regarding independence, including a review of its accounts receivable for unpaid fees on continuing clients. Our review disclosed an instance where the firm issued a report on a client’s financial statements before the prior year’s fee had been paid. As a result, the independence of the firm was considered impaired. The firm has recalled its report and disclaimed an opinion with respect to the financial statements.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize its policy of evaluating and resolving all independence issues. We also recommend that the firm’s partners comply with the firm’s policy of determining whether there are any prior year unpaid fees prior to issuance of any report on financial statements and, if so, to ensure that those fees are paid prior to the issuance of the report for the current year.

Assigning Personnel to Engagements

Quality Control Objective

39 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures for assigning personnel to engagements should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that work will be performed by persons having the degree of technical training and proficiency required in the circumstances. In making assignments, the nature and extent of supervision to be provided should be taken into account. Generally, the more able and experienced the personnel assigned to a particular engagement, the less is the need for direct supervision.

Illustrative Examples of Design Deficiencies

40 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require that personnel assigned to an engagement have sufficient experience to perform the work assigned to them. However, the firm has not established adequate procedures to identify staffing requirements for specific engagements. As a result, on several engagements reviewed, certain complex procedures performed by its personnel were not performed properly. The firm has subsequently performed alternative auditing procedures on the respective engagements.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its policies and procedures to establish specific procedures for planning personnel needs for the overall firm and identifying staffing requirements for specific engagements. This may be accomplished by assigning one individual the responsibility for assigning personnel to engagements and for coordinating the resolution of scheduling problems.

.41 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures do not require that the person responsible for assigning personnel to engagements consider special industry knowledge when assigning all levels of personnel to engagements. We noted that the firm relies heavily on the engagement partner’s background and knowledge and does not give adequate consideration to the complexity or other requirements of the engagement when assigning other engagement personnel. On several engagements, we noted instances in which certain personnel did not have sufficient experience or training in the areas assigned to them. As a result, the firm did not properly report on several financial statements in a specialized industry. The firm has appropriately recalled and reissued all of the reports.

Recommendation for Improvement—The engagement partner should ascertain that personnel assigned to engagements have sufficient experience to perform the work assigned to them. When it is necessary to assign a person to perform a key role on an engagement who does not have sufficient experience to handle all the work assigned, the partner should document how the engagement team will compensate for this lack of experience.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

.42 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require that engagement partners evaluate planning schedules to ensure that the personnel assigned to an engagement have sufficient experience to perform the work assigned to them. However, on some engagements reviewed, the personnel below the partner level did not appear to have adequate experience to handle their work. As a result, certain procedures were not performed properly. The firm has considered the requirements of professional standards, and has determined that enough procedures had been performed in other areas to support the report issued on the financial statements.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize its policies and procedures that require the partner on each engagement to ascertain that the personnel assigned to the engagement have sufficient experience to perform the work assigned to them. When it is necessary to assign a person to a key role on an engagement who does not have sufficient experience to handle all the work assigned to him or her, the engagement partner should document how the engagement team will compensate for this change from firm policy.

Consultation

Quality Control Objectives

.43 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures for consultation should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that personnel will seek assistance to the extent required from persons having appropriate levels of knowledge, competence, judgment, and authority. The nature of the arrangements for consultation will depend on a number of factors, including the size of the firm and the levels of knowledge, competence, and judgment possessed by the persons performing the work.7

Illustrative Examples of Design Deficiencies

.44 Finding—Our review disclosed that the firm’s consultation policies and procedures do not identify situations where, because of the nature or complexity of the subject matter, consultation ordinarily is needed. As a result, we noted a few instances where consultation was lacking when it would have been appropriate. These instances did not, however, result in the issuance of an inappropriate report.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control policies and procedures to specify the situations where, because of their nature or complexity, consultation is required. Such situations might include the following: (1) the application of newly issued technical pronouncements, (2) the application of a regulatory agency’s filing requirements, (3) industries with special accounting, auditing, or reporting considerations, (4) emerging practice problems, and (5) cases where there is a choice among alternative generally accepted accounting principles.

.45 Finding—Our review disclosed that the firm’s consultation policies and procedures do not provide procedures for resolving differences of opinion among engagement personnel and specialists. We noted no instances in which differences of opinion on practice problems had not been resolved to the satisfaction of all the parties involved, even though the individuals indicated that they did not have a clear understanding of the steps to be followed in such circumstances.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm revise its quality control policies and procedures to describe the procedures for resolving differences of opinion among engagement personnel and specialists. These procedures should then be communicated to all professional personnel.

.46 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures do not provide a means for ensuring that its library contains all relevant technical manuals. Our review disclosed that the firm’s reference library contains outdated technical manuals and lacks industry audit and accounting guides in many of the industries in which the firm’s clients operate. As a result, we noted a few instances where financial statement formats and disclosures deviated from these guides. However, none of these instances caused the statements to be misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures be revised to ensure that the firm’s library contains all relevant materials. The firm may wish to consider assigning one person the responsibility of ensuring that the library is comprehensive and up-to-date and that it includes all the industry auditing and accounting guides for the industries in which the firm’s clients operate.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

.47 Finding—The firm’s quality control document identifies areas and specialized situations where consultation and the documentation thereof is required. Our review disclosed several instances where consultation should have taken place, but there was no documentation of such consultation in the working papers. However, through discussions with engagement partners, we were able to satisfy ourselves that the staff had consulted as required.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm reemphasize the importance of documenting consultations to its professional staff. The firm should consider requiring the documentation to be reviewed and approved by the person consulted.

.48 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures identify situations where, because of the nature or complexity of the subject matter, consultation ordinarily is needed. During our review, we noted a few instances where the firm appropriately consulted with outside sources; however, they failed to reconcile a difference between the advice of the outside source and the requirements of professional standards. As a result, the firm did not issue certain reports that are required in a regulated industry. Subsequent to the peer review, the firm issued those reports.
Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that, in addition to consulting outside sources when necessary, the firm also consult the appropriate technical literature. If differences do arise between these sources, then the firm should take steps to reconcile the differences.

.49 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures state that when experience is not available within the firm to resolve a practice question or problem, the engagement partner should consult with the AICPA or the state CPA society. Our review disclosed an instance where the firm did not have the experience required and did not consult with the AICPA or the state CPA society as required. In this instance, a partner designated as a specialist in another industry was consulted, but the advice rendered resulted in the misapplication of a generally accepted accounting principle. Since the amount involved did not make the financial statements misleading, the firm did not have to recall its report; the client has agreed, however, to adjust the financial statements in the next period in which they are prepared.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm reemphasize the importance of consulting the appropriate authorities. Designated specialists should also be reminded that they should not exceed their authority in consultative situations by providing advice in areas outside their expertise.

.50 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require consultation in situations that involve complex subject matter or newly issued technical pronouncements. During our review, we noted several instances where the firm did not consult, but should have. The firm issued several reports on financial statements prepared on a basis of accounting prescribed by a regulatory agency for filing with that agency. However, the auditors’ reports issued did not include all required wording to comply with professional standards. The reporting deficiencies were not of such significance to make the auditor’s reports misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize its policies regarding consultation as outlined in its quality control document. The firm should encourage its staff to consult with or use authoritative sources on complex or unusual matters.

Supervision

Quality Control Objective

.51 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures for the conduct and supervision of work at all organizational levels should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that the work performed meets the firm’s standards of quality. The extent of supervision and review appropriate in a given instance depends on many factors, including the complexity of the subject matter, the qualifications of the persons performing the work, and the extent of consultation available and used. The responsibility of a firm for establishing procedures for supervision is distinct from the responsibility of individuals to adequately plan and supervise the work on a particular engagement.8

Illustrative Examples of Design Deficiencies

.52 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require the engagement partner to review the firm’s reports and the accompanying financial statements before they are issued. Although not required by professional standards, the firm does not use disclosure checklists as an aid in the review of financial statements. On several engagements reviewed, the financial statements did not include all the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles, particularly in the areas of related party transactions and leases. None of the missing disclosures were of such significance to make the financial statements misleading.

8 Ibid., footnote 5.
Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control policies and procedures for ensuring that clients' financial statements include all relevant disclosures, such as by obtaining or developing comprehensive reporting and disclosure checklists. The firm should then amend its quality control policies and procedures to require that these checklists be completed by a member of the engagement team, reviewed by the engagement partner, and retained with the engagement working papers.

Finding—The firm's quality control policies and procedures do not specify the working papers that should be reviewed by engagement partners or require any documentation of the partner's reviews. While reviewing engagements, we were unable to determine from the working papers the extent of the engagement partner's review. This did not result in the issuance of an inappropriate report.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control policies and procedures to specify the extent and nature of the engagement partner's review of work papers, and require documentation of the extent of the review. Such documentation can be in the form of initialing the working papers, file covers, or a partner review checklist.

Finding—The firm's quality control policies and procedures require that all accounting and auditing engagements be properly planned. However, the firm does not provide specific procedures for documenting its engagement planning, including the consideration of audit risks and preliminary judgments about materiality limits. During the review of engagements, we noted several instances where we could not determine if the firm had considered preliminary judgments about materiality or its assessment of control risk. Through discussion with firm personnel, we satisfied ourselves that appropriate planning procedures had been performed.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its policies and procedures to designate those matters that should be considered and documented during the planning process. These may include such areas as (1) current economic conditions affecting the client or the client's industry and the potential effect on the conduct of the engagement, (2) results of preliminary analytical procedures, (3) changes in the client's organization, (4) need for specialized knowledge, (5) proposed work programs, and (6) preliminary judgments about materiality levels. In establishing such policies, the firm should consider obtaining or designing a planning checklist or requiring the preparation of an overall planning memorandum.

Finding—The firm requires that its model audit program be used on all audit engagements. However, the firm does not require that this program be tailored to cover the requirements of specialized industries, when necessary. Our review of engagements disclosed that, while the audit program had not been tailored to reflect special industry requirements, the procedures performed were appropriate and sufficient in the circumstances.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm's planning policies and procedures should be expanded to include a review and, when necessary, tailoring of the audit program before the start of field work. The firm should consider obtaining or developing audit programs that are reflective of the specialized industries in which its clients operate.

Finding—The firm does not provide its professional staff with a means of ensuring that all necessary procedures are performed on review and compilation engagements. As a result, the firm's review and compilation working papers did not include documentation of all the procedures required by firm policy or professional standards. However, we were able to satisfy ourselves that, in each case, sufficient procedures had been performed.

Recommendation for Improvement—Although not required by professional standards, the firm should consider obtaining or developing work programs for use on review and compilation engagements.

Finding—The firm's policies and procedures do not require documentation of sample selections and evaluation of the results of sampling applications. During our review of engagements, we noted several instances where the firm performed non-statistical sampling, but did not document its considerations. Through discussions with firm personnel, we were able to satisfy ourselves that adequate procedures had been performed.
Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its policies and procedures to require documentation of sample selections and evaluation of sampling results for statistical and nonstatistical sampling. This may be accomplished by obtaining or developing a standardized form that conforms to the guidance included in professional standards.

.58 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures do not require documentation of its understanding of an entity’s internal control structure on engagements for which it has assessed control risk at the maximum level. As a result, on several engagements reviewed there was no documentation in the working papers of the firm’s understanding of the internal control structure of the client. However, we were satisfied that the firm has a good understanding of the client’s internal control structure and that the audit was properly planned.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its policies and procedures to require documentation of its understanding of internal control structures on all audit clients as required by professional standards. Such documentation may be in the form of a memorandum in the working papers.

.59 Finding—The firm has acquired accounting and auditing practice aids from a third-party provider. Our review disclosed that the firm has selectively used these materials in conjunction with materials from other sources without carefully reviewing the compatibility of the materials. As a result, on the audit engagements reviewed, the programs and checklists used did not address certain aspects of engagement planning, particularly preliminary analytical review, audit risk assessment, and consideration of an entity’s internal control structure. These areas were not adequately documented in the engagement workpapers; however, we were able to satisfy ourselves that, in each case, these areas were appropriately considered in determining the nature and extent of auditing procedures.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend the firm review the materials obtained from the third-party provider and determine how they can best be implemented in the firm’s accounting and auditing practice. The use of other materials for specialized areas should be blended with the new materials in such a way that engagement planning is adequately addressed.

.60 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures for reviewing accountants’ reports and financial statements before issuance are not adequately designed to ensure compliance with professional standards. During our review, we noted that on several compilation and review engagements the accountant’s report did not describe what responsibility, if any, the accountant was taking in regards to accompanying supplementary information. Also, we found some occasions where the supplementary information was not referenced to the accountant’s report. In all cases, supporting working papers were present to indicate an appropriate level of service had been performed on the supplementary information. The firm’s inspection program did identify this situation and use of a disclosure checklist was instituted subsequent to the year under review. No deficiencies in this area were noted subsequent to the introduction of the disclosure checklist.

Recommendation for Improvement—Although not required by professional standards, the firm should implement the use of reporting and disclosure checklists on all engagements. Continued monitoring of its use through the inspection process will help ensure adherence to the firm’s quality control standards.

.61 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require the engagement partner to review the accountant’s or auditor’s reports and accompanying financial statements before they are issued. However, the firm does not use other quality control materials as an aid in reviewing reports and financial statements, nor does it require a pre-issuance review of financial statements by a partner not associated with the engagement. During our review, we noted instances where the accountant’s reports did not report on supplementary data included in the financial statements. In addition, an auditor’s report prepared on a basis prescribed by a regulatory agency did not include the appropriate wording required by professional standards. None of the reporting deficiencies were misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize to its partners the importance of thoroughly reviewing auditor reports and accompanying financial statements before issuance. In addition, the firm should obtain or develop a comprehensive reporting checklist. The firm should then amend its quality control policies and procedures to require its use on all engagements, and require the engagement partner to review the checklist prior to issuance of the accountants’ or auditors’ reports.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

.62 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require the use of standard programs on audit engagements for the review of EDP controls. However, we noted that these programs were not always used. As a result, audit working papers did not include documentation of the firm’s understanding of its clients’ EDP controls. We were able to satisfy ourselves that a sufficient review of these controls had been performed in accordance with professional standards.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize, to its supervisory personnel, its policy of using standard programs to review EDP controls. All partners should be advised to monitor compliance with this policy when reviewing audit working papers. Further, the firm should consider adding a step to its planning checklist to ensure that EDP programs have been completed.

.63 Finding—On several of the engagements reviewed, we noted that a review by a partner having no other responsibility for the engagement had not been performed as required by firm policy. On these engagements, we noticed that several disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles were omitted from the financial statements. However, none of the missing disclosures were of such significance to make the financial statements misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should comply with its policy of having a second partner review each engagement. To insure compliance with this policy, the firm should require that the second partner initial the report control sheet before the report is issued.

.64 Finding—The firm’s audit programs outline steps for performing and documenting audit planning procedures for preliminary judgments about materiality levels, planned assessed level of control risk, analytical review procedures and conditions that may require extension or modification of tests. However, our review disclosed several instances where the firm’s planning working papers did not include documentation for these areas. Through discussion with engagement personnel, we were able to satisfy ourselves that the engagement planning was adequate.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should remind all professionals of the matters to be considered when planning an audit engagement and of its documentation requirements. In addition, the firm may consider obtaining or developing a planning checklist to assist staff when planning an audit engagement and documenting the results thereof.

.65 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require communication of reportable conditions noted during an audit to client management in accordance with professional standards. During our review, however, we noted instances where the communication of reportable conditions in internal accounting controls was not documented. Although the firm has represented that the reportable conditions were communicated orally to its client, there was no memorandum or notation in the working papers as required by professional standards.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize the importance of adhering to professional standards regarding documentation of communication of reportable conditions. The firm should consider updating its audit programs to include required documentation procedures when communicating reportable conditions.

66. Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require completion of a reporting and disclosure checklist and a partner review of the firm’s reports and accompanying financial statements prior to issuance. However, on several engagements reviewed, we noted inappropriate answers on these checklists. As a result, several financial statements did not include all the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. None of the missing disclosures were of such significance as to make the financial statements misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize the importance of using its comprehensive financial statement reporting and disclosure checklists. The partners of the firm should carefully review the report and disclosure checklist as part of the final financial statement review. In addition, a training session should be held to review with the staff the questions on the financial statement reporting and disclosure checklist. The firm should emphasize this item in its next inspection.

Hiring

Quality Control Objective

.67 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures for hiring should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that those employed possess the appropriate characteristics to enable them to perform competently. The quality of a firm’s work ultimately depends on the integrity, competence, and motivation of personnel who perform and supervise the work. Thus, a firm’s recruiting programs are factors in maintaining such quality.9

Illustrative Example of Design Deficiencies

.68 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that new hires possess certain specified qualifications. However, the policies do not require that the firm document its hiring decisions and the basis thereof. As a result, the personnel files did not always contain sufficient evidence confirming that the individuals hired possess the required qualifications. During our review of engagements, nothing came to our attention to indicate that the individuals hired by the firm did not possess the required qualifications.10

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm revise its policies and procedures to require that hiring decisions be documented. The nature of the documentation may vary; however, at a minimum, it should document whether an individual meets the stated qualifications and, if not, why it is acceptable to deviate from the firm’s stated hiring criteria in the situation.

Illustrative Example of Compliance Deficiencies

.69 Finding—The firm’s policies require that certain background information be obtained relative to the qualifications of prospective employees (including resumes, applications, college transcripts, and references). During our review, we noted numerous instances in which the personnel files for professional staff hired other than through the firm’s college campus recruiting program did not contain evidence that the individual met the firm’s stated qualifications.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm take greater care in ensuring that it complies more fully with its policies. The firm should assign an individual with appropriate experience to monitor the firm’s compliance with its policy of obtaining background information on prospective employees.

Professional Development

Quality Control Objective

.70 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

10 This example may not be applicable for smaller firms that have ongoing monitoring and involvement of senior personnel of the firm with respect to this element of quality control.
Policies and procedures for professional development should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that personnel will have the knowledge required to enable them to fulfill responsibilities assigned. Continuing professional education and training activities enable a firm to provide personnel with the knowledge required to fulfill responsibilities assigned to them and to progress within the firm.\footnote{AICPA Professional Standards, Vol. 2, QC § 10.07.}

.71 Finding—Although the firm’s personnel were in compliance with the firm’s and the section’s continuing professional education requirement, an inadequate amount of the courses taken were in accounting and auditing related areas. As a consequence, we encountered instances in which emerging issues and matters relating to recent professional pronouncements had not been considered on engagements. In one such instance, the report was recalled and the accompanying financial statements were restated.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm’s policies and procedures should be revised to include a requirement that personnel participate in an appropriate amount of continuing professional education in accounting and auditing areas.

.72 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that professional staff participate in at least forty hours of continuing professional education courses and that the administrative partner compile, at the end of each educational year, a summary of professional education courses in which the professional staff participated. The policies and procedures do not require that the files be maintained during the period or that the files be reviewed periodically to determine whether the staff is in compliance with the firm’s requirements. During our review, we noted a few individuals who had not participated in the required amount of continuing professional education courses during the year under review and were unable to make up the deficiency during the two-month grace period that followed the education year-end.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm revise its quality control policies and procedures to require that the administrative partner maintain current professional development records and that he review these periodically to determine whether the professional staff are complying with the firm’s policies in this area.

.73 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that the firm maintain formal professional development records documenting each professional education course in which the professional staff participated. However, the policies and procedures do not specify the nature or extent of these records. Consequently, we noted incomplete documentation in the continuing professional education records, even though we were satisfied that the staff had participated in a sufficient amount of continuing professional education.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm’s policies and procedures be revised to require that records be maintained for each professional in the firm for the five most recent educational years. Furthermore, the policies should require that the following information be maintained relative to each continuing professional education activity for which credit is claimed:

- Sponsoring organization
- Location of program by city and state
- Title of program and/or description of content
- Dates attended or completed
- Continuing professional education hours claimed
.74 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that professional staff participating in governmental engagements meet the continuing education requirements established both by the section and Government Auditing Standards. However, we noted that the firm has not specifically identified these staff members and monitored their compliance with government auditing standards. As a result, we noted several individuals who had not completed sufficient professional education courses to comply with government auditing standards.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm’s professional education director should identify and monitor those individuals participating in governmental engagements to ensure that the government auditing standards continuing professional education requirements are met.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

.75 Finding—Our review disclosed that professional staff had not received copies of certain professional pronouncements issued during the past year as required by firm policy. During our review, we did not note any significant departures from professional standards as a result of this deficiency.

Recommendation for Improvement—in order to keep professional staff current on financial accounting, auditing and reporting matters, we recommend that all professional staff receive copies of professional pronouncements as soon as they are available to the firm for distribution.

Advancement

Quality Control Objective

.76 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures for advancing personnel should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that those selected for advancement will have the qualifications necessary for fulfillment of the responsibilities they will be called on to assume. Practices in advancing personnel have important implications for the quality of a firm’s work. Qualifications that personnel selected for advancement should possess include, but are not limited to, character, intelligence, judgment, and motivation.12

Illustrative Example of Design Deficiencies

.77 Finding—The firm has not established policies and procedures regarding the qualifications necessary for each level of responsibility within the firm and for the advancement of personnel. However, we did not encounter any situation where the firm’s personnel did not have the qualifications necessary to fulfill their responsibilities.13

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm establish and document the qualifications necessary for each level of responsibility and create a review structure to ascertain that personnel meet the firm’s requirements before they are promoted.

Illustrative Example of Compliance Deficiencies

.78 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that personnel be evaluated by their immediate supervisor whenever they participate forty hours or more on an engagement. Our review of the personnel files indicates that this policy is not always being adhered to for management level personnel, even though overall annual evaluations are being performed.14

12 Ibid., footnote 11.
13 See footnote 10.
14 See footnote 10.
Acceptance and Continuance of Clients

Quality Control Objective

.79 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures should be established for deciding whether to accept or continue a client in order to minimize the likelihood of association with a client whose management lacks integrity. Suggesting that there should be procedures for this purpose does not imply that a firm vouches for the integrity or reliability of a client, nor does it imply that a firm has a duty to anyone but itself with respect to the acceptance, rejection, or retention of clients. However, prudence suggests that a firm be selective in determining its professional relationships.15

Illustrative Examples of Design Deficiencies

.80 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures do not require communication with the predecessor auditor of a prospective client as required by professional standards. During our review, we noted an instance where there was no documentation of communication with a predecessor auditor. However, we were informed by the firm’s personnel that the required communication had been made orally.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control document to require communication with predecessor auditors and to require that such communications be documented.

.81 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require evaluation of prospective clients for approval prior to acceptance as clients, and for the periodic evaluation of all clients to ensure that the firm’s criteria for client continuance are met. However, the firm does not require any specific documentation of such evaluations and we noted no documented evidence that evaluations had been performed. We were informed by the firm’s partners that they had complied with their policies and procedures, but had not documented this information.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures should be revised to require documentation of its acceptance and continuance procedures and decisions. The firm should revise and implement client acceptance and continuance forms to ensure that all appropriate factors are considered in each case.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

.82 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures specify criteria that should be considered when making client continuance decisions and requires that such decisions be documented. During our review, we were unable to determine whether client continuance decisions had been made in accordance with the firm’s policies. However, we were informed by the firm’s partners that continuance decisions are discussed informally and that continuance is assumed by staff in the absence of instructions to discontinue service to the client.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should comply with its policies and procedures by periodically evaluating its existing clients in accordance with the criteria set forth in its quality control document. The firm should also document such evaluations and decisions as required by firm policy, possibly through the use of a standardized form that could be examined as part of the planning process.

.83 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures regarding new client acceptance require the preparation and approval of a new client acceptance form to document the considerations and conclusions. During our review, we noted that the form was not prepared for all new clients. However, we were informed by the firm’s partners that appropriate considerations had been made in each case.

Recommendation for Improvement—To ensure that all appropriate facts are considered when accepting a new client, the firm should comply with its policy of documenting its considerations and conclusions by completing the new client acceptance form for each new client.

Inspection

Quality Control Objective

.84 Statement on Quality Control Standards No. 1 states that—

Policies and procedures for inspection should be established to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that the procedures relating to the other elements of quality control are being effectively applied. Procedures for inspection may be developed and performed by individuals acting on behalf of the firm’s management. The type of inspection procedures used will depend on the controls established by the firm and the assignment of responsibilities within the firm to implement its quality control policies and procedures.\(^{16}\)

Illustrative Examples of Design Deficiencies

.85 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures do not require that a formal annual inspection program be performed. However, the firm does require pre-issuance reviews of each audit review and compilation report, the accompanying financial statements and the related working papers by both the engagement partner and a partner or manager who is not otherwise associated with the engagement. The firm’s procedures do not require an annual review of the firm’s compliance with each element of quality control, nor do they require a written summary of deficiencies identified or corrective actions taken or planned to be taken.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control policies and procedures to require that a formal annual inspection be performed. The firm’s inspections should address each of the elements of quality control in addition to engagements. The quality control policies and procedures should also require the preparation of written inspection reports that summarize the deficiencies identified and document the actions taken or planned to prevent similar deficiencies from occurring in the future.

.86 Finding—The firm’s inspection policies and procedures omit specialized industry knowledge as criteria in selecting inspectors. As a result, a manager reviewed several engagements in a specialized industry with which the manager had little knowledge and failed to identify several omitted procedures. Our review of engagements in this industry, however, did not disclose any significant departures from professional standards.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control policies and procedures to include technical expertise and relevant specialized industry knowledge as a criteria in selecting inspectors. In doing so, the firm can implement appropriate corrective actions for inspection findings.

.87 Finding—The firm’s inspection policies and procedures do not require the preparation of memoranda summarizing the results of the firm’s annual inspection program and the implementation of corrective actions. As a result, the firm did not document its monitoring of the actions taken in response to the inspection findings.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its quality control policies and procedures to require the preparation of an inspection memorandum summarizing findings, indicating recommended corrective actions for the firm to perform.

\(^{16}\) Ibid., footnote 15.
actions, and setting timetables for completing the corrective actions. At a minimum, the memorandum should be distributed to key management personnel.

Illustrative Examples of Compliance Deficiencies

.88 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that findings on engagement reviews be summarized so that management can consider what types of actions, if any, are necessary. However, the firm did not summarize inspection findings from engagement reviews on the most recent inspection, even though each engagement partner considered and responded to findings on their individual engagements.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should comply with its policy of summarizing inspection findings, considering the overall systems’ implication of these findings and documenting management’s monitoring of the actions taken.

.89 Finding—The firm’s quality control document requires that annual inspections be performed in accordance with the AICPA’s “Guidelines on How to Perform an Internal Inspection.” In the most recent inspection, however, the firm did not review certain elements of quality control.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should comply with its quality control policies and procedures by using all of the recommended forms in the AICPA’s “Guidelines on How to Perform an Internal Inspection.” The use of these forms should result in the performance of all the required inspection procedures, including the review of all of the functional areas of quality control.

.90 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require timely annual inspections. Our review revealed that the reports on the past two inspections were dated almost one year after the particular inspection year-end. As a result, the firm did not implement the recommended corrective actions prior to beginning subsequent engagements.

Recommendation for Improvement—To maximize the benefits that can be gained from a timely inspection, the firm should perform its inspections in a timely manner so that corrective actions can be implemented before procedures and engagements are performed in the subsequent year.

.91 Finding—The firm has a written quality control document that requires the firm to perform annual internal inspections. However, during our review, we noted that the firm did not perform annual inspections as required. If an adequate and timely inspection had been performed each year, many of the departures from professional standards that were noted during our review probably would have been identified and corrected.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should comply with its quality control policies and procedures regarding inspection.

Membership Requirements

PCPS & SECPS Membership Requirements

.92 Finding—The firm’s policies and procedures require that each professional in the firm participate in at least 120 hours of continuing professional education every three years, but not less than 20 hours each year. Our review disclosed that, for the period ended June 30, 19XX, several of the firm’s management personnel failed to comply with the three-year requirement.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should establish procedures to monitor compliance, on a timely basis, with the section’s continuing education requirements.

.93 Finding—The section requires that all professional staff, including CPAs and non-CPAs, participate in at least 120 hours of continuing professional education every three years with a minimum of 20 hours per year. The firm’s policy is not consistent with this requirement, since its policy states that only CPAs are required to... participate in the hours prescribed by the section. As a result, a significant number of professionals did not comply with the section’s membership requirements since the firm did not monitor compliance by professionals who are not CPAs.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should expand its continuing professional education requirements to encompass both CPAs and other professionals.

.94 Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures are not consistent with the section’s membership requirements which require each member firm to ensure that a majority of the members of the firm are CPAs, and that the firm can legally engage in the practice of public accounting. Although the firm is qualified to practice under state law, only one of the partners is a CPA. This does not meet the majority requirement.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its policies and procedures to ensure compliance with all membership requirements. In addition, the firm should take steps necessary to be in compliance with this membership requirement as soon as possible.

SECPS Membership Requirements

.95 Finding—The section’s membership requirements require that each member firm establish policies and procedures for a concurring review of the report and financial statements by a partner other than the audit partner-in-charge of an SEC engagement before the issuance of an audit report on the financial statements of an SEC engagement. These policies and procedures should cover such areas as (1) qualifications of the concurring reviewer, (2) nature, extent, and timing of the review, and (3) documentation required evidencing that the reviewer had complied with the firm’s policies and procedures for the concurring review. During our review of the working papers on these types of clients, we found inconsistency in the extent of the review and in the types of documentation contained in the working papers. However, we were satisfied that a comprehensive review was performed by qualified individuals.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures be revised to include specific requirements regarding concurring review including the nature and extent of the review and the types of documentation required. This may include the implementation of a concurring reviewers’ checklist and/or a requirement that the reviewer initial all memoranda and selected working papers, in addition to the report and financial statements.
Appendix A

Sample Letter of Comments for the Peer Review Programs

[should correspond with date of report]

To the Partners
Jones, Smith & Co.

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of Jones, Smith & Co. (the firm) in effect for the year ended June 30, 19___, and have issued our report thereon dated September 15, 19 (which was modified as described therein). This letter should be read in conjunction with that report.

Our review was for the purpose of reporting upon your system of quality control and your compliance with it and with the membership requirements of the (private companies practice section or SEC practice section) of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms (the section). Our review was performed in accordance with the standards promulgated by the peer review committee of the section; however, our review would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system or lack of compliance with it or with the membership requirements of the section because our review was based on selective tests.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognized in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of quality control. In the performance of most control procedures, departures can result from misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes of judgment, carelessness, or other personal factors. Projection of any evaluation of a system of quality control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedure may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate.

Matters That Resulted in a Modified Report

Supervision

Finding—Our review disclosed that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures do not provide a means of ensuring that the financial statements reported on include all relevant disclosures. As a result, we noted financial statements that did not include all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles, and in one instance, financial statements that were materially misstated. The report on the latter financial statements has been recalled, and the financial statements are being revised.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should adopt procedures to ensure that clients’ financial statements include all relevant disclosures, such as by obtaining or developing comprehensive financial statement disclosure and reporting checklists.

Consultation

Finding—Our review disclosed that the firm’s quality control policies and procedures for consultation with designated parties outside the firm were not followed on two engagements. One engagement, discussed above, involved a material error in a financial statement, on which the firm had issued an unqualified report. On the other engagement, the firm had issued an unqualified audit report when it was not independent. In both cases, we concluded that adherence to the firm’s consultation policies and procedures probably would have prevented the issuance of these reports, which the firm has since recalled.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should (1) reemphasize the importance of its quality control policies and procedures for outside consultation, (2) more closely monitor compliance with its consultation policies.

* To be included if the review team issues a modified or adverse report. The wording should be tailored to fit the circumstances.

 This caption is to be used only if a modified or adverse report has been issued and should be tailored to fit the circumstances.
and procedures during the preissuance review of engagements, and (3) emphasize these policies and procedures in its next inspection.

Matters That Did Not Result in a Modified Report

Client Acceptance

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require that the managing partner approve the acceptance of new clients and document such approval. We noted several instances where this had not been done. The letter of comments issued in connection with the firm’s prior peer review also noted that this policy had not been followed in a number of instances.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm revise its new client information form, as it indicated it would in its prior letter of response, to provide an appropriate place for the managing partner’s signature evidencing approval. In addition, an account number should not be assigned to a new client until this form has been completed.

Independence

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require appropriate evaluation and resolution of all questions regarding independence. However, the firm does not require any specific documentation of such resolutions. We noted that there was no documentation supporting such resolutions.

Recommendation for Improvement—We recommend that the firm amend its quality control policies and procedures to require documentation of the resolution of independence questions.

Supervision

Finding—Our review disclosed that on several audit engagements the firm’s standard programs for testing related-party transactions and subsequent events were not used as required by firm policy. However, we were able to satisfy ourselves that sufficient audit procedures had been performed in these areas.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize its policy of using the standard programs as required by its auditing and accounting manual.

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require the use of standard audit and work programs. However, in one recently acquired office of the firm, representing a small portion of the firm’s practice, the firm’s standard audit and work programs have not been used consistently.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize the need to comply with its policies and procedures. In addition, a partner from another office should be assigned the responsibility for training personnel of the acquired office in the use of the firm’s standard programs.

Continuing Professional Education

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies, and the membership requirements of the section, require each professional to obtain at least 20 hours of continuing education annually and at least 120 hours every three years. However, the firm does not have adequate procedures to monitor compliance with this policy. As a result, our review disclosed that five of the firm’s sixty professionals had not participated in the required number of hours of qualifying continuing education.
Guidance for Writing a Letter of Comments

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should make sure that the five professionals referred to above obtain a sufficient number of continuing education hours to meet the section's annual and three-year requirements for its current educational year.

The foregoing matters were considered in determining our opinion set forth in our report dated September 15, 19____, and this letter does not change that report.

Sample Letter of Comments for the Quality Review Program

[AICPA or Other Appropriate Letterhead]

September 15, 19--

[Should correspond with date of report]

To the Partners
Able, Baker & Co.
To John B. Able, CPA

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of [Name of Firm] (the firm) in effect for the year ended June 30, 19XX, and have issued our report thereon dated August 31, 19XX (which was modified as described therein). This letter should be read in conjunction with that report.

Our review was for the purpose of reporting upon the firm's system of quality control and its compliance with that system. Our review was performed in accordance with standards for on-site quality reviews established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; however, our review would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system or all instances of noncompliance with it because our review was based on selective tests.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognized in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of quality control. In the performance of most control procedures, departures can result from misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes of judgment, carelessness, or other personal factors. Projection of any evaluation of a system of quality control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedure may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the procedure may deteriorate.

Matters That Resulted in a Modified Report *

Finding—The firm's quality control policies and procedures do not require partner involvement in the planning stage of audit engagements. Generally accepted auditing standards permit the auditor with final responsibility for the engagement to delegate some of this work to assistants, but emphasize the importance of proper planning to the conduct of the engagement. We found one engagement in which, as a result of a lack of involvement, including timely supervision, by the engagement partner in planning the audit, the work performed on receivables and inventory did not appear to support the firm's opinion on the financial statements. (As a result of this finding, the firm performed the necessary additional procedures to provide a satisfactory basis for its opinion.)

Recommendation—The firm's quality control policies and procedures should be reviewed to provide, at a minimum, for timely audit partner review of the preliminary audit plan and the audit program.

Matters That Did Not Result in a Modified Report *

Finding—Our review disclosed several engagements for which financial statement disclosures were missing or incomplete. None of the missing or incomplete disclosures represented significant departures from professional standards, but in each case we noted that the firm had not complied with its policy requiring completion of a financial reporting and disclosure checklist.

Recommendation—The firm should comply with its policy requiring completion of its financial reporting and disclosure checklist. We recommend that the firm emphasize the importance of this policy to all personnel in its training sessions.

* Include these captions only when the report's modified.
Finding—Our review disclosed that the firm's reference library contains outdated editions of industry audit and accounting guides for industries in which some of the firm's clients operate. As a result, we found a few instances where financial statement formats departed, although not in material respects, from current practice.

Recommendation—The firm should assign the responsibility for ensuring that the library is comprehensive and up to date to one individual. That individual should monitor new publications, determine which should be obtained, and periodically advise professional personnel of additions to the library.

The foregoing matters were considered in determining our opinion set forth in our report dated August 31, 19XX, and this letter does not change that report.

.99 Appendix D

Examples of Poorly Written Letter of Comments Items

This appendix contains illustrative examples of poorly written items included in letters of comments. Each example includes a critique of the deficiencies noted. Reviewers should focus on the points included in the critiques. It is important to remember that a well-written letter of comments enhances the peer or quality review documents.

.100 Example 1:

In one audit engagement, the firm’s files did not contain a letter from the client’s attorney as to litigation, etc. In another engagement, attorney responses were dated several weeks prior to the date of the auditor’s report.

The firm should add a step to its audit programs to require documentation of the procedures performed to obtain updated responses to attorney letter replies received prior to the end of field work.

Critique of Example 1:

- The finding does not indicate what the firm’s quality control policies and procedures do or do not require regarding the obtaining of letters of inquiry from a client’s attorney. Further, the finding does not describe the implications of the deficiencies noted.
- The finding is written in an engagement-oriented format rather than a systems-oriented format. As described in the guidance material, the letter of comments should include comments regarding the design of the reviewed firm’s system of quality control or its compliance with that system.
- The finding cites the exact number of instances noted rather than using general terms to indicate frequency, such as “in some instances,” “frequently,” or “an isolated case.”
- The example does not include captions highlighting the findings and recommendations.

Suggested Wording for Example 1:

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require obtaining letters of inquiry from a client’s attorney for all audit engagements. However, we noted instances where the attorney’s letters had not been obtained or were dated several weeks prior to the auditor’s report. Subsequent to our review, the firm has requested and received the missing attorney letters and received updated responses for the attorney letters that were dated prior to the date of the auditor’s report.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize the importance of complying with its policy of obtaining attorney letters for all auditing engagements. In addition, during their review of engagement working papers, supervisory personnel should ensure that attorney letters are dated as close to the completion of fieldwork as is practicable in the circumstances. The partners of the firm should ensure that these documents are reviewed as part of their review of working papers.

.101 Example 2:

In a few instances, the financial statements did not disclose the carrying basis of property, plant and equipment and whether or not any of the assets were donated.

Critique of Example 2:

- The finding does not have a recommendation.
• The finding does not indicate the effect on the financial statements, if any, as a result of the deficiencies noted, and it is not clear why the finding is important.

• The finding does not indicate the likely cause of the deficiency (for example, inadequate financial statement disclosure and reporting checklist or lack of appropriate partner review).

Suggested Wording for Example 2:

Finding—the firm’s quality control policies and procedures require the completion of a reporting and disclosure checklist for all audit engagements. However, on several engagements reviewed the financial statements did not include all the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. None of the missing disclosures were of enough significance to make the financial statements misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—the firm should reemphasize the importance of thoroughly completing its comprehensive financial statement reporting and disclosure checklists. The partners should carefully review the report and disclosure checklist as part of the final financial statement review.

.102 Example 3:

Finding—Every engagement we reviewed was determined to be in compliance in all material respects with professional standards. However, in a number of engagements reviewed, there were inadequate disclosures regarding related party matters.

Recommendation for Improvement—All material related party transactions should be disclosed in the financial statements as required by FASB Statement No. 57.

Critique of Example 3:

• The finding and recommendation do not indicate what the systems implications of the deficiency are. Why were the disclosures inadequate? Were firm policies followed?

• Generally, a finding should include a conclusion as to the effect, if any, the deficiencies had on the financial statements reviewed.

• Recommendations that essentially say “follow professional standards,” as in the example, are not helpful to the firm. Instead, recommendations should address the underlying cause of the deficiency.

• The recommendation refers to a specific technical pronouncement without a clear indication of the nature of the standard.

Suggested Wording for Example 3:

Finding—the firm’s policies and procedures require the completion of financial statement disclosure checklists for all audit, review and full disclosure compilation engagements. However, our review disclosed several instances where the financial statements did not include all the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles, particularly in the area of related party matters. The incomplete disclosures were not of such significance as to make the financial statements misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—the firm should reemphasize its policy of using disclosure checklists on all full disclosure engagements. The partners should carefully review the disclosure checklist as part of the final financial statement review. In addition, a training session should be held to review with staff the disclosure requirements for related party transactions.

.103 Example 4:

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual
Guidance for Writing a Letter of Comments

Finding—The firm’s procedural documents do not provide guidance with respect to audit sampling procedures, or analytical review procedures.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should include, in its accounting manual, guidance on audit sampling procedures and analytical review procedures.

Critique of Example 4:

- The finding does not describe the engagement deficiencies, if any, resulting from this design deficiency.

Suggested Wording for Example 4:

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures provide for audit sampling procedures and analytical review procedures. However, the firm has not established procedures for performing or the documentation required for these areas. As a result, we noted instances where the firm performed nonstatistical sampling, but did not document its considerations. In addition, on several engagements reviewed, there was no documentation of analytical review procedures. Through discussions with firm personnel, we were able to satisfy ourselves that adequate procedures had been performed.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should revise its policies and procedures to require documentation of sample selections and evaluation of sampling results. This can be accomplished by obtaining or developing a standardized form that conforms to the guidance included in professional standards. In addition, the firm should revise its policies to require specific analytical review procedures and the documentation of such procedures.

Example 5:

Finding—The firm does not use planning programs and, as a result, planning procedures are not always fully documented in engagement working papers. On certain of the engagements reviewed, there was no documentation of the planning aspects relative to preliminary judgments about materiality levels for audit purposes, assessed level of control risk, and other audit planning considerations.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should develop or obtain a planning program for use on each engagement.

Critique of Example 5:

- The finding does not indicate what the system does or does not require regarding audit planning. Also, the finding does not indicate whether the reviewer believes sufficient planning procedures were performed on the engagements reviewed.

- A recommendation for a “canned” program or checklist is not particularly helpful, as it is too specific. Rather, the recommendation should indicate that the firm should establish policies or procedures to ensure that planning considerations are documented, such as by developing or obtaining a planning checklist that deals with the areas cited. The recommendation might also note that proper planning may reduce audit time overall.

Suggested Wording for Example 5:

Finding—The firm’s quality control policies and procedures require documentation of audit planning considerations. The firm does not require the use of planning programs, checklists or other appropriate means of documenting such planning considerations. During our review, we noted there was no documentation of the planning aspects relative to preliminary judgments about materiality levels for audit purposes, assessed level of control risk, and other planning considerations. However, we were able to satisfy ourselves that, in each case, these areas were appropriately considered in determining the nature and extent of auditing procedures.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should establish policies and procedures to ensure that planning considerations are documented, such as by obtaining or developing a planning checklist for use on audit engagements.

.105 Example 6:

Finding—The firm's quality control policies and procedures require all working papers to be reviewed by someone at a higher, or at least the same, level.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should reemphasize to its professional personnel the importance of reviews. This requirement could be added to the partner's review checklists to ensure compliance.

Critique of Example 6:

- The finding does not indicate that the firm did not comply with its policy and, if not, whether this resulted in any engagement deficiencies.

Suggested Wording for Example 6:

Finding—On several of the engagements reviewed, we noted that a review by a partner having no other responsibility for the engagement had not been performed as required by firm policy. On these engagements, we noticed that several disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles were omitted from the financial statements. However, none of the missing disclosures were of such significance to make financial statements misleading.

Recommendation for Improvement—The firm should comply with its policy of having a second partner review each engagement. To ensure compliance with this policy, the firm should require that the second partner initial the report control sheet before the report is issued.

ON-SITE QUALITY REVIEWS FOR FIRMS THAT PERFORM AUDITS

In performing quality reviews, review teams must complete all relevant programs and checklists issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee in a professional manner. Failure to do so creates a presumption that the review has not been performed in conformity with the standards governing the program.

QRP Section 4100

Instructions to Firms Having an On-Site Quality Review

General

.01 An on-site quality review is required for all firms that perform one or more audits of historical or prospective financial statements because of the public interest in the quality of such audits and the importance to the accounting profession of maintaining the quality of those services. On-site quality reviews are administered by state CPA societies that elect to participate in the program or by the AICPA Quality Review Division (the administering entity). The appropriate entity will contact your firm before the beginning of the calendar year in which your firm is scheduled to have an on-site review to begin to make arrangements for the conduct of the review. Well before then, you should have read the applicable sections of Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee, as well as these instructions and the quality control policies and procedures questionnaire and review guidelines applicable to your size firm.

.02 These instructions have been designed for reviews conducted by committee-appointed review teams. However, they should be helpful in reviews conducted by firms or with the assistance of an association of CPA firms. Also, completing the procedures listed under “Prior to the Review” should expedite the conduct of the review.

.03 It is the reviewed firm’s responsibility to be certain that the quality control policies and procedures in effect for the period covered by the review have provided the firm with reasonable assurance that it has met its responsibility to provide accounting and auditing services that conform with professional standards. Also, firms should carefully evaluate the effectiveness of the way in which quality control policies and procedures are communicated to all professional personnel and should determine that appropriate action is taken when inspection or other procedures reveal design or compliance deficiencies.

Prior to the Review

.04 Identify the individual—usually a partner—who will be responsible for acting as a liaison with the review team.

.05 Review and sign the engagement letter for the review.

.06 Agree with the team captain on the date the review will commence, which must not be later than the date established by the administering entity, the 12-month period to be covered, and the anticipated exit conference date.

.07 Submit the following to the team captain as soon as possible:

a. A completed quality control policies and procedures questionnaire. (There is one form of questionnaire for sole practitioners without professional staff—defined as CPAs and those expected to seek that status—and one for all other firms.)

b. Relevant manuals, checklists, etc., if practicable.

c. A list of accounting and auditing engagements prepared in the form shown in the Appendix to these instructions.

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual
d. A list of the firm’s professional personnel, showing name, position, and years of experience (i) with the firm and (ii) in total.

e. Other information requested by the team captain.

.08 Based on that information, the team captain will make a preliminary advance selection of engagements for review. Complete profile sheets on those engagements and assemble all working papers, including the permanent files and reports, before the review begins.

.09 Review the applicable guidelines for review of quality control policies and procedures that will be followed by the team captain and make sure documentation that the team captain will ask for will be readily available. Examples of such documentation are noted in the following list, which is not all-inclusive:

a. Independence confirmations, documentation of independence of correspondents, and documentation supporting the resolution of independence questions.

b. Personnel files.

c. CPE records.

d. Documentation regarding consultations with outside parties.

During the Review

.10 Make sure firm personnel will be available for discussion with the reviewer(s) as necessary. The reviewers will endeavor to have these discussions and interviews without disrupting the firm’s operations.

.11 The team captain will ask your firm to respond to “Matter for Further Consideration” forms. The firm should provide a thorough written response to those forms to avoid any misunderstanding about its quality control policies and procedures or the circumstances of the individual engagement.

.12 Arrange for appropriate partners and staff to attend the exit conference. If the firm disagrees with any of the reviewer’s findings, those differences should be discussed as they arise. Any differences of opinion that have not been previously discussed should be covered during the exit conference.

After the Review

.13 Obtain the report and letter of comments, if any, from the team captain. These documents should be delivered to the firm within 30 days of the date of the exit conference.

.14 Prepare a letter of response to the report and letter of comments and submit all three documents to the administering entity within 30 days of the date the report and letter of comments are received from the team captain. As indicated in the Standards, the letter of response should be carefully prepared because of the important bearing it may have on the decisions reached in connection with acceptance of the report on the review.

.15 The administering entity will not make the report on the review available to the public. The firm itself may do so, if it wishes. However, the firm should not publicize the results of the review or distribute copies of the report to its personnel, clients, or others until it has been advised that it has been accepted by the administering entity.

Quality Control Policies and Procedures
Questionnaire for Sole Practitioners With No Professional Staff

.01 This section of the manual contains a questionnaire that a reviewed firm must complete prior to the commencement of the review. This questionnaire has been developed for sole practitioners without professional staff. Completion of the questionnaire assists a sole practitioner in accumulating and organizing the information regarding its quality control system.

.02 Sole practitioners should respond directly with “yes,” “no,” or “N/A” answers and briefly describe, where appropriate, the policies and procedures they have in effect that relate to the questions asked. Where appropriate, sole practitioners should make reference to any firm documents that describe those policies and procedures in more detail. Examples of such documents might be personnel manuals, audit and accounting manuals, a quality control document or manual, and firm forms and checklists. Lengthy and elaborate answers are not expected.
AICPA Quality Review Program

QUALITY CONTROL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES QUESTIONNAIRE FOR SOLE PRACTITIONERS WITH NO PROFESSIONAL STAFF

This questionnaire provides the reviewer with basic information. It is not necessarily a checklist of all the policies and procedures that might be applicable to a practice. Sole practitioners who are about to be reviewed should respond directly with "yes," "no," or "N/A" answers and briefly describe, where requested, the policies and procedures they have in effect that relate to the questions asked. Where appropriate, make reference to any documents that describe those policies and procedures in more detail. Examples of such documents might be audit and accounting manuals and forms and checklists used in the practice.

A. Independence

1. Do you adhere to the independence rules, regulations, interpretations, and rulings of the—
   a. AICPA?
   b. State CPA society?
   c. State board of accountancy?
   d. State accountancy laws?
   e. SEC and other regulatory agencies?

2. Have you, during the year under review, identified any independence problems with respect to audit or accounting clients?

3. Briefly describe how you do or would resolve independence questions by answering the following—
   a. What sources do you or would you consult?
   b. Have you found it necessary to consult with outside parties on independence matters within the last year?
   c. In what circumstances do you or would you document the resolution of an independence question?

4. Do you have any engagements where you act as principal auditor or accountant and another firm of CPAs is engaged to perform segments of the engagement?
5. If the answer to (4) above is “yes”—
   a. Do you confirm the independence of such other firm(s)?
   b. Do you do so in writing?
   c. Do you do so annually?

6. Have you had during the year under review any accounts receivable from clients that may have taken on some of the characteristics of loans and, therefore, may impair your independence?

B. Consultation

1. During the year under review, have you sought advice from outside parties to resolve questions involving professional standards or specialized industry practices?

2. How do you determine when to consult with outside parties and with whom to consult?

3. Describe the extent to which you document consultations with outside parties by answering the following—
   a. Do you document all such consultations?
   b. If the answer to (a) is “no”, describe the circumstances in which you would document a consultation.
   c. Does your documentation always, usually, or never include the following information:
      • Description of the issue?
      • The client’s position, if any?
      • The possible alternatives?
      • The sources consulted (both written materials and people)?
      • The position indicated by those sources?
      • Your conclusion?
      • Your underlying rationale?
4. Does your library include current editions of—
   a. AICPA Professional Standards?
   b. AICPA industry audit guides relevant to your practice?
   c. FASB pronouncements?
   d. GASB pronouncements, Government Auditing Standards (the "yellow book"), and other government audit guides relevant to your practice?

C. Supervision

1. Do you follow documented procedures for planning audit and accounting engagements and, if so, where are those procedures found (for example, in an audit and accounting manual)?

2. If the answer to (1) is "no," briefly describe the procedures you perform in planning audit and accounting engagements in practice, including the information you obtain and consider and when you do your planning. Also describe any variations in those procedures based on factors such as the nature and size of the engagement and prior experience on the engagement.

3. Is a written audit program used on all audit engagements?

4. Do you use written guidance materials regarding the following matters? If so, indicate whether you developed it or obtained it from an outside source, and name the source.
   a. Evaluation and documentation of internal controls, including computer controls.
   b. Consideration of internal controls in planning the audit.
   c. Audit risk and materiality considerations.
   d. Audit sampling techniques.
   e. Using analytical procedures instead of, or in combination with, tests of details.
   f. Form and content of working papers.
   g. Other audit and accounting matters, in the form of an audit and accounting manual.
5. Do you use any standardized forms, checklists, or questionnaires? If so, attach a list and describe the types of engagements on which you use them. (Note that the reviewer will want to inspect these forms during the review.)

6. Do you use correspondents for audit or accounting engagements? If "yes," describe how (in writing or orally and when this is done) instructions are given to such correspondents and the extent to which you review their work.

7. Have your purchased audit or accounting clients from another CPA during the year under review?

D. Professional Development

1. Are you in compliance with state and AICPA continuing professional education requirements? If not, indicate how and when you plan to correct the situation.

2. Briefly describe how you plan the allocation of your CPE hours among accounting and auditing, tax, and other topics and indicate when that is done.

3. Do you maintain CPE records and course materials?

E. Acceptance and Continuance of Clients

1. Briefly describe the procedures you follow, including any documents you generally obtain and review and any inquiries you generally make of third parties, before you accept a client for whom you will perform audit or accounting services, in order to provide yourself with reasonable assurance that the client has integrity, to identify any unusual risks that might be associated with the client, and to evaluate your ability to serve the client in a competent and independent manner. Also indicate any variances in those procedures, depending on, for example, the services to be provided.

2. Did you terminate any audit or accounting relationships during the year under review?

F. Inspection

1. Have you performed a formal, documented inspection of your quality control policies and procedures during the last year and, if so, have you retained the documentation of the work performed and the conclusions reached?

2. Have you taken appropriate corrective action in response to the findings on your most recent quality review or peer review?

Quality Control Policies and Procedures
Questionnaire for Firms With Two or More Professionals

.01 This section of the manual contains a questionnaire that a reviewed firm must complete prior to the commencement of the review. The questionnaire has been developed for firms with two or more professionals. Completion of the questionnaire assists a firm in accumulating and organizing the information regarding its quality control system.

.02 The reviewed firm should respond directly with "yes," "no," or "N/A" answers and briefly describe, where appropriate, the policies and procedures they have in effect that relate to the questions asked. Where appropriate, firms should make reference to any firm documents that describe those policies and procedures in more detail. Examples of such documents might be personnel manuals, audit and accounting manuals, a quality control document or manual, and firm forms and checklists. Lengthy and elaborate answers are not expected.
This questionnaire provides the reviewer with basic information. It is not necessarily a checklist of all the policies and procedures that might be applicable to a firm's practice. Firms about to be reviewed should respond directly with "yes," "no," or "N/A" answers and briefly describe, where appropriate, the policies and procedures they have in effect that relate to the questions asked. Where appropriate, firms should make reference to any firm documents that describe those policies and procedures in more detail. Examples of such documents might be personnel manuals, audit and accounting manuals, a quality control document or manual, and firm forms and checklists.

A. Independence

1. Does the firm, including all its professional personnel, adhere to the independence rules, regulations, interpretations, and rulings of the—
   a. AICPA?
   b. State CPA society?
   c. State board of accountancy?
   d. State accountancy laws?
   e. SEC and other regulatory agencies?

2. Describe how the firm informs its professional personnel of the applicable independence requirements (for example, through its personnel manual, audit and accounting manual, training meetings, memoranda).

3. How does the firm inform its professional personnel of the new clients to which independence requirements apply? For example, does the firm—
   a. Circulate new client lists to all personnel?
   b. Post new clients on a staff bulletin board?
   c. Report new clients at staff meetings?
   d. Use other (describe) means?

4. Does the firm obtain at least annually written representations from all professional personnel concerning their compliance with applicable independence requirements? If not, how does the firm monitor compliance with its independence policies?
5. Who is responsible for resolving independence questions:
   a. The engagement partner?
   b. The managing partner?
   c. Someone else (identify individual)?

6. In connection with the resolution of independence questions—
   a. In what circumstances must the question and its resolution be documented?
   b. Where is the documentation maintained (for example, the working paper files or other specific firm or client files)?
   c. What sources are or would be consulted?
   d. Has the firm found it necessary within the last year to consult with individuals outside the firm on independence matters?

7. Does the firm have any engagements where it acts as principal auditor or accountant and another firm of CPAs is engaged to perform segments of the engagement?

8. If the answer to (7) above is "yes"—
   a. Does the firm confirm the independence of such other firm(s)?
   b. Does it do so in writing?
   c. Does it do so annually?

9. Does the firm review accounts receivable from clients to ascertain whether any outstanding amounts have taken on some of the characteristics of loans and, therefore, may impair the firm's independence?
   a. Who does this?
   b. How often is it done?
   c. Have there been any such situations during the year under review?
B. Assigning Personnel to Engagements

1. Describe the method the firm uses to assign professional personnel to engagements. In that description, include—a. The basis on which assignments are made. For example, some firms make assignments on an engagement by engagement basis; others assign personnel to specific clients and hold them accountable for all services to those clients.
   b. How staff are advised of their assignments. For example, some firms do this orally; others issue memoranda or copies of scheduling forms; others post assignments to a staff bulletin board.
   c. Who is responsible for making staff assignments on a day-to-day basis.
   d. How that person is informed of estimated time requirements and of any special skills or experience that a given assignment might demand.
   e. How far in advance assignments are typically made.

C. Consultation

1. During the year under review, has the firm sought advice from outside parties to resolve questions involving professional standards or specialized industry practices?

2. How does the firm determine when to consult with outside parties and with whom to consult?

3. Describe the extent to which the firm expects consultations with outside parties to be documented. Where is such documentation maintained?

4. Does the firm's library include current editions of—
   a. AICPA Professional Standards?
   b. AICPA industry audit guides relevant to the firm's practice?
   c. FASB pronouncements?
   d. GASB pronouncements, Government Auditing Standards (the "yellow book") and other government audit guides relevant to the firm's practice?
D. Supervision

1. Does the firm follow documented procedures for planning audit and accounting engagements and, if so, where are those procedures found (e.g., in an audit and accounting manual)?

2. If the answer to (1) is "no," briefly describe the procedures the firm performs in planning audit and accounting engagements in practice, including the information obtained and considered and the nature, timing and extent of partner involvement in the planning process. Also describe any variations in those procedures based on factors such as the nature and size of the engagement and prior experience on the engagement.

3. Is a written audit program used on all audit engagements?

4. Indicate whether the firm has written guidance materials regarding the following matters. If so, indicate where the material is found and whether it was developed internally or was obtained from an outside source, and name the source.
   a. Evaluation and documentation of internal controls, including computer controls?
   b. Consideration of internal controls in planning the audit?
   c. Audit risk and materiality considerations?
   d. Audit sampling techniques?
   e. Using analytical procedures instead of, or in combination with, tests of details?
   f. Form and content of working papers?
   g. Other audit and accounting matters, in the form of an audit and accounting manual?

5. Does the firm use any standardized forms, checklists, or questionnaires? If so, attach a list and indicate whether the use of each is required or discretionary. (Note that the reviewer will want to inspect these forms during the review.)
6. Has the firm established procedures to be followed when differences of opinion exist among firm personnel on an audit (see AICPA Professional Standards, AU section 311.14)?
   a. Are those procedures documented? Where?
   b. Do those procedures allow an assistant to document his or her disagreement with the conclusion reached?

7. Does the firm use other offices or correspondents for audit or accounting engagements? If “yes,” describe the form in which instructions are given to other offices or correspondents and the extent to which their work is reviewed, or indicate where the firm’s procedures for the supervision and control of that work are found.

8. Does the firm have documented procedures for review by supervisors and partners of the reports, financial statements, and working papers for —
   a. Audits?
   b. Reviews?
   c. Compilations?

9. If the answer to (8) is “yes,” indicate where those procedures are found. If the answer is “no,” briefly describe the procedures that are followed, including how the review process is documented.

10. Does the firm require that an individual having no other significant responsibility for the engagement perform a preissuance review of some or all engagements? If “yes,” indicate who performs such preissuance reviews and briefly describe the extent of the review and how the review is documented, indicating the types of engagements to which the procedures are applicable. Alternatively, indicate where these procedures are found.

11. Has the firm merged with any other firm since the date of its last quality review or in the last three years? If “yes” —
   a. Did the firm acquire any professional personnel in the merger?
   b. Did the firm acquire and retain any new office or offices in the merger (indicate the locations of any such offices)?
   c. Have the personnel of the merged firm adopted the firm’s quality control policies and procedures?
E. Hiring

1. Briefly describe how the firm identifies its professional personnel needs, how it goes about recruiting such personnel, and who makes the decision to hire an applicant.

2. Briefly describe the personal, educational, and experience attributes sought in entry-level personnel and in experienced personnel and indicate whether they are objectives or requirements.

3. Identify the types of background information the firm requires for new hires, such as resumes, transcripts, and personal or employment references.

4. Briefly describe how new professional personnel are informed about the policies and procedures that are applicable to them. Also, attach a list of the manuals, professional publications, and other documents relevant to their professional assignments that are provided to them individually.

F. Professional Development

1. Are all professional personnel in compliance with state and AICPA Continuing Professional Education requirements? If not, attach a list of those personnel who are not in compliance and indicate the firm's plan for correcting the situation.

2. Briefly describe how the firm plans the allocation of CPE hours among accounting and auditing, tax, and other topics and indicate when that is done.

3. Provide an approximation of the nature of the CPE taken by professional personnel assigned to audit and accounting engagements:
   a. Self-study courses ..................  ____%
   b. In-house training programs—
      (i) Developed by the firm ............  ____%
      (ii) Obtained from outside vendors .  ____%
   c. State society or AICPA programs ........  ____%
   d. Other programs ........................  ____%

4. Who maintains CPE records and course materials?
5. How are professional personnel made aware of changes in accounting and auditing standards and in the firm’s technical policies and procedures (for example, by distributing technical pronouncements and holding training courses on recent changes and areas noted by the firm as needing improvement)?

G. Advancement

1. What levels of responsibility exist within the firm (e.g., partner, manager, senior)?

2. Are personnel at all levels aware of the responsibilities of each of these positions? How is this accomplished? Are those responsibilities documented in, for example, a personnel manual?

3. Does the firm periodically evaluate the performance of professional personnel and advise them of their progress in the firm?

   a. When are these evaluations performed?
   b. Are they documented?

4. Are partners periodically evaluated, and by what means (e.g., peer evaluation, self-appraisal, counseling)?

5. Briefly describe how advancement decisions are made (a) within the professional staff and (b) to the partnership.

H. Acceptance and Continuance of Clients

1. Briefly describe the procedures followed by the firm, including any documents generally obtained and reviewed and any inquiries generally made of third parties, before accepting a client for whom the firm will provide audit or accounting services in order to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that the client has integrity, to identify any unusual risks that might be associated with the client, and to evaluate the firm’s ability to serve the client in a competent and independent manner. Also indicate any variances in those procedures, depending on, for example, the services to be provided.

2. Indicate when or under what circumstances current audit and accounting clients are evaluated to determine whether the relationship should be continued, and briefly describe the procedures that are followed.

3. Were any audit or accounting client relationships terminated by the firm during the year under review?
I. Inspection

1. Does the firm perform an annual inspection? If "yes," briefly describe—

   a. The scope of the program, including who carries it out.

   b. The materials used, such as questionnaires, programs, and checklists.

   c. The documentation of the work performed and conclusions reached and the period of time such documentation and conclusions are retained.

2. Has the firm taken appropriate corrective action in response to the findings on its most recent quality review or peer review?

Guidelines for Review of Quality Control Policies and Procedures for Sole Practitioners With No Professional Staff

.01 To assist the reviewer in performing his or her work, suggested review procedures have been developed for evaluating the appropriateness of the reviewed firm's quality control policies and procedures and for testing compliance with them. The suggested procedures for review of a sole practitioner with no professional staff are set forth in QRP section 4400.

.02 The suggested review procedures are based on typical policies and procedures that a firm may have established. Therefore, they should be modified by the reviewer as circumstances may require.

.03 The extent of the review team's testing should be documented on the appropriate pages of the Guidelines (which serve as a program) and supplemented as necessary with additional pages.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Suggested Review Procedures</th>
<th>Findings, Including Extent of Testing</th>
<th>Done By (Initials)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

A. Independence

1. Interview the CPA and—

   a. Review the CPA's responses to the independence section (part A) of the Quality Control Policies and Procedures Questionnaire (the "questionnaire") and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Inquire about financial or other relationships that may be prohibited relationships, such as:

      (i) Business relationships with clients or with nonclients that have investor or investee relationships with clients.

      (ii) Loans from financial institutions.

      (iii) Family members in director or manager positions with client entities, including not-for-profit organizations.

      (iv) Past-due fees for professional services.

      (v) Accounting or advisory services that have evolved into situations where the CPA has assumed some of the responsibilities of management.

   c. Inquire about any situations where the CPA has elected not to be independent and whether the CPA withdrew from the audit or accounting engagement or appropriately modified his or her report.

   d. Inquire into the procedures the CPA follows to provide reasonable assurance that new or revised rules, interpretations, or rulings on independence matters are considered in the practice.

2. Identify by review of files or by interviewing the CPA all situations in which independence questions arose during the year being reviewed and consider whether the resolution of such questions appears appropriate.

3. If sufficient testing is not performed as part of the engagement reviews, determine, on a test basis, that the CPA has complied with his or her policies and procedures and with the requirements of generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS) for obtaining appropriate assurance of the independence of other firms engaged to perform segments of engagements for which the CPA is the principal auditor or accountant.
B. Consultation

1. Interview the CPA and—
   a. Review the CPA’s responses to the consultation section (part B) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.
   b. Inquire into and evaluate the CPA’s views concerning when outside consultation should take place and the sources that should be used.

2. Identify by review of appropriate documentation (see questionnaire, B.1, B.2, and B.3) or by interviewing the CPA situations in which consultation has taken place and evaluate whether the advice appears appropriate and whether the CPA responded appropriately to that advice.

3. Inspect the CPA’s library for his or her audit and accounting practice and determine whether it is sufficiently comprehensive and current. Specifically determine that the library includes recent pronouncements and literature appropriate for the CPA’s specialties and that loose-leaf services are filed on a timely basis.

C. Supervision

1. Interview the CPA and review his or her responses to the supervision section (part C) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

2. Evaluate the CPA’s procedures for planning audit and accounting engagements.

3. If the CPA uses quality control materials (e.g., an audit and accounting manual or standardized forms, checklists, and questionnaires) developed by another accounting firm or some other third party, consider whether the materials are suitably designed. (The reviewer also may wish to obtain the most recent report of the design of those materials.)

4. Review and evaluate the following quality control materials developed by the CPA and those materials developed by other parties on which there is no separate report on the review of the suitability of their design:
   a. Evaluation and documentation of internal controls, including computer controls.
   b. Consideration of internal controls in planning the audit.
c. Audit risk and materiality considerations.

d. Audit sampling techniques.

e. Using analytical procedures instead of, or in combination with, tests of details.

f. Form and content of working papers.

g. Other audit and accounting matters, in the form of an audit and accounting manual.

Generally, a "high-spot" review will be made of these materials because the team captain will usually emphasize engagement review, compared to review of policies and procedures, in the conduct of the review of a sole practitioner.

5. Review and evaluate the appropriateness of any standardized forms, checklists—especially, financial statement disclosure checklists—or questionnaires (see questionnaire, C.5) and, if the use of any is discretionary, consider whether that policy is appropriate for the CPA.

6. Evaluate the CPA's procedures for the supervision and control of work, if any, performed by correspondents.

7. Inquire about any unusual accounting or auditing problems related to clients purchased during the year under review and evaluate the appropriateness of the CPA's assessment and treatment of such matters.

D. Professional Development

1. Review the CPA's continuing professional education records and determine that those records are adequate to demonstrate compliance with the requirements of the AICPA, the state board of accountancy, and the state CPA society, if applicable.

2. Discuss with the CPA the factors considered in planning his or her CPE activities and evaluate the appropriateness of the plan for the year under review and compliance with the plan. In that connection, consider—a. The allocation of CPE hours among accounting and auditing, tax, and other topics.

   b. The nature of the CPE obtained (self-study, attendance at conferences, participation in group-study programs).
E. Other Matters

1. Read the CPA’s responses to the sections of the questionnaire on acceptance and continuance of clients (part E) and inspection (part F) to obtain a general understanding of the CPA’s quality control policies and procedures with respect to those two elements of quality control. However, no specific compliance tests of these two broad functions are required, provided that the team captain concludes that the review of selected engagements and interviews with the CPA will provide an adequate means of identifying failures, if any, to achieve the objectives inherent in those two elements of quality control.

2. Discuss with the CPA plans, if any, the CPA may have for recruiting professional personnel and review with the CPA the quality control considerations related to the hiring of additional personnel as well as the implications of that for the CPA’s quality control system.
QRP Section 4500

Guidelines for Review of Quality Control Policies and Procedures for Firms With Two or More Professionals

.01 To assist the review team in performing its work, suggested review procedures have been developed for evaluating the appropriateness of the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures and for testing the firm’s compliance with them. The suggested procedures for reviews of firms with two or more professional staff are set forth in QRP section 4500.

.02 The suggested review procedures are based on typical policies and procedures that a firm may have established. Therefore, they should be modified by the reviewer as circumstances may require.

.03 The extent of the review team’s testing should be documented on the appropriate pages of the Guidelines (which serve as a program) and supplemented as necessary with additional pages.

.04 Some of the suggested quality review procedures include inquiring about particular quality control functions. The objectives of these inquiries include:

a. Corroborating the information provided to the reviewer in the questionnaire completed by the reviewed firm; and

b. Determining whether the firm’s policies and procedures have been effectively communicated to the individual(s) responsible for the particular quality control function.
A. Independence

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm's responses to the independence section (part A) of the Quality Control Policies and Procedures Questionnaire (the "questionnaire") and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Inquire about financial or other relationships that may be prohibited relationships, such as

      (i) Business relationships with clients or with nonclients that have investor or investee relationships with clients.

      (ii) Loans from financial institutions.

      (iii) Family members in director or manager positions with client entities, including not-for-profit organizations.

      (iv) Past-due fees for professional services.

      (v) Accounting or advisory services that have evolved into situations where the firm has assumed some of the responsibilities of management.

   c. Inquire about any situations where the firm is not independent and whether the firm withdrew from the audit or accounting engagement or appropriately modified its report.

   d. Inquire into the procedures the firm follows to provide reasonable assurance that new or revised rules, interpretations, or rulings on independence matters are considered in the practice.

1 The "appropriate individual" would usually be an owner and, depending on the circumstances, may be the managing partner, the individual responsible for the accounting and auditing function, the individual responsible for the quality control function, or other partners or shareholders responsible for specific functions.
2. Identify by review of files or by interviewing the appropriate individual a selection of situations in which independence questions arose during the year being reviewed and consider whether the resolution of such questions appears appropriate.

3. Review the written independence confirmations obtained by the firm for a sample (indicate number ___) of professional personnel, if required by firm policy.

4. Determine by review of appropriate documentation (see questionnaire, A.3) and by interviews with selected staff (see separate interview guidelines) that the firm has advised all professional personnel on a timely basis about entities to which the independence rules apply and that professional personnel are familiar with the firm’s independence policies and procedures.

5. If sufficient testing is not performed as part of the engagement reviews, determine, on a test basis, that the firm has complied with its policies and procedures and with the requirements of generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS) for obtaining appropriate assurance of the independence of other firms engaged to perform segments of engagements for which the firm is the principal auditor.

B. Assigning Personnel to Engagements

For firms with up to ten professionals (defined as CPAs and those expected to seek that status) during the majority of the review year, the team captain would ordinarily decide not to complete this section of the questionnaire. This would be appropriate, according to the Standards, when the team captain concludes that the review of selected engagements and interviews with firm personnel will provide an adequate means of identifying failures, if any, to achieve the objectives of this element of quality control. However, when significant deficiencies are noted in the engagements reviewed, the team captain may need to perform some or all of the procedures described in this section in order to identify corrective actions the firm should consider taking. Moreover, in all reviews, as noted in the Standards, the review team should obtain a general understanding of the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures with respect to this element of quality control; ordinarily, that understanding can be obtained from reading the reviewed firm’s responses to the quality control policies and procedures questionnaire.
1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm's responses to the assigning personnel section (part B) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Inquire about the criteria and other factors considered in making personnel assignments and about the relative priorities assigned to:

      (i) Engagement size and complexity.

      (ii) Personnel availability.

      (iii) Special expertise required.

      (iv) Timing of work to be performed.

      (v) Continuity and periodic rotation of personnel.

      (vi) Opportunities for on-the-job training.

2. Determine by review of appropriate documentation (see questionnaire, B.1.b) and by interviewing the appropriate individual how far in advance staffing requirements for engagements are determined and how far in advance staff are notified of their particular work assignments.

3. Determine by interviews with selected staff whether they believe the assignments they have received are appropriate. (See separate interview guidelines.)

C. Consultation

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm's responses to the consultation section (part C) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Inquire into and evaluate the firm's policies and procedures concerning consultation outside the firm, especially those dealing with when consultation should take place and the sources that should be used.
2. Identify by review of documentation (see questionnaire, C.2, C.3, and C.4) or by interviewing the appropriate individual situations in which consultation with outside parties has taken place. Evaluate the advice received and whether the firm acted appropriately on that advice.

3. Inspect the firm's library for its audit and accounting practice and determine whether it is sufficiently comprehensive and current. Specifically determine that the library includes recent pronouncements and literature appropriate for the firm's specialties and that loose-leaf services are filed on a timely basis.

4. Interview selected staff to confirm their awareness of the firm's consultation policies and procedures and discuss how they follow those policies and procedures in practice. (See separate interview guidelines.)

D. Supervision

1. Interview the appropriate individual and review the firm's responses to the supervision section (part D) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

2. Evaluate the firm's procedures for planning audit and accounting engagements.

3. If the firm uses quality control materials (e.g., an audit and accounting manual or standardized forms, checklists, and questionnaires) developed by another accounting firm or some other third party, consider whether the materials are suitably designed. (The reviewer may also wish to obtain the most recent report on the review of the design of those materials.)

4. Review and evaluate the following quality control materials developed by the firm and those materials developed by other parties on which there is no separate report on the review of the suitability of their design:

   a. Evaluation and documentation of internal controls, including computer controls.

   b. Consideration of internal controls in planning the audit.

   c. Audit risk and materiality considerations.

The timing and extent of the review of these materials will depend on the size of the firm and the extent to which the team captain has decided to emphasize engagement review, compared to review of policies and procedures, in the conduct of the review.

5. Review and evaluate the appropriateness of any standardized forms, checklists—especially, financial statement disclosure checklists—or questionnaires (see questionnaire, D.5) and, if the use of any is discretionary, consider whether that policy is appropriate for the firm.

6. Evaluate the firm’s procedures for review of the engagement reports, financial statements, and working papers.

7. Evaluate the firm’s procedures for the supervision and control of work, if any, performed by other offices or correspondents.

8. Evaluate the firm’s procedures for resolving differences of opinion among members of an engagement team.

9. Inquire of the appropriate individual about any unusual accounting or auditing problems related to clients obtained in a merger during the year under review and evaluate the appropriateness of the firm’s assessment and treatment of such matters.

10. Interview selected staff to confirm their awareness of the firm’s supervision policies and procedures. (See separate interview guidelines.)
E. Hiring

For reviews of firms with up to ten professionals, the team captain would ordinarily decide not to complete this section. See section B for more commentary and guidance.

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm’s responses to the hiring section (part E) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Inquire into how the firm plans its personnel needs and whether the hiring program satisfies those needs.

   c. Ask how potential hires are identified and informed about the firm.

2. Select a sample (indicate number ___) of new hires, including those joining the firm through mergers or at supervisory levels, obtain each individual’s personnel file, and—

   a. Determine whether the background information and other documentation required by firm policy was obtained.

   b. Review the documentation and evaluate whether the individual possesses the desired attributes, achievements, and experience. If not, ascertain from other documentation or from inquiry why an exception was made.

   c. Select one or more of these new hires for an interview. (See separate interview guidelines.)

F. Professional Development

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm’s responses to the professional development section (part F) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Evaluate the adequacy of the actions being taken to correct situations involving professional personnel, if any, who are not in compliance with CPE requirements (see questionnaire, F.1).
c. Discuss the factors considered in planning the CPE program and evaluate the appropriateness of the plan for the year under review, including the allocation of CPE hours by subject area and the nature of the CPE taken (see questionnaire, F.2 and F.3).

2. Review the firm’s CPE records on a test basis and consider whether they appear adequate to demonstrate compliance with AICPA, state board, and state society requirements and whether they indicate that the firm’s plans for the CPE program are being carried out.

3. If the firm presents a significant amount of in-house training, select a sample (indicate number ___) of such programs for review. Examine appropriate documentation to determine whether—

   a. The developer is qualified.
   b. The course is technically accurate, current, and contributes to the professional competence of the attendees.
   c. The instructor is qualified.
   d. The participants and instructor evaluate the course, and appropriate action is taken when the evaluations are not favorable.

4. Interview selected staff to obtain their impressions of the firm’s CPE function and their on-the-job training, and to determine whether new professional standards and guidance materials are made available to them on a timely basis. (See separate interview guidelines.)

G. Advancement

For reviews of firms with up to ten professionals, the team captain would ordinarily decide not to complete this section. See section B for more commentary and guidance.

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm’s responses to the advancement section (part G) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

H. Acceptance and Continuance of Clients

For reviews of firms with up to ten professionals, the team captain would ordinarily decide not to complete this section. See section B for more commentary and guidance.

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm’s responses to the acceptance and continuance section (part H) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Inquire into the circumstances surrounding the termination, if any, of audit or accounting relationships during the year under review.

   c. Determine the extent to which firm policies and procedures require client acceptance and continuance decisions to be documented, and where such documentation is maintained.

2. Evaluate the appropriateness of the firm’s policies and procedures for the acceptance and continuance of clients, including procedures to ensure compliance with professional standards on communications between predecessor and successor accountants.

I. Inspection

For reviews of firms with up to ten professionals, the team captain would ordinarily decide not to complete this section. See section B for more commentary and guidance.

1. Interview the appropriate individual and—

   a. Review the firm’s responses to the inspection section (part I) of the questionnaire and clarify those responses, if necessary.

   b. Discuss the criteria used in selecting offices and engagements for review and for selecting individuals within or outside the firm to carry out such procedures.

   c. Discuss how the firm monitors whether the corrective actions planned as a result of an inspection are actually carried out.

2. Review the available documentation supporting annual inspections conducted since the last quality review, if any, and evaluate whether—

   a. The inspectors had sufficient training and experience.

   b. The inspection coverage included:

      (i) Reviewing and testing compliance with firm quality control policies and procedures relating to all the elements of quality control.
Guidelines for Review of Quality Control Policies—Two or More Professionals

Suggested Review Procedures

(ii) Reviewing an appropriate number of offices. (As noted in the Standards, reviewers should inquire of the entity administering the review as to any requirements of relevant state boards of accountancy that must be met for the review to be accepted by such board(s) as the equivalent of one performed under the board's own positive enforcement program.)

(iii) Reviewing an appropriate number and type of engagements for compliance with professional standards.

c. The inspection findings are appropriately summarized and documented.

d. The materials used in carrying out the inspection, such as questionnaires, programs, and checklists, are adequate.

e. Appropriate corrective action was taken on inspection findings, including, if necessary, action pursuant to the requirements of AICPA Professional Standards, AU 390 and AU 561.

3. Consider whether inspection findings for the year under review correlate with the findings on the quality review and explain any significant differences.

4. Interview selected staff to determine whether inspection findings have been appropriately communicated and considered. (See separate interview guidelines.)
QRP Section 4600

Staff Interview Questionnaire

.01 The review of a CPA firm's quality control policies and procedures requires that professional personnel be interviewed. The objective of these interviews is to provide corroborative evidence that certain policies and procedures have been properly communicated.

.02 When soliciting information, reviewers should consider the nature of the topic, the level of the person being interviewed, and the size of the firm.

.03 The questionnaire developed to guide the reviewer in conducting interviews is included in this section of the manual. It should be tailored as the interviewer deems appropriate.

.04 The individuals interviewed should have varying levels of experience and background. The number of individuals interviewed will be affected by the size and nature of the reviewed firm's practice.
AICPA Quality Review Program

STAFF INTERVIEW QUESTIONNAIRE

The review of a CPA firm’s quality control policies and procedures requires that professional personnel be interviewed. Interviews with firm personnel are generally contemplated as a corroborative technique rather than as a means for initially gathering information. Reviewers should consider the nature of the topic, the level of the person being interviewed, and the size of the firm when soliciting information. This questionnaire lists suggested interview questions that may be tailored as the interviewer deems appropriate. Interviews can also elicit reactions or perceptions of which the firm should be, but is not, aware. The interviewee should be advised that no record is kept of his or her name.

QRP Section 4700

Conclusions of the Review Team on an On-Site Quality Review

.01 Section 4700 sets forth a series of questions designed to assist reviewers in reaching overall conclusions on the functional areas. The responses also assist the reviewers in determining whether the appropriate procedures have been performed, adequately documented, and properly summarized. The questions incorporate the objectives of quality reviews.

.02 Reviewers should answer the questions asked in this section for each quality control element for which the corresponding section of the Guidelines for Review of Quality Control Policies and Procedures (QRP sections 4400 or 4500) was completed. If the questions concerning a particular element were not answered in the Guidelines, reviewers should place an “X” in the box directly below the name of the element.

.03 Section 4700 should be completed after the summaries of “no” answers on engagements and the summary of matter for further consideration forms have been prepared.

.04 See Appendixes B and D of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews (section 3000) of this manual for guidance on when a modified report should be issued and what matters should be included in a letter of comments.

.05 The conclusions noted in this section should be consistent with the matters discussed in the report and, if applicable, the letter of comments.

CONCLUSIONS OF THE REVIEW TEAM ON AN ON-SITE QUALITY REVIEW

Reviewers should answer the questions asked on this form concerning each quality control element for which the corresponding section in the Guidelines for Review of Quality Control Policies and Procedures was completed. If the questions concerning a particular quality control element were not answered in the Guidelines, reviewers should place an “X” in the box below the name of that element.

See appendixes B and D of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews (section 3000) for guidance on when a modified report should be issued and what matters should be included in a letter of comments.

A. Independence
1. Based on reading the information obtained from the questionnaire filled out by the reviewed firm and other relevant written firm materials, discussions with firm personnel, and the results of the specific procedures performed and engagements reviewed, do you conclude (after giving due consideration to factors such as the size of the firm, the degree of operating autonomy allowed its personnel and its practice offices, the nature of its practice, its organization, and appropriate cost-benefit considerations) that the firm:
   a. Requires all professional personnel to adhere to applicable independence rules, regulations, interpretations, and rulings?
   b. Communicates its policies and procedures relating to independence to all professional personnel?
   c. Requires, when acting as principal auditor, confirmation of the independence of another firm engaged to perform segments of an engagement?
   d. Adequately monitors compliance with its policies and procedures relating to independence on a timely basis?
   e. Complied with its independence policies and procedures during the period and adequately documented its compliance to the extent required by firm policy?

If Any of the Above Questions Were Answered “No”, Please Answer the Remaining Questions

2. In your opinion, do the “no” answers in Question 1 above indicate:
   a. A deficiency in the design of the system of quality control?
   b. Noncompliance with the system of quality control?
3. Briefly describe all "no" answers to Question 1. If the "no" answers are deemed to be instances of noncompliance, indicate whether they reflect a lack of performance or inadequate documentation.*

B. Assigning Personnel to Engagements

☑ Questions In Guidelines Not Answered

1. Based on reading the information obtained from the questionnaire filled out by the reviewed firm and other relevant written firm materials, discussions with firm personnel, and the results of the specific procedures performed and engagements reviewed, do you conclude (after giving due consideration to factors such as the size of the firm, the degree of operating autonomy allowed its personnel and its practice offices, the nature of its practice, its organization, and appropriate cost-benefit considerations) that the firm:

   a. Identifies on a timely basis the staffing requirements of specific engagements?

   b. Communicates its policies and procedures for assigning personnel to engagements to professional personnel?

   c. Appropriately considers the following factors in assigning partners and staff to achieve a balance of engagement manpower requirements, personnel skills, individual development, and utilization:

      i. Engagement size and complexity?

      ii. Timing of the work to be performed?

      iii. Special expertise required?

      iv. Continuity and periodic rotation of personnel?

      v. Opportunities for on-the-job training?

      vi. Personnel availability?

   d. Notifies staff of work assignments on a timely basis?

   e. Complied with its policies and procedures for assigning personnel to engagements during the period and adequately documented its compliance to the extent required by firm policy?

Team Captain Checklist—On-Site Quality Reviews

.01 This section of the manual contains a team captain checklist for on-site quality reviews. It provides a basic overview of the way in which all on-site quality reviews—regardless of firm size—are to be conducted.

.02 The checklist must be completed on all on-site quality reviews of firms enrolled in the AICPA Quality Review Program, whether those reviews are conducted by a review team formed by a firm engaged by the firm under review, by a state CPA society participating in the program or by the AICPA Quality Review Division (a committee-appointed review team), or by an authorized association of CPA firms.
AICPA Quality Review Program

TEAM CAPTAIN CHECKLIST—ON-SITE QUALITY REVIEWS

This checklist provides a basic overview of the way in which all on-site quality reviews—regardless of firm size—are to be conducted. It must be completed on all on-site quality reviews of firms enrolled in the AICPA Quality Review Program, whether those reviews are conducted by a review team formed by a firm engaged by the firm under review, by a state CPA society participating in the program or by the AICPA Quality Review Division (a committee-appointed review team), or by an authorized association of CPA firms.

On-site quality reviews are administered by state CPA societies participating in the program or, when the relevant state society has not elected to participate, by the AICPA Quality Review Division. Hereafter, those entities are referred to collectively as the administering entity.

Questions regarding the use of this checklist or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the staff of the administering entity or to such other individuals the administering entity may identify for that purpose.

I. Prior to the Review

1. Review the background information furnished by the firm and sent to you by the administering entity.

2. Contact the firm to be reviewed sufficiently in advance of the review (ordinarily, at least three weeks before the review) and—

   a. Confirm the timing of the review and the expected date of the exit conference.

   b. Confirm that the administering entity has been notified about the arrangements for the review and that the firm has received acknowledgement of that information.

   c. Confirm in all reviews performed by a committee-appointed review team that the firm has returned a signed copy of the engagement letter to the administering entity.

   d. Request the firm to provide—

      (i) A copy of its completed quality control policies and procedures questionnaire.

      (ii) A client list (see illustration in "Instructions to Reviewed Firms").

      (iii) A list of the firm's professional personnel, showing name, position, and years of experience (1) with the firm and (2) in total.

      (iv) A copy of the client's 8-K filing notifying the SEC of the change in auditors if the firm has been the auditor for an SEC registrant and has resigned, declined to stand for re-election or been dismissed during the review year to verify that the client/auditor relationship has terminated.

   e. If the firm performed an SEC engagement during the review year contact the AICPA Quality Review Division.

   f. Confirm that the firm has designated a partner or senior staff member to act as a liaison with the review team.

   g. Confirm that persons in the firm responsible for the various quality control functions will be available for interviews during the review, especially at the beginning of the review. (In smaller firms, the managing partner might be the primary source of information about the firm's quality controls.)
h. Inquire whether—

   (i) The partners, shareholders, or proprietor of the firm and the firm itself have licenses to practice public accounting in the state(s) in which the firm practices as required by the applicable state board(s) of accountancy.

   (ii) The firm is being or has been investigated during the last three years by any state board of accountancy or AICPA or state society professional ethics committee in connection with the quality of the firm’s accounting and auditing practice and, if available, the results thereof.

   (iii) Any other situations exist which might affect the ability of the firm to engage legally in the practice of public accounting.

i. Select a review period that covers a current period of one year and obtain the agreement of the reviewed firm. The review year ordinarily should end about three to four months before the review commences. It does not have to be the same as the firm’s fiscal year. Unless the administering entity agrees to another period because of unusual circumstances, the review year must not end before the end of the previous calendar year.

3. Contact any other review team members and confirm arrangements, including travel and hotel arrangements, with them.

4. Read the reviewed firm’s responses to the appropriate quality control policies and procedures questionnaire to obtain a general understanding of those policies and procedures.

5. Based on the information provided by the reviewed firm, make a preliminary selection of the practice offices to be visited and the engagements to be reviewed. See the Standards for guidance on the selection of offices and engagements and note that engagements selected for review should be those with years ending during the year under review unless a more recent report has been issued at the time of selection. To minimize any assertion that advance selections may afford undue opportunities for “clean-up” of the working papers, it is preferable that the selection of some engagements not be made known to the firm until the review team arrives.

   a. Assign code numbers to the engagements selected to maintain client confidentiality and request the firm to complete the profile sheets in the engagement review checklists and to assemble the working papers and reports before the review begins.

   b. If the reviewed firm does not permit the working papers for certain engagements to be reviewed, evaluate the reasonableness of the explanation and consider what other actions may be appropriate in the circumstances (see the Standards, on “Scope of the Review”). When the explanation is that the client has refused to allow its engagement to be reviewed, inspect any written communications between the firm and the client and evaluate whether the firm made a good-faith effort to obtain the client’s concurrence to the review.

II. At the Beginning of the Review

1. Meet with other reviewers to—

   a. Orient them to firm policies and procedures.

   b. Instruct them in the manner in which working papers, questionnaires, checklists, and MFC forms are to be prepared to facilitate supervision and review.
On-Site Quality Reviews for Firms That Perform Audits

III. During the Review

1. Gain, through discussion with the managing partner and/or other key personnel an understanding of the firm’s professional and management environment and the business environment in which the firm and its clients practice. (The professional environment established by a firm and the business environment in which it and its clients operate can have a significant impact on the effectiveness of a firm’s quality control system. A quality firm has as its overriding objective the provision of audit, accounting, tax, and advisory services to clients in the best professional manner; the reviewer should know whether this philosophy is espoused by the firm and whether it is communicated to and understood by all personnel. Also, the business environment in which the firm and its clients operate can place pressures on professionalism, pressures that only a strong system supported by leadership from the top can ordinarily meet.)

2. Make or approve any modifications to programs and checklists issued by the AICPA for the conduct of the review, noting that the Standards provide: “Failure to complete all relevant programs and checklists in a professional manner creates the presumption that the review has not been performed in conformity with these standards. Such a review cannot be accepted as meeting the requirements of the quality review program.”

3. Make any additional selection of offices or engagements for review and ascertain that the scope of the review conforms with the guidance in the Standards.

4. Make appropriate arrangements for an exit conference and, for multi-office firms, determine that appropriate arrangements are made for an exit conference at each office visited.

5. Consult with the administering entity or its designee whenever any of the following situations are encountered:
   a. The review team feels it may not have the expertise required under the Standards to accomplish the required engagement reviews satisfactorily.
   b. The review team is considering whether to terminate the review because, for example, of a lack of cooperation.
   c. The review team and the reviewed firm have a disagreement on a significant matter, including the type of report to be issued, the letter of comment to be issued, matters that may require the application of the guidance in AICPA Professional Standards, AU 561 and AU 390, and similar matters with respect to engagements to compile or review historical financial statements or to examine prospective financial statements.
   d. There is any uncertainty about the report to be issued or the matters to be included in the letter of comments (see IV. 1).

6. Consider the need to consult with the administering entity or its designee whenever the following situations are encountered:
Team Captain Checklist—On-Site Quality Reviews

a. Difficulties in complying with the Standards, especially in selecting engagements or offices for review.

b. Circumstances that may call for issuance of other than an unqualified report.

7. Prepare or review the applicable checklist, “Guidelines for On-Site Quality Reviews.” (There is one checklist for sole practitioners with no professional staff and one for all firms with two or more professionals.)

8. Prepare or review a summary of “no” answers on engagements reviewed. (The format of the summarization is left to the discretion of the reviewer; however, summary engagement checklists are available in QRP section 6000.)

   a. Ascertain that all significant items are included on an MFC form and
   b. Review the reviewed firm’s responses to all such forms, making sure that the form clearly indicates that the reviewed firm agrees with the facts as described or explains its reasons for disagreement.

9. If it facilitates summarization of the results of the review of the firm as a whole, prepare or review memoranda summarizing the results of the reviews of each office visited using the format suggested in Appendix A to this checklist.

10. Prepare or review a summary of MFC forms and evaluate the impact of the matters discussed on those forms on the firm’s quality control system and its compliance with that system. (The format of the summarization is left to the discretion of the reviewer; however, a summary format is available in QRP section 4900.)

11. Complete the applicable sections of the “Conclusions of the Review Team on an On-Site Quality Review.” The reviewer should only complete those sections for which the corresponding section in the Guidelines for Review of Quality Control Policies and Procedures was completed.

12. Develop a list of points to be discussed at the firm-wide exit conference, distinguishing between—
   a. Matters that will require modification of the report.
   b. Other matters that will be included in the letter of comments.
   c. Other comments and suggestions.

13. Prepare the firm-wide summary review memorandum using the format suggested in Appendix B to this checklist.

14. Notify the administering entity promptly if there is a change in the date of the exit conference.

IV. At Completion of the Review

1. Communicate the review team’s findings to senior members of the reviewed firm at an exit conference. The reviewed firm is entitled to be informed at the exit conference about any matters that may affect the report and about all significant findings and recommendations that will be included in the letter of comments. Accordingly, except in rare circumstances which should be explained to the reviewed firm, the exit conference should be postponed if there is any uncertainty about the report to be issued or the matters to be included in the letter of comments. Also, at that time discuss the following with the reviewed firm—

   a. The report and letter of comments:
      (i) Are to be provided to the reviewed firm within thirty days of the exit conference.
On-Site Quality Reviews for Firms That Perform Audits

(ii) Are to be sent, along with an appropriate response, by the reviewed firm to the administering entity within thirty days of the date it receives the report and letter of comments.

b. The letter of response should be addressed to the quality review committee of the administering entity and should describe the remedial or corrective actions taken or planned to prevent a recurrence of each matter described in the letter of comments. If the reviewed firm disagrees with one or more of the findings or recommendations in the letter of comments, its response should describe the reasons for such disagreement.

c. The reviewed firm should not publicize the results of the review or distribute copies of the report to its personnel, clients, or others until it has been advised that the report has been accepted by the administering entity.

d. The actual time incurred on the review to date and additional time anticipated to complete all aspects of the review.

2. Prepare the report and letter of comments following the guidance in the Standards, and—
   a. Submit the original of such documents to the reviewed firm within thirty days of the date of the exit conference.
   b. Submit a copy of such documents to the administering entity, along with a copy of the review completion form. (See Appendix A)

3. Complete the summary review memorandum. (See Appendix B)

4. For reviews conducted by committee-appointed review teams—
   a. Prepare evaluations of review team members using the forms supplied by the administering entity and place them in the working papers.
   b. Send all working papers to the administering entity by an insured carrier in two separate mailings—
      (i) Working papers for reviews of individual engagements.
      (ii) All other working papers and correspondence. (See Appendix C)
   c. Approve bills for time and expenses of review team members and submit them along with your own bill to the administering entity. Make sure the bills include the Federal employer identification number for Form 1099 purposes, when applicable.

5. For all other reviews, send a copy of the firm-wide summary review memorandum and of the team captain checklist to the administering entity. Note that other working papers on these reviews are subject to oversight procedures, which may be applied at a later date.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF SUMMARY REVIEW MEMORANDUM

The purpose of the Summary Review Memorandum is to document (1) the planning of the review, (2) the scope of the work performed, (3) the findings and conclusions supporting the report and letter of comments, if any, and (4) the comments communicated to senior management of the reviewed firm that were not deemed of sufficient significance to include in the letter of comments. This documentation is required to enable the administering entity to exercise its oversight function in an effective and consistent manner.

The attached form, if properly completed, ordinarily should provide the documentation necessary to meet these objectives. If there is insufficient space to fully describe any matters, additional sheets should be used and attached to the form.

A copy of the summary review memorandum and of the team captain checklist must be submitted to the administering entity for all on-site quality reviews, whether conducted by committee-appointed review teams, firms, or teams appointed by authorized associations of CPA firms.

IV. Overall Findings and Conclusions:

A. Attach a copy of the report issued.

B. Was a letter of comments issued? Yes ____ No ____. If yes, attach a copy. If no, comment briefly on the reviewer’s findings in relation to that decision.

C. If the results of the firm's most recent inspection were evaluated by the review team (not required for reviews of firms with up to ten professionals), do the inspection findings differ in one or more significant respects from the findings of the quality review? Yes ____ No ____. If yes, briefly describe the general nature of the differences and their effects on the scope of the review.
D. In a review of a multi-office firm, did the review team conclude that the degree of noncompliance at one or more offices was of such significance that a condition was created in which there was more than a remote possibility that the office(s) would not conform with professional standards on accounting and auditing engagements? Yes ___ No ___. If yes, briefly describe the nature and extent of the deficiencies noted in the office(s) or attach a copy of the summary review memorandum prepared on that office.

F. Describe the nature and extent of each matter discussed at the exit conference and/or communicated to senior management of the reviewed firm that was not deemed of sufficient significance to include in a letter of comments.
G. Did the review disclose any situations that led the reviewers to conclude that the financial statements did not conform in all material respects with generally accepted accounting principles (or, if applicable, a comprehensive basis of accounting other than GAAP) and the auditor's/ accountant's report was not appropriately modified? (AU561 and ET203) Yes ____ No ____.

If yes:

1. Describe such situations fully.

2. Indicate whether the firm considered the matter.

3. Describe the actions the firm has taken or plans to take.

4. If the firm has taken the necessary actions, indicate whether you have reviewed documentation of such actions (for example, reissued report and financial statements or letter recalling previously issued reports) and whether the actions are appropriate.

5. If the firm has not taken the necessary actions, indicate whether you concur with its planned actions.

6 These situations should be reflected on the Engagement Statistics Data Sheet in Attachment 1. Also, when there is a disagreement with the reviewed firm about these situations, the reviewers should consult with the administering entity or its designee.
H. Did the review disclose any situations that led the reviewers to conclude that the firm did not perform an engagement in all material respects in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and other applicable standards including, where applicable, governmental auditing standards (AU390 and ET202)? Yes ___ No ____.\(^7\) If yes:

1. Describe such situations fully.

2. Indicate whether the firm considered the matter.

3. Describe the actions the firm has taken or plans to take.

4. If the firm has performed the additional procedures necessary to support the previously issued opinion, indicate whether you have reviewed the documentation of the additional procedures and whether the conclusions reached are appropriate.

5. If the firm has not performed the necessary procedures, indicate whether you concur with the planned actions.

\(^7\) See footnote 6.
I. Did the review disclose any situations that led the reviewers to conclude that the firm did not perform an engagement in all material respects in accordance with standards for accounting and review services (ET202)? Yes ___ No ____. If yes:

1. Describe such situations fully. ____________________________________________________________

2. Indicate whether the firm considered the matter. ____________________________________________

3. Describe the actions the firm has taken or plans to take. ______________________________________

4. If the firm has completed the necessary actions, indicate whether you have reviewed documentation of such actions. ____________________________________________________________

5. If the firm has not yet taken the necessary actions, indicate whether you concur with its planned actions. _________________________________________________________________

8 See footnote 6.
J. Did the review disclose any situations that led the reviewers to conclude that the firm did not perform an engagement in all material respects in accordance with the standards for accountants' services on prospective financial information or any other standards not encompassed in items G, H, and I of this section? Yes ____ No ____.

If yes:

1. Describe such situations fully.

2. Indicate whether the firm considered the matter.

3. Describe the actions the firm has taken or plans to take.

4. If the firm has completed the necessary actions, indicate whether you have reviewed documentation of such actions.

5. If the firm has not taken the necessary actions, indicate whether you concur with its planned actions.

K. If reliance is being placed on the firm’s inspection program for the current year, did the reviewed firm’s inspection program identify any engagements on which the firm must consider taking action pursuant to the standards cited in Items G, H, I and J of this section? Yes ____ No ____.

If noted, describe such instances fully, indicate whether the firm agrees with you, describe the actions the firm has taken or plans to take, and indicate whether you concur with that action.

Comments to Improve Auditing Standards

A significant potential benefit of the peer review and quality review program is the opportunity it provides to identify areas of practice where improvements can be made in the professional standards. Representatives of the SECPS and PCPS Peer Review Committees and the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee meet annually with representatives of the Auditing Standards Board to discuss the implications of peer review and quality review results for standard setting. However, the committees believe the personal advice of those participating in peer reviews and quality reviews needs to be added to the process.

Your observations of the policies and practices in many different firms and your judgments about the efficient and effective application of professional standards are potentially valuable sources of input for the Board. The Auditing Standards Board would appreciate receiving your comments on the attached questions as well as any other information that would be helpful to the standard-setting process. Responses should address areas where standards can be improved rather than specific peer or quality review engagements and should not include the names of any reviewed firms. Responses should be sent directly to Dan M. Guy, Vice President-Auditing, AICPA, 1211 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036. The Auditing Standards Board thanks you in advance for your contribution.

Instructions for Use of Matter for Further Consideration Forms

.01 A reviewer should prepare a matter for further consideration form (MFC) to clearly and concisely document all significant matters that require additional information or explanation of the facts from the reviewed firm.

.02 If a MFC form is prepared during the course of the review and subsequent information indicated that the form should not have been prepared, it may be discarded. (For example, an MFC may be discarded if it stated that no letter was received from legal counsel, but an acceptable letter has been received and misfiled and was subsequently found. Similarly, an MFC may be discarded if it stated that documentation in a particular area was inadequate, but the reviewer reconsidered and decided that documentation was adequate.) On the other hand, if an MFC is prepared for a matter which is valid, the MFC should not be discarded even though it is subsequently decided that the matter need not be covered in the letter of comments.

.03 The matters discussed on an MFC form should be classified as follows—

Performance—The reviewer believes that the reviewed firm failed to adhere to professional standards, including GAAP, GAAS, GAGAS, and SSARS.

Compliance—The reviewer believes that the reviewed firm did not comply with one of its prescribed policies or procedures even though it did comply with professional standards.

Documentation—The reviewer believes that the work performed in a particular area was not documented but, through inquiry or other means, the reviewer is satisfied that the work was performed.

Design—The reviewer believes that the firm's quality control policies and procedures, even if fully complied with, are not likely to accomplish an applicable quality control objective.

.04 Number MFCs consecutively (top and bottom) to establish correspondence between top and bottom stub.

.05 MFCs relating to both functional and engagement review areas should be sorted by nature of comment.

.06 The review team must consider the pattern and pervasiveness of engagement deficiencies and their implications for compliance with the firm’s system of quality control as a whole, in addition to their nature and significance in the specific circumstances in which they were observed. Matter for Further Consideration forms should be summarized to facilitate these considerations. The format of summarization is left to the discretion of the reviewer; however, a summary format is included on page 4903. Reviewers may use this summary format or develop their own.

QRP Section 5100

Instructions for Use of Engagement Checklists

General

.01 The review of engagements should include review of financial statements, accountants’ reports, working paper files, and correspondence, as well as discussions with professional personnel of the reviewed firm.

.02 The review of audit engagements should ordinarily include all key areas of the engagements selected to determine whether well-planned, appropriately executed, and suitably documented procedures were performed in accordance with professional standards and the reviewed firm’s quality control policies and procedures.

.03 Since, in most cases the engagement personnel will not be responsible for establishing firm policies, the reviewer should not challenge firm policies in discussions with engagement personnel. If any questions or observations regarding the appropriateness of the firm’s policies and procedures develop as a result of the engagement reviews, these matters should be discussed with the team captain.

Engagement Checklists

.04 The following checklists have been developed for use by review teams performing on-site quality reviews and are contained in this section of the manual:

a. General Audit Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 5200)
b. General Review Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 5300)
c. General Compilation Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 5400)
d. Governmental Audit Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 5500)
e. Not-for-Profit Audit Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 5600)
f. Supplemental Checklist for Review of Bank Audit Engagements (QRP Section 5710)
g. Supplemental Checklist for Review of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations Engagements (QRP Section 5730)
h. Supplemental Checklist for Review of Construction Contractor Engagements (QRP Section 5750)

.05 The general engagement checklists were developed for use in reviewing engagements of “for-profit” companies. They will require extensive modification or supplementation for engagements involving companies in specialized industries, such as insurance and finance companies. Reviewers may wish to refer to the specialized industry disclosure checklists and illustrative financial statements published by the AICPA.

.06 The engagement review checklists (which can be used for most engagements) contain the following sections:

1The Governmental Audit Engagement Checklist includes all of the sections discussed herein, as well as an additional section on compliance with the requirements of the Single Audit Act of 1984.
a. The first section of each checklist contains questions on the accountant’s report and the related financial statements and footnotes. This section of the checklist ordinarily would be completed for each engagement reviewed. However, on quality reviews of firms that have their own report and financial statement disclosure checklist that is completed by the firm’s personnel and filed with the engagement working papers, this section may not have to be completed for each engagement. In such situations, the comprehensiveness of the firm’s checklist and the appropriateness of its use on specific engagements should be tested by the review team. Any disclosure or reporting deficiencies identified by the reviewer should be noted in the comments section of the engagement checklist or on a “Matter for Further Consideration” (MFC) form.

b. The second section of the checklist contains questions concerning planning and other general procedures that normally should be performed for the applicable level of service (e.g., audit review or compilation). This section should be completed for each engagement reviewed.

c. The third section included in the general audit engagement checklist contains questions relating to specific audit areas. It is not ordinarily necessary to answer all parts of this section because of the emphasis on key audit areas. (See paragraph .09 below for a discussion of the “key audit area” approach.)

d. The fourth section of the checklist for review of audit engagements and the third section of the checklists for review of review and compilation engagements contains questions concerning the nine quality control areas. These questions are based on the typical policies and procedures that might be established by a firm. All the policies and procedures included in these questions will not have been adopted by all firms. Therefore, the team captain should determine, before the engagement reviews are conducted, if modifications to the checklists are necessary to fit the policies and procedures adopted by the reviewed firm. For example, a number of the questions are not applicable to sole practitioners without full-time professional staff. Each part of this section should be completed for each engagement reviewed.

.07 Audit Engagement Supplements have been developed to facilitate the reviews of audit engagements within specialized industries. At the present time, the checklists that have been approved by the Quality Review Executive Committee are listed in 5100.04. The checklist for Construction Contractors and Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations may also be useful on reviews and compilations.

Techniques for Review of Engagements

.08 Background information about an engagement should be obtained by discussion with the engagement partner and by reading the engagement profile sheet (which should be completed by the reviewed firm prior to commencement of the review of the engagement), the primary financial statements and any program sections, memoranda or other working papers describing the company and its business, the firm's audit approach and problem areas.

.09 Most reviewers find it effective to perform the review—that is, read the financial statements and the related report, review the "top files," applicable sections of the audit programs, correspondence files, consolidating working papers and other "key audit area" working papers—and then complete the engagement checklist. Any unanswered questions on the checklist are then completed by additional reference to the engagement files.

.10 The depth of review of working papers for particular engagements is left to the judgment of the reviewers; however, the review should ordinarily include all the key areas of an engagement. A page-by-page review of all working papers is not necessary. Points to be considered in determining the key areas include—a. Key areas in the client's industry (e.g., revenue recognition for construction companies; inventories and accounts receivable for manufacturing and retail concerns; or loan loss allowances for financial institutions).

b. Key areas noted during the review of the financial statements and discussions with engagement personnel (e.g., review of loan defaults or follow-up of litigation matters).

c. Key areas identified by the firm in planning or conducting the engagement.

d. Recent accounting and auditing developments and pronouncements.

e. Weaknesses noted in other engagements reviewed.

f. Weaknesses noted by the firm during its inspection program.

g. Weaknesses noted in the prior quality review or peer review.

.11 Ordinarily, in applying the "key area" concept, all key areas should be reviewed. However, to keep time requirements within reasonable limits, reviewers may decide not to review all key areas of a specific engagement. In such cases, the reviewer should document in the working papers the reasons why all key areas were not reviewed. The reviewer should also exercise judgment in determining how many accounting and auditing hours to claim with respect to the engagement.

.12 For each engagement reviewed (audits, reviews, and compilations), the Standards require the review team to document whether anything came to its attention that caused it to believe that—

a. The financial statements were not presented in all material respects in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (or, if applicable, an other comprehensive basis of accounting).

b. The firm did not have a reasonable basis under applicable professional standards for the report issued.

c. The documentation on the engagement did not support the report issued.

d. The firm did not comply with its quality control policies and procedures in all material respects.
.13 If the review team reaches a negative conclusion with respect to items a., b., or c. above, the team captain should promptly inform an appropriate member of the reviewed firm (generally on a "Matter for Further Consideration" form). The reviewed firm should investigate the matter questioned by the review team and determine what action, if any, should be taken. The reviewed firm should advise the team captain of the results of its investigation and document the actions taken or planned or its reasons for concluding that no action is required. If the reviewed firm believes that it can continue to support its previously issued report and the review team continues to believe that there may be a significant failure to reach appropriate conclusions in the application of professional standards, the review team should pursue any remaining questions with the reviewed firm and, if necessary, with the entity administering the review. The review team should also consider expanding the scope of the review by selecting additional engagements to determine the extent and cause of significant departures from professional standards.

.14 In evaluating the reviewed firm's response, the review team should recognize that it has not made an examination of the financial statements in question in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and that it has not had the benefit of access to client records, discussions with the client, or specific knowledge of the client's business. Nevertheless, a disagreement on the resolution of the matter may persist in some circumstances and the reviewed firm should be aware that it may be requested to refer unresolved matters to the AICPA quality review executive committee for a final determination.

LIST OF KEY AUDIT AREAS SELECTED BY REVIEWER

A reviewer is not required to look at all the working papers for a particular engagement. The depth of the review is left to the judgment of the reviewers; however, the review is directed primarily to the key areas of an engagement, including complex or troublesome areas. Ordinarily all key audit areas should be reviewed. List below the key areas on this engagement and, if any key areas are not reviewed, indicate the reasons for this omission. In completing this checklist, all questions in Sections I, II and IV should be answered in addition to the key areas identified.

NOTE: Because of the financial assistance that HUD projects receive, the HUD auditor must be fully aware of and comply with Government Auditing Standards (1988 revision), referred to as the "Yellow Book." These standards, which have been issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, became effective for HUD audits with fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 1989. Reviewers of engagements should use the general audit checklist and Appendix A of the Checklist for Review of Audit Engagements of State and Local Governmental Entities, including those receiving Federal Financial Assistance when reviewing HUD audits, if applicable, and SOP 90-4.
I. REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE: This is a highly summarized checklist taken from the AICPA financial reporting practice aid, Disclosure Checklists. Reviewers may wish to consult that checklist for detailed information about the requirements of professional standards and for citations thereto. All "no" answers must be thoroughly explained. If the firm has used its own report and financial statement disclosure checklist on this engagement, it may be reviewed in lieu of completing this checklist provided the reviewer has determined that the firm's checklist is current, comprehensive, and appropriate for the engagement.

II. GENERAL Audit PROCEDURES

In planning the audit engagement, did the auditor properly consider:

Matters affecting the industry in which the entity operates, such as accounting practices, economic conditions, laws and government regulations, and technological changes? (AU Secs. 311.03 and 801.08)

Matters affecting the entity's business, such as organization and types of products and services and contractual obligations? (AU Sec. 311.03-.04)

Preliminary judgment about materiality levels? (AU Sec. 312)

Did the auditor:

Make an assessment of the risk of material misstatements of the financial statements, including those resulting from violations of laws and regulations that have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts? (AU Secs. 312.12 and 316.05)

Assess the risk of management misrepresentation by reviewing information obtained about risk factors and the internal control structure? (AU Sec. 316.12)

Design the audit to provide reasonable assurance of detecting errors and irregularities that are material to the financial statements? (AU Sec. 316.05)

Did the auditor use analytical procedures in planning the nature, timing and extent of other audit procedures? (AU Sec. 329.01 and .06)

If the auditor succeeded a predecessor auditor, did the auditor:

Communicate with the predecessor auditor to ascertain whether there were disagreements between the predecessor auditor and the entity's management on accounting or auditing matters and consider the implications of such matters in accepting the client? (AU Sec. 315.03 and .06)

Make other inquiries of the predecessor auditor on significant matters? (AU Sec. 315.08)

Reach satisfaction on the fair presentation of opening balances, such as by reviewing the predecessor auditor's working papers? (AU Sec. 315.08)

If consideration was given to the work of internal auditors in determining the scope of the examination, was it done in accordance with SAS No. 9 or if SAS No. 65 (AU Sec. 322) was applicable to this engagement (either as a result of the SAS's effective date or an early application of the SAS)? (AU Sec. 322)

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

"All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column, or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.

If the auditor has assessed control risk below the maximum for an assertion, and that assessment is dependent upon the application of controls at a service organization, has the auditor obtained and appropriately considered a service auditor's report or performed tests of operating effectiveness at the service organization? (AU Secs. 319 and 324.10)

If the client used EDP in significant accounting applications, did the study and evaluation of internal controls over EDP activities, include those, if any, at a service organization? (AU Sec. 311.03)

If the auditor relied on the internal accounting controls at a service organization, was a service auditor's report obtained and appropriately considered, or test performed by the auditor at the service organization? (AU Sec. 324)

1 The auditor has this responsibility under SAS No. 31, but has been given more specific guidance in SAS No. 57.
If the auditor's substantial doubt was alleviated, did the notes to the financial statements adequately disclose the principal conditions and events, the possible effects, and any mitigating factors, including management's plans? (AU Sec. 341)

During the performance of the audit:

If there were reportable conditions identified were they communicated to the audit committee, management and others within the organization on a timely basis (If the communication was oral was it documented in the working papers)? (AU Sec. 325.09)

Does the auditor's conclusions in the working papers regarding whether internal control matters noted during the audit were (or were not) reportable conditions appear appropriate? (AU Sec. 325)

If a report was issued on reportable conditions did it: indicate the purpose of the audit, include the definition of reportable conditions and include the restriction on distribution? (AU Sec. 325.11)

If a letter was issued that did not include reportable conditions did it omit an opinion that there were no reportable conditions? (AU Sec. 325.17)

If SAS No. 66 was effective (either as a result of the SAS's effective date or an early application of the SAS) and the auditor was engaged to prepare or perform procedures on interim financial information filed with a specified regulatory agency and the auditor became aware of matters that caused the auditor to believe such information is probably materially misstated as a result of a departure from the application of generally accepted accounting principles did the auditor (AU Sec. 722):

Discuss the matter with the appropriate level of management?

Timely inform the audit committee or others with equivalent authority and responsibility, if management did not respond appropriately or timely?

Evaluate whether to resign or remain as the client's auditor, if the audit committee did not respond appropriately or timely?

If the auditor, subsequent to the date of the report, became aware of facts that may have existed at that date which might have affected the report, had the auditor then been aware of such facts, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards, in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved? (AU Sec. 561)
If there is an indication that the auditor, subsequent to the date of the report, concluded that one or more auditing procedures considered necessary at the time of the audit of the financial statements in the then existing circumstances were omitted from the audit, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved? III. WORKING PAPER AREAS *

NOTE: In the key audit areas reviewed, the reviewer should evaluate whether the reviewed firm has obtained sufficient competent evidential matter to form conclusions concerning the validity of the assertions of material significance embodied in the financial statements as described in AU Sec. 326. The questions contained in each section represent some of the audit procedures or tests that the reviewed firm might have undertaken to form conclusions in support of financial statement assertions of material significance. If an audit area is not reviewed because it does not represent a key area for that engagement, the reviewer should place an “X” in the box below the name of the working paper area. [As indicated on page 5202, the reviewer should indicate the reason(s) for not reviewing a key audit area; in such circumstances, the reviewer should not place an “X” below the area.]

| A307 |       |     |     |        |

If confirmation work was performed prior to year-end, is there evidence that there was an adequate review of transactions from the confirmation date to the balance sheet date?

| A308 |       |     |     |        |

If a significant number and amount of accounts receivable were not confirmed, is there evidence that other auditing procedures were performed? (AU Sec. 331.08)

| A309 |       |     |     |        |

Were significant notes receivable confirmed as of the balance sheet date?

| A310 |       |     |     |        |

* Complete only the sections for the key audit areas selected for review.

 The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All “no” answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column, or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.

Inventories

- ☐ Not a key area.

Where the physical inventory is taken at a date other than the balance sheet date (or where rotating procedures are used), do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to inventory transactions between the inventory date(s) and the balance sheet date? (AU Sec. 331.12)

Do the working papers contain evidence that counts were correctly made and recorded (i.e., was control over inventory tags or count sheets maintained and were test count quantities reconciled with counts reflected in final inventory)? (AU Sec. 331.09)

Were physical inventories observed at all locations where relatively large amounts are located?

Where the physical inventory in the hands of others was not observed, were inventory confirmations received [i.e., inventory in public warehouses (AU Sec. 331.14), on consignment, etc.]?

If perpetual inventory records are maintained, do the working papers indicate that differences disclosed by the physical inventory (or cycle counts) are properly reflected in the accounts?

Do the working papers indicate that there were adequate tests of:

- The clerical accuracy of the inventory?
- Costing methods and substantiation of costs used in pricing all elements (raw materials, work in process, finished goods) of the inventory?
- Were the results of inventory observations and other tests summarized and were appropriate conclusions drawn?

Was the computation of realized gains and losses properly tested by the auditor?

Do the working papers reflect consideration of the appropriateness of carrying values of securities and their classification?

Were investigations of possible impairment of the carrying value of long-term investments made? (AU Sec. 332.03)

Do the working papers reflect consideration that investments were pledged, restricted, or had limitations on their immediate use?

For investments accounted for on the equity method, were financial statements and other information reviewed to support the amounts presented or the note disclosures made? (AU Sec. 332.07-.08 and .15)

For repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, were appropriate audit procedures performed (e.g., confirmation, inspection of collateral)?

I. REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE: This is a highly summarized checklist taken from the AICPA financial reporting practice aid, Disclosure Checklists. Reviewers may wish to consult that checklist for detailed information about the requirements of professional standards and for citations thereto. All “no” answers must be thoroughly explained. If the firm has used its own report and financial statement disclosure checklist on this engagement, it may be reviewed in lieu of completing this checklist provided the reviewer has determined that the firm’s checklist is current, comprehensive, and appropriate for the engagement.

Was an engagement letter issued or a written memorandum of an oral understanding prepared to provide a record of the understanding with the client as to the services to be provided? (Professional standards require the accountant to establish an understanding with the entity, preferably, though not required to be, in writing.) (AR Sec. 100.08)

Was information obtained about the accounting principles and practices of the industry in which the entity operates and about the entity’s business or, if information was obtained from prior engagements, was it updated for changed circumstances, and given appropriate consideration preferably, though not required to be, in writing (e.g., proposed work program, manpower requirements, etc.)? (AR Sec. 100.24-.26)

If the engagement was originally intended to be an audit, rather than a review of financial statements, did the accountant consider (AR Sec. 100.44-.49):

- The reason given for the client’s request, particularly the implications of a restriction on the scope of the audit, whether imposed by the client or by circumstances?
- The additional audit effort required to complete the audit?
- The estimated additional cost to complete the audit?

Did the accountant’s inquiries and analytical procedures consist of the following (AR Sec. 100.27):

- Inquiries concerning the entity’s accounting principles and practices and the methods followed in applying them?
- Inquiries concerning the entity’s procedures for recording, classifying, and summarizing transactions, and accumulating information for disclosure in the financial statements?
- Analytical procedures designed to identify relationships and individual items that appear to be unusual?
- Inquiries concerning actions taken at meetings of stockholders, board of directors, committees of the board of directors, or comparable meetings that may affect the financial statements?
- Reading the financial statements to consider, on the basis of information coming to the accountant’s attention, whether the financial statements appear to conform with generally accepted accounting principles?
- Obtaining reports from other accountants, if any, who have been engaged to audit or review the financial statements of significant components of the reporting entity, its subsidiaries, and other investees?

*The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All “no” answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column, or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.
Inquiries of persons having responsibility for financial and accounting matters concerning (1) whether the financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, (2) changes in the entity’s business activities or accounting principles and practices, (3) matters as to which questions have arisen in the course of applying the foregoing procedures, and (4) events subsequent to the date of the financial statements that would have a material effect on the financial statements?

If the accountant became aware that information that came to the accountant’s attention was incorrect, incomplete, or otherwise unsatisfactory, did the accountant perform additional procedures as deemed necessary to achieve limited assurance that there were no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements in order for the statements to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles? (AR Sec. 100.29)

Do the accountant’s working papers adequately reflect (AR Sec. 100.30):

- The matters covered in inquiry and analytical procedures?
- Unusual matters that were considered during the performance of the review, including their disposition?

If the accountant decided to obtain a representation letter from the owner, manager, or chief executive officer, does it appear to be appropriate in the circumstances? (AR Sec. 100.31)

If any circumstances were encountered by the accountant that precluded the accountant from performing inquiries and analytical procedures as deemed necessary (AR Sec. 100.36):

- Did the accountant consider whether these circumstances would have resulted in an incomplete review and therefore afford the accountant an inadequate basis for issuing a review report?
- Did the accountant consider whether these same circumstances would also preclude the accountant from issuing a compilation report on the entity’s financial statements?
- Do such determinations by the accountant appear to be proper?

Have all questions, exceptions or notes, posed during the work been followed up and resolved?

If there is an indication that the accountant had become aware that information supplied by the entity was incorrect, incomplete or otherwise unsatisfactory subsequent to the date of the report, did the accountant consider the guidance in professional standards, in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved? (AU Sec. 561)

NOTE: This is a highly summarized checklist taken from the AICPA financial reporting practice aid, Disclosure Checklists. Reviewers may wish to consult that checklist for detailed information about the requirements of professional standards and for citations thereto. All "no" answers must be thoroughly explained. If the firm has used its own report and financial statement disclosure checklist on this engagement, it may be reviewed in lieu of completing this checklist provided the reviewer has determined that the firm's checklist is current, comprehensive, and appropriate for the engagement. For all engagements which omit substantially all disclosures, Appendix A should be completed in lieu of Section I.

Financial statement disclosures?

Working paper preparation and reading of financial statements?

If standardized forms, etc., were not used for any of the above areas, is there adequate documentation of compliance with the firm’s policies for compilation engagements?

Were the firm’s guidelines for the form and content of working papers complied with?

Was an appropriate review made of the working papers, report and the financial statements, by a person whose position in the firm is commensurate with that responsibility, to determine that work performed is complete and conforms to professional standards and firm policy?

Advancement (QC Sec. 10.07g)

If required by firm policy, was the staff on this engagement appropriately evaluated? (QC Sec. 90.22)

Acceptance and Continuance of Clients (QC Sec. 10.07h)

Does it appear that the firm’s guidelines for acceptance and continuance of clients were complied with? (QC Sec. 90.24)

Professional Development (QC Sec. 10.07f)

Did the personnel assigned to this engagement appear to be appropriately familiar with the applicable professional pronouncements (FASB, AICPA, etc.)? (QC Sec. 90.20)

Governmental Audit Engagement Checklist

Instructions for Use of Governmental Audit Engagement Checklist

This checklist was developed for use by reviewers of audits of state and local governments, including those entities that receive federal financial assistance. It should be used in conjunction with other guidance materials issued to implement the quality review program.

The questions in this checklist emphasize reporting matters and general procedures ordinarily performed by an independent auditor in the examination of financial statements of state and local governmental units. This checklist can be used in reviewing the audit of the general purpose financial statements, the comprehensive annual financial report, or component unit financial statements. The reviewer, however, should recognize that this checklist does not address certain items contained in the comprehensive annual financial report, such as the introductory section and nonfinancial statistical information.

The questions have been derived principally from the pronouncements of the Auditing Standards Board, the Governmental Accounting Standards Board and the U.S. General Accounting Office’s Government Auditing Standards, the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Audits of State and Local Governmental Units (Fifth edition), and SAS No. 63—Compliance Auditing Applicable to Governmental Entities and Other Recipients of Governmental Financial Assistance.

This checklist contains Appendix A, which is devoted solely to the unique requirements of Government Auditing Standards. This checklist also contains Appendix B devoted solely to the special requirements of the Single Audit Act of 1984 (the Single Audit Act) and is based on the requirements established in the Office of Management and Budget’s Circular No. A-128 (OMB A-128). Appendix A should always be completed when Appendix B is completed because the Single Audit Act requires that the audit be conducted in accordance with Government Auditing Standards.

To assist the reviewer in summarizing “no” answers in the Summary Audit Engagement Checklist, a column has been added containing sequential numbers referring to each question. Question numbers prefixed with the letter “A,” such as “A101,” refer to questions so numbered in the General Audit Engagement Checklist. Question numbers prefixed with the letter “G,” such as “G101,” refer to questions on matters unique to governmental entities. Reviewers should summarize the “no” answers of the “A” prefixed questions with those drawn from the General Audit Engagement Checklist in the Summary Audit Engagements Checklist. Reviewers should summarize the “G” prefixed questions in the appropriate appendix at the end of each section in the Summary Checklist.

Reviewers may adapt this checklist to fit specific engagements. If a not-for-profit entity is required to submit reports prepared in accordance with OMB Circular A-133, the reviewer should complete the Checklists for Review of Audit Engagements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. In addition, certain entities which are neither governmental nor not-for-profit organizations may have to submit a report prepared in accordance with either the Single Audit Act or A-133. In reviewing those engagements, reviewers should use either Appendices A and B of this checklist or Section III of the not-for-profit checklists respectively.

Because of the financial assistance that HUD projects receive, the HUD auditor must be fully aware of and comply with Government Auditing Standards (1988 revision) referred to as the “Yellow Book.” These standards, which have been issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, became effective for HUD audits with fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 1989. Reviewers of engagements should use the general audit checklist and Appendix A of this checklist when reviewing HUD audits, if applicable, and SOP 90-4.

LIST OF KEY AUDIT AREAS SELECTED BY REVIEWER

A reviewer is not required to look at all the working papers for a particular engagement. The depth of the review is left to the judgment of the reviewers; however, the review is directed primarily to the key areas of an engagement, including complex or troublesome areas. Ordinarily, all key audit areas should be reviewed. List below the key areas on this engagement and, if any key areas are not reviewed, indicate the reasons for this omission. In completing this checklist, all questions in Sections I, II, and IV should be answered in addition to the key areas identified.

NOTE: This checklist has been updated through SAS No. 66, SFAS No. 105, FASB Interpretation No. 38, GASBS No. 13, and the GAO’s Government Auditing Standards. (1988 version)

The requirements of GASB No. 11 are effective for financial statements covering periods beginning after June 15, 1994. Early application is not permitted because of the need for simultaneous implementation with certain other GASB pronouncements.
I. REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE: This checklist is derived from the pronouncements of the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB), the U.S. General Accounting Office (GAO) and the AICPA. For detailed information concerning these requirements, the reviewer may wish to consult the authoritative literature of the above noted organizations as well as the AICPA financial reporting aid, Disclosure Checklists for Audits of State and Local Governmental Units. All “no” answers must be thoroughly explained. If the firm has used its own report and financial statement disclosure checklist on this engagement, it may be reviewed in lieu of completing this checklist provided the reviewer has determined that the firm’s checklist is current, comprehensive, and appropriate for the engagement.

Auditor's Reports

Does (do) the auditor’s report(s) on the general purpose or component unit financial statements include all required matters concerning the financial position and results of financial operations of the governmental unit and cash flows of proprietary and nonexpendable funds? (ASLGU, Ch. 18 and SOP 89-6)

Is the report dated in conformity with the requirements of professional standards? (AU Secs. 504.15-.17, 508.08, 508.74 and 530)

Does the report appropriately include the basic elements required under professional standards and is appropriate language used for modifying the report for circumstances described in such standards? (AU Secs. 508.08-.10 and 623)

Does the report cover all periods for which financial statements are presented?

If the financial statements of a prior period have been audited by a predecessor auditor whose report is not presented, has the successor auditor indicated in the introductory paragraph (AU Sec. 508.83):

The financial statements of the prior period were audited by another auditor?

The date of the report?

The type of report issued by the predecessor auditor?

If the report was other than a standard report the substantive reasons therefore?

If supplemental information accompanies the basic financial statements, does the auditor describe in the report the degree of responsibility, if any, the auditor is taking? (AU Secs. 551 and 558)

For engagements subject to Government Auditing Standards, has the reviewer completed Appendix A?

For engagements subject to the Single Audit Act, has the reviewer completed Appendix B?

Other Note Disclosures

Is the presentation appropriate and are disclosures adequate regarding the following significant accounting policies:

- Definition of the governmental reporting entity, the criteria used to determine the scope of the reporting entity, and specific reasons for excluding agencies that meet that criteria? (GASB Sec. 2100.121-.122) | G170 |     |     |    |      |
- Basis of accounting applied to each fund? (GASB Sec. 1600) | G171 |     |     |    |      |
- Revenue recognition policies, including:
  - Definitions of modified accrual basis as to governmental fund types and of accrual basis as to proprietary fund types? (GASB Sec. 1600.102-.105) | G172 |     |     |    |      |
  - Description of revenue sources that are treated as "susceptible to accrual" under the modified accrual basis and those that are not? (GASB Sec. 1600.106-.108) | G173 |     |     |    |      |
- Accounting for fixed assets concerning:
  - Classification in proprietary funds or general fixed assets account group? (GASB Sec. 1400.106) | G174 |     |     |    |      |
  - Valuation basis of fixed assets, including capitalization policies for public domain (infrastructure) general fixed assets? (GASB Secs. 1400.109 and .111-.113 and 2300.105m) | G175 |     |     |    |      |
  - Depreciation methods and lives, including whether depreciation is reported on general fixed assets? (GASB Sec. 1400—Statement of Principle—Depreciation of fixed assets) | G176 |     |     |    |      |
  - Capitalization of interest costs during construction? (GASB Sec. 1400.109a.(5)) | G177 |     |     |    |      |
  - Method of accounting and reporting for encumbrances? (GASB Sec. 2300.104a.(3)) | G178 |     |     |    |      |

In planning the audit engagement, did the auditor properly consider:

- Matters affecting the industry in which the entity operates, such as accounting practices, economic conditions, laws and governmental regulations, contractual obligations and technological changes? (AU Secs. 311.03 and 801.08 and GAO, Ch. 4, pars. 10-12)

- Definition of the reporting entity indicating the related organizations, functions, and activities that are either included or excluded from the financial statements in accordance with professional standards? (GASB Sec. 2100 and ASLGU, Ch. 5, par. 7)

- Preliminary judgment, by fund type, about materiality levels (AU Secs. 311.03 and 312.08)

- Factors affecting the continued functioning of the government, such as legal limitations on revenue, expenditures, or debt service? (AU Sec. 341)

Did the auditor:

- Make an assessment of the risk of material misstatements of the financial statements, including those resulting from violations of laws and regulations that have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts? (AU Secs. 312.12 and 316.05)

- Assess the risk of management misrepresentation by reviewing information obtained about risk factors and the internal control structure? (AU Sec. 316.12)

- Design the audit to provide reasonable assurance of detecting errors and irregularities that are material to the financial statements? (AU Sec. 316.15)

Did the auditor use analytical procedures in planning the nature, timing and extent of other audit procedures? (AU Sec. 329.01 and .06)

If the auditor succeeded a predecessor auditor, did the auditor:

- Communicate with the predecessor auditor to ascertain whether there were disagreements between the predecessor auditor and the entity's management on accounting or auditing matters and consider the implications of such matters in accepting the client? (AU Sec. 315.03 and .06)

- Make other inquiries of the predecessor auditor on significant matters? (AU Sec. 315.06)

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All “no” answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column, or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.
Reach satisfaction on the fair presentation of opening balances, such as by reviewing the predecessor auditor's working papers? (AU Sec. 315.08)

If consideration was given to the work of internal auditors in determining the scope of the examination, was it done in accordance with SAS No. 9 or if SAS No. 65 was applicable to this engagement (either as a result of the SAS's effective date or an early application of the SAS)?

Did the auditor:

Obtain a sufficient understanding of the entity's internal control structure to plan the audit? (AU Sec. 319.16)

Document the understanding of the internal control structure? (AU Sec. 319.26)

Document the conclusion that control risks are at the maximum level for those financial statement assertions where control risk is assessed at the maximum level? (AU Sec. 319.39)

Document the basis for the conclusion (i.e., tests of controls) that the effectiveness of the design and operation of internal control structure policies and procedures supports the assessed level of control risk when that assessed level is below the maximum level? (AU Sec. 319.39)

If the auditor has assessed control risk below the maximum for an assertion, and that assessment is dependent upon the application of controls at a service organization, has the auditor obtained and appropriately considered a service auditor's report or performed tests of operating effectiveness at the service organization? (AU Secs. 319 and 324.10)

If the client used EDP in significant accounting applications, did the study and evaluation of internal controls over EDP activities, include those, if any, at a service organization? (AU Sec. 311.03)

If the auditor relied on the internal accounting controls at a service organization, was a service auditor's report obtained and appropriately considered, or test performed by the auditor at the service organization? (AU Sec. 324.05 and .10)

If the engagement included work performed by joint auditors or by another office, correspondent, or affiliate:

Do the instructions to the other office or firm appear adequate? (AU Sec. 311)

Does it appear that the control exercised over the work of others through supervision and review was adequate? (AU Sec. 311)

Was there appropriate follow-up of open matters? (AU Sec. 543.10)

In those cases where another firm is used, were appropriate inquiries made as to its independence and professional reputation? (AU Sec. 543.10)
Governmental Audit Engagement Checklist

For a jointly signed audit report, are there indications that the auditor has conducted sufficient audit procedures to warrant signing the report in an individual capacity? (ASLGU, ch. 18, par. 42)

If the principal auditor did not refer to the other auditor in his or her report, did the principal auditor perform one or more of the additional procedures contained in AU 543.12 to assess the adequacy of the work performed by the other auditor? (AU Sec. 543.12)

Was an appropriately tailored, written audit program prepared? (AU Sec. 311.05 and ASLGU, Ch. 5, par. 19)

Was the audit program responsive to the needs of the engagement, and the understanding of internal control structure obtained during the planning process? (AU Sec. 319.02 and .05)

Was consideration given to applicable assertions in developing audit objectives and in designing substantive tests? (AU Sec. 326.09-.13)

If conditions changed during the course of the audit, was the audit program modified as appropriate in the circumstances? (AU Sec. 311.05)

Have all procedures called for in the audit program been signed? (AU Sec. 339)

If statistical or nonstatistical sampling was used in tests of controls (AU Secs. 319 and 350):

In your consideration of the adequacy of the sample size, does it appear the firm gave appropriate consideration to the specific objective of the test of controls, tolerable rate, allowable risk of overreliance, and likely rate of deviations? (AU Sec. 350.31)

Was the sample selected in such a way that it could be expected to be representative of the population? (AU Sec. 350.39)

Were the results of the sample evaluated as to their effect on the nature, timing and extent of planned substantive procedures? (AU Sec. 350.40-.43)

In evaluating the sample, was appropriate consideration given to items for which the planned test of controls or appropriate alternative procedure could not be performed, for example, because the documentation was missing? (AU Sec. 350.40)

Was the documentation of the foregoing considerations in accordance with firm policy?

If statistical or nonstatistical sampling was used for substantive tests of details and tests of applicable laws and regulations, if appropriate:

In your consideration of the adequacy of the sample size, does it appear the firm gave appropriate consideration to the specific audit objective, tolerable error, acceptable level of risk of incorrect acceptance, and characteristics of the population? (AU Sec. 350.16)

Was the sample selected in such a way that it could be expected to be representative of the population? (AU Sec. 350.24)
On-Site Review Engagement Checklists

Were the error results of the sample projected to the items from which the sample was selected? (AU Sec. 350.26)

In evaluating the sample, was appropriate consideration given to items for which the planned substantive tests or appropriate alternative procedures could not be performed? (AU Sec. 350.25)

In the evaluation of whether the financial statements may be materially misstated, was appropriate consideration given, in the aggregate, to projected error results from all audit sampling applications and to known errors from non-sampling applications? (AU Sec. 350.30)

Was the documentation of the foregoing considerations in accordance with firm policy?

During the performance of the engagement, did the auditor:

Consider the guidelines of professional standards in developing, performing, and evaluating the results of analytical procedures used as substantive tests? (AU Sec. 329)

Use analytical procedures in the overall review stage of the audit? (AU Sec. 329.01)

Has the auditor evaluated the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management? (AU Sec. 342)

Did the auditor obtain a timely and appropriate (industry specific and/or Single Audit Act) letter of representation from management? (AU Secs. 333.01 and 801.16)

Did the auditor obtain timely and appropriate responses from the entity’s attorney concerning litigation, claims, and assessments? (AU Sec. 337.06)

Have all questions, exceptions, or notes posed during the audit been resolved, including consideration of views obtained from responsible officials of the entity concerning the auditor’s findings?

Does it appear that appropriate consideration was given to all passed adjustments and to the risk that the current period’s financial statements are materially misstated when prior-period likely errors are considered with likely errors arising in the current period? (AU Sec. 312.27 and .30)

If applicable, were adequate tests of compliance with applicable laws and regulations that have a material effect on the financial statements performed and documented? (AU Sec. 801.15 and .20)

During the performance of the engagement, did the auditor:

Follow up on errors and irregularities in accordance with professional standards? (AU Sec. 316.24-.29)

Consider the implications of an irregularity in relation to other aspects of the audit, including the reliability of the client’s representations? (AU Sec. 316.25)
Obtain assurance that the audit committee or others with equivalent authority and responsibility had been adequately informed of all but clearly inconsequential irregularities identified during the engagement? (AU Sec. 316.28)

When the auditor’s procedures disclosed instances or indications of illegal acts, did the auditor:

- Follow up on illegal acts having a direct and material effect on the financial statements in accordance with professional standards? (AU Sec. 316.24-.28)
  - A258

- Follow up on all other illegal acts in accordance with professional standards? (AU Sec. 317.10)
  - A259

- Consider the implications of a detected illegal act in relation to other aspects of the audit, including the reliability of the client’s representations? (AU Sec. 317.16)
  - A260

- Obtain assurance that the audit committee or others with equivalent authority and responsibility had been adequately informed with respect to all but clearly inconsequential illegal acts identified during the audit? (AU Sec. 317.17)
  - A261

- Communicate directly with the audit committee if the illegal act involved senior management and document that communication? (AU Sec. 317.17)
  - A262

If evidence exists of situations or transactions that could be indicative of errors, irregularities or illegal expenditures and acts, did the auditor:

- Either obtain management’s approval to extend audit steps and procedures to identify the effect on the entity’s financial statements or consider issuing a disclaimer of opinion because of a scope limitation and disclose any reservations regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations? (AU Sec. 801.77)
  - G256

- Give prompt notice to the appropriate management officials above the level of involvement? (AU Secs. 317.17 and 801.28-.29)
  - G257

If the auditor believed that there was substantial doubt about the entity’s ability to continue for a reasonable period of time, did the auditor obtain information about management’s plans and evaluate the likelihood that such plans could be effectively implemented? (AU Sec. 341)

If the auditor’s substantial doubt was alleviated, did the notes to the financial statements adequately disclose the principal conditions and events, the possible effects, and any mitigating factors, including management’s plans? (AU Sec. 341)

If the auditor’s substantial doubt was not eliminated, did the auditor’s report include an explanatory paragraph which adequately communicates the auditor’s substantial doubt (e.g., includes the terms “substantial doubt” and “going concern” if the report was issued after December 31, 1990)? (AU Sec. 341)
Were all material instances of weakness in internal controls and all identified instances of noncompliance with applicable laws and regulations:

Adequately evaluated and documented? (AU Sec. 801.15)
Appropriately reported in accordance with applicable standards? (AU Sec. 325)

If the auditor, subsequent to the date of the report, became aware of facts that may have existed at that date which might have affected the report had the auditor then been aware of such facts, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards, in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved? 3 (AU Sec. 561)

If there is an indication that the auditor, subsequent to the date of the report, concluded that one or more auditing procedures considered necessary at the time of the audit of the financial statements in the then existing circumstances were omitted from the audit, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved? (AU Sec. 390)

3 This question also applies to circumstances when, subsequent to the date of the audit report on the general purpose financial statements, the auditor, while performing procedures to support the other reports required by the Single Audit Act, identifies additional information that existed at the report date.
III. WORKING PAPER AREAS

NOTE: In the key audit areas reviewed, the reviewer should evaluate whether the reviewed firm has obtained sufficient competent evidential matter to form conclusions concerning the validity of the assertions of material significance embodied in the financial statements as described in AU Sec. 326. The questions contained in each section represent some of the audit procedures or tests that the reviewed firm might have undertaken to form conclusions in support of financial statement assertions of material significance. If an audit area is not reviewed because it does not represent a key area for that engagement, the reviewer should place an "X" in the box below the name of the working paper area. (As indicated on page 5503, the reviewer should indicate the reason(s) for not reviewing a key audit area; in such circumstances, the reviewer should not place an "X" below the area.)

Cash

□ Not a key area.

Were bank accounts confirmed and were reconciling items cleared by reference to subsequent statements obtained directly from the bank (or obtained from the client and appropriately tested)?

Receivables

□ Not a key area.

Were accounts receivable confirmed and appropriate follow-up steps taken, including second requests and alternative procedures? (AU Sec. 331.01-.08)

If confirmation work was performed prior to year-end, is there evidence that there was an adequate review of transactions from the confirmation date to the balance sheet date?

If a significant number and amount of accounts receivable were not confirmed, is there evidence that other auditing procedures were performed? (AU Sec. 331.08)

Were significant notes receivable confirmed as of the balance sheet date?

Were the results of confirmation and alternative procedures summarized and were appropriate conclusions drawn in the working papers? (AU Sec. 331.08)

Was collateral (if any) for receivables examined with respect to existence, ownership and value?

Were procedures performed to provide evidence that taxes receivable and the related revenues were recorded in the correct period? (ASLGU, Ch. 8, par. 22)

Were adequate tests of discounts and allowances made?

Was the reasonableness of allowances for doubtful accounts covered in the working papers and collectability of receivables, including interfund receivables, adequately considered? (AU Sec. 312.29)

Is there evidence in the working papers that inquiry was made and consideration given to whether receivables are pledged, assigned or otherwise encumbered?

Was receivable work coordinated with tests of revenues, including cut-off tests?

Were procedures performed to verify whether the carrying value of notes receivable reflects the present value of the consideration given and the appropriate interest rate?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of receivables appear adequate? (AU Sec. 319)

Inventories

□ Not a key area.

Do the working papers indicate that a lower of cost or market test (including consideration of obsolete or slow-moving inventory) was performed?

Do the working papers indicate that there were adequate tests of:

  Physical observation, if material? (AU Sec. 331.09-.12)

  The clerical accuracy of the inventory?

Were the results of inventory observations and other tests summarized and were appropriate conclusions drawn?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of inventory appear adequate? (AU Sec. 319)

Investments

□ Not a key area.

Was a summary schedule prepared (or obtained) and details examined with respect to description, purchase price and date, changes during the period, income, market value, etc., of investments?

Were securities either examined or confirmed? (AU Sec. 332.04)

Was the computation of realized gains and losses properly tested by the auditor?

Do the working papers reflect consideration of the appropriateness of carrying values of securities and their classification into categories in conformity with professional standards? (GASB Sec. 150)

Were investigations of possible impairment of the carrying value of long-term investments made?

Do the working papers reflect consideration that investments were pledged, restricted, or had limitations on their immediate use?

For joint venture investments (accounted for on the equity or other method), were financial statements and other information reviewed to support the amounts presented and the related note disclosures? (GASB Sec. 150)

Was a review made to determine whether the investments are of the types authorized by law or comply with the applicable statutes and investment policies? (ASLGU, Ch. 7, pars. 4 and 10)

Were income, gains and losses from investments examined for proper allocation to the individual funds? (GASB Sec. 150.104-.105)

For repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, were appropriate audit procedures performed (e.g., confirmation, inspection of collateral)? (ASLGU, Ch. 7, pars. 15-16)

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of investments, appear adequate?

VI. Appendix B—Questions for Use When the Engagement Is Subject to the Single Audit Act of 1984

NOTE: Reports mentioned in Appendix B are in addition to those indicated previously in Appendix A.

SOP 90-9 The Auditor’s Consideration of the Internal Control Structure Used in Administering Federal Financial Assistance Programs under the Single Audit Act was issued in November 1990 with an effective date for audits of fiscal periods beginning on or after January 1, 1991, with early application permitted. If the auditor or audit organization had elected early application of SOP 90-9 references to 89-6 and ASLGU, ch. 21 should be replaced with SOP 90-9.

Does the language in the auditor’s reports conform with professional standards, including references to Government Auditing Standards and OMB Circular A-128?

Do the Single Audit Act Reports also include:

Auditor’s report on the schedule of federal financial assistance? (SOP 90-9, Appendix A)

Auditor’s report on internal controls over federal financial assistance program identifying the entity’s internal control structure and those controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that federal programs are being managed in compliance with laws and regulations including (SOP 90-9, Appendix A):

The controls that were evaluated? (OMB Circular A-128 13a(2))

The controls that were not evaluated? (OMB Circular A-128 13a(2))

The material weaknesses identified as a result of the evaluation? (OMB Circular A-128 13a(2))

Major Programs—compliance reports:

An opinion that the entity complied, in all material respects, with specific requirements that, if not complied with, could have a material effect on a major federal financial assistance program? (AU Sec. 801.73)

A statement of positive assurance with respect to the items tested and a statement of negative assurance on those items not tested concerning material instances of noncompliance with the general requirements relating to major programs? (AU Sec. 801.83)

When appropriate, did the auditor issue either a qualified or adverse report on compliance, which presented material instances of noncompliance with laws and regulations in accordance with the guidance in Government Auditing Standards regarding reporting on performance audits? * The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF. column or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist.
Did the auditor, by reviewing contract files and receipts and disbursements, obtain reasonable assurance that the entity appropriately identified all federal financial assistance and included that assistance within the audit scope? (AU Sec. 801.46 and ASLGU ch. 21, par. 31)

Does the schedule of federal financial assistance program expenditures present the following:

- Identification of each program as indicated in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA)?
- Other federal assistance from programs not included in the CFDA?
- Total expenditures for each federal financial assistance program by grantor, department, or agency?
- Total federal financial assistance?
- Other information, either required by federal program managers or otherwise deemed appropriate?

Was consideration given to the accounting and auditing guidance issued by the Office of Management and Budget, including Circulars A-128 (Audits of State and Local Governments), A-87 (Cost Principles Applicable to Grants and Contracts), and “common rule” under A-102 (Uniform Requirements for Assistance to State and Local Governments)?

Do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to prior audits of government financial assistance programs that disclosed questioned or disallowed costs, or instances of noncompliance (AU Sec. 801.17 and GAO, ch. 3, par. 41)?

Did the auditor perform and document the required level of internal control review, to include:

- The study and evaluation of those internal control systems, used in administering major federal financial assistance programs, comparable to that which the auditor would perform if he intended to rely on all existing control cycles to restrict the extent of substantive testing? (ASLGU, ch. 21, par. 11)
- If warranted, the study and evaluation of the systems, used in administering non-major programs, to the same extent as in Question G519 above so that controls over at least 50 percent of total federal financial assistance program expenditures are studied and evaluated? (ASLGU, ch. 21, par. 12)
- Perform a preliminary review of internal control for the systems used in administering other non-major federal financial assistance programs? (ASLGU, ch. 21, par. 13)

For those programs where the study and evaluation of internal control systems did not extend beyond the preliminary review phase, do the working papers document:

- Procedures used to perform the preliminary review? (ASLGU ch. 21, par. 13)

Do the working papers document the auditor's understanding of the systems? (AU Sec. 319.26)

Were tests of controls performed for these systems? (AU Sec. 319.46-.60)

In the judgment of the reviewer, were the nature and extent of tests of controls sufficient to enable the auditor to determine if the appropriate policies and procedures were being applied as described? (AU Sec. 319)

Did the auditor include the recipient's system for ensuring subrecipients' compliance and obtaining and acting on subrecipients' audit reports? (AU Sec. 801.65-.66)

Do the working papers adequately document the work performed and the conclusions reached? (AU Sec. 319)

In determining whether the entity complied with applicable laws and regulations that may have a material effect on each major federal financial assistance program, did the auditor:

Consult appropriate sources, such as the Compliance Supplement for Single Audits of State and Local Governments (revised September 1990), statutes, regulations, and agreements covering individual programs, in order to identify the specific compliance requirements that apply to each major program and to determine which requirements to test? (AU Sec. 801.49-.53)

Consider materiality in relation to each major federal assistance program? (AU Sec. 801.47-.48)

Consider projected questioned costs from all audit sampling applications and all specifically identified questioned costs? (AU Sec. 801.69-.71)

Consider whether the tests of compliance with the program’s requirements appear adequate to support the report(s) on compliance? (AU Sec. 801.43 and .85 and GAO, ch. 4, pars. 13 and 14)

Did the auditor properly consider the potential effects of instances of noncompliance and questioned costs in reporting on the entity’s financial statements and individual financial assistance programs? (OMB Cir. A-128, Questions and Answers, par. 20)

Where transactions related to non-major federal financial assistance programs have been selected during other audit procedures, have they been appropriately tested for compliance with the specific requirements that apply to the individual transactions so tested? (AU Sec. 801.85 and .88)

If warranted, did the auditor communicate with the cognizant agency to avoid or minimize any disagreements or problems? (ASLGU, ch. 21, pars. 40 and 41)

Did the auditor submit the report(s) to the organization audited and to those requiring or arranging for the audit within the required time? (GAO, ch. 5, par. 34)

Has the auditor established policies or procedures for complying with the additional requirements concerning (ASLGU, ch. 21, par. 27):

Retaining working papers and reports for a minimum of three years from the date of the audit report, unless the auditor is notified in writing by the cognizant agency to extend the retention period?

Making the working papers available upon request to the cognizant agency or its designee or the GAO, at the completion of the audit?

3 Effective September 1990.

VIII. CONCLUSIONS

EXPLAIN BELOW THE REASONS FOR ANY “YES” ANSWERS. BE SPECIFIC.

Based on the work performed, did anything come to your attention that caused you to believe that:

- The firm did not perform the engagement in all material respects in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (see AU 390 and ET 202) and other applicable standards including, where applicable, the requirements of the Single Audit Act? YES* NO

- The financial statements did not conform with generally accepted accounting principles (or where applicable, a comprehensive basis of accounting other than GAAP) in all material respects and the auditor’s report was not appropriately modified (see AU 561 and ET 203)? YES* NO

- The auditor’s reports, including all reports required either by Government Auditing Standards or by the Single Audit Act, were not appropriate in the circumstances? YES* NO

- The documentation on this engagement does not support the firm’s opinion on the financial statements? YES NO

- The firm did not comply with its policies and procedures on this engagement in all material respects? YES NO

* If this question is answered “yes,” see additional guidance contained in paragraphs 45 and 46 of the Standards for Performing and Reporting On Quality Reviews.

Not-for-Profit Audit Engagement Checklist

Instructions for Use of Not-for-Profit Audit Engagement Checklist

This checklist was developed for use by reviewers of audits of not-for-profit organizations, including those entities that receive federal financial assistance.

The questions in the checklist are intended to emphasize the general procedures that an independent auditor would ordinarily perform in examining and reporting on financial statements of not-for-profit organizations. Accordingly, the matters covered in this checklist concentrate primarily on the accounting and auditing procedures that are unique to those not-for-profit audits and that extend the auditor’s responsibilities beyond compliance with the AICPA’s GAAS.

Reviewers may adapt this checklist to fit specific engagements. If the not-for-profit entity is contractually required to submit reports prepared in accordance with the OMB Circular A-133, the reviewer should complete section III ("Audits of Governmental Grantees"). Likewise, individuals reviewing review or compilation engagements of not-for-profit organizations should combine sections I ("Report and Financial Statements") and III ("Audits of Governmental Grantees") of this checklist with sections II ("General Procedures"), III ("Functional Areas") and V ("Conclusions") of the review and compilation checklists.

If the reviewer is reviewing an organization that follows the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Audits of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations, the reviewer should complete sections I, V, VII and VIII of this checklist and sections I and II of the supplemental checklists for review of voluntary health and welfare organizations.

The questions have been derived principally from the pronouncements of the Auditing Standards Board, the AICPA’s Statement of Position 78-10 Accounting Principles and Reporting Practices for Certain Nonprofit Organizations, the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Audits of Certain Nonprofit Organizations, Audits of Colleges and Universities, the AICPA Industry Audit Guide Audits of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations, the AICPA financial reporting practice aid Disclosure Checklists for Nonprofit Organizations or OMB Circular A-133 Audits of Institutions of Higher Education and Other Nonprofit Institutions and the 1988 Government Auditing Standards (section III of this checklist).

Reviewers should be aware that Statement of Position 78-10 has a unique position compared to other statements of position and audit guides as it does not have an effective date (paragraph 124). However, FASB No. 32 indicates that the specialized accounting and reporting principles and practices contained in SOP 78-10 are preferable accounting principles for applying APB Opinion No. 20. The common interpretation of this situation is that an entity is not required to adopt the accounting principles advocated in SOP 78-10; however, if an organization changes its accounting principles, it should adopt the principles enumerated in that document.

By comparison, the AICPA Industry Audit Guide Audits of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations is effective and, as noted in the notice to readers on the inside cover, members are on notice that they may be called upon to justify departures from the accounting principles in the guide.

OMB Circular A-133 establishes audit requirements and defines Federal responsibilities for implementing and monitoring such requirements for institutions of higher education and other not-for-profit institutions receiving awards. The provisions of OMB Circular A-133 are effective for all audits of not-for-profit institutions for fiscal years that begin on or after January 1, 1990. Early implementation is encouraged.

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual

QRP § 5600
The federal Office of Management and Budget planned to issue a nonprofit compliance supplement spring 1990 to provide guidance for implementing OMB Circular A-133. Until that supplement is issued, practitioners conducting audits in accordance with A-133, Audits of Institutions of Higher Education and Other Nonprofit Institutions, should refer to OMB's Compliance Supplement for Single Audits of State and Local Governments (Government Compliance Supplement). The requirements in the forthcoming supplement will generally be parallel to the requirements set forth in the Government Compliance Supplement.

LIST OF KEY AUDIT AREAS SELECTED BY REVIEWER

A reviewer is not required to look at all the working papers for a particular engagement. The depth of the review is left to the judgment of the reviewer; however, the review is directed primarily to the key areas of an engagement, including complex or troublesome areas. Ordinarily, all key audit areas should be reviewed. List below the key areas on this engagement and, if any key areas are not reviewed, indicate the reasons for this omission. In completing this checklist, all questions in Sections I, II, and V should be answered in addition to the key areas identified.

I. REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE: This condensed checklist has been extracted from the AICPA financial reporting aid, Disclosure Checklists for Nonprofit Organizations. Reviewers may wish to consult that checklist for detailed information about the applicable professional standards and related citations. All “no” answers must be thoroughly explained. If the firm has used its own report and financial statement disclosure checklist on this engagement, it may be reviewed in lieu of completing this checklist provided the reviewer has determined that the firm’s checklist is current, comprehensive, and appropriate for the engagement.

Auditor’s Report

Is the report dated in conformity with the requirements of professional standards? (AU Secs. 504.15-.17, 508.08 and .74 and 530)

A101

Does the report appropriately include the basic elements required under professional standards and is appropriate language used for modifying the report for circumstances described in such standards? (AU Secs. 508.08-.10 and 623)

A102

Does the report cover all periods for which financial statements are presented? (AU Sec. 508.74)

A103

If the financial statements of a prior period have been audited by a predecessor auditor whose report is not presented, has the successor auditor indicated in the introductory paragraph (AU Sec. 508.83):

- The financial statements of the prior period were audited by another auditor?
  A104

- The date of the report?
  A105

- The type of report issued by the predecessor auditor?
  A106

- If the report was other than a standard report the substantive reasons therefore?
  A107

If supplemental information accompanies the basic financial statements, does the auditor describe in his report the degree of responsibility, if any, the auditor is taking? (AU Secs. 551 and 558)

In planning the audit engagement, did the auditor properly consider:

Matters affecting the environment in which the entity operates, such as accounting practices, economic conditions, laws and governmental regulations, contractual obligations and technological changes? (AU Secs. 311.03 and 801.08)
A211

Matters affecting the entity’s operations, such as legal organization and types of services? (AU Sec. 311.03-.04)
A212

Preliminary judgment about materiality levels for audit purposes? (AU Secs. 311.03 and 312.08)
A213

Did the auditor:

Make an assessment of the risk of material misstatements of the financial statements, including those resulting from inadequate control of contributions and violations of laws and regulations that have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts? (AU Secs. 312.12 and 316.05)
A214

Assess the risk of management misrepresentation by reviewing information obtained about risk factors and the internal control structure? (AU Sec. 316.12)
A215

Design the audit to provide reasonable assurance of detecting errors and irregularities and direct effect illegal acts that are material to the financial statements? (AU Sec. 316.05)
A216

Did the auditor perform appropriate analytical procedures in planning the nature, timing and extent of other audit procedures? (AU Sec. 329.01 and .06)
A217

If the auditor succeeded a predecessor auditor, did the auditor:

Communicate with the predecessor auditor to ascertain whether there were disagreements between the predecessor auditor and the entity’s management on accounting or auditing matters and consider the implications of such matters in accepting the client? (AU Sec. 315.03 and .06)
A218

Make other inquiries of the predecessor auditor on significant matters? (AU Sec. 315.08)
A219

Reach satisfaction on the fair presentation of opening balances, such as by reviewing the predecessor auditor’s working papers? (AU Sec. 315.08)
A220

Did the auditor:

Obtain a sufficient understanding of the entity’s internal control structure to plan the audit? (AU Sec. 319.16)
A222

Document the understanding of the internal control structure? (AU Sec. 319.16)

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All “no” answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF. column or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist.
Document the conclusion that control risks are at the maximum level for those financial statement assertions where control risk is assessed at the maximum level? (AU Sec. 319.39)

Document the basis of the conclusion (i.e., tests of control) that the effectiveness of the design and operation of internal control structure policies and procedures supports the assessed level of control risk when that assessed level is below the maximum level? (AU Sec. 319.39)

If the auditor has assessed control risk below the maximum for an assertion, and that assessment is dependent upon the application of controls at a service organization, has the auditor obtained and appropriately considered a service auditor’s report or performed tests of operating effectiveness at the service organization? (AU Secs. 319 and 324.10)

If the client used EDP in significant accounting applications, did the study and evaluation of internal controls over EDP activities, include those, if any, at a service organization? (AU Sec. 311.03)

If the auditor relied on the internal accounting controls at a service organization, was a service auditor’s report obtained and appropriately considered, or test performed by the auditor at the service organization? (AU Sec. 324.05 and .10)

Was an appropriately tailored, written audit program prepared? (AU Sec. 311.05 and applicable AICPA Industry Audit Guides)

Was the audit program responsive to the needs of the engagement and the understanding of the internal control structure obtained, during the planning process? (AU Sec. 319.02 and .05)

Was consideration given to applicable assertions in developing audit objectives and in designing substantive tests? (AU Sec. 326.09-.13)

If conditions changed during the course of the audit, was the audit program modified as appropriate in the circumstances? (AU Sec. 311.05)

Have all procedures called for in the audit program been signed? (AU Sec. 339)

If statistical or nonstatistical sampling was used in tests of controls (AU Secs. 319 and 350):

In your consideration of the adequacy of the sample size, does it appear the firm gave appropriate consideration to the specific objective of the compliance test, tolerable rate, allowable risk of overreliance, and likely rate of deviations? (AU Sec. 350.31)

Was the sample selected in such a way that it could be expected to be representative of the population? (AU Sec. 350.39)

Were the results of the sample evaluated as to their effect on the nature, timing and extent of planned substantive procedures? (AU Secs. 350.40-.43)

In evaluating the sample, was appropriate consideration given to items for which the planned test of controls or appropriate alternative procedure could not be performed, for example, because the documentation was missing? (AU Sec. 350.40)

III. AUDITS OF GOVERNMENTAL GRANTEES

NOTE: These questions are derived from the statement on Auditing Standards No. 63, the U.S. General Accounting Office's Government Auditing Standards (1988 Revision), and the Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133. Reviewers may wish to consult these documents for more detailed information on standards concerning the audits of governmental grantees.

References to professional and governmental pronouncements have been provided in this section because of recent significant changes in governmental reporting and auditing. The term "GAO" followed by the chapter and paragraph refers to Government Auditing Standards (1988 Revision).

Questions found in this section have been excerpted from the Checklist for Review of State and Local Government Entities Appendices A & B. These questions can be found within the two consecutive sections in the Audit Summary starting on page 6115.

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF. column or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist.
A presentation of a reasonable basis for the auditor's conclusion not to perform tests of compliance and omission of a statement of positive assurance on items tested for compliance with laws and regulations? (AU Sec. 801.23 and GAO, Ch. 5, par. 6)

Presentation of material instances of noncompliance with laws and regulations in accordance with the guidance in Government Auditing Standards regarding issuance of a report on compliance? (GAO, Ch. 5, par. 5 and AU Sec. 801.24-.27)

Reference to a separate letter, if applicable, describing immaterial instances of noncompliance? (AU Sec. 801.27)

When illegal acts involve funds received from other governmental entities did the auditor assure himself/herself that the audited entity notified the proper officials, of the entities, within a reasonable time? If the entity did not, or was unable to do so because the top official was involved, has the auditor reported these acts to the officials of those other governmental entities? (GAO, Ch. 5, par. 13 and AU Sec. 801.29)

Do the Single Audit Act Reports also include:

Auditor's report on the schedule of federal financial assistance? (SOP 89-6, Example 16)

Auditor's report on internal controls over federal financial assistance program identifying the entity's internal control structure and those controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that federal programs are being managed in compliance with laws and regulations including (SOP 89-6, Example 26):

The controls that were evaluated? (OMB Circular A-128, 13a(2))

The controls that were not evaluated? (OMB Circular A-128, 13a(2))

The material weaknesses identified as a result of the evaluation? (OMB Circular A-128, 13a(2))

Major programs—compliance reports:

An opinion that the entity complied, in all material respects, with specific requirements that, if not complied with, could have a material effect on a major federal financial assistance program? (AU Sec. 801.73)

A statement of positive assurance with respect to the items tested and a statement of negative assurance on those items not tested concerning material instances of noncompliance with the general requirements relating to major programs? (AU Sec. 801.83)

When appropriate, did the auditor issue either a qualified or adverse report on compliance, which presented material instances of noncompliance with laws and regulations in accordance with the guidance in Government Auditing Standards regarding reporting on performance audits? (AU Sec. 801.83f and .72)
Nonmajor programs—compliance report:

A statement of positive assurance with respect to those items tested and negative assurance on those items not tested concerning material instances of noncompliance with specific requirements of nonmajor programs? (AU Sec. 801.87)

Did the auditor perform the required level of internal control review, to include:

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual
The study and evaluation of those internal control systems, used in administering major federal financial assistance programs, comparable to that which the auditor would perform if he intended to rely on all existing control cycles to restrict the extent of substantive testing? (ASLGU, Ch. 21, par. 11)

If warranted, the study and evaluation of the systems, used in administering non-major programs, to the same extent as in Question G519 above so that controls over at least 50 percent of total federal financial assistance program expenditures are studied and evaluated? (ASLGU, Ch. 21, par. 12)

Perform a preliminary review of internal control for the systems used in administering other non-major federal financial assistance programs? (ASLGU, Ch. 21, par. 13)

For those programs where the study and evaluation of internal control systems did not extend beyond the preliminary review phase, do the working papers document:

Procedures used to perform the preliminary review? (ASLGU, Ch. 21, par. 13)

Reasons why the review was not extended? (ASLGU, Ch. 21, par. 13)

For the categories of controls for which the full study and evaluation were performed:

Do the working papers document the auditor's understanding of the systems? (AU Sec. 319.26)

Were tests of controls performed for these systems? (AU Sec. 319.46-.60)

In the judgment of the reviewer, were the nature and extent of tests of controls sufficient to enable the auditor to determine if the appropriate policies and procedures were being applied as described? (AU Sec. 319)

Did the auditor include the recipient's system for ensuring subrecipients' compliance and obtaining and acting on subrecipients' audit reports? (AU Sec. 801.65-.66)

Do the working papers adequately document the work performed and the conclusions reached? (AU Sec. 319)

In determining whether the entity complied with applicable laws and regulations that may have a material effect on each major federal financial assistance program, did the auditor:

Consult appropriate sources, such as the Compliance Supplement for Single Audits of State and Local Governments (revised September 1990), statutes, regulations, and agreements covering individual programs, in order to identify the specific compliance requirements that apply to each major program and to determine which requirements to test? (AU Sec. 801.49-.53)

Consider materiality in relation to each major federal assistance program? (AU Sec. 801.47-.48)

Select a representative number of charges from each major program? (ASLGU, Ch. 22, par. 4)

Are appropriate personnel in compliance with the 1988 Yellow Book CPE requirements? (GAO, Ch. 3, pars. 6-9)

Was appropriate assurance of independence considered on three levels: personal, external and organizational and did the auditor maintain an independent attitude and appearance? (GAO, Ch. 3, pars. 11-25)

Did the auditor submit the report(s) to the organization audited and to those requiring or arranging for the audit within the required time? (GAO, Ch. 5, par. 34)

Has the auditor established policies or procedures for complying with the additional requirements concerning (ASLGU, Ch. 21, par. 27):

- Retaining working papers and reports for a minimum of three years from the date of the audit report, unless the auditor is notified in writing by the cognizant agency to extend the retention period?

- Making the working papers available upon request to the cognizant agency or its designee or the GAO, at the completion of the audit?
IV. WORKING PAPER AREAS

NOTE: In the key audit areas reviewed, the reviewer should evaluate whether the reviewed firm has obtained sufficient competent evidential matter to form conclusions concerning the validity of the assertions of material significance embodied in the financial statements as described in AU Sec. 326. The questions contained in each section represent some of the audit procedures or tests that the reviewed firm might have undertaken to form conclusions in support of financial statement assertions of material significance. If an audit area is not reviewed because it does not represent a key audit area for that engagement, the reviewer should place an "X" in the box below the name of the working paper area. (As indicated on page 5603, the reviewer should indicate the reason for not reviewing a key audit area; in such circumstances, the reviewer should not place an "X" below the area.)

Cash

□ Not a key area.

Were bank accounts confirmed and were reconciling items cleared by reference to subsequent statements obtained directly from the bank (or obtained from the client and appropriately tested)?

A301

Was due consideration given to cash transactions shortly before and shortly after the balance sheet date to determine that transactions were recorded in the proper period? (AU Secs. 313.07 and 560.10-.11)

A302

Do the working papers indicate that the following were considered:

Restrictions on cash balances?
A303

Confirmation of bank credit arrangements such as compensating balances?
A304

Confirmation of liabilities and contingent liabilities to banks?
A305

Authorization for interfund cash transactions?
N401

Determination that all cash accounts have been identified and appropriately recorded? (ACNO, ch. 6, p. 34)
N402

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of cash appear adequate? (AU Sec. 319)
A306

Receivables

□ Not a key area.

Were accounts, pledges and grant receivables confirmed and appropriate follow-up steps taken, including second requests and alternative procedures? (AU Sec. 331.01-.08)
A307

If confirmation work was performed prior to year-end, is there evidence that there was an adequate review of transactions from the confirmation date to the balance sheet date?
A308

If a significant number and amount of accounts, pledges and grant receivables were not confirmed, is there evidence that other auditing procedures were performed? (AU Sec. 331.08)
A309

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF. column or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist.

Were procedures performed to provide evidence that pledged receivables are properly recorded in the appropriate funds?

Was the reasonableness of allowances for doubtful accounts covered in the working papers and collectibility of receivables adequately considered? (AU Sec. 312.29)

Is there evidence in the working papers that inquiry was made and consideration given to whether receivables are sold, pledged, assigned or otherwise encumbered?

Was receivable work coordinated with tests of support and revenue, including cut-off tests?

Were procedures performed to verify whether the carrying value of notes receivable reflects the present value of the consideration given and the appropriate interest rate?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of receivables appear adequate? (AU Sec. 319)

Inventories

- □ Not a key area.

Do the working papers indicate that there were adequate tests of:

- Physical observation, if material?
- The clerical accuracy of the inventory?
- Costing or valuation methods and substantiation of costs/values used in pricing all elements (raw material, work-in-process and finished goods) of the inventory?

Do the working papers indicate that a lower of cost or market test (including consideration of obsolete or slow-moving inventory) was performed?

Were the results of inventory observations and other tests summarized and were appropriate conclusions drawn?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of inventory appear adequate? (AU Sec. 319)

Investments

- □ Not a key area.

Was a summary schedule prepared (or obtained) and details examined with respect to description, purchase price and date, changes during the period, income, market value, etc., of investments?

If insurance policies were pledged as collateral or subjected to premium financing, did the auditor consider whether accounting for such loans was appropriate?

A349
Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of prepaid expenses, intangible assets, deferred charges, etc., appear adequate?

Collections of Works of Art and Similar Items

- □ Not a key area.

If the collection has been capitalized, do the working papers indicate that the auditor tested the reasonableness of the collection's carrying value? (SOP 78-10, pars. 113-114 and ACNO, p. 32)

If a capitalized collection is considered exhaustible, do the working papers indicate that the auditor tested the reasonableness of the related amortization? (SOP 78-10, pars. 107-108 and 115)

Whether or not the collection was capitalized, are the tests adequate with respect to acquisitions and deaccessions? (SOP 78-10, par. 114 and ACNO, p. 32)

If the collection is capitalized:

- Were physical inventories observed at all locations where relatively large amounts are located? (ACNO, ch. 5, p. 32)

- Do the working papers contain evidence that counts were correctly made and recorded (i.e., was control over inventory tags or count sheets maintained and were test count quantities reconciled with the quantities reflected in the final inventory)? (ACNO, ch. 5, p. 32)

If the collection is considered inexhaustible and has not been capitalized, do the working papers indicate that the auditor:

- Evaluated the internal controls over the collection? (ACNO, p. 32)

- Observed a physical inventory at all locations where relatively large amounts are located? (ACNO, p. 32)

Independence (QC Sec. 10.07a)

If anything has been noted that may indicate a lack of independence (including a lack of objectivity), was the matter identified and appropriately resolved by the firm and its impact appropriately considered? (ET Sec. 101)

Have personnel been appropriately advised as to the need to observe independence requirements concerning the client and any other related nonclient parent, investor, investee, subsidiary or affiliate? (QC Sec. 90.10)

Was appropriate assurance of independence obtained from other firms engaged to audit segments or component units of the entity? (QC Sec. 90.10)

Were the fees (billed/unbilled) for the prior years' services paid prior to issuance of the report for the current engagement? (ET Sec. 191.103-.104)

Assigning Personnel to Engagements (QC Sec. 10.07b)

Were scheduling and staffing requirements identified on a timely basis and approved by appropriate personnel? (QC Sec. 90.12)

Does it appear that engagement personnel possessed an appropriate mix of experience and training in relation to the complexity or other requirements of the engagement and the extent of supervision provided? (QC Sec. 90.12)

Consultation (QC Sec. 10.07c)

Was there appropriate consultation and documentation:

- In situations specified by firm policy? (QC Sec. 90.14)

- Where the complexity or unusual nature of the issue warranted it? (QC Sec. 90.14)

- Were the firm's conclusions consistent with professional standards?

If the engagement records indicated a difference of opinion between personnel and/or a specialist or other consultant, was the difference resolved in accordance with firm policy and was the basis of the resolution appropriately documented? (QC Sec. 90.14)

Supervision (QC Sec. 10.07d)

Were appropriate and knowledgeable engagement personnel involved in the planning process? (QC Sec. 90.16)

Does it appear that audit planning was adequately documented in the working papers, including any changes in the original plan? (AU Secs. 311 and 339.05)

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF. column or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist.

* The nature of the disposition of comments may vary, such as:
  - Note "resolved" and the manner of resolution.
  - Note "not significant" to indicate a "no" answer is appropriate but that the matter is not significant enough to warrant the preparation of an MFC form.

VII. CONCLUSIONS

EXPLAIN BELOW THE REASONS FOR ANY "YES" ANSWERS. BE SPECIFIC.

Based on the work performed, did anything come to your attention that caused you to believe that:

- The firm did not perform the engagement in all material respects in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (see AU 390 and ET 202) and other applicable standards including, where applicable, the requirements of Government Auditing Standards and the Single Audit Act? YES* NO

- The financial statements did not conform with generally accepted accounting principles (or where applicable, a comprehensive basis of accounting other than GAAP) in all material respects and the auditor's report was not appropriately modified (see AU 561 and ET 203)? YES* NO

- The auditor's reports, including all reports required by governmental agencies, were not appropriate in the circumstances? YES* NO

- The documentation on this engagement does not support the firm's opinion on the financial statements? YES NO

- The firm did not comply with its policies and procedures on this engagement in all material respects? YES NO

* If this question is answered "yes," see additional guidance contained in paragraphs 45 and 46 of the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews.

Supplemental Checklist for Review of Bank Audit Engagements

Instructions for Use of the Supplemental Checklist for Review of Bank Audit Engagements

This supplemental checklist was developed for use by reviewers of bank audit engagements. It should be used in conjunction with the General Audit Engagement Checklist (audit checklist) and other guidance materials issued to implement the quality review program. The instructions to Sections I and III of the audit checklist should be used when completing the applicable sections of this supplement. Questions regarding these instructions or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the AICPA Quality Review Division at 212/575-6650.

The questions in this checklist emphasize reporting matters and general procedures ordinarily performed by an independent auditor in the examination of financial statements of banks. All “No” answers must be thoroughly explained in Section VI of the Audit Engagement Checklist.

This checklist is not intended to be an all-inclusive document containing all disclosure and audit procedures related to banks. It is a summarization of commonly addressed key areas and related concepts or procedures. Therefore, it should be used in conjunction with various reference materials dealing with reporting, disclosure and audit procedure issues in order to sufficiently evaluate banking engagements. These additional materials include the AICPA Financial Reporting Practice Aid, Disclosure Checklist for Banks, or other similarly comprehensive disclosure materials, the AICPA Industry Audit Guide, Audits of Banks, and the AICPA Auditing Procedure Study, Auditing the Allowance for Credit Losses of Banks.

This checklist has been designed for the review of banks, however it may also be used as a supplement to the general checklists for review of audit engagements of other financial institutions. However, where applicable, specific industry guides should be consulted.

This is part of a series of supplemental checklists which the Institute intends to develop to facilitate the reviews of engagements within specialized industries. If you have any comments concerning this supplemental checklist, please forward them to the AICPA Quality Review Division.

General (IAG, Ch. 2, p. 7)

Do the engagement planning and audit working papers consider apparent fraud and insider abuse and the results of inquiries, readings, excerpts or other evidence of an understanding of regulatory examinations, their findings and actions?

Did the engagement team consider the risks to the bank of possible violations of regulations such as the following:

- Bank Secrecy Act?
- Legal lending limit regulations and interest rates charged?
- Affiliated party transaction regulations?
- Current minimum capital ratio requirements?

Were in-substance foreclosures reviewed to determine that they were accounted for as troubled debt restructurings?

Did the independent auditor review reports of significant examinations and related communications between examiners and the financial institution and, when appropriate, make inquiries of the examiners?

Director's Examinations (IAG, Appendix C, p. 162)

Procedures may be limited in a director's examination; therefore, were the following considered:

- Clearly setting forth in the engagement letter, in advance, the nature and extent of procedures?
- State regulations and requirements in the determination of audit scope?
- Compliance with the provisions of AU Sec. 622 (SAS No. 35), if the examination consisted of performing certain agreed-upon procedures?

Trust Operations (IAG, Ch. 18, p. 105)

Were the audit procedures directed to uncover the existence of contingent liabilities arising from trust department operations and the bank's fiduciary responsibilities?

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All “no” answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column, or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.
Loans (IAG, Ch. 7, p. 56 and Ch. 8, p. 62)

Did the loan evaluation consider or include:

Real Estate and Other Assets

If real estate or other assets acquired through foreclosure are significant to the client, were:

1. Carrying values at the time of foreclosure evaluated and properly classified in the financial statements?
   - B332

2. Continuing carrying values assessed, including those for in-substance foreclosures?
   - B333

3. Loans restructured by the client properly recorded under the principles of AC Sec. D22 (FAS No. 15)?
   - B334

Do the working papers indicate that the auditor considered the possibility that significant liabilities may exist as a result of failure to maintain customer's assets or to otherwise fulfill fiduciary responsibilities (e.g. customer safekeeping, safe deposit box operations, collections)? (AC Sec. C59)

Supplemental Checklist for Review of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations Engagements

Instructions for Use of the Supplemental Checklist for Review of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations Engagements

This supplemental checklist was developed for use by reviewers of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations engagements. It should be used in conjunction with the Checklist for Review of Audit Engagements of Not-for-Profit Organizations (audit checklist) or, where appropriate, the General Compilation Engagement Checklist (compilation checklist) or the General Review Engagement Checklist (review checklist) and other guidance materials issued to implement the quality review program. The instructions to sections I and IV of the audit checklist, or sections I and III of the compilation or review checklist, should be used when completing the applicable sections of this supplement. Questions regarding these instructions or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the AICPA Quality Review Division at 212/575-6650.

The questions in this checklist emphasize reporting matters and general procedures ordinarily performed by an independent auditor/accountant in the preparation of the financial statements of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations. All “No” answers must be thoroughly explained in section VI of the audit checklist or section V of the Compilation Checklist or section IV of the review checklist.

This checklist is not intended to be an all-inclusive document containing all disclosure and audit procedures related to Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations. It is a summarization of commonly addressed key areas and related concepts or procedures. Therefore, it should be used in conjunction with various reference materials dealing with reporting, disclosure and procedural issues in order to sufficiently evaluate voluntary health and welfare organization engagements. These additional materials include the AICPA Industry Audit Guide Audits of Voluntary Health and Welfare Organizations.

This is part of a series of supplemental checklists which the Institute intends to develop to facilitate the reviews of engagements within specialized industries. If you have any comments concerning this supplemental checklist, please forward them to the AICPA Quality Review Division.

I. REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Financial Statements and Notes

Is the presentation appropriate and disclosure adequate regarding:

Does the balance sheet show the unrestricted fund and the various types of restricted funds that have been established in response to donor or grantor restrictions?

Do the financial statements contain a statement of support, revenue, and expenses and changes in fund balances to reflect the activity within each fund, and a statement of functional expenses in support of the total program and supporting services expenses for the period?

Is there separate disclosure on the costs of program services, management and general activities and fundraising efforts?

Are the methods used by the organization in valuing, recording and reporting donated or contributed services? (VHW, ch. 5, p. 23)

Does the statement of functional expenses contain sufficient information to enable a reader to obtain a general understanding of the nature of the costs of carrying out the organization's activities? (VHW, ch. 6, p. 29)

Is the total support from fund-raising efforts disclosed? (VHW, ch. 6, p. 27)

Is the total cost of all fund-raising activities disclosed whether the organization reports expenses on a functional basis or some other basis? (VHW, ch. 6, p. 27 and 28)

Cash Donations and Pledges

Have procedures been performed to obtain satisfaction that the amounts reported as contributions are fairly stated? (VHW, ch. 4, p. 18)

Has an evaluation been made of the internal control structure to ensure that all contributions intended for the entity have been received and recorded? (VHW, ch. 4, p. 19)

If the auditor was not satisfied that all contributions have been received and recorded was a qualified opinion or disclaimer issued on the financial statements? (VHW, ch. 4, p. 19)

Pledges receivable—

- Has pledges receivable been reviewed for both age and collectibility? (VHW, ch. 4, p. 19)
- Was an allowance for uncollectible pledges considered? (VHW, ch. 4, p. 19)

Donated Material

- Was the basis of valuation of donated material reviewed? (VHW, ch. 5, p. 22)
- Was a comparison of contributions and expenditures of materials with budget or prior years performed? (VHW, ch. 5, p. 22)
- If materials are received from relatively few sources, was consideration given to confirming with the donors? (VHW, ch. 5, p. 22)

Donated Services

- Was a test review of the time records or other evidence examined? (VHW, ch. 5, p. 23)
- Was a reasonableness test performed on the valuation of such services in comparison to local labor market conditions? (VHW, ch. 5, p. 23)

Program and Supporting Services

- Were expenditures tested (or was the system evaluated) to determine whether all expenditures are recorded in the proper period and program? (VHW, ch. 6, p. 30)
- If the organization allocated functional expenditures, has the allocation method been reviewed for reasonableness? (VHW, ch. 6, p. 30)

Supplemental Checklist for Review of Construction Contractor Engagements

Instructions for Use of the Supplemental Checklist for Review of Construction Contractor Engagements

This supplemental checklist was developed for use by reviewers of construction contractor engagements. It should be used in conjunction with the Checklist for Review of Audit Engagements (audit checklist) or, where appropriate, the General Compilation Engagement Checklist (compilation checklist) or the General Review Engagement Checklist (review checklist) and other guidance materials issued to implement the quality review program. The instructions to section I and III of the audit checklist, or sections I and III of the compilation or review checklist, should be used when completing the applicable sections of this supplement. Questions regarding these instructions or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the AICPA Quality Review Division at 212/575-6650.

The questions in this checklist emphasize reporting matters and general procedures ordinarily performed by an independent auditor/accountant in the preparation of the financial statements of construction contractors. All "No" answers must be thoroughly explained in Section VI of the audit checklist or Section V of the compilation checklist or Section IV of the review checklist.

This checklist is not intended to be an all-inclusive document containing all disclosure and audit procedures related to construction contractors. It is a summarization of commonly addressed key areas and related concepts or procedures. Therefore, it should be used in conjunction with various reference materials dealing with reporting, disclosure and procedural issues in order to sufficiently evaluate construction contractor engagements. These additional materials include the AICPA Financial Reporting Practice Aid Checklist Supplement and Illustrative Financial Statements for Construction Contractors, or other similarly comprehensive disclosure materials, and the AICPA Industry Audit Guide Construction Contractors.

This is part of a series of supplemental checklists which the Institute is developing to facilitate the reviews of engagements within specialized industries. If you have any comments concerning this supplemental checklist, please forward them to the AICPA Quality Review Division.

Financial Statements and Notes

Is the presentation appropriate and disclosure adequate regarding the following:

General

The method of measuring extent of progress toward completion of contracts when the percentage-of-completion method is used? (SOP 81-1, par. 45)

CN101

The reasons for selecting the completed-contract method if that method is used? (CC, ch. 6, p. 52)

CN102

The specific criteria used to determine when a contract is substantially complete when the completed-contract method is used? (SOP 81-1, pars. 65-67)

CN103

Policies relating to combining and segmenting contracts, if applicable? (SOP 81-1, par. 21)

CN104

Method of reporting affiliated entities? (CC, ch. 6, p.51)

CN105

The operating cycle and the range of contract durations if the operating cycle exceeds one year? (CC, ch. 6, p. 51)

CN106

Method of reporting joint venture investments along with other joint venture disclosures? (CC, ch. 6, p. 52)

CN107

Unapproved change orders, claims, or similar items subject to uncertainty concerning their determination or ultimate realization (CC, ch. 6, p. 52):

The aggregate amount included in contract costs?

CN108

A description of the nature and status of the principal items comprising such aggregate amounts?

CN109

The basis on which such items are recorded?

CN110

The policy of deferral and the amounts involved for costs deferred either in anticipation of future sales (precontract costs) or as a result of an unapproved change order? (CC, ch. 6, p.52)

CN111

The amount of progress payments netted against contract costs at the date of the balance sheet? (CC, ch. 6, p. 52)

CN112

The effect of significant revisions of estimates where the effect is material? (SOP 81-1, par. 84)

CN113

Disclosure of backlog information on uncompleted contracts? (CC, ch. 6, p. 52)

CN114

Consideration of any state statutes affecting construction contractors? (CC, ch. 11, p. 100)

CN115

Provisions for losses on a contract where it is material in amount or unusual or infrequent in nature and are the losses shown separately as a component of cost included in the computation of gross profit? (SOP 81-1, par. 88)

CN116

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column; or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.
Balance Sheet

Was a classified balance sheet properly considered and, if so, were the appropriate contract-related items correctly classified? (CC, ch. 6, pp. 45-58)

Disclosure of information on revenue and costs arising from claims? (SOP 81-1, pars. 65-67)

For unapproved change orders, claims, or similar items subject to uncertainty concerning their determination or ultimate realization whether billed or unbilled: (CC, ch. 6, p. 53)

- The amount included in receivables?
- A description of the nature and status of the principal items comprising such amounts?
- Amounts expected to be collected after one year?

Has disclosure been made for the general description and the prerequisites for billings of amounts representing the recognized sales value of performance under contracts and in which the amounts had not been billed and were not billable to customers at the balance sheet date, including amounts to be collected after one year? (CC, ch. 6, p. 53)

If receivables include amounts maturing after one year, has the following been disclosed: (CC, ch. 6, pp. 53-54)

- The amount maturing after one year and, if practicable, the amounts maturing in each year?
- Interest rates on major receivable items, or on classes of receivables, maturing after one year or an indication of the average interest rate or the range of rates on all receivables?

Are amounts billed, but not paid by customers under retainage provisions in contracts, included in receivables properly classified? (CC, ch. 6, p. 54)

If costs and estimated earnings exceed billings on some contracts, and billings exceed costs and estimated earnings on others, are the contracts segregated so that figures on the asset side include only those on which costs and estimated earnings exceed billings, and those on the liability side include only those on which billings exceed costs and estimated earnings? (CC, ch. 6, p. 50)

Are billings and related costs and estimated earnings presented separately either by short extension of the amounts on the balance sheet or in the notes to the financial statements? (CC, ch. 6, p. 50)

Are billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings classified as a current liability, except to the extent billings exceed total estimated costs at completion of the contract plus contract profits earned to date, in which case are they classified as deferred income? (CC, ch. 6, p. 49)

Supplemental Checklist for Review of Audits of Employee Benefit Plans

Instructions for Use of the Supplemental Checklist for Review of Audits of Employee Benefit Plans

This supplemental checklist was developed for use by reviewers of audits of employee benefit plans. It should be used in conjunction with the Checklist for Review of Audit Engagements (audit checklist) and other guidance materials issued to implement the quality review program. The instructions to sections I and III of the audit checklist should be used when completing the applicable sections of this supplement. Questions regarding these instructions or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the AICPA Quality Review Division at 212/575-6650.

The questions in this checklist emphasize reporting matters and general procedures ordinarily performed by an independent auditor in the examination of financial statements of employee benefit plans. All “No” answers must be thoroughly explained in Section VI of the audit checklist.

This checklist is not intended to be an all-inclusive document containing all disclosure and audit procedures related to employee benefit plans. It is a summarization of commonly addressed key areas and related concepts or procedures. Therefore, it should be used in conjunction with various reference materials dealing with reporting, disclosure and audit procedure issues in order to sufficiently evaluate employee benefit plan engagements. These additional materials include the AICPA Financial Reporting Practice Aid Checklist for Defined Benefit Pension Plans and Illustrative Financial Statements, or other similarly comprehensive disclosure materials, and the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide Audits of Employee Benefit Plans (1991) effective for audits of financial statements for plan years beginning after December 15, 1990. The provisions of this guide should also be applied in audits of financial statements for earlier plan years when such audits are performed concurrently with audits for plan years beginning after December 15, 1990. Earlier application is encouraged.

Prospective Financial Engagement Checklist

Instructions for Use of the Checklist for Review of Prospective Financial Engagements

This checklist was developed for use by reviewers of prospective financial statement engagements. Questions regarding these instructions or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the AICPA Quality Review Division at 212/575-6650.

The questions in this checklist emphasize reporting matters and general procedures ordinarily performed by an independent auditor in the examination of prospective financial statements. All "No" answers must be thoroughly explained in Section IV of this checklist.

This checklist is not intended to be an all-inclusive document containing all disclosure and audit procedures related to prospective financial statements. It is a summarization of commonly addressed key areas and related concepts or procedures. Therefore, it should be used in conjunction with various reference materials dealing with reporting, disclosure and audit procedure issues in order to sufficiently evaluate prospective financial statements. These additional materials include the AICPA Financial Reporting Practice Aid Checklist Supplement and Illustrative Financial Statements for Prospective Financial Statements, or other similarly comprehensive disclosure materials, and the AICPA Industry Audit Guide Prospective Financial Statements.

Prospective Financial Engagement Checklist

(l) Summary of significant accounting policies?

If any of the disclosure items, j, k, or l above are omitted, is the accountant's report modified to reflect this deficiency? (APFS Sec. 400.08)

If one or more of the omitted items applicable cannot be derived from the information presented, was the guidance in SOP 90-1 followed?

If the forecast contains a range, is the range narrow enough to insure that the presentation is meaningful to users? (APFS Sec. 400.19)

If the presentation is other than a single-point estimate, is there a clear indication that the presentation does not necessarily represent the best or worst possible alternatives? (APFS Sec. 400.21)

If the forecast is supplemented by a financial projection are both the forecast and projection clearly labeled? (APFS Sec. 400.20)

Disclosure on the Face of Statements

Is each page of the prospective financials referenced to the summaries of significant assumptions and accounting policies? (APFS Sec. 400.10)

Assumptions

Has an introduction preceding the summary of assumptions been provided? (APFS Sec. 400.28)

For a projection, is an introduction presented that clearly explains any special purpose and limitation of the usefulness of the prospective financial statements? (APFS Sec. 400.29P)

Does the introduction include:

- A description of what the responsible party intends the financial forecast to present? (APFS Sec. 400.28)
- A statement that assumptions are not all-inclusive?
- The date of preparation? (APFS Sec. 400.11)
- If the presentation is a range, a statement that the responsible party expects the results to fall within a range although there can be no assurance that they will? (APFS Sec. 400.30)
- A statement that the assumptions are based on the responsible party's judgement at the time the prospective information was prepared? (APFS Sec. 400.28)
- A caveat that the prospective results may not be attained?

Was the basis or rationale for the assumptions disclosed? (APFS Sec. 400.23)
Do the assumptions disclosed include:

Assumptions about which there is a reasonable possibility of the occurrence of a variation that may significantly affect the prospective results (sensitive assumptions)?

Assumptions about anticipated conditions expected to be significantly different from current conditions which are not otherwise reasonably apparent?

Other matters deemed important to the prospective information or its interpretation?

For a projection, did the responsible party identify which assumptions in the projection are hypothetical? (APFS Sec. 400.23P)

For a projection, if the hypothetical assumptions are improbable, does the above disclosure so indicate?

Does the presentation indicate which assumptions disclosed appeared particularly sensitive at the time of preparation? (APFS Sec. 400.24)

If an updated prospective presentation is issued, is the reason for updating disclosed in the summary of significant assumptions? (APFS Sec. 400.38)

Accounting Principles and Policies

Is the summary of significant accounting policies used in preparing the prospective financials disclosed or cross-referenced to a document that contains this information? (APFS Sec. 400.12)

If historical financial statements for prospective periods are prepared on a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles, are the prospective financial statements prepared on same basis? (APFS Sec. 400.13)

Is the basis used disclosed (including titles) along with the fact that the disclosed basis is different from generally accepted accounting principles? (APFS Sec. 400.14)

If a different comprehensive basis of accounting is used for the prospective financial statements than is expected to be used for the historical financial statements for the prospective period, is the use of the different basis disclosed? (APFS Sec. 400.15)

If deemed appropriate, are differences in financial position and results of operations arising from the use of different accounting principles reconciled and disclosed? (APFS Sec. 400.13P)

If deemed appropriate, are differences in results of operations and cash flows resulting from the use of the different basis reconciled in the forecast?

If accounting principles other than those expected to be used in the historical financial statements are used, is the use of different accounting principles disclosed? (APFS Sec. 400.13P)
If the prospective financial statements give effect to a change in accounting principle from one used in prior period historical financial statements, is the change reported in the prospective information? (APFS Sec. 400.16)

Report—Compilation

Does the accountant’s standard report on a compilation of prospective financial statements include (AT Sec. 200.16):

An identification of the prospective financial statements presented by the responsible party?

A statement that the accountant has compiled the prospective financial statements in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants?

A statement that a compilation is limited in scope and does not enable the accountant to express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the prospective financial statements or the assumptions?

A caveat that the prospective results may not be achieved?

A statement that the accountant assumes no responsibility to update the report for events and circumstances occurring after the date of the report?

If a projection, does the accountant’s report include a separate paragraph describing the limitations on the usefulness of the presentation? (AT Sec. 200.18)

Does it describe the hypothetical assumptions used?

If a range is presented, does the report include a separate paragraph stating that the responsible party has elected to portray the expected results of one or more assumptions as a range? (AT Sec. 200.19)

Was the date of the completion of the compilation procedures used as date of the report? (AT Sec. 200.20)

If the accountant was not independent, did the accountant specifically disclose a lack of independence after the last paragraph of the standard compilation report? (AT Sec. 200.21)

If the prospective financial statements were included in a document that also contains historical financial statements and the accountant’s report thereon or if the historical financial statements that appear in the document were summarized and presented with the prospective financial statements for comparative purposes, was a reference to the accountant’s report on the historical financial statements made in the concluding sentence of the last paragraph? (AT Sec. 200.22)

If the accountant expands his report to emphasize a matter, was the information presented in a separate paragraph of the accountant’s report? (AT Sec. 200.23)

When emphasizing a matter, was the accountant careful not to give the impression that assurance is being expressed or the degree of responsibility was being expanded concerning such information?

If the accountant compiled prospective financial statements that contain presentation deficiencies or omit disclosures other than those relating to significant assumptions, is the deficiency or omission clearly indicated in the report? (AT Sec. 200.24-.26)
If the prospective financial statements are presented on a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles and do not include disclosure of the basis of accounting used, is the basis disclosed in the accountant's report? (AT Sec. 200.25)

Report—Examination

Does the accountant's standard report on an examination of the prospective financial statements include (AT Sec. 200.31):

- An identification of the prospective financial statements presented?
  P164

- A statement that the examination was made in accordance with AICPA standards and a brief description of the nature of such an examination?
  P165

- The accountant's opinion that the prospective financial statements are presented in conformity with AICPA presentation guidelines and that the underlying assumptions provide a reasonable basis for the forecast or a reasonable basis for the projection given the hypothetical assumptions?
  P166

- A caveat that the prospective results may not be achieved?
  P167

- A statement that the accountant assumes no responsibility to update the report for events and circumstances occurring after the date of the report?
  P168

In the examination of a projection, is the opinion regarding assumptions conditioned on the hypothetical assumptions? (AT Sec. 200.33)

- Does the report include a separate paragraph that describes the limitations on the usefulness of the presentation?
  P169

- Does it describe the hypothetical assumption(s) used?
  P170

- If a range is presented, does the report include a separate paragraph stating that the responsible party has elected to portray the expected results of one or more assumptions as a range? (AT Sec. 200.34)
  P171

- Is the date of completion of the accountant's examination procedures used as the date of the report? (AT Sec. 200.35)
  P172

- If, in the accountant's opinion, the prospective financial statements depart from AICPA presentation guidelines, was a qualified or adverse report issued? (AT Sec. 200.36)
  P173

- If the presentation departs from the guidelines because it fails to disclose assumptions that appear to be significant, was an adverse opinion issued?
  P174

- If the accountant believes that one or more significant assumptions do not provide a reasonable basis for the forecast, or a reasonable basis for the projection given the hypothetical assumptions, was an adverse opinion issued?
  P175

- If the accountant's examination is affected by conditions that preclude application of one or more procedures considered necessary in the circumstances, was an opinion disclaimed and the scope of the limitation described?
  P176

QRP § 5800 Copyright © 1992, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Inc.
In a qualified opinion, did the accountant state all of the substantive reasons for the modification of the opinion and describe the departure from AICPA presentation guidelines in a separate paragraph of the report?

For the accountant's report (AT Sec. 200.37-.39):
- Does the opinion include the words "except" or "exception" as the qualifying language?
  - P179
- Does the opinion paragraph refer to the separate explanatory paragraph?
  - P180
- If a measurement departure, an unreasonable assumption, or a limitation on the scope of the accountant's examination has led the accountant to conclude that an unqualified opinion cannot be issued, was an adverse opinion issued or a disclaimer of opinion made?
  - P182
- If an adverse opinion, did the accountant state all of the substantive reasons for the adverse opinion in a separate paragraph?
  - P183
- If applicable, does the opinion state that the presentation is not in conformity with presentation guidelines?
  - P184
- Does the opinion paragraph refer to the explanatory paragraph?
  - P185
- When applicable, does the opinion paragraph state that, in the accountant's opinion, the assumptions do not provide a reasonable basis for the prospective financial statements?
  - P186

If the presentation, including the summary of significant assumptions, fails to disclose significant assumptions, did the accountant describe the assumptions in the report and issue an adverse opinion? (AT Sec. 200.40)

Report—Examination—Public Offering

Does report indicate that accountant has no responsibility to update the report for events and circumstances occurring after the report date? (APFS Sec. 730.03)

- P188

Does the accountant have a reasonable basis to consent to the use of the report in a 1933 Act registration statement as of the consent date and perform the applicable steps so as to determine that they had a reasonable basis to consent? (APFS Sec. 730.04)

- P189

Did the accountant perform procedures for the period from the date of examination up to the consent date and as is reasonable and practical in circumstances?

- P190

Did the accountant read latest interim financials, operating reports, and any relevant information such as budgets?

- P191

Did the accountant consider prospective results in relation to actual results achieved in the interim period?

- P192

Did the accountant inquire whether or not accounting principles used are consistent with the principles used in preparing the forecast?

- P193

Did the accountant read the prospectus and other pertinent portions of the registration statement and consider that information in relation to prospective results and summary of significant assumptions?

- P194
Did the accountant inquire of and obtain written representations from responsible parties as to whether or not there are any events, plans, or expectations that may require the forecast to be modified or that should be disclosed in order that the forecast reflect the responsible parties' judgement based on present circumstances of the expected conditions and its expected course of action?

Did the accountant read the minutes of the board of directors and related committees?

Did the accountant make additional inquiries or perform such procedures as were considered necessary and appropriate to dispose of questions that arose in carrying out the foregoing procedures?

If the accountant believes that the forecast (including summary of significant assumptions) should be revised as a result of the above procedures, was the client requested to revise its forecast and, if so engaged, examine the revised forecast? (APFS Sec. 730.05)

If the client does not make appropriate revisions, did the accountant refuse to consent to the use of the report in the registration statement? (APFS Sec. 730.05)

Is the accountant's consent in writing? (APFS Sec. 730.06)

Is the consent for the 1933 Act filing manually signed and dated?

Is the consent dated at or near the effective date of registration statement? (APFS Sec. 730.07)

Is the "experts" section of the registration statement worded so that there is no implication that the forecast has been prepared by the accountant or that the forecast is not the direct responsibility of the responsible party? (APFS Sec. 730.09)

Additional Questions—Internal Use Presentations

Internal Use Only:

Are the accountant's procedures consistent with the nature of the engagement? (SOP 90-1, part I, par. 3)

When providing other services on prospective financial information for internal use, did the accountant establish an understanding with the client regarding the services to be performed, preferably in writing, and specify in this understanding that the presentation and the report (if any) are not to be distributed to outside users? (SOP 90-1, part I, par. 4)

Is each page of the prospective information clearly labeled for internal use only?

Additional Questions—Partial Presentations

Partial Presentations:

Did the accountant give appropriate consideration to whether or not key factors affecting elements, accounts, or items that are interrelated with those in the partial presentation he has been engaged to examine or compile have been considered (including key factors)? (SOP 90-1, part II, par. 15)

Did the accountant consider whether or not all significant assumptions have been disclosed? (SOP 90-1, part II, par. 20)

Did the accountant accept an engagement to apply agreed-upon procedures to a partial presentation only if the specified users involved have participated in establishing the nature and scope of the engagement? (SOP 90-1, part II, par. 30)

Did the accountant take responsibility for the adequacy of the procedures to be performed?

Was distribution of the report restricted to the specified users involved?

Did the presentation include a summary of significant assumptions? (SOP 90-1, part II, par. 21)

Are the accountant's working papers in connection with the compilation or examination of prospective financial statements appropriate in the circumstances? (APFS Sec. 600.11 for compilations and APFS Sec. 700.38 for examinations)

For an examination, do the working papers indicate that (APFS Sec. 700.38):

- The work was adequately planned and supervised?
- The process by which the entity develops its prospective financial statements was considered in determining the scope of the examination?
- Sufficient evidence was obtained to provide a reasonable basis for the accountant's report?

* The N/A column should be used when the item either does not exist or is not material.

 All "no" answers should be handled in either of the following ways: (1) discussed on an MFC with the MFC form number noted in the REF column, or (2) discussed on the pages provided at the end of this checklist if no MFC was generated.
III. FUNCTIONAL AREAS

Independence (QC Sec. 10.07a)

If anything has been noted during the review which may indicate a lack of independence (including a lack of objectivity), was the matter identified and appropriately resolved by the firm and its impact appropriately considered? (ET Sec. 101)

V. CONCLUSIONS

Explain Below the Reasons for any "Yes" Answers. Be Specific.

Based on the work performed, did anything come to your attention that caused you to believe that:

1. The firm did not perform the engagement in all material respects in accordance with professional standards (see ET 202)?
   YES* ______ NO_____

2. The prospective financial statements were not presented fairly in all material respects and the firm’s report was not appropriately modified (see ET 203)?
   YES ______ NO_____

3. The firm’s report was not appropriate in the circumstances?
   YES ______ NO_____

4. The documentation on this engagement does not support the firm’s report on the prospective financial statements?
   YES ______ NO_____

5. The firm did not comply with its policies and procedures on this engagement in all material respects?
   YES ______ NO_____

* If this question is answered "yes," see additional guidance contained on pages SECP § 2000.67-.73 of the SECP Reference Manual and PCPS § 2000.70-.77 of the PCPS Reference Manual.
QRP Section 6000

SUMMARIES OF ON-SITE REVIEW ENGAGEMENT FINDINGS

General

The review team must consider the pattern and pervasiveness of engagement deficiencies and their implications for compliance with the firm's system of quality control as a whole, in addition to their nature and significance in the specific circumstances in which they were observed. (See Appendix 2 to the Standards.)

"No" answers on engagement checklists should be summarized to facilitate the above consideration. (See step III.8 of the Team Captain's Checklist—On-Site Quality Reviews.) The format of summarization is left to the discretion of the reviewer.

The following summaries have been developed and are included in this section of the manual.

a. Summary Audit Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 6100)
b. Summary Review Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 6200)
c. Summary Compilation Engagement Checklist (QRP Section 6300)

The format of these summary checklists is consistent with that of the engagement checklists contained in section 5000 of this manual. Since the engagement checklists are developed for typical situations, they, as well as the summaries, should be augmented, as necessary, to include the reviewed firm's specific quality control policies and procedures applicable to engagements.

Reviewers may use these summary checklists or develop their own summaries.

If the financial statements of a prior period have been audited by a predecessor auditor whose report is not presented, has the successor auditor indicated in the introductory paragraph:

- The financial statements of the prior period were audited by another auditor?

- The date of the report?

- The type of report issued by the predecessor auditor?

- If the report was other than a standard report the substantive reasons therefore?

If supplemental information accompanies the basic financial statements, does the auditor describe in the report the degree of responsibility, if any, the auditor is taking?

For special reports, have the professional standards been complied with regarding:

- Statements prepared in accordance with a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles?

- Specified elements, accounts or items of a financial statement?

- Compliance with aspects of agreements or regulatory requirements relating to audited financial statements?

- Financial presentations to comply with contractual agreements or regulatory provisions?

- Financial information that requires a prescribed form of auditor's report?

For reports on financial statements of a U.S. entity that have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in another country for use outside the United States, has there been compliance with professional standards?

If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

A201

Does it report cash provided or used by investing, financing, and operating activities?

A202

Does it report the net effect of cash flows on cash and cash equivalents during the period in a manner that reconciles beginning and ending cash equivalents and do the amounts of cash and cash equivalents agree with the amounts on the balance sheet?

A203

Does it provide a reconciliation between net income and net cash flow from operating activities?

A204

Are noncash investing and financing activities disclosed?

A205

If the indirect method of reporting net cash flows from operating activities was used, were the amounts of interest and income taxes paid disclosed?

A206

Are cash equivalents limited to short-term, highly liquid investments that are both readily convertible to known amounts of cash and of an original maturity value of three months or less? Is the enterprise's policy for determining which items are treated as cash equivalents disclosed?

A207

Do the financial statements and notes not report an amount of cash flows per share?

A208

Do components of the financial statements appear to have been shown at “gross” and not “net” value?

A209

Other

Do the combined financial statements contain all funds and account groups that comprise the reporting entity, as defined in the notes?

If totals by account are presented in the General Purpose Financial Statements, are the totals noted as memorandum only?

If the auditor is expressing an opinion on summarized comparative information of the prior period, does the prior period’s information contain sufficient detail to constitute a fair presentation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles?

Do interfund receivables equal interfund payables or are the differences explained in the notes?

Are transfers to other funds recorded either as residual equity or operating transfers, as appropriate?

Are special assessments receivables offset by deferred revenues?

Are taxes and other similar receivables appropriately recorded and disclosed net of uncollectable receivables?

If separate financial statements of a component unit are issued, is the relationship of the component unit to the reporting or oversight entity disclosed?

If a general fund is presented:

  Are the statements prepared on the modified accrual basis?

Deposits with financial institutions and investments, including risk categories, uninsured deposits, and other disclosures required by professional standards?

Terms or circumstances concerning repurchase or reverse repurchase agreements?

Receivables:
- Loans or advances to other funds of the governmental units?
- Taxes receivable?
- Grant and other receivables from other governments?
- Joint ventures and other investments?
- Pooled cash and investment account?

If this entity has public entity risk pools (cooperative group of governmental entities) did the auditor:
- Recognize pool premiums as revenue over the contract period?
- Recognize claims costs in the period in which the event triggers coverage under the policy?
- Report the estimated loss of a claim if it is both probable and reasonably estimable?
- Fixed assets, including changes during the period and capitalized interest?

If GASB Sec. L20 (GASB No. 13) was applicable to this engagement (either as a result of the GASB’s effective date or an early application of the GASB) are the operating lease revenues accounted for under the accrual method?

If the leases are reported in the governmental or similar trust fund is the lease accounted for under the modified accrual basis if GASB Sec. L20 (GASB No. 13) has not yet been adopted?

For leases entered into beginning June 30, 1990, are operating leases with scheduled rent increases accounted for in a systematic and rational manner? If terms are artificially low has the entity used either the straightline or estimated fair value method?

Notes payable, bond, tax, and revenue anticipation notes, and other debt:
- Special assessment debt and related activities?

If required or deemed necessary, is there any indication that the firm considered the entity's requirements and agreed on the scope of the engagement with the entity?

Does the language in the auditor's reports in addition to the auditor's report on the financial statements conform with professional standards, including references to Government Auditing Standards and appropriately cover the following for the entity as a whole:

The internal control structure related matters based solely on the auditor's understanding of the internal control structure and assessment of control risk made as part of the audit of the financial statements that includes, when appropriate:

The controls that were evaluated?

The controls for which consideration was limited?

Reference to a separate letter, if applicable, describing identified non-reportable conditions?

Which matters are reportable conditions and which of the reportable conditions are material weaknesses?

Compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including a summary of all material instances of noncompliance and/or instances or indications of illegal acts that includes, when appropriate:

A presentation of a reasonable basis for the auditor's conclusion not to perform tests of compliance and omission of a statement of positive assurance on items tested for compliance with laws and regulations?

Presentation of material instances of noncompliance with laws and regulations in accordance with the guidance in Government Auditing Standards regarding issuance of a report on compliance?

Reference to a separate letter, if applicable, describing immaterial instances of noncompliance?

When illegal acts involve funds received from other governmental entities did the auditor assure themselves that the audited entity notified the proper official of those entities, within a reasonable time? If the entity did not, or was unable to do so because the top official was involved, has the auditor reported these acts to the officials of those other governmental entities?

If appropriate was the scope section of the reports properly modified to disclose that an applicable government auditing standard was not followed, the reasons therefore, and the known effect of not following the standard on the audit results?

When appropriate, did the auditor issue a separate report on fraud, abuse, or illegal act, or indications of such acts?

Did the report(s) disclose the status of all known, but uncorrected significant or material findings and recommendations from prior audits that affect current audit objectives?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Did the auditor document his communication of those nonreportable conditions in the internal control structure not included in the required reports?

If required by contractual obligations, were findings presented in accordance with the guidance in the Government Auditing Standards regarding reporting on performance audits?

Do the working papers include a cross-referenced audit program with adequate indexing and cross-referencing to schedules, and are the working papers signed by the preparer?

Are appropriate personnel in compliance with the 1988 Yellow book CPE requirements?

Was appropriate assurance of independence considered on three levels: personal, external and organizational and did the auditor maintain an independent attitude and appearance?

The Financial Statements, including where presented, the combining and individual fund statements, if applicable?

If the auditor (firm) is a CPA or PA, did the auditor meet the licensing requirements of the jurisdiction where the auditee is located? (GAO, ch. 3, par. 10)

Does the language in the auditor’s reports conform with professional standards, including references to Government Auditing Standards and OMB circular A-128?

Do the Single Audit Act Reports also include:
- Auditor’s report on the schedule of federal financial assistance?
- Auditor’s report on internal controls over federal financial assistance program identifying the entity’s internal control structure and those controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that federal programs are being managed in compliance with laws and regulations including:
  - The controls that were evaluated?
  - The controls that were not evaluated?
  - The material weaknesses identified as a result of the evaluation?

Major programs—compliance reports:
- An opinion that the entity complied, in all material respects, with specific requirements that, if not complied with, could have a material effect on a major federal financial assistance program?
- A statement of positive assurance with respect to the items tested and a statement of negative assurance on those items not tested concerning material instances of noncompliance with the general requirements relating to major programs?
- When appropriate, did the auditor issue either a qualified or adverse report on compliance, which presented material instances of noncompliance with laws and regulations in accordance with the guidance in Government Auditing Standards regarding reporting on performance audits?

Nonmajor programs—compliance report:
- A statement of positive assurance with respect to those items tested and negative assurance on those items not tested concerning material instances of noncompliance with specific requirements of nonmajor programs?

Did the auditor, by reviewing contract files and receipts and disbursements, obtain reasonable assurance that the entity appropriately identified all federal financial assistance and included that assistance within the audit scope?

Does the schedule of federal financial assistance program expenditures present the following:
- Identification of each program as indicated in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA)?
- Other federal assistance from programs not included in the CFDA?

If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
Total expenditures for each federal financial assistance program by grantor, department, or agency?

Total federal financial assistance?

Other information, either required by federal program managers or otherwise deemed appropriate?

Was consideration given to the accounting and auditing guidance issued by the Office of Management and Budget, including Circulars A-128 (Audits of State and Local Governments), A-87 (Cost Principles Applicable to Grants and Contracts), and "common rule" under A-102 (Uniform Requirements for Assistance to State and Local Governments)?

Do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to prior audits of government financial assistance programs that disclosed questioned or disallowed costs, or instances of noncompliance?

Did the auditor perform and document the required level of internal control review, to include:

- The study and evaluation of those internal control systems, used in administering major federal financial assistance programs, comparable to that which the auditor would perform if he intended to rely on all existing control cycles to restrict the extent of substantive testing?

- If warranted, the study and evaluation of the systems, used in administering nonmajor programs, to the same extent as in Question G519 above so that controls over at least 50 percent of total federal financial assistance program expenditures are studied and evaluated?

- Perform a preliminary review of internal control for the systems used in administering other non-major federal financial assistance programs?

For those programs where the study and evaluation of internal control systems did not extend beyond the preliminary review phase, do the working papers document:

- Procedures used to perform the preliminary review?

- Reasons why the review was not extended?

For the categories of controls for which the full study and evaluation were performed:

- Do the working papers document the auditor's understanding of the systems?

- Were tests of controls performed for these systems?

- In the judgment of the reviewer, were the nature and extent of test of controls sufficient to enable the auditor to determine if the appropriate policies and procedures were being applied as described?

- Did the auditor include the recipient's system for ensuring sub-recipients' compliance and obtaining and acting on subrecipients' audit reports?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Do the working papers adequately document the work performed and the conclusions reached?

In determining whether the entity complied with applicable laws and regulations that may have a material effect on each major federal financial assistance program, did the auditor:

Consult appropriate sources, such as the Compliance Supplement for Single Audits of State and Local Governments (revised September 1990), statutes, regulations, and agreements covering individual programs, in order to identify the specific compliance requirements that apply to each major program and to determine which requirements to test?

Consider materiality in relation to each major federal assistance program?

Select a representative number of charges from each major program?

Perform and document tests to determine whether:

The amounts reported as expenditures were allowable under federal regulations and contracts?

Only eligible persons or organizations received services or benefits?

Matching requirements were met?

Federal financial reports and claims for advances and reimbursements were supported by the records supporting the financial statements?

The entity complied with other provisions for which federal agencies have determined that noncompliance could materially affect the program?

Perform and document tests to determine whether the entity complied with each of the general requirements contained in the compliance supplement concerning:

Political activity?

Civil rights?

Davis-Bacon Act?

Cash management?

Relocation of assistance and real property acquisition?

Federal financial reports?

Allowable costs/cost principles? ¹

Drug-free workplace act? ¹

Administrative requirements?

Consider projected questioned costs from all audit sampling applications and all specifically identified questioned costs?

Consider whether the tests of compliance with the program's requirements appear adequate to support the report(s) on compliance?

Did the auditor properly consider the potential effects of instances of noncompliance and questioned costs in reporting on the entity's financial statements and individual financial assistance programs?

Where transactions related to non-major federal assistance programs have been selected during other audit procedures, have they been appropriately tested for compliance with the specific requirements that apply to the individual transactions so tested?

If warranted, did the auditor communicate with the cognizant agency to avoid or minimize any disagreements or problems?

Did the auditor submit the report(s) to the organization audited and to those requiring or arranging for the audit within the required time?

Has the auditor established policies or procedures for complying with the additional requirements concerning:

Retaining working papers and reports for a minimum of three years from the date of the audit report, unless the auditor is notified in writing by the cognizant agency to extend the retention period?

Making the working papers available upon request to the cognizant agency or its designee or the GAO, at the completion of the audit?

Report and Disclosure Considerations Unique to Not-for-Profit Organizations

Financial Statements and Notes

If the auditor is expressing an opinion on summarized comparative information of the prior period, does the prior period's information contain sufficient detail to constitute a fair presentation in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles?

If the financial statements represent a component, such as a chapter of an existing organization, a separate operation, a separate fund, or a grant, do the financial statements or footnotes disclose the following:

Existence and nature of affiliated or related entities?

Nature and volume of material transactions (individually or in the aggregate) with related entities?

Allocations of common expenses?

Are related party transactions with non-combined affiliated entities, contributors of restricted funds, board members, officers, and employees adequately disclosed?

1 Effective September 1990

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
If appropriate, are the financial statements prepared on a fund accounting basis and adequate disclosures made of the following:

Unrestricted resources?

Resources restricted by the donor?

Balance Sheet

Is the presentation appropriate and disclosure adequate regarding:

Cash?

Terms or circumstances concerning repurchase or reverse repurchase agreements?

Accounts and Notes receivable:
  Legally enforceable pledges?
  Interfund receivables?

Collections of works of art and similar items?

Fixed assets:
  Purchased fixed assets?
  Donated fixed assets?
  Accounting for depreciation, including disclosure of depreciation policy for inexhaustible assets?
  Major classes of depreciable assets?
  Accumulated depreciation, as well as, a general description of the method used in computing depreciation?
  Capitalized interest?
  Restrictions on use or disposal imposed by donor?

Notes payable and other debt:
  Interfund payables?

Activity Statement

Are unrestricted revenues, expenses, and fund balances clearly distinguishable from restricted items?

If the organization receives significant support from contributions from the general public, are all expenses presented on a functional basis (i.e., indicating costs of each program and supporting activity)?

Does the Activity Statement include all the funds of the organization?

Is the presentation appropriate and disclosure adequate regarding:
  Service fees, such as subscription and membership income?
  Sales of publications and other items?
  Third-party reimbursements of costs of program activities?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
Investment income?

Capital gains and losses from investments, both realized and unrealized, and the related tax effects, if any?

Contributions?

Donated services, materials and facilities?

Gifts of future interests?

Other gifts, grants, pledges, etc.?

Interfund transfers?

Other revenue or capital additions?

Allocation of functional expenses to programs and supportive services?

Fund raising expenses, including joint costs of informational materials and activities allocated between fund raising and other functional expense categories?

Grants to other organizations?

Remittances to national organizations?

Prior period adjustments?

Additional Financial Statements

For not-for-profit organizations accounted for under SOP 78-10, is a statement of changes in financial position or cash flows presented as a basic financial statement for each period for which an activity statement and balance sheet are presented?

If a statement of changes in financial position was presented, does it disclose all important aspects of financing and investing activities?

For voluntary health and welfare organizations, is a statement of functional expenses presented as a basic financial statement for each period for which an activity statement is presented?

If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
II. GENERAL AUDIT PROCEDURES

Procedures Applicable to All Audit Engagements

In planning the audit engagement, did the auditor properly consider:

Matters affecting the industry in which the entity operates, such as accounting practices, economic conditions, laws and government regulations, and technological changes?

Matters affecting the entity’s business, such as organization and types of products and services and contractual obligations?

Preliminary judgment about materiality levels?

Did the auditor:

Make an assessment of the risk of material misstatements of the financial statements, including those resulting from violations of laws and regulations that have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts?

Assess the risk of management misrepresentation by reviewing information obtained about risk factors and the internal control structure?

Design the audit to provide reasonable assurance of detecting errors and irregularities that are material to the financial statements?

Did the auditor use analytical procedures in planning the nature, timing and extent of other audit procedures?

If the auditor succeeded a predecessor auditor, did the auditor:

Communicate with the predecessor auditor to ascertain whether there were disagreements between the predecessor auditor and the entity’s management on accounting or auditing matters and consider the implications of such matters in accepting the client?

Make other inquiries of the predecessor auditor on significant matters?

Reach satisfaction on the fair presentation of opening balances, such as by reviewing the predecessor auditor’s working papers?

If consideration was given to the work of internal auditors in determining the scope of the examination, was it done in accordance with SAS No. 9 or, if SAS No. 65 was applicable to this engagement (either as a result of the SAS’s effective date or an early application of the SAS)?

Did the auditor:

Obtain a sufficient understanding of the entity’s internal control structure to plan the audit?

Document the understanding of the internal control structure?

* If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
Document the conclusion that control risks are at the maximum level for those financial statement assertions where control risk is assessed at the maximum level?

Document the basis for the conclusion (i.e., tests of controls) that the effectiveness of the design and operation of internal control structure policies and procedures supports the assessed level of control risk when that assessed level is below the maximum level?

If the auditor has assessed control risk below the maximum for an assertion, and that assessment is dependent upon the application of controls at a service organization, has the auditor obtained and appropriately considered a service auditor’s report or performed tests of operating effectiveness at the service organization?

If the client used EDP in significant accounting applications, did the study and evaluation of internal controls over EDP activities, include those, if any, at a service organization?

If the auditor relied on the internal accounting controls at a service organization, was a service auditor’s report obtained and appropriately considered, or test performed by the auditor at the service organization?

If the engagement included the use of the work (domestic or international) or another office, correspondent or affiliate:

Do the instructions to the other office or firm appear adequate?

Does it appear that the control exercised over the work of others through supervision and review was adequate?

Was there appropriate follow-up of open matters?

In those cases where another firm is used, were appropriate inquiries made as to its independence and professional reputation?

Was an appropriately tailored, written audit program prepared?

Was the audit program responsive to the needs of the engagement, and the understanding of the internal control structure obtained during the planning process?

Was consideration given to applicable assertions in developing audit objectives and in designing substantive tests?

If conditions changed during the course of the audit, was the audit program modified as appropriate in the circumstances?

Have all procedures called for in the audit program been signed?

If statistical or nonstatistical sampling was used in compliance tests of tests of controls:

In your consideration of the adequacy of the sample size, does it appear the firm gave appropriate consideration to the specific objective of the test of controls, tolerable rate, allowable risk of overreliance, and likely rate of deviations?

Was the sample selected in such a way that it could be expected to be representative of the population?

Were the results of the sample evaluated as to their effect on the nature, timing and extent of planned substantive procedures?

In evaluating the sample, was appropriate consideration given to items for which the planned test of controls or appropriate alternative procedure could not be performed, for example, because the documentation was missing?

Was the documentation of the foregoing considerations in accordance with firm policy?

If statistical or nonstatistical sampling was used for substantive tests of details:

In your consideration of the adequacy of the sample size, does it appear the firm gave appropriate consideration to the specific audit objective, tolerable error, acceptable level of risk of incorrect acceptance, and characteristics of the population?

Was the sample selected in such a way that it could be expected to be representative of the population?

Were the error results of the sample projected to the items from which the sample was selected?

In evaluating the sample, was appropriate consideration given to items for which the planned substantive tests or appropriate alternate procedures could not be performed?

In the evaluation of whether the financial statements taken as a whole may be materially misstated, was appropriate consideration given, in the aggregate, to projected error results from all audit sampling applications and to all known errors from non-sampling applications?

Was the documentation of the foregoing considerations in accordance with firm policy?

During the performance of the engagement, did the auditor:

Consider the guidelines in professional standards in developing, performing, and evaluating the results of analytical procedures used as substantive tests?

Use analytical procedures in the overall review stage of the audit?

Has the auditor evaluated the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management?

Did the auditor obtain a timely and appropriate letter of representation from management?

Did the auditor obtain timely and appropriate responses from the client's attorney concerning litigation, claims, and assessments?

Have all questions, exceptions, or notes posed during the audit been followed up and resolved?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
Does it appear that appropriate consideration was given to all passed adjustments and to the risk that the current period’s financial statements are materially misstated when prior-period likely errors are considered with likely errors arising in the current period?

During the performance of the engagement, did the auditor:

Follow up on errors and irregularities in accordance with professional standards?

Consider the implications of an irregularity in relation to other aspects of the audit, including the reliability of client representations?

Obtain assurance that the audit committee or others with equivalent authority and responsibility had been adequately informed of all but clearly inconsequential irregularities identified during the engagement?

When the auditor’s procedures disclosed instances or indications of illegal acts, did the auditor:

Follow up on illegal acts having a direct and material effect on the financial statements in accordance with professional standards?

Follow up on all other illegal acts in accordance with professional standards?

Consider the implications of a detected illegal act in relation to other aspects of the audit, including the reliability of client representations?

Obtain assurance that the audit committee or others with equivalent authority and responsibility had been adequately informed with respect to all but clearly inconsequential illegal acts identified during the audit?

Communicate directly with the audit committee if the illegal act involved senior management and document that communication?

If the auditor believed that there was substantial doubt about the entity’s ability to continue for a reasonable period of time, did the auditor obtain information about management’s plans and evaluate the likelihood that such plans could be effectively implemented?

If the auditor’s substantial doubt was alleviated, did the notes to the financial statements adequately disclose the principal conditions and events, the possible effects, and any mitigating factors, including management’s plans?

If the auditor’s substantial doubt was not eliminated, did the auditor’s report include an explanatory paragraph which adequately communicates the auditor’s substantial doubt (e.g., includes the terms “substantial doubt” and “going concern” if the report was issued after December 31, 1990)?

During the performance of the audit:

* If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

QRP § 6100
If there were reportable conditions identified were they communicated to the audit committee, management and others within the organization on a timely basis (If the communication was oral, was it documented)?

Does the auditor’s conclusions in the working papers regarding whether internal control matters noted during the audit were (or were not) reportable conditions appear appropriate?

If a report was issued on reportable conditions did it: Indicate the purpose of the audit, include the definition of reportable conditions and include the restriction on distribution?

If a letter was issued that did not include reportable conditions did it omit an opinion that there were no reportable conditions?

If SAS No. 66 was effective (either as a result of the SAS’s effective date or an early application of the SAS) and the auditor was engaged to prepare or perform procedures on interim financial information filed with a specified regulatory agency and the auditor became aware of matters that caused the auditor to believe such information is probably materially misstated as a result of a departure from the application of generally accepted accounting principles did the auditor:

Discuss the matter with the appropriate level of management?

Timely inform the audit committee or others with equivalent authority and responsibility, if management did not respond appropriately or timely?

Evaluate whether to resign or remain as the client’s auditor, if the audit committee did not respond appropriately or timely?

If the auditor, subsequent to the date of the report, became aware of facts that may have existed at that date which might have affected the report, had the auditor then been aware of such facts, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards, in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved?

If there is an indication that the auditor, subsequent to the date of the report, concluded that one or more auditing procedures considered necessary at the time of the audit of the financial statements in the then existing circumstances were omitted from the audit, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved?

Where there is a formal oversight committee, did the auditor:

Obtain assurance that the appropriate matters have been communicated to those who have responsibility for oversight of the financial reporting process?

If the communication was in writing, prepare a written report that includes a statement that the communication is intended solely for the use of the audit committee or the board of directors and, if appropriate, management?

1 If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
If the communication was oral, document the information communicated by appropriate memorandum or notations in the working papers?

Procedures Unique to Audits of State or Local Governmental Entities

In planning the audit engagement, did the auditor properly consider:

- Definition of the reporting entity indicating the related organizations, functions, and activities which are either included or excluded from the financial statements in accordance with professional standards?

  G250

- Factors affecting the continued functioning of the government, such as legal limitations on revenue, expenditures, or debt service?

  G251

For a jointly signed audit report, are there indications that the auditor has conducted sufficient audit procedures to warrant signing the report in an individual capacity?

G252

If the principal auditor did not refer to the other auditor in his or her report, did the principal auditor perform one or more of the additional procedures contained in AU 543.12 to assess the adequacy of the work performed by the other auditor?

G253

Was an appropriately tailored, written audit program prepared?

G254

If applicable, were adequate tests of compliance with applicable laws and regulations that have a material effect on the financial statements performed and documented?

G255

If evidence exists of situations or transactions that could be indicative of fraud, waste, abuse or illegal expenditures and acts, did the auditor:

- Either obtain management’s approval to extend audit steps and procedures to identify the effect on the entity’s financial statements or consider issuing a disclaimer of opinion because of a scope limitation and disclose any reservations regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations?

  G256

- Give prompt notice to the appropriate management officials of the recipient above the level of involvement?

  G257

Were all material instances of weaknesses in internal controls and all identified instances of noncompliance with applicable laws and regulations:

- Adequately evaluated and documented?

  G258

- Appropriately reported in accordance with applicable standards?

  G259

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Was an appropriately tailored, written audit program prepared?

Have all questions, exceptions, or notes posed during the audit been followed up and resolved including consideration of the views obtained from responsible officials of the organization, program, activity, or function audited concerning the auditor's findings, conclusions, and recommendations? *

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
III. WORKING PAPER AREAS

Working Paper Areas Applicable to All Audit Engagements

Cash

Were bank accounts confirmed and were reconciling items cleared by reference to subsequent statements obtained directly from the bank (or obtained from the client and appropriately tested)?

Was due consideration given to cash transactions shortly before and shortly after the balance sheet date to determine that transactions were recorded in the proper period?

Do the working papers indicate that the following were considered:

- Restrictions on cash balances?
- Confirmation of bank credit arrangements such as compensating balances?
- Confirmation of liabilities and contingent liabilities to banks?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of cash appear adequate?

Receivables

Were accounts receivable confirmed and appropriate follow-up steps taken, including second requests and alternative procedures?

If confirmation work was performed prior to year-end, is there evidence that there was an adequate review of transactions from the confirmation date to the balance sheet date?

If a significant number and amount of accounts receivable were not confirmed, is there evidence that other auditing procedures were performed?

Were significant notes receivable confirmed as of the balance sheet date?

Were the results of confirmation and alternative procedures summarized and were appropriate conclusions drawn in the working papers?

Was collateral (if any) for receivables examined with respect to existence, ownership and value?

Were adequate tests of discounts and allowances made?

Was the reasonableness of allowances for doubtful accounts covered in the working papers and collectibility of receivables adequately considered?

Is there evidence in the working papers that inquiry was made and consideration given to whether receivables are sold, pledged, assigned or otherwise encumbered?

*If the significance or frequency of the 'no' answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

QRP § 6100
Was receivable work coordinated with the tests of revenue, including cut-off tests?

Were procedures performed to verify whether the carrying value of notes receivable reflects the present value of the consideration given and the appropriate interest rate?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of receivables appear adequate?

Inventories

Where the physical inventory is taken at a date other than the balance sheet date (or where rotating procedures are used), do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to inventory transactions between the inventory date(s) and the balance sheet date?

Do the working papers contain evidence that counts were correctly made and recorded (i.e., was control over inventory tags or count sheets maintained and were test count quantities reconciled with counts reflected in final inventory)?

Were physical inventories observed at all locations where relatively large amounts are located?

Where the physical inventory in the hands of others was not observed, were inventory confirmations received [i.e., inventory in public warehouses, on consignment, etc.]?

If perpetual inventory records are maintained, do the working papers indicate that differences disclosed by the physical inventory (or cycle counts) are properly reflected in the accounts?

Do the working papers indicate that there were adequate tests of:

- The clerical accuracy of the inventory?
- Costing methods and substantiation of costs used in pricing all elements (raw materials, work in process, finished goods) of the inventory?
- Were the results of inventory observations and other tests summarized and were appropriate conclusions drawn?
- Where LIFO is used, did the auditor consider whether the client’s LIFO techniques are generally consistent with those in the AICPA’s issues paper on LIFO?
- Do the working papers indicate that a lower of cost or market test (including consideration of obsolete or slow-moving inventory) was performed?
- Were inquiries concerning purchase and sales commitments made, including consideration as to any possible adverse effects?
- Were appropriate inventory cut-off tests performed?
- Where applicable, were analytic procedures employed to check overall valuation of inventories?

If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Do the working papers indicate that steps were performed to determine if any inventory is pledged?
A332

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of inventory appear adequate?
A333

Investments

Was a summary schedule prepared (or obtained) and details examined with respect to description, purchase price and date, changes during the period, income, market value, etc., of investments?
A334

Were securities either examined or confirmed?
A335

Was the computation of realized gains and losses properly tested by the auditor?
A336

Do the working papers reflect consideration of the appropriateness of carrying values of securities and their classification?
A337

Were investigations of possible impairment of the carrying value of long-term investments made?
A338

Do the working papers reflect consideration that investments were pledged restricted, or had limitations on their immediate use?
A339

For investments accounted for on the equity method, were financial statements and other information reviewed to support the amounts presented or the note disclosures made?
A340

For repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, were appropriate audit procedures performed (e.g., confirmation, inspection of collateral)?
A341

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of investments appear adequate?
A342

Prepaid Expenses, Intangible Assets, Deferred Charges, etc.

Were adequate tests made for all material:

- Prepaid expenses?
A343

- Intangible assets?
A344

- Deferred charges?
A345

- Other?
A346

Is there adequate support for the deferral and amortization (or lack thereof) of these types of assets?
A347

Were reviews made of the continuing value of goodwill and other intangible assets?
A348

If insurance policies were pledged as collateral or subjected to premium financing, did the auditor consider whether accounting for such loans was appropriate?
A349

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of prepaid expenses, intangible assets, deferred charges, etc., appear adequate?

Property, Plant and Equipment

Was a summary schedule prepared (or obtained) to show beginning balances, changes during the period and ending balances for:

- Property, plant and equipment?
- Accumulated depreciation?

Do tests appear adequate and were proper conclusions drawn with respect to:

- Additions (by the examination of supporting documents and/or physical inspection)?
- Retirements, etc. (including examination of miscellaneous income, scrap sales)?
- The adequacy of current and accumulated provisions for depreciation and depletion?
- Status of idle facilities?

Do the working papers indicate that the auditor considered the possibility that property was subject to liens?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of property, plant and equipment appear adequate?

Liabilities

Where required, were accounts payable adequately tested for propriety?

Where required, were liabilities properly classified as current or long-term at the balance sheet date?

Have long-term obligations that are or will be callable by the creditor due to the debtor's violation of a debt agreement provision at the balance sheet date been classified as current liabilities unless (1) the creditor has waived or subsequently lost the right to demand repayment for more than one year from the balance sheet date or (2) for long-term obligations containing a grace period within which the debtor may cure the violation, is it probable that the violation will be cured within that period?

Was an adequate search performed for unrecorded liabilities at the balance sheet date?

Was the payables work coordinated with the testing of the purchases cut-off?

Was consideration given to expenditures and expenses that might require accrual (e.g., pensions or compensated absences), and to whether accrued expenses were reasonably stated?

Summaries of On-Site Review Engagement Findings

Were significant notes and bonds payable, together with interest rates and repayment periods, etc., confirmed or alternative procedures performed?

Were procedures performed to verify whether the carrying value of notes payable reflects the present value of the consideration received and the appropriate interest rates?

Is there evidence of testing of the company’s compliance with covenants to debt obligations?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of liabilities appear adequate?

Deferred Credits

Do the working papers indicate that:

- The basis of deferring income is reasonable and on a consistent basis from year to year?

- Deferrals have been established on a reasonable basis?

Income Taxes

Were the current and deferred tax accrual accounts and related provisions analyzed and appropriate auditing procedures performed?

Do the working papers contain evidence that, in determining the adequacy of the income tax accruals and provisions, appropriate consideration was given to possible adjustments required for:

- Tax positions taken by the client that might be challenged by the taxing authorities and/or other tax contingencies?

- Possible assessments, penalties or interest, including similar adjustments applicable to years not yet examined?

Based upon the review of the financial statements and working papers and, if necessary, discussions with engagement personnel, does it appear as though substantive tax matters applicable to this engagement were given adequate consideration?

Commitments and Contingencies

Do the working papers include indication of the following:

- Inspection of minutes of meetings of the stockholders, board of directors, and executive and other committees of the board?

- Inspection of contracts, loan agreements, leases, and correspondence from taxing and other governmental agencies, and similar documents?

- Accumulation and analysis of confirmation responses from banks and lawyers?

- Inquiry and discussion with management including management’s written representations concerning liabilities, litigation, claims, assessments and regulatory requirements as applicable?

* If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Other contingent liabilities (such as buy/sell agreements) for possible guarantees?

Is there indication that procedures were performed to uncover the need for recording or disclosing events subsequent to the date of the financial statements?

Have all material contingencies been properly considered, documented, and reported?

Capital Accounts

Were changes in capitalization checked to authorizations?

Do the working papers indicate that there were adequate inquiries about stock options, warrants, rights, redemptions and conversion privileges?

Based on the assessment of control risk, do the substantive tests of capital appear adequate?

Income and Expenses

Were tests of payrolls, including account distribution, made where appropriate?

Concerning pension and profit sharing plans (including impact of ERISA), do tests made of the expenses and liabilities appear adequate?

Were revenue and expenditures and/or expenses for the period compared to the preceding period and reviewed for reasonableness and were significant variances and fluctuations explained?

Was adequate consideration given to:

- The client’s revenue recognition policy?
- Income recognition on transactions where the earnings process was not complete?
- Unusual sales transactions?
- Income recognition when the right of return exists?

Based on the assessment of control risk, did the substantive tests (review, analysis, and testing) of revenue and expenditures/expenses appear adequate?

Other

Are related assets and liabilities offset in the balance sheet only when all of the following conditions are met: (1) each party owes the other determinable amounts, (2) the reporting party has the right to set off the amount owed to with the amount due from the other party, (3) the reporting party intends to set off, and (4) the right to set off is enforceable at law?

Have leases been reviewed to determine that capital, sales, and direct financing leases have been properly accounted for?

Were appropriate procedures applied to supplemental information?

Summaries of On-Site Review Engagement Findings

Do the working papers indicate that there were appropriate inquiries, where applicable, as to proper classification, description and disclosures of components of fund equity?

Do the working papers indicate that fund transfers were properly approved and recorded?

Revenues and Expenditures/Expenses
Do the working papers indicate that revenues and interfund transactions were recognized in the accounting period in which they became available and measurable under the applicable basis of accounting?
Do the working papers indicate that the auditor considered the effect of program income on federal grants and any related activities?
Has it been determined that:
  Expenditures are in accordance with the approved budget as to amounts and purpose?
  Encumbrances are properly identified, supported and recorded?
  Indirect cost allocations are in accordance with OMB A-87?
If the entity is reimbursed by a third party for costs incurred in connection with providing services to others:
  Were pertinent sections of significant third-party contracts reviewed to determine the basis for reimbursement?
  Were cost reimbursement reports and the underlying support reviewed?
  Were appropriate allocations made of indirect costs among the entity’s programs?
  Was the effect of audits, either required or performed by third-party grantors, considered?
If grants are awarded to other organizations, did the auditor review:
  The classification of the grants?
  The effects of the grantees’ compliance or noncompliance with performance requirements?

Inventories
Do the working papers indicate that there were adequate tests of:
   Physical observation, if material?

Investments
When investments are held by an outside custodian, who is authorized by the client to execute transactions without specific authorizations of individual transactions, did the auditor consider the guidance in professional standards?

Do the working papers reflect consideration of changes in the carrying value of marketable securities and other instruments and the appropriateness of unrealized gains and losses that were recognized?

Do the working papers indicate tests of the unit market value calculations of pooled investment funds, including the propriety of handling additions to and withdrawals from the pool?

Were income and realized and unrealized gains and losses from investments examined for proper allocation to the individual funds?

Do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to indications that investments were pledged, restricted, or had limitations on immediate use?

Do the working papers indicate that risk of loss on repurchase agreements was properly considered?

Do the working papers indicate that repurchase security transactions were reviewed for consistency with the disclosures of the terms or circumstances of the transactions?

Collections of Works of Art and Similar Items
If the collection has been capitalized, do the working papers indicate that the auditor tested the reasonableness of the collection's carrying value?

If a capitalized collection is considered exhaustible, do the working papers indicate that the auditor tested the reasonableness of the related amortization?

Whether or not the collection was capitalized, are the tests adequate with respect to acquisitions and deaccessions?

If the collection is capitalized:
   Were physical inventories observed at all locations where relatively large amounts are located?

   Do the working papers contain evidence that counts were correctly made and recorded (i.e., was control over inventory tags or count sheets maintained and were test count quantities reconciled with the quantities reflected in the final inventory)?

If the collection is considered inexhaustible and has not been capitalized, do the working papers indicate that the auditor:
   Evaluated the internal controls over the collection?

Observed a physical inventory at all locations where relatively large amounts are located?

Property and Equipment

Do tests appear adequate with respect to:
- Valuation of assets not previously capitalized?

Was a review made to determine that capital expenditures are classified in the proper fund accounts?

Liabilities

Were procedures performed to determine whether tax deferred annuity and life income plans are appropriately calculated to conform with GAAP and IRS regulations?

Were procedures performed to verify the completeness and reasonableness of transactions recorded in mandatory sinking funds and other types of debt-related reserve funds?

Is there evidence that the release of funds from these reserves was tested and appropriately recorded in the financial statements?

Was consideration given to any liabilities (including the effect of any timing differences) resulting from the Federal excise tax on investment income of private foundations and any Federal and State taxes on unrelated business income?

Do the tests of interfund borrowings appear adequate with respect to:
- Legal restrictions, if any, on such borrowings?
- Authorization?
- Classification?
- Collectibility of amounts due from other funds?
- Appropriateness of interest accruals and payments?

Deferred Revenue

Do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to whether the basis of deferring revenue is reasonable and consistent with the donors’ or grantors’ restrictions?

Was consideration given to matching requirements, if any?

Do the working papers indicate that consideration was given to the appropriateness of the amounts of restricted gifts, grants, bequests, donations, or other income recognized as current revenue or support?

Commitments and Contingencies

Did the auditor consider evidence of the entity’s activities (such as lobbying) which might cause the entity to lose its tax-exempt status or be subject to penalties or taxes?

If the entity is a private foundation, as defined by IRC section 509, did the auditor determine whether the entity complied with IRS regulations concerning required distribution of income and prohibited activities?

IV. FUNCTIONAL AREAS

Independence

If anything has been noted that may indicate a lack of independence (including a lack of objectivity), was the matter identified and appropriately resolved by the firm and its impact appropriately considered?

Have personnel been appropriately advised as to the need to observe independence requirements concerning the client and any other related nonclient parent, investor, investee, subsidiary or affiliate?

Was appropriate assurance of independence obtained from other firms engaged to audit segments or component units of the entity?

Were the fees (billed/unbilled) for the prior years’ services paid prior to issuance of the report for the current engagement?

Assigning Personnel to Engagements

Were scheduling and staffing requirements identified on a timely basis and approved by appropriate personnel?

Does it appear that engagement personnel possessed an appropriate mix of experience and training in relation to the complexity or other requirements of the engagement and the extent of supervision provided?

Consultation

Was there appropriate consultation and documentation:

- In situations specified by firm policy?
- Where the complexity or unusual nature of the issue warranted it?

Were the firm’s conclusions consistent with professional standards?

If the engagement records indicated a difference of opinion between personnel and/or a specialist or other consultant, was the difference resolved in accordance with firm policy and was the basis of the resolution appropriately documented?

Supervision

Were appropriate and knowledgeable engagement personnel involved in the planning process?

Does it appear that audit planning was adequately documented in the working papers, including any changes in the original plan?

Did the partner (or manager) approve the overall audit plan (including the audit program) as the final planning step and convey approval or modifications to the engagement staff?

Does it appear that hours charged by the partner, manager, and, where applicable, by the concurring reviewer were adequate and appropriately timed to provide for planning and supervision as the job progressed?

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual QRP § 6100
Were all forms, checklists, or questionnaires, if any, required by firm policy for the following areas adequately completed and modified, where appropriate, for the engagement:

Planning checklist?

Review of internal control structure:
  Manual system?
  EDP system?

Audit work programs?

Financial statement disclosures?

Working papers and financial statement reviews?

If standardized forms, etc., were not used for any of the above areas, is there adequate documentation of these areas?

Were the firm's guidelines for the form and content of audit working papers complied with?

If used, were scientific audit tools (e.g., computer auditing, statistical sampling, etc.) properly evaluated by persons with training in these areas?

If required by firm policy, was an appropriate pre-issuance review made of the working papers, report, and financial statements by a person whose position in the firm is commensurate with that responsibility, to determine that the work performed was complete and conformed to professional standards and firm policy and was that review documented?

Advancement
If required by firm policy, was the staff on this engagement appropriately evaluated?

Acceptance and Continuance of Clients
Does it appear that the firm's guidelines for acceptance and continuance of clients were complied with?

Professional Development
Did the personnel assigned to this engagement appear to be appropriately familiar with the applicable professional pronouncements (FASB, AICPA, GASB, SEC, etc.)?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Income taxes, computed under the early application of AC Sec. 125 (FASB No. 96), to include:

The types of temporary differences that cause significant portions of a deferred tax liability or asset?

Significant components of income tax expense, including the current tax expense or benefit, deferred tax expense or benefit, investment tax credits, government grants that reduce income tax expense, the benefits of operating loss carryforwards, and adjustments due to changes in tax laws, rates, and tax status?

Reconciliation of income tax expense or benefit attributable to continuing operations to the amount of expense or benefit that would result from applying the federal statutory rates to pre-tax income or loss from continuing operations?

Amounts and expiration dates of operating loss and tax credit carryforwards for financial reporting and tax purposes?

Other information concerning tax expense, benefits and the effect of income taxes?

Income taxes computed under APB No. 11, including operating loss carryforwards, investment tax credits, and reasons tax expense differs from the customary relationship between income and taxes?

Discontinued operations?
Extraordinary and unusual items?

Statement of Cash Flows

Is a statement of cash flows presented for each period for which results of operations are provided?

Does it report cash provided or used by investing, financing, and operating activities?

Does it report the net effect of cash flows on cash and cash equivalents during the period in a manner that reconciles beginning and ending cash and cash equivalents and do the amounts of cash and cash equivalents agree with the amounts on the balance sheet?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
Does it provide a reconciliation between net income and net cash flow from operating activities?

Are noncash investing and financing activities disclosed?

If the indirect method of reporting net cash flows from operating activities was used, were the amounts of interest and income taxes paid disclosed?

Do components of the financial statements appear to have been shown at “gross” and not “net” value?

Other

If the industry in which the client is practicing is covered by an accounting and audit guide, are the suggested format, statements, and disclosures consistent with the guide?

Summary

Does it appear that disclosures in the financial statements are reasonably adequate?

* If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.
II. GENERAL REVIEW PROCEDURES

Was an engagement letter issued or a written memorandum of an oral understanding prepared to provide a record of the understanding with the client as to the services to be provided? (Professional standards requires the accountant to establish an understanding with the entity, preferably, though not required to be, in writing)

Was information obtained about the accounting principles and practices of the industry in which the entity operates and about the entity's business or, if information was obtained from prior engagements, was it updated for changed circumstances, and given appropriate consideration preferably, though not required to be, in writing (e.g., proposed work program, manpower requirements, etc.)?

If the engagement was originally intended to be an audit, rather than a review of financial statements, did the accountant consider:

The reason given for the client's request, particularly the implications of a restriction on the scope of the audit, whether imposed by the client or by circumstances?

The additional audit effort required to complete the audit?

The estimated additional cost to complete the audit?

Did the accountant's inquiries and analytical procedures consist of the following:

Inquiries concerning the entity's accounting principles and practices and the methods followed in applying them?

Inquiries concerning the entity's procedures for recording, classifying, and summarizing transactions, and accumulating information for disclosure in the financial statements?

Analytical procedures designed to identify relationships and individual items that appear to be unusual?

Inquiries concerning actions taken at meetings of stockholders, board of directors, committees of the board of directors, or comparable meetings that may affect the financial statements?

Reading the financial statements to consider, on the basis of information coming to the accountant's attention, whether the financial statements appear to conform with generally accepted accounting principles?

Obtaining reports from other accountants, if any, who have been engaged to audit or review the financial statements of significant components of the reporting entity, its subsidiaries, and other investees?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

AICPA Quality Review Program Manual

QRP § 6200
Inquiries of persons having responsibility for financial and accounting matters concerning (1) whether the financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, (2) changes in the entity's business activities or accounting principles and practices, (3) matters as to which questions have arisen in the course of applying the foregoing procedures, and (4) events subsequent to the date of the financial statements that would have a material effect on the financial statements?

If the accountant became aware that information that came to the accountant's attention was incorrect, incomplete, or otherwise unsatisfactory, did the accountant perform additional procedures as deemed necessary to achieve limited assurance that there were no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements in order for the statements to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles?

Do the accountant's working papers adequately reflect:

- The matters covered in inquiry and analytical procedures?
- Unusual matters that were considered during the performance of the review, including their disposition?

If the accountant decided to obtain a representation letter from the owner, manager, or chief executive officer, does it appear to be appropriate in the circumstances?

If any circumstances were encountered by the accountant that precluded the accountant from performing inquiries and analytical procedures as deemed necessary:

- Did the accountant consider whether these circumstances would have resulted in an incomplete review and therefore afford the accountant an inadequate basis for issuing a review report?
- Did the accountant consider whether these same circumstances would also preclude the accountant from issuing a compilation report on the entity's financial statements?

Do such determinations by the accountant appear to be proper?

Have all questions, exceptions or notes, posed during the work been followed up and resolved?

If there is an indication that the accountant had become aware that information supplied by the entity was incorrect, incomplete or otherwise unsatisfactory subsequent to the date of the report, did the accountant consider the guidance in professional standards, in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved?

III. FUNCTIONAL AREAS

Independence
If anything has been noted which may indicate a lack of independence (including a lack of objectivity), was the matter identified and appropriately resolved by the firm and its impact appropriately considered?

Have personnel been appropriately informed as to the need to observe independence requirements with regard to this client and any other related nonclient parent, investor, investee, subsidiary or affiliate?

Was appropriate assurance of independence obtained from other firms engaged to perform segments of the engagement?

Were the fees (billed/unbilled) for the prior years services paid prior to issuance of the current year’s report?

Assigning Personnel to Engagements
Were scheduling and staffing requirements identified on a timely basis and approved by appropriate personnel?

Does it appear that engagement personnel possessed an appropriate mix of experience and training in relation to the complexity or other requirements of the engagement, and the extent of supervision provided?

Consultation
Was there appropriate consultation and documentation thereof:

In situations specified by firm policy?

Where the complexity or unusual nature of the issue warranted it?

Were the firm’s conclusions consistent with professional standards?

If the engagement records indicated a difference of opinion between personnel and/or a specialist or other consultant, was the difference resolved in accordance with firm policy and was the basis of the resolution appropriately documented?

Supervision
Does it appear that engagement planning was appropriate?

Did the partner (or manager) approve the overall engagement plan (including the engagement program) as the final planning step and convey approval or modifications to the engagement staff?

Does it appear that hours charged by the partner and manager were both adequate and appropriately timed to provide for any planning and supervision as the job progressed?

Were forms, checklists, or questionnaires, if any, required by firm policy (not required by SSARS) for the following areas adequately completed and modified, where appropriate, for the engagement:

Planning checklist?

Work programs?

Financial statement disclosures?

Working paper preparation and reading of financial statements?

If standardized forms, etc., were not used for any of the above areas, is there adequate documentation of compliance with the firm's policies applicable to a review?

Were the firm's guidelines for the form and content of working papers for a review complied with?

Was an appropriate review made of the working papers, report and financial statements, by a person whose position in the firm is commensurate with that responsibility, to determine that work performed is complete and conforms to professional standards and firm policy?

Advancement

If required by firm policy, was the staff on this engagement appropriately evaluated?

Acceptance and Continuance of Clients

Does it appear that the firm's guidelines for acceptance and continuance of clients were complied with?

Professional Development

Did the personnel assigned to this engagement appear to be appropriately familiar with the applicable professional pronouncements (FASB, AICPA, etc.)?

* If the significance or frequency of the "no" answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

If the industry in which the client is practicing is covered by an accounting and audit guide, are the suggested format, statements, and disclosures consistent with the guide?

Summary

Does it appear that disclosures in the financial statements are reasonably adequate?
II. GENERAL PROCEDURES

Was an engagement letter issued or a written memorandum of an oral understanding prepared to provide a record of the understanding with the client as to the services to be provided? (Professional standards require the accountant to establish an understanding with the entity, preferably, though not required to be, in writing)

Was information obtained about the accounting principles and practices of the industry in which the entity operates and about the entity’s business transactions, the form of its accounting records, the stated qualifications of its accounting personnel, the accounting basis on which the financial statements are to be presented, and the form and content of the financial statements or, if information was obtained from prior engagements, was it updated for changed circumstances, and given appropriate consideration preferably, though not required to be, in writing (e.g., proposed work program, manpower requirements, etc.)?

If the engagement was originally intended to be an audit, rather than a compilation, did the accountant consider:

- The reason given for the client’s request, particularly the implications of a restriction on the scope of the audit, whether imposed by the client or by circumstances?
- The additional audit effort required to complete the audit?
- The estimated additional cost to complete the audit?

Is there an indication, in accordance with firm policy, that the accountant read the compiled financial statements and considered whether such financial statements appeared to be appropriate in form and free from obvious material errors?

If the accountant became aware that information supplied by the entity was incorrect, incomplete, or otherwise unsatisfactory for the purpose of compiling financial statements, did the accountant obtain additional or revised information?

Have all questions, exceptions or notes posed during the work been followed up and resolved?

If the accountant became aware that information supplied by the entity was incorrect, incomplete or otherwise unsatisfactory subsequent to the date of the report, did the accountant consider the guidance in professional standards in determining an appropriate course of action, and does the matter appear to be properly resolved?
Independence

If anything has been noted which may indicate a lack of independence (including a lack of objectivity), was the matter identified and appropriately resolved by the firm and its impact appropriately considered? If the accountant was not independent, was the report appropriately modified?

Have personnel been appropriately advised about the need to observe independence requirements concerning the client and any other related nonclient parent, investor, investee, subsidiary or affiliate?

Were the fees (billed/unbilled) for the prior years services paid prior to issuance of the current year’s report?

Assigning Personnel to Engagements

Were scheduling and staffing requirements identified on a timely basis and approved by the appropriate personnel?

Does it appear that engagement personnel possessed an appropriate mix of experience and training in relation to the complexity or other requirements of the engagement, and the extent of supervision provided?

Consultation

Was there appropriate consultation and documentation thereof:

- In situations specified by firm policy?
- Where the complexity or unusual nature of the issue warranted it?

Were the firm’s conclusions consistent with professional standards?

If the engagement records indicated a difference of opinion between personnel and/or a specialist or other consultant, was the difference resolved in accordance with firm policy and was the basis of the resolution appropriately documented?

Supervision

Does it appear that engagement planning was appropriate?

Were forms, checklists, or questionnaires, if any, required by firm policy (not required by SSARS) for the following areas adequately completed and modified, where appropriate, for the engagement:

- Planning checklist?
- Work programs?
- Financial statement disclosures?
- Working paper preparation and reading of financial statements?

If standardized forms, etc., were not used for any of the above areas, is there adequate documentation of compliance with the firm’s policies for compilation engagements?

Were the firm’s guidelines for the form and content of working papers complied with?

*If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

Was an appropriate review made of the working papers, report and the financial statements, by a person whose position in the firm is commensurate with that responsibility, to determine that work performed is complete and conforms to professional standards and firm policy?

Advancement
If required by firm policy, was the staff on this engagement appropriately evaluated?

Acceptance and Continuance of Clients
Does it appear that the firm’s guidelines for acceptance and continuance of clients were complied with?

Professional Development
Did the personnel assigned to this engagement appear to be appropriately familiar with the applicable professional pronouncements (FASB, AICPA, etc.)?

If the significance or frequency of the “no” answers warrants the preparation of a matter for further consideration form, provide the cross-reference.

QRP Section 7100

Instructions to Firms Having an Off-Site Quality Review

.01 An off-site quality review is available to firms that do not perform audits of historical or prospective financial statements but that do provide compilation and/or review services to certain of their clients. Off-site quality reviews are administered by state CPA societies that elect to participate in the program or by the AICPA Quality Review Division. One of those entities, as appropriate (the administering entity) will contact your firm at the appropriate time to make arrangements for the conduct of the review. In preparation for the review, you should read the applicable sections of Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews issued by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee (at least the sections headed Introduction, General Considerations, Performing Off-Site Quality Reviews, Reporting on Reviews, and Acceptance of Reviews).

.02 Prior to the review, the administering entity or the assigned reviewer will ask you to provide summarized information showing the number of review and compilation clients and the level of service provided to those clients, classified into major industry categories and broken down by each proprietor, partner or shareholder of the firm who is responsible for the issuance of review or compilation reports. The form that will be used for this purpose is reproduced in Appendix A to these instructions.

.03 Discuss with the reviewer the twelve-month period to be covered by the review. That period should end within six months of the performance of the review.

.04 Based on that information, the administering entity or the assigned reviewer will advise you of the types of engagements to be selected for review. (For example, you may have reported that Owner A issues review reports on four construction contractors, two retailers, and ten manufacturers, while Owner B issues compilation reports on thirty doctors and review reports on five restaurants. You may be asked to submit one of Owner A's review reports on a construction contractor and one of Owner B's compilation reports on a doctor. You will select the specific engagements following those instructions.) Broadly speaking, the firm must submit one review or compilation engagement involving a report on a complete set (i.e., with footnotes) of historical or prospective financial statements for each proprietor, partner or shareholder who is responsible for the issuance of such reports—but not less than two for the firm as a whole—and one compilation engagement for the firm as a whole involving a report on financial statements that omit substantially all required disclosures.

.05 Within thirty days of being notified by the reviewer or the administering entity of the type of engagements selected for review, the firm is asked to submit the following information for each engagement selected—

a. A copy of the financial statements and accountant’s report. The client’s name may be deleted and, if that is done, the engagement should be assigned a code number by the firm. The firm should retain a record of those code numbers to facilitate responding to any questions by the reviewer in the course of the review.

b. A completed “engagement questionnaire” (see Appendix B).

.06 During the course of the review, the reviewer may have questions about the selected engagements. The firm is expected to respond promptly to questions raised during the review, whether those questions are raised orally or in writing.

.07 Upon receipt of the report on the review, the firm should prepare a letter of response to any deficiencies noted in the report. The report and the letter of response, if any, should be submitted to the administering entity within thirty days of the date the report was received from the reviewer.

.08 The administering entity will not make the report on the firm’s off-site quality review available to the public. The report should not be distributed by the firm to its personnel, clients or others until the firm has received a formal notification that it has been accepted by the administering entity.

AICPA Quality Review Program
INFORMATION NEEDED TO ASSIGN AN OFF-SITE REVIEWER

1. Did your firm perform any audits during the last twelve months? Yes □ No □ If yes, please indicate the date that you issued your last audit report. / /

2. Does your firm plan to perform any audit engagements during the next twelve months? Yes □ No □

3. Whenever possible, we select a reviewer who practices in the state in which your firm’s main office is located unless you object. However, we will not select a reviewer located in the immediate geographic area of that office or such other geographic areas specified by you because, for example, you have a significant office or client in that area. We use the first three digits of the postal zip code to define a geographic area.

a. Do you object to a reviewer being selected from other areas in the state in which your main office is located? Yes □ No □ If yes, the reviewer will be selected from a state other than the state in which your main office is located.

b. If the answer to 3.a. is no, please indicate the first three digits of the zip codes of those areas within your state—other than the area in which your main office is located—from which you would not like a reviewer to be selected.¹

   [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ]

4. Please provide the information on page 7104 concerning the number of review and compilation clients and the level of service provided to those clients during the last twelve months. This information should be classified into major categories and broken down by each owner of the firm (proprietor, partner, or shareholder) who is responsible for the issuance of review or compilation reports. Please indicate the period covered by this information. / / to / /

5. Firm Name

¹ To determine whether there are zip code areas which you would like excluded, you may wish to refer to your local phone book(s), client lists, or mailing lists, if any.

Reviewer’s Checklist—Off-Site Quality Reviews

.01 This section of the manual contains a reviewer’s checklist for off-site quality reviews. It provides a basic overview of the way in which an off-site quality review is to be conducted.

.02 The checklist must be completed on all off-site quality reviews of firms enrolled in the AICPA Quality Review Program, whether those reviews are conducted by a reviewer appointed by a firm engaged by the firm under review, by a state CPA society participating in the program or by the AICPA Quality Review Division.
REVIEWER'S CHECKLIST—OFF-SITE QUALITY REVIEWS

This checklist must be completed on all off-site quality reviews of firms enrolled in the AICPA Quality Review Program.

Off-site quality reviews are administered by state CPA societies participating in the program or, when the relevant state CPA society has elected not to participate, by the AICPA Quality Review Division. Hereafter, those entities are referred to collectively as the administering entity.

Questions regarding the use of this checklist or any other materials or about the review in general should be directed to the staff of the administering entity or to such other individuals the administering entity may identify for that purpose.

1. If the firm was previously reviewed, read the report on the prior review and the firm's response thereto and make note of deficiencies discussed in the report, all of which should be emphasized in the current review:

   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

2. Determine that the reviewed firm has submitted engagements for review in accordance with instructions previously provided to it by the administering entity or by you as the reviewer and indicate the number of engagements selected. ☐

3. Perform the procedures outlined in the "Reviewer's Engagement Checklist for Off-Site Quality Reviews." Make any oral inquiries deemed necessary to consider whether the financial statements and accountant's reports submitted by the reviewed firm appear to conform with the requirements of professional standards. Requests for working papers should not be necessary. An off-site quality review does not include a review of the working papers prepared on the compilation and review engagements submitted for review. (See the Standards for guidance on the objective of and basic requirements for an off-site quality review.)

4. During the review discuss and make note of—
   (i) the number of owners. ☐
   (ii) the number of owners with responsibility for issuing reports on a complete set of financial statements. ☐
   (iii) whether you found it necessary to increase the scope of the review beyond the minimum required under the Standards and, if so, describe the extent and reasons for the increase. (Ordinarily, the scope of the review should not be expanded beyond the minimum unless authorized by the administering entity.) ________________

   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

QRP § 7200.02 Copyright © 1992, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Inc.
5. Prepare a matter for consideration form (MFC) to document all significant matters that require additional information or explanation of facts from the reviewed firm.

6. Obtain the firm’s response to all significant deficiencies by telephone or in writing on a “Matter for Further Consideration” form.

7. Consult with the administering entity (a) whenever the reviewer and the reviewed firm have a disagreement on a significant matter, including the type of report to be issued, whether action should be taken to prevent future reliance on a previously issued report, and whether a report issued by the firm was not in conformity with professional standards, and (b) whenever the firm does not respond promptly to oral or written inquiries, which may constitute a failure to cooperate.

8. At the conclusion of the review: review all matters, including the firm’s response, on MFC forms, and document your reasons for including or not including such matters in the report on the review.

9. If the report to be issued is other than unmodified, communicate that fact to the appropriate individual in the reviewed firm. As previously noted, consult with the administering entity if there is an unresolved disagreement with the firm as to the report to be issued or the findings on the review.

10. Describe below the nature and extent of each matter discussed with the owner(s) of the firm that was not deemed of sufficient significance to include in the report.

11. Prepare a report on the review following the guidance in the Standards, and—

   a. Submit the original of the report to the reviewed firm within thirty days of the date of the completion of the off-site quality review. Ordinarily, those off-site review procedures should be completed within thirty days of the date the reviewer receives the materials to be reviewed.

   b. Submit a copy of the report, the review completion form (see Appendix A), the engagement statistics data sheet (see QRP section 7500), and the working papers on the review to the administering entity by an insured carrier. Remind the firm that the report is not final until accepted by the administering entity (copies of the financial statements should not be submitted with the working papers—see 11d).

   c. Submit your bill to the administering entity. Make sure the bill includes the Federal employer identification number for Form 1099 purposes, when applicable.

   d. Return the financial statements to the firm or shred the financial statements received.

Reviewer’s Engagement Checklists—Off-Site Quality Reviews

.01 This section of the manual contains a reviewer’s engagement checklist for off-site quality reviews. This section also contains a checklist for compilations that omit substantially all disclosures. A checklist should be completed for each engagement reviewed.

.02 The objective of an off-site quality review is to provide the reviewer with a reasonable basis for expressing limited assurance that the compilation and review engagements submitted for review do not depart in a material respect from the requirements of professional standards.

.03 An off-site quality review consists only of reading the accountant’s compilation or review report and the related historical or prospective financial statements submitted by the firm, together with certain background information and representations provided by the reviewed firm.

.04 The objective of the review of these engagements is to consider whether the financial statements appear to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles or, if applicable, with an other comprehensive basis of accounting, and whether the accountant’s report appears to conform with professional standards.

.05 An off-site quality review does not include a review of the working papers prepared on the selected compilation or review engagements, tests of the firm’s administrative or personnel files, interviews of selected firm personnel, or other procedures performed in an on-site quality review.

Instructions for Use of Matter for Further Consideration Forms—Off-Site Quality Reviews

.01 The reviewer should prepare a matter for further consideration form (MFC) to clearly and concisely document all significant matters that require additional information or explanation of facts from the reviewed firm.

.02 Generally, the reviewer will discuss the matters on MFC forms with the reviewed firm by telephone. Consequently, the reviewer should carefully document the reviewed firm’s explanations.

.03 The reviewer may wish to obtain the engagement partner’s signature on matters that will be the subject of a modified report.

Guidelines for Involvement by Associations of CPA Firms in the Quality Review Program

General

.01 An association of CPA firms may assist its members in arranging and carrying out on-site quality reviews under the AICPA Quality Review Program provided it receives the approval of the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee. An association of CPA firms may not arrange off-site quality reviews.

.02 Reviews arranged by an association of CPA firms may be conducted by a team appointed by the association (an “association review”) or by a reviewing firm that is a member of the same association as the reviewed firm (a “firm review”).

.03 A majority of the review team members on an association review, including the team captain, must be from association member firms.

.04 Associations of CPA firms wanting to arrange the on-site quality reviews of their members must agree to comply with the administrative policies established for the Program and the “Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews.”

.05 An association may not form teams to perform quality reviews of non-association members.

.06 Results of reviews arranged by associations of CPA firms will be evaluated by the entity administering the review (a participating state CPA society or the AICPA Quality Review Division).

.07 Formation of associations of CPA firms for the express purpose of arranging quality reviews is discouraged.

Independence Requirements

.08 An association and its member firms must meet the following independence criteria:

a. The association, as distinct from its member firms, does not perform any professional services other than those it provides to its member firms. (For purposes of this requirement “professional services” include accounting, tax, personal financial planning, litigation support services and the professional services for which standards are promulgated by bodies designated by AICPA Council, such as Statements on Auditing Standards and Statement on Standards for Accountants’ Services on Prospective Financial Information.)

b. The association does not engage in any of the advertising or solicitation activities that are permitted with respect to member firms except that an association may respond to inquiries and may prepare brochures that firms may use to obtain professional engagements. (Member firms may solicit or advertise to obtain professional engagements in accordance with Rule 502 of the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct.)

c. The association shall not warrant or make public representations regarding the quality of professional services performed by its member firms. However, member firms may independently publicize their membership in the association.
Guidelines for Involvement by Associations of CPA Firms in the Quality Review Program

d. The association shall have an independent, triennial review of those materials that could be considered an integral part of its member firm's quality control systems (association quality control materials), such as an audit or accounting manual, continuing professional education courses, etc. *

e. Member firms of the association shall not share directly or indirectly, or participate in, the profits of each other. (Correspondent fees are considered revenue, not profit participation.)

f. Referral or participating work among member firms shall be arranged directly by the firms involved.

g. The association does not exercise any direct or indirect management control over the professional or administrative functions of its member firms.

.09 The association should confirm that it conforms with the aforementioned independence criteria prior to commencing quality reviews and at the beginning of each subsequent year in which the association desires to be authorized to administer quality reviews.

Plans of Administration

.10 The association may ask for authorization to arrange and carry out the reviews of its members, under the supervision of the entity administering the review, by submitting an administrative plan which covers such matters as the following:

a. Developing and maintaining a pool of qualified reviewers in the AICPA reviewers' data bank.

b. Selecting the reviewers.

c. Training and evaluating reviewers.

d. Determining that reviews are conducted in accordance with AICPA Standards for Performing and Reporting on Quality Reviews.

e. Handling of questions raised by reviewers and firms.

f. Resolving disputes that may arise between a reviewed firm and the association reviewers and reporting unresolved disputes to the entity administering the review.

.11 To satisfy the above requirement, an association of CPA firms may either submit (a) a brief questionnaire developed by the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee or (b) a more detailed plan of administration which, at minimum, should address each of the items discussed in the questionnaire.

.12 The degree of involvement and the scope of activity of an association of CPA firms may be changed annually by the AICPA or the association of CPA firms.

Administrative Reviews

.13 An association of CPA firms that is authorized to arrange quality reviews shall submit triennially to an independent review of its administrative procedures and to a review of any association quality control materials.

.14 These reviews may be performed concurrently; however, separate reports should be issued. The reviewer shall possess the same qualifications as those required for team captains on quality reviews.

.15 Associations needing to have an administrative review should consult with the AICPA Quality Review Division for further guidance.

* Initial reviews shall be performed by December 31, 1991.

QRP Section 9000

Inspection Guidance

Introduction

.01 Statement on Quality Control Standards No.1, System of Quality Control for a CPA Firm, (SQCS No. 1) requires every CPA firm, regardless of its size, to have a system of quality control for its accounting and auditing practice. The statement and related interpretations can be found in the AICPA Professional Standards, Vol. 2, QC section 10.

.02 SQCS No. 1 identifies nine elements of quality control and states that a firm shall consider each of these elements, to the extent applicable to its practice, in establishing its quality control policies and procedures. The statement recognizes that the nature and extent of a firm’s quality control polices and procedures depend on a number of factors, such as its size, the degree of operating autonomy allowed its personnel and its practice offices, the nature of its practice and its organization, and appropriate cost-benefit considerations.

.03 One of the nine elements of quality control is inspection. This guide has been developed to assist firms in achieving the benefits to be derived from an effective inspection, especially small firms and sole practitioners. It is not intended to, and does not, establish standards for performance of an inspection.

Objectives of an Inspection

.04 The objectives of an inspection are to determine if a firm is complying with its quality control policies and procedures and conforming with professional standards during a specified period of time, and to identify on a timely basis areas where improvements may be necessary.

.05 When performing its inspection, a firm may wish to expand its testing to accomplish additional objectives, such as evaluating engagement efficiency, training supervisory staff to effectively review engagements, or testing compliance with requirements of membership organizations or regulatory bodies.

.06 An inspection includes the following basic procedures:

a. Reviewing and testing the firm’s compliance with the quality control policies and procedures that make up the firm’s quality control system (compliance testing).

b. Reviewing selected engagements of the firm, including relevant working papers and reports (engagement testing).

c. Summarizing the findings from the review of engagements and tests of compliance with quality control policies and procedures.

d. Determining any corrective actions to be taken and improvements to be made with respect to the specific engagements reviewed or quality control system as a whole.

e. Communicating the inspection findings and the planned corrective actions to appropriate firm personnel.

f. Following-up to make sure that the planned corrective actions were taken.

.07 The nature, extent, and timing of an inspection will be largely influenced by environmental factors such as the following:

a. Size of the firm

b. Style of management and methods of internal communication.
c. Level of involvement of senior firm personnel in decision making

d. The types and mix of accounting, auditing, tax, and other services provided

e. Industry concentrations and specializations

f. Background and experience of professional personnel

g. Extent of appropriate continuing professional education taken by professional personnel

h. Extent to which others outside the firm are consulted

i. The results of the firm’s last peer review, quality review, or inspection.

Determing Who Should Perform the Inspection

.08 The assignment of individuals to perform an inspection should be made with the same due care that would be used in assigning personnel to an engagement. In making such assignments, the firm should emphasize the productive nature of the assignment. The importance placed on an inspection will determine how productive it is and the benefits the firm derives.

.09 Depending on the size of a firm, the nature of its practice, and other environmental factors, an inspection may be performed by one individual or by a group of individuals. In either case, the primary responsibility for the inspection should be assigned to an owner of the firm. This person may delegate part or all of the testing procedures to qualified assistants.

.10 In assigning assistants to a task, consideration should be given to the degree of technical training and proficiency required in the circumstances. Some tests of administrative procedures can be performed by nonprofessional staff, but only qualified professional personnel who are knowledgeable in accounting and auditing matters should be involved in the review of engagements. Inspection of engagements, therefore, should be carried out or, at a minimum, carefully supervised by persons who would qualify as reviewers under the standards governing the practice-monitoring program in which the firm is enrolled.

.11 Individuals assigned to the inspection team should be objective when performing their tasks. Although not a requirement, it is desirable, whenever possible, to assign individuals who were not otherwise involved in the performance of the engagements they are to inspect. A checklist that may be used when coordinating an inspection program is included in Appendix A.

.12 Depending on the size of a firm and the environmental factors previously discussed, a firm may wish to consider having someone from outside the firm perform the inspection rather than using internal personnel. Some firms have found this advantageous because the outsider can provide a fresh perspective and may be more objective when performing the various procedures. Unlike peer reviews and quality reviews, inspections may be performed on a reciprocal basis because independence is not an issue that must be considered.

.13 If a firm decides to use inspectors from outside the firm, it should consider the qualifications for inspectors discussed above in making the selection of the individual(s). In such circumstances, an owner of the firm should be given responsibility for coordinating the inspection efforts and ensuring that all appropriate steps are taken, including determining whether necessary corrective actions are taken.

Timing of the Inspection Program

.14 The inspection program should be timely and it should cover each year between peer reviews or quality reviews. (A firm may elect to have its peer review or quality review substitute for an inspection for the year covered by the review.) Timeliness is important so that any necessary corrective action, especially actions that affect the performance of a subsequent audit, review or compilation, can be implemented before a deficiency, if one took place, is repeated.

QRP § 9000.08 Copyright © 1991, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Inc.
.15 Most firms carry out an inspection as if it were a mini-peer or quality review. The review of the firm’s compliance with its quality control policies and procedures and review on a post-issuance basis of selected engagements are performed at a fixed time during the year. Some firms, however, prefer to coordinate the review of engagements more closely with other procedures they might have established. Flexibility in timing is entirely appropriate, subject to these two guidelines:

a. The supervisory review of the working papers, files and reports carried out by the engagement partner before an audit, review or compilation report is issued never qualifies as an inspection procedure.

b. A firm needs to summarize and take action on inspection findings on engagements on a timely basis. Therefore, if a firm reviews selected or all engagements over a period of time findings should be summarized periodically, not just once a year. This summarization should be based on review notes or point sheets prepared for that purpose, not just on memory.

.16 Firms that inspect engagements at other than one time during the year often do so as part of an ongoing procedure for carrying out an additional preissuance review of the report, financial statements, and working papers by someone not associated with the engagement, such as a second partner or a report review department. (See AICPA Professional Standards, Vol. 2, QC Section 10-1.18.)

.17 Some firms may choose to perform an inspection of selected engagements prior to beginning engagement planning. It is particularly important to be certain that the review of the engagement is the equivalent to the review that would have been performed as an inspection procedure after issuance of the report, not just the review that is made under SAS No. 22, “Planning and Supervision,” and that the inspection findings are taken into account in planning and carrying out the subsequent engagement.

How to Perform the Inspection

.18 The scope of an inspection should be similar to that of a peer review or quality review. Sufficient testing should be performed to allow the inspectors to evaluate whether the firm is effectively applying its procedures as they relate to the other eight elements of quality control.

Review of Compliance with Policies and Procedures

.19 An inspection should address, to the extent applicable, each of the other eight elements of quality control. Firms may choose to address many of the policies and procedures relating to elements such as supervision, consultation, professional development, advancement, assigning personnel to engagements, acceptance and continuance of clients, and hiring during the review of engagements.

.20 Appendix B includes suggested procedures to test compliance with the firm’s quality control policies and procedures.

.21 The general procedures to be performed for each of the applicable elements of quality control include:

a. A review of the firm’s policies and procedures and an evaluation of their continuing appropriateness.

b. A review of the administrative files and interviews of appropriate individuals to verify compliance with and understanding of the firm’s policies and procedures.

c. Testing of compliance with the policies and procedures within the firm’s system and/or on selected engagements.

Review of Engagements

.22 Firms ordinarily place considerable emphasis during an inspection on the review of engagements. In selecting engagements, a firm may find it helpful to consider the guidelines contained in the standards governing the practice monitoring program in which it is enrolled. These standards provide that the selection should include a reasonable cross section of the firm’s auditing and accounting practice.

.23 An inspection should include work performed by a cross section of the firm’s personnel involved in the accounting and auditing function. In addition, the selection of engagements to be reviewed should take into consideration—

a. Industry concentrations
b. Large, complex, and high risk engagements
c. Governmental engagements
d. Initial engagements
e. Engagements with a significant public interest (such as SEC engagements and audits conducted pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act)
f. Engagements that have not previously been inspected or reviewed.

.24 As a general rule, at least 5 to 10% of the firm’s accounting and auditing hours should be reviewed during the inspection. The engagements subject to review will be those with years ending during the period under review. However, if a more recent engagement has been performed, that engagement should be reviewed.

.25 The objectives of the review of engagements are to evaluate whether the firm is complying with its quality control policies and procedures and conforming with professional standards, including generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS), standards for accounting and review services (SSARS), standards for financial forecasts and projections, and standards for financial and compliance audits contained in governmental auditing standards (the “yellow book”). To achieve these objectives, the review should include a review of reports, financial statements, accompanying footnotes, related working papers, correspondence and, where appropriate, discussions with professional staff.

.26 The depth of review of working papers should be left to the judgment of the inspector(s). However, the review of working papers ordinarily should include a review of all “key areas” on an engagement. It does not need to be a review of every working paper. The key areas are the most critical sections in an engagement. Examples of some of the key areas for a manufacturing engagement would be inventory, accounts receivable, accounts payable, sales and cost of sales.

.27 In reviewing engagements, many people find it useful to use engagement review checklists, such as the ones developed by the AICPA for use on peer reviews and quality reviews. However, any other comprehensive reporting, disclosure, and working paper review checklists can be used. (See the section on “Alternative Approaches to Documenting An Inspection.”)

.28 Under the AICPA practice monitoring programs, checklists and supplements have been developed specifically for general audits, audits of governmental, not-for-profit, and banking entities, and compilation and review engagements. The engagement checklists may require modification for engagements involving other specialized industries, such as construction and insurance. Checklists and quality control system questionnaires are available in the AICPA Quality Review Program Manual and the Division for CPA Firms’ peer review manual.

.29 For each engagement reviewed, the inspector should evaluate whether anything came to the individual’s attention that caused the inspector to believe that—

a. The financial statements were not presented in all material respects in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or another comprehensive basis of accounting, if applicable, or the report was appropriately modified.
b. The firm did not have a reasonable basis under the applicable standards (GAAS, SSARS, or governmental auditing standards) for the report issued.

c. The report was not appropriate in the circumstances.

d. The documentation does not support the report issued.

e. The firm did not comply with its quality control policies and procedures.

.30 Should an inspector believe that the firm may have issued an inappropriate report on a client’s financial statements or omitted necessary procedures, the firm should investigate the matter and determine what action, if any, should be taken pursuant to AU sections 561 and 390 and AR Sections 9100.13-15 of the AICPA’s Professional Standards.

Other Review Procedures

.31 During an inspection, many firms test compliance with the membership requirements of the various organizations to which they or their members belong—the AICPA, state CPA societies, PCPS, and SECPSEven though this is not required by quality control standards. As a practical matter, many of these membership requirements are covered by the firm’s quality control policies and procedures and are tested during other phases of the inspection. For example, compliance with the AICPA’s and the Division for CPA Firms’ continuing professional education requirements (CPE) may be tested when the firm’s policies and procedures for professional development are inspected. Appendix C includes a program for testing compliance with certain of the Division for CPA Firms’ membership requirements.

Summarizing Inspection Findings

.32 At the conclusion of the various inspection procedures, each finding should be evaluated in conjunction with the other findings noted during the inspection for the implications to the firm’s quality control system as a whole. For example, on one engagement a minor disclosure may have been omitted that results in a note to the file reminding the engagement personnel to make sure that the disclosure is made in next year’s financial statements. If the deficiency is noted on several engagements, corrective action also may be needed on a firm-wide basis to prevent the recurrence of these deficiencies.

.33 Regardless of when engagements are inspected, inspection findings should be summarized in a manner that enables a firm to best determine the necessary corrective actions. Some firms use the summary review engagement checklists from the peer review and quality review manuals for summarizing engagement related inspection findings. Other firms scan the findings and summarize them informally; this is common when the number of engagements reviewed is small and/or the number of findings is minimal.

Reporting on Inspection Findings

.34 Appropriate documentation requirements should be established by each firm to demonstrate compliance with its policies and procedures for inspection (see the next section on “Alternative Approaches to Documenting An Inspection”). At a minimum, a report or memorandum should be prepared on the scope of the inspection, the inspection findings, and the recommendations of the inspectors. A sample report that a firm may use for this purpose has been developed and is included in Appendix D, or the firm may develop its own reporting format. For multi-office firms, consideration should be given to preparing a separate report for each office inspected.
Determining Necessary Corrective Actions

.35 Upon receipt of the inspection report, the owner(s) of the firm should evaluate what corrective actions, if any, should be taken in connection with the recommendations of the inspector(s). Corrective actions can include:

a. Additional staff training in specific areas or industries.
b. Changes in quality control policies and procedures.
c. Updates or additions to technical manuals and practice aids.
d. More careful monitoring of compliance with the policies and procedures.
e. Appropriate corrective actions on specific engagement deficiencies.

.36 There should be a record of the corrective actions and improvements planned by the firm to address the findings and appropriate assignment of responsibility for implementing the recommendations.

Communicating Inspection Findings and Corrective Actions

.37 After the necessary corrective actions have been decided, the inspection findings and the changes being made as a result of those findings should be communicated orally or in writing to the owners and employees of the firm (if any).

Following-Up on Planned Corrective Actions

.38 Timely and effective follow-up on the steps taken to implement planned corrective actions is critical to an effective inspection program. Within a reasonable period of time after the firm was scheduled to take the planned corrective actions, steps should be taken to determine whether the planned corrective actions have been acted upon and whether they have achieved the objectives for which they were designed.

Retention of Inspection Documents

.39 Firms should determine the period that detailed inspection working papers are to be retained. Retention may be necessary if the firm intends for the peer reviewer or quality reviewer to place reliance on the inspection. (Typically, reviewers of smaller firms will place little or no reliance on the inspection due to scope requirements and cost/benefit considerations. If that is expected to be the case, it is recommended that detailed working papers be discarded after a summary or report has been prepared.) The inspection summary or report should be retained and available to the peer or quality reviewers.

Alternative Approaches to Documenting an Inspection

.40 The size and nature of a firm and the environment in which it practices will affect the extent of documentation prepared regarding the inspection procedures, findings, and corrective actions. A formal or an informal documentation approach can be used.

.41 Under the formal approach to inspection documentation, inspector(s) will—

a. Complete the quality control compliance program in Appendix B or develop and complete other comprehensive program(s).
b. Complete comprehensive engagement review checklists, such as those used by peer reviewers and quality reviewers while performing the review of reports, financial statements, footnotes and working papers on selected engagements.
c. Prepare summaries of findings on compliance tests and reviews of engagements.

d. Prepare an inspection report such as the one in Appendix D.

.42 Generally, the formal approach is preferable for all CPA firms regardless of size.

.43 Under the informal approach to inspection documentation, inspector(s) will—

a. Review compliance with its quality control policies and procedures without preparing or completing a quality control compliance program.

b. Review selected reports, financial statements, and working papers without formally completing comprehensive engagement review checklists such as those used by peer reviewers and quality reviewers. (In these cases, the firm will usually make reference to such a checklist to make sure that all appropriate matters are considered.)

c. Keep notes (or summaries) reflecting the deficiencies noted during the performance of inspection procedures.

d. Prepare an inspection report such as the one in Appendix D.

.44 The informal approach has only been found to be effective for sole practitioners without professional staff and firms with very small accounting or auditing practices.

.45 Examples of the application of the approaches to the inspection and the documentation thereof are included in Examples 1 through 3 at the end of this document along with a description of the environmental factors influencing the inspection program.

Relationship of Consulting Reviews to Inspections

.46 Some firms may have a consulting review before their initial quality review or peer review. Consulting reviews are confidential, “trial-run” reviews during which a reviewer, who has experience relevant to the firm undergoing the review, will visit the firm, usually for 1 day, to identify strengths and/or weaknesses and give the firm advice on how to prepare for the review. The review includes a cursory review of the working papers, financial statements, and reports prepared by the firm.

.47 A firm planning to have a consulting review may wish to consider whether the consulting review it plans to have should be expanded to satisfy the firm’s annual inspection requirement for the year. Depending on the size of the firm, an inspection may be performed instead of a consulting review for only a little more money.

Benefits of an Inspection

.48 An inspection can assure a firm that it has an effective quality control system in place and that the firm’s quality control system is being complied with. It also ensures that the firm will have the chance to make improvements or changes in its quality control system on a timely basis. Oftentimes, the professionals know the strengths and weaknesses of their firm. However, time does not always permit the firm to focus on these areas and make necessary changes. An inspection allows the firm to allocate time at least once a year to focus on its strengths and weaknesses with the intent of improving the overall quality of the firm and the services it provides.

Checklist for Coordinating an Inspection Program

1. Determine who will coordinate the inspection program for the firm.

2. Determine who will perform the inspection.

3. Establish the approach and timetable for performing the inspection procedures.

4. Determine forms and checklists to be used during the inspection and the extent of documentation required.

5. Make a selection of engagements for review.

6. Review administrative files for compliance with the firm's quality control policies and procedures.

7. Review the selected engagements.

8. Summarize the inspection findings and determine what corrective actions should be taken.

9. Prepare an inspection report covering the scope of the inspection, the inspection findings, and the recommended corrective actions.

10. Decide how long to retain detailed inspection working papers.

11. Review the recommended corrective actions and reach final conclusions on the actions to be taken.

12. Communicate the inspection findings and the planned corrective actions to the other members of the firm (if any).

13. Follow-up on planned corrective actions to determine whether the actions were taken as planned and whether they achieve the objective(s) for which they were planned.

Independence

1. Identify a sample of situations in which independence questions arose during the period being inspected and consider whether the resolution of such questions appears appropriate.

2. Review the written independence confirmations obtained by the firm for a sample of professional personnel, if required by firm policy.

3. Determine by review of appropriate documentation and by discussions with selected staff that the firm has advised all professional personnel on a timely basis of entities to which the independence rules apply and that professional personnel are familiar with the firm's independence policies and procedures.

4. Determine by a review of selected engagements whether fees were paid for the prior year's services prior to the issuance of the current year's report.

Consultation

1. Inspect the firm's library for its audit and accounting practice and determine whether it is sufficiently comprehensive and current. Specifically determine that the library includes recent pronouncements and literature appropriate for the firm's specialties and that loose-leaf services are filed on a timely basis.

2. On the engagements reviewed, determine whether consultation took place and was documented in accordance with the firm's policies.

3. If sufficient testing of consultation policies and procedures was not performed in 2 above, determine through inquiry or review of subject files whether consultations took place and were correctly applied.

Supervision

1. On the engagements reviewed:

   a. Determine whether the technical materials (audit manuals, standardized forms, checklists, and questionnaires) that are required by firm policy were used.
b. Evaluate whether the technical materials are sufficiently comprehensive and up-to-date.

c. Determine whether the firm complied with its policies and procedures for the review of engagement working papers, reports and financial statements.

d. Determine whether the firm’s procedures for resolving differences of opinions among members of the engagement team were followed and are appropriate.

Professional Development

1. Review the firm’s CPE records on a test basis and consider whether:

a. They appear adequate to demonstrate compliance with AICPA, state board, and state society requirements and whether they indicate that the firm’s plans for CPE were carried out.

b. Professional personnel have complied with the CPE requirements set forth in Government Audit Standards (if applicable).

c. Professional personnel have complied with the Section’s requirements (if the firm is a member of either the PCPS or the SECPS).

Assigning Personnel to Engagements

1. Determine whether staffing and scheduling requirements were identified on a timely basis and approved by appropriate personnel.

2. Determine by interviews with selected staff whether they believe the assignments they have received are appropriate.

Hiring

1. Determine by reviewing personnel files of recently hired employees whether:

a. The background information and other documentation required by firm policy were obtained.

b. The individuals possessed the desired attributes, achievements, and experience and, if not, why an exception was made.

Advancement

1. Determine by reviewing personnel files whether personnel have been evaluated and promoted in accordance with the firm’s policies and procedures.
Acceptance and Continuance of Clients

1. Review the documentation maintained for selected acceptance and continuance decisions and evaluate whether the firm is complying with its policies and procedures and with professional standards.

Inspection

1. Determine whether appropriate corrective actions were taken, including effective follow-up, with respect to the prior period’s inspection findings.
Appendix C

Optional Program for Review of Compliance With the Division for CPA Firms' Membership Requirement

Period Covered __________________________

1. Determine whether each proprietor, shareholder, or partner of the firm resident in the United States and eligible for AICPA membership is a member of the AICPA.

2. Determine whether a majority of the members of the firm are CPAs (a separate determination may not be necessary, depending on the results of the previous step.)

3. Determine whether the firm filed its most recent annual report with the section.

DESCRIPTION OF THE FIRM

Size of Firm
2 Partners
6 Professional staff other than the partners
1 Office

Background
Each of the partners has 15 years of public accounting experience; the last 5 years have been spent as partners.

Nature of Practice
8 Audits 1500 hours
20 Reviews 800 hours
40 Compilations with disclosures 600 hours
90 Compilations omitting substantially all disclosures 600 hours
Tax and management advisory service engagements make up the remainder of the practice.

Industry Concentrations
The major concentrations are construction, not-for-profit organizations, and school districts.
The firm also has clients in: manufacturing, retail, and professional services. The firm does no audits of SEC clients.

Environment
• While each partner has auditing and accounting clients, one partner performs the majority of the auditing and accounting engagements.
• On certain larger engagements, one partner will review the financial statements prepared in connection with the other partners' clients.
• The partner responsible for the 4 school district audits is responsible for ensuring that he and the primary staff on those audits have the necessary CPE under Government Auditing Standards.
• The firm periodically holds in-house CPE for the staff which is taught by one of the partners.

INSPECTION PROCEDURES

Timing of Inspection
All inspection procedures will be performed during November since the 4 school district audits are not completed until September. This timing is believed to be the most effective and efficient. (The partners recognized that they could expand their preissuance review procedures if they so desired.)

* This is an example of the application of the inspection guidance contained in this document. Practitioners should not assume that following this example or the other examples in this document will automatically satisfy the objectives of an inspection. Careful attention must be given to making sure that these objectives are achieved.
The partners have agreed that the formal documentation approach should be adopted since the committees governing the AICPA practice-monitoring programs believe that the formal documentation approach is more effective. The formal approach will include the completion of:

- Appendix B of this document when testing the applicable elements of quality control.
- The engagement review checklists used in performing quality reviews and peer reviews. The partners believe that these checklists act as good "memory joggers" for accounting issues that they encounter on an infrequent basis.

After the sample of engagements is inspected and the applicable elements of quality control have been tested, the deficiencies will be summarized and the coordinating partner will evaluate what actions, if any, should be taken to prevent the recurrence of the deficiencies noted.

After the inspection procedures are performed, the inspection report contained in Appendix D of this document will be completed.

After the inspection report is finalized, no working papers, checklists, programs, or notes will be retained regarding the engagements reviewed or the findings on those engagements or the review of the quality control system.

4 months after the inspection report is prepared and the planned corrective actions are identified, the coordinating partner will perform sufficient procedures to determine whether the corrective actions have been taken and whether they have achieved their objectives.

Tax and management advisory service engagements make up the remainder of the practice.

Industry Concentrations
None. However, the firm does have clients in the following areas: manufacturing, wholesale distribution and professional services. The firm does no audits of SEC or governmental clients.

Environment
- The sole practitioner is a member of an informal group of sole practitioners that meets twice a month to discuss issues of common interest and concern (including accounting, auditing, tax, and management topics).
- The practitioner is active in state CPA society activities and frequently attends CPE sessions held by the society.
- The practitioner consults with others when unsure about the approach to be taken on an accounting, auditing, or tax issue.

INSPECTION PROCEDURES

Timing of Inspection
The practitioner believes that he can be more efficient by performing an inspection of engagements immediately before he plans the next year’s engagements.

Documentation Approach
A combination of the two approaches has been chosen as described below:

- Appendix B of this document will be used to test and document the review of the applicable elements of quality control. This review will be performed each November immediately before the practitioner’s busy season.

- A preplanning engagement checklist has been developed that addresses the objectives of inspection. Inspection procedures will include a review of the report, financial statements, and working papers on last year’s engagement to determine whether —

  a. The report and financial statements conform with applicable professional standards.

  b. The engagement was performed in accordance with applicable professional standards (statements on auditing standards, statements on accounting and review services, etc.).

Documentation Approach (cont’d)

c. The engagement has been performed in accordance with the firm’s policies and procedures.

Although comprehensive engagement review checklists—such as those used by peer and quality reviewers—will not be completed, the practitioner plans to periodically make reference to those checklists while performing the inspection procedures.

Summarization

While any deficiencies noted on engagements are corrected when the next year’s engagement is performed, summaries of the findings are kept in an Inspection Finding Folder. (The names of the clients are not retained on the summaries.) Each May and November, the practitioner summarizes the findings and evaluates what actions, if any, should be taken to prevent the recurrence of the deficiencies noted.

Reporting

In May and November, the inspection report contained in Appendix D of this document will be completed.

Retention Policy

After the inspection report is finalized, no working papers, checklists, programs, or notes will be retained regarding the engagements reviewed or the findings on those engagements or the review of the quality control system.

Follow-Up

5 months after the inspection report is prepared and the planned corrective actions are identified, the practitioner will perform sufficient procedures to determine whether the corrective actions indicated in the inspection report have been taken and whether they have achieved their objectives.
Example 3
of the Application of the Inspection Guidelines

DESCRIPTION OF THE FIRM

Size of Firm
Sole practitioner with 1 part-time professional staff person

Background
The sole practitioner has 25 years of public accounting experience of which the last 15 have been spent as a sole practitioner.

Nature of Practice
2 Audits
2 Reviews
2 Compilations with disclosures
11 Compilations omitting substantially all disclosures

Tax and management advisory service engagements make up the remainder of the practice.

Industry Concentrations
None. However, the firm does have clients in the following areas: manufacturing, construction, and not-for-profit organizations. The firm does no audits of SEC or governmental clients.

Environment
• The practitioner takes various continuing professional education (CPE) courses offered by the state CPA society, primarily in the tax area; the practitioner takes very few CPE courses on accounting or auditing topics except for an annual auditing and accounting update course.

• The practitioner takes a majority of his courses in a self-study format.

• The practitioner rarely finds the need to consult with individuals outside his firm on accounting or auditing issues.

INSPECTION PROCEDURES

Timing of Inspection
Because of the practitioner’s focus on tax practice, he believes that more can be gained by performing a detailed review of engagements at one time during the year; this also will allow him to more readily focus on the objectives of an inspection. The practitioner believes that he can perform his own inspection since his auditing and accounting practice is not very complex. However, he recognizes that he could use someone from outside the firm (perhaps on a reciprocal basis) if he so desires.

Documentation Approach
Due to the practitioner’s limited accounting and auditing related CPE, the formal approach will be chosen as described below:

• Appendix B of this document will be used to test and document the review of the applicable elements of quality control. This review will be performed each July.

• The engagement review checklists used in performing quality reviews and peer reviews will be completed to document the review of the selected engagements.

Summarization
After the sample of engagements is inspected, the deficiencies will be summarized and the practitioner will evaluate what actions, if any, should be taken to prevent the recurrence of the deficiencies noted.
Inspection Guidance

After the inspection procedures are performed, the inspection report contained in Appendix D of this document will be completed.

After the inspection report is finalized, no working papers, checklists, programs, or notes will be retained regarding the engagements reviewed or the findings on those engagements or the review of the quality control system.

6 months after the inspection report is prepared and the planned corrective actions are identified, the practitioner will perform sufficient procedures to determine whether the corrective actions have been taken and whether they have achieved their objectives.

Did the inspection disclose any situations that would require the firm to take action to prevent future reliance on a report issued by the firm or require the firm to perform additional auditing or review procedures to provide a basis for the report issued? Yes _x_, No ___. If yes, describe the situation and the action taken by the firm. In error, a management representation letter was not obtained from an audit client. This letter has now been obtained. ___

The inspection findings and the recommendations regarding actions taken for improvements in the firm are attached. SEE ATTACHED.

* Approximate totals may be used.
Inspection Findings and Recommendations

Finding: On some of the engagements reviewed, we noted a few disclosure deficiencies that would have been caught if the firm had required the completion of a comprehensive reporting and disclosure checklist.

Recommendation: The firm should adopt a policy requiring that a comprehensive reporting and disclosure checklist be completed on all engagements on which the firm reports on year-end financial statements.

Finding: On several engagements reviewed, we noted that the working papers did not document the extent of testing of related party transactions and review of subsequent events. However, we are satisfied that the necessary procedures were performed on each engagement.

Recommendation: The firm should expand its standard audit program to include procedures for testing related party transactions and reviewing subsequent events.

Finding: On one audit engagement, the firm failed to obtain a management representation letter even though such letters are required under auditing standards. Our testing was expanded to cover all of the firm’s audit clients to ensure that this was an isolated occurrence.

Recommendation: The firm should develop a final report routing sheet that documents all procedures that have not been performed at the time that a report is submitted for typing. The firm should establish procedures to ensure that all of the procedures outlined on the routing sheet are performed before the report is issued.

Finding: While the firm circularizes independence confirmations among its staff on an annual basis, two individuals failed to sign the confirmations.

Recommendation: The partner-in-charge of obtaining the independence confirmations should monitor receipt of the confirmations and report to the other partners when they have all been returned.
CONSULTING REVIEW PROGRAM FOR CPA FIRMS IN PUBLIC PRACTICE

The Consulting Review Program was originally conceived and developed by the Private Companies Practice Section of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms in 1985 to help CPA firms evaluate their quality controls and prepare for an independent review of their quality control system. The program is available to all interested CPA firms.

Consulting Review Program Guidelines

Overview

.01 The purpose of a consulting review is to help a firm evaluate and improve its quality controls and to prepare for an independent peer review or quality review of its quality control system.

.02 The consulting review program was originally conceived and developed by the Private Companies Practice Section of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms. The review is now carried out using guidelines, programs, and checklists developed by the AICPA Quality Review Division. These materials are included in this appendix.

.03 Arrangements for consulting reviews can be made by contacting:

a. Participating state CPA societies
b. The AICPA Quality Review Division

General Description of the Program

.04 During a visit to the firm, the consulting reviewer obtains a general understanding of the firm's system of quality control by interviewing appropriate firm personnel and by reviewing a brief quality control questionnaire completed by the firm.

.05 The reviewer discusses the firm's responses to his questions and deals with specific quality control questions raised by the firm.

.06 The reviewer also performs a limited review of selected reports, the related financial statements, and working papers for each type of service (audit, review, and compilation) the firm provides.

.07 The results of the review, including related suggestions, are discussed orally at the completion of the review. No written notes pertaining to the review of the firm's records are retained by the reviewer.

.08 For firms with generally up to twenty professionals, the review involves one reviewer for one day. For larger firms, the review may take two days or more depending on the circumstances.

Consulting Review Program

Introduction

The purpose of a consulting review is to help a firm evaluate and improve its quality controls and to prepare for an independent peer review or quality review of its quality control system.

The consulting review program was conceived and developed by the Private Companies Practice Section (PCPS) of the AICPA Division for CPA Firms in 1985. However, a firm does not have to be a member of the PCPS to have a consulting review.

Description of Program

The review is conducted at the reviewed firm’s office and is usually completed in one day. Consulting reviewers are selected from a master reviewer bank maintained by the AICPA. These reviewers are experienced practitioners who are well-versed in the design and implementation of a quality control system and in accounting and auditing matters relevant to the industries in which the firm’s clients practice. No written report is issued, and the results are discussed only with the firm. Therefore, confidentiality is assured. Firms being reviewed can choose to have a reviewer from the same geographic area or from another region.

During a visit to the firm, the consulting reviewer obtains an understanding of the firm’s system of quality control by interviewing appropriate firm personnel and by reviewing a brief quality control questionnaire completed by the firm. The reviewer discusses the firm’s responses to his questions and deals with specific quality control questions raised by the firm. The reviewer also performs a limited review of selected reports, accompanying financial statements, and working papers for each type of service (audit, review and compilation) the firm performs.

The results of the review, including related suggestions, are discussed orally at the completion of the review. No written notes pertaining to the review of the firm’s records are retained by the reviewer. The results of the review are not provided to the AICPA, state CPA societies, the Division for CPA Firms, the AICPA Quality Review Executive Committee, or any other party.

For firms with generally up to twenty professionals, the review involves one reviewer for one day. For larger firms, the review may take two days or more depending on the circumstances. The fee for the review is presently $500 per day (as of 1/1/89) plus travel and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the reviewer.

The intent of the consulting review program is to provide a firm with assistance in those quality control areas in which it believes that it may need the most guidance. Therefore, the firm should communicate to the reviewer, those quality control areas that the firm wishes to be emphasized. For example, one firm may want a reviewer to provide guidance on how to establish a quality control system whereas another firm may want the reviewer to evaluate an existing system.

The Private Companies Practice Section may subsidize a portion of the cost of a consulting review for firms that choose to be PCPS members. Half the fee (not including expenses) up to $250, will be refunded to the firm or applied against the cost of the firm’s first PCPS peer review provided the firm’s membership is continuous from the date of the consulting review until that firm’s first peer review. Firms that are not members of the section will be given a similar refund or credit if the firm joins the section within one year of the date of the consulting review.
A consulting review does not constitute an inspection, as that term is used in Statement on Quality Control Standards 1, nor does the review qualify as meeting the AICPA membership requirement for participation in an “Institute-approved practice-monitoring program.” That is, it is not a substitute for a peer review or a quality review. In addition, due to the substantially limited scope of the consulting review, the results of subsequent peer reviews or quality reviews may possibly differ significantly in one or more aspects from those of the consulting review.

Comments provided by the reviewer are offered for the firm’s consideration subject to its professional judgment and evaluation in making use of them. Comments expressed by the reviewer are not official opinions of the Institute or of any participating state CPA society, or any of their committees but are the views of the individual who offers them. Accordingly, such comments are not binding upon a review team conducting a peer review or a quality review.

Timing

A consulting review should ordinarily be completed sufficiently in advance of the firm’s peer review or quality review to allow the reviewed firm to appropriately consider and implement any recommendations made by the consulting reviewer.
Consulting Review Program Instructions to Firms

1. Complete the Consulting Review Program General Scheduling Information form and submit it to the AICPA or the state CPA society arranging the review.

2. The terms and conditions of the consulting review will be summarized in an engagement letter that will be forwarded to the firm along with information about the individual who has been selected to perform your consulting review.

3. A copy of the engagement letter should be signed and returned to the AICPA or the state CPA society arranging the review.

4. Complete the “Consulting Review Program Quality Control Questionnaire” to the extent possible (see Appendix A).

5. Prior to the review, send the reviewer a copy of the following documents:
   b. Consulting Review Program Quality Control Questionnaire.

6. Prior to the review, select 2 of each type of engagement (audit, review, and compilation) that the firm performs. Engagements selected by the firm should include work performed by different supervisory personnel and be representative of the major industries serviced by the firm. Reports, the related financial statements, and working papers for the selected engagements should be assembled and readily accessible to the reviewer. The reviewer will attempt to review at least one engagement for each type of service provided. However, a limited review of certain portions of your other selected engagements may be performed by the reviewer if time permits or if the reviewer wishes further information about a particular aspect of your practice.

7. If the firm has specific goals that it wishes to accomplish during the consulting review, discuss these goals with the reviewer.

8. Key firm personnel and persons with significant responsibility for the selected engagements should be advised to be available to the reviewer.

9. Upon completion of the review, the reviewer will communicate his or her findings at an exit conference, which should be attended by appropriate firm personnel. All written materials (questionnaires, checklists, comment sheets, etc.) developed by the reviewer in connection with the consulting review will be given to the reviewed firm.

10. Complete “Reviewed Firm’s Evaluation of Consulting Review Program” (Appendix B) and submit it directly to the AICPA Quality Review Division.

Consulting Review Program Guidelines

Consulting Review Program Suggested Review Procedures

The procedures that follow are intended as a general guide for a reviewer conducting a consulting review. The reviewer's professional judgment is essential in applying or modifying the procedures to suit the needs of a particular review. It is recommended that reviewers have available and be familiar with the contents of the AICPA MAP Handbook and the AICPA Accounting and Auditing Manual, which contain many examples of procedures and forms that may be useful to the reviewed firm. In addition, reviewers should be familiar with (a) the quality control standards and the typical quality control policies and procedures that may be applicable to the reviewed firm's practice and (b) standards for performing and reporting on quality reviews and peer reviews. Areas in which the reviewer feels there may be a need for significant improvement should ordinarily be noted on separate comment sheets which should be given to the firm.

General Procedures

1. Review the background information supplied by the reviewed firm.

2. Discuss the specific goals that the firm wishes to accomplish during the review with the firm.

3. Obtain a general understanding of the firm's quality control system by interviewing appropriate personnel and reviewing the "Quality Control Questionnaire" completed by the firm. If the firm being reviewed has documented quality control policies and procedures (for example, a quality control document or a completed quality control policies and procedures questionnaire), it may provide that documentation to the reviewer in lieu of this questionnaire.

4. Review sample forms, checklists, questionnaires, etc., for appropriateness and comprehensiveness. Consider whether such materials—
   a. Meet the objectives for which they were designed.
   b. Have been updated for recent technical pronouncements where appropriate.
   c. Provide the firm with reasonable assurance of conforming with professional standards.

5. From the engagements selected by the firm for review, choose a sample of engagements and review each engagement using the "Engagement Questionnaire" contained in Appendix B. In choosing the sample, you should attempt to review at least one engagement for each type of service (audit, review and compilation) the firm provides. If time permits or if you wish further information about a particular aspect of the firm's practice, you may also want to perform a limited review of certain portions of the other engagements selected by the firm.

6. Based on a reading of the financial statements and report for each engagement, together with the information contained in the "Engagement Questionnaire" consider whether—
   a. The financial statements appear to conform with generally accepted accounting principles (or, if applicable, with an other comprehensive basis of accounting) in all material respects.
   b. The report issued by the firm appears to conform with professional standards.
7. Review selected working papers for compliance with professional standards and with the firm’s policies and procedures. Note that many firms need guidance as to the extent to which working papers should document the procedures performed and some need consultation on the application of professional standards.

8. Hold an exit conference to discuss points accumulated during the review. Sufficient time should be reserved. Advise the firm as to your evaluation of the firm’s quality control system and any suggestions for improvement. Keep in mind that the purpose of the consulting review is to help firms to improve the quality of their practices and to prepare them for peer review or quality review. Remind the firm that the consulting review, because of its limited nature, does not constitute an inspection of either functional areas of quality control or engagements nor does the review substitute for any part of a peer review or quality review. Consequently, such reviewers may disclose additional areas for which the firm may require substantial improvement in or modification of its quality control system. Finally, remind the firm that the consulting review program was established by the PCPS in 1985 as a service to CPA firms. Leave the flyer “Why You Should Join the Division for CPA Firms” with the firm.

9. All questionnaires, checklists, comment sheets, etc., developed in connection with the review (except for the “Reviewer’s Completion Notification” form) must remain with the reviewed firm.

10. Remind the firm to submit “Reviewed Firm’s Evaluation of Consulting Review Program” directly to the AICPA Quality Review Division, even when a state CPA society arranged the review.

11. Complete “Reviewer’s Completion Notification” form (Appendix E) and submit it directly to the AICPA Quality Review Division or to the state CPA society that arranged the review along with your bill for fees of $500 per day and out-of-pocket expenses. Please use the form included in Appendix F and make sure the bill includes the federal employer identification number for Form 1099 purposes.
Consulting Review Program

QUALITY CONTROL QUESTIONNAIRE

This questionnaire is designed to provide an overview of the firm's quality control policies and procedures and to describe the documentation evidencing compliance with the system. The firm should fill out this questionnaire, to the extent possible, prior to the arrival of the consulting reviewer and send a copy to the consultant for review along with a copy of the Consulting Review Program General Scheduling Information form.*

The reviewer will review the responses made by the firm to the questions asked on this questionnaire. Based on these responses, the reviewer will consider whether changes to the system may be appropriate or whether further clarification of the objective of a quality control element or procedure is necessary. At the completion of the review, the reviewer will return this questionnaire to the firm along with a brief description of any changes that are recommended.

F. Specific Engagement Questions:
The objectives of the review of engagements are to evaluate (1) whether the firm appears to be complying with professional standards, including GAAP, GAAS, GAGAS and SSARS, and (2) whether the firm might benefit from suggestions the reviewer may have concerning efficiency or economy in performing the engagement or documenting the results thereof. To the extent necessary to achieve these objectives, the review of engagements should include a review of financial statements, accountants' reports, and selected working papers and may include a discussion with key personnel assigned to the engagement.
Appendixes

The attached questionnaire is divided into two sections. The first section is intended to highlight the types of transactions, events or agreements for which disclosure may be required in the financial statements. This section is applicable to all types of engagements, including review and compilation engagements. The list was developed for use in reviewing engagements of "for profit" companies and will require extensive modification for other types of entities. The reviewer is urged to refer directly to the applicable authoritative pronouncements when appropriate. The second section contains certain areas of documentation that would normally be prepared for engagements.

In conjunction with the review of each engagement, the reviewer should—

- Review the items in Section 1 and consider whether they have been disclosed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Review selected working papers, including the items listed in Section 2, and consider whether sufficient documentation exists in the working papers evidencing compliance with the applicable professional standards (GAAS or SSARS).

If there are areas in which the reviewer feels there may be a need for improvement, these should be noted on the separate comment sheets attached to this program. The comments should be clear and concise and should describe specific recommendations for improvements. At the completion of the review, these comments should be given to the firm.

1. Disclosures (Applicable to all engagements except for engagements to compile financial statements that omit substantially all required disclosures.)
   a. Accounting changes.
