

1966

TRB&S partners meeting, October 26-28, Chicago

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Quarterly, Vol. 12, no. 4 (1966, December), p. 08-09

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

TRB&S Partners Meeting

October 26-28,
Chicago

After attending a buffet breakfast at 7:00 A.M., the partners donned their badges and got down to business. Just arriving on the scene are William S. Harter from New York and Detroit's Wallace M. Jensen.

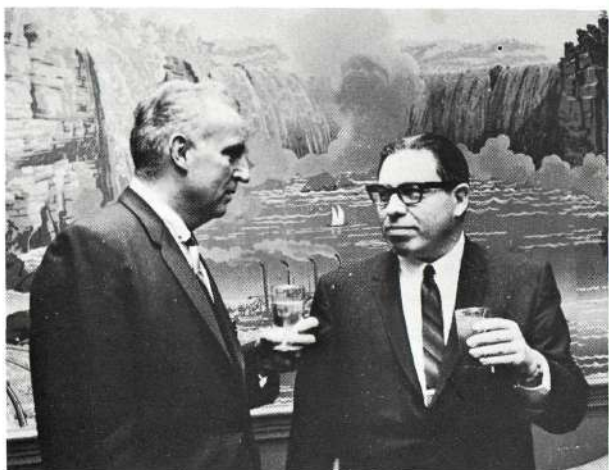

Janet H. Beattie and Betty G. Tomek from the Executive Office were on hand to keep things running smoothly.

Rochester's Gail N. Brown with Lloyd H. Paul from Montreal.

New York's Dennis E. Mulvihill and James G. Carroll from St. Louis were first to approach the luncheon table.

*During the cocktail hour . . .
David W. Muir, Dallas, and Edwin Heft, New York.*

Paul E. Hamman, Detroit, and George A. Coiron, Jr., New Orleans.

At dinner, Kenneth S. Reames, Detroit, was seated next to Los Angeles' George Oh.

William K. Carson from New York and John S. Crawford, Portland, found a quiet corner.

Managing Partner Robert Beyer with San Francisco's Christopher P. Miller.

Among our international partners attending were Glasgow's Maurice Crichton and London's James W. Remnant.