ANNUAL MEETING

Ambitious plans are under way for the joint annual AWSCPA/ASWA convention to be held in Chicago September 17 to 19. Chicago's beautiful Ambassador East Hotel will furnish the accommodations and George Bailey, president of the American Institute of Accountants, will be the banquet speaker. Besides the Saturday night banquet, reports on the substantial accomplishments of the year, a panel discussion on Internal Control headed by Marion A. Frye (newly elected president of ASWA), a Saturday luncheon, a Sunday breakfast at the Edgewater and other special entertainment features are on the program. The convention of the American Institute of Accountants will be held September 19-23 at the Palmer House, Chicago, making it possible for you to attend both conventions in one trip. We urge all members of AWSCPA and ASWA to come to Chicago and stay for both conventions. Those who have attended before need no sales talk.

IT'S WORTH TELLING

Georgia Tech, tough technological school, is opening its doors to engineering-minded females for the first time since its founding in 1888.

"The war proved that women make even better technicians than men," said John E. Sewell of the school's technical institute.

REFLEX

Those there be who think it right
To tell a lie if it is white.
White lies multiplied, you'll find,
Make their teller color-blind.
