Dear Jim:

Ruth and I deeply appreciate the autographed copy of A Life for the Confederacy which you sent. I have read about half of it, and I congratulate you on the great care with which it has been written. The honesty with which it has been done is evidenced by the footnotes. We always enjoy your style of writing, and I commend you on the amount of research and writing that you accomplish.

Best wishes to you always.

Sincerely,

J. D. Williams
Chancellor
