BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dewey Hilton Waits was born on 18 May 1898 in Mantachie, Mississippi. His father, John A. Waits, was an attorney in Leland, Mississippi, where the family moved in 1915. Hilton Waits earned a B.A., J.D., and M.A. in Political Science from the University of Mississippi. He wrote his 1932 M.A. thesis on tax law. After finishing his master's, he returned to Leland and took up the practice of law, representing among others the Washington County Board of Supervisors.

In 1928, Washington County elected Hobson Waits, Hilton's brother, to the Mississippi House of Representatives. When Hobson Waits passed away in 1931, Hilton Waits received an appointment to complete his brother's term in office. A few months later, voters elected him to that same office, which he held until 1960. Waits became the chair of the House Ways and Means Committee in 1944, giving him a great deal of influence, particularly over tax legislation. In 1960, Waits lost reelection race to Deloach Cope, but returned to the Mississippi House of Representatives in 1964. Waits died on 7 May 1964.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Hilton Waits collection is approximately 34.5 linear feet in size, and contains three short series: (1) Personal Files, which contain material related to the Waits family, including school records and correspondence; (2) Political Files, which holds items related to Waits' time in public office, including related correspondence, committee records, and material on tax law; and (3) Law Practice Files, which relate to Waits' law practice, such as correspondence, case files, and tax reports. Waits served as the attorney for Washington County, and the collection includes material related to the Washington County Board of Supervisors, various school districts, and other county matters.
