BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Sidney Foster Graves, Jr. (11 May 1946 – 8 January 2005) was the founder of the Delta Blues Museum in Clarksdale. He graduated from Millsaps College, where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He received a Master of Arts degree from the University of Mississippi and a Master of Library Science degree from Peabody College, now Vanderbilt. He was the director of the South Mississippi Regional Library in Columbia and the director of the Carnegie Public Library in Clarksdale. He was instrumental in the formation of the Tennessee Williams Festival and served as a president of Mississippi Library Association. He was also a recipient of the Blues Foundation's Keeping the Blues Alive Award in 1989, The Early Wright Award, and the Governor's Award for Excellence in the Arts in 1996.
