To the Ole Miss family,

Thank you for your many expressions of support and prayers. Though there are still some uncertainties ahead of us, the results of the treatment for the lymphoma have exceeded expectations. We are a little more than halfway through the chemotherapy treatments with anticipation of a full recovery. My strength is improving rapidly. Just a couple of weeks ago, walking 200 yards was a real challenge. Over the last several days, I've taken walks of more than a mile closer to my usual pace.

I'm in regular contact with other university leaders, staying involved with major issues. Your university continues to thrive because of the strong, talented and committed leadership team.

I hope to see some of you in a few weeks on campus or at an Ole Miss basketball or baseball game.

Dan

Thank You To Our Donors

Young Alumna Gives Back to School of Accountancy

OXFORD, Miss. – Stephanie Jennings Teague, of Chicago, sees her commitment of $100,000 to the Patterson School of Accountancy's new building at the University of Mississippi as a means of saying "thank you." "It is a way to show a small token of my appreciation to Ole Miss, the faculty and staff, and the accounting

Reuters: Keep an Eye on the Money Supply

U.S. inflation roller coaster prompts fresh look at long-ignored money supply By Michael S. Derby NEW YORK – The amount of money sloshing around the U.S. economy shrank last year for the first time on record, a development that some economists believe bolsters the case for U.S. inflation pressures continuing to abate. The Federal Reserve's
