NORTHEAST REGION AMERICAN ACCOUNTING ASSOCIATION INDUCTS THREE MEMBERS INTO ITS HALL OF FAME

The Northeast Region American Accounting Association held its annual meeting in Providence, Rhode Island on April 22-24, 1993. This was the first meeting ever held by the NERAAA in Providence in its forty-two year history. The meeting was hosted by Mark Higgins and Richard Vangermeersch, 1993 Program Co-chairmen, and by the University of Rhode Island. As a part of the meeting, three more members were inducted into the NERAAA Hall of Fame. The three 1993 inductees were: John C. "Sandy" Burton, Professor, Columbia University, for his lifetime of service to the accounting profession and the NERAAA; Michael Schiff, professor-Emeritus, New York University for his chairing the 1964 NERAAA and for his long and excellent record of scholarship in management accounting; and Richard Vangermeersch, Professor, University of Rhode Island for his long-time service to the NERAAA, his efforts as the archivist for the NERAAA, and his co-authorship, with Tony Krzytofik, of its history. The president of the NERAAA, Professor Philip Jagolinzer of the University of Southern Maine, presented certificates to Burton and Vangermeersch. Professor Schiff was unable to attend.

Additional copies of the Vangermeersch and Krzytofik history of the NERAAA were distributed. Individuals who would like a copy can get it from Richard Vangermeersch, 316B Ballentine, URI, Kingston, RI 02881. Telephone 401-792-4338.
