W. CLEMENT EATON, PRESIDENT
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

Oct 4, 1961

Dear Jim, I was pleased to receive your letter telling me that Charles Wesley will comment on my paper. This suits me, and it will not be necessary to take up the matter with Jesus.

I have written to both Bloom and Davis at Gettysburg College. The title of my paper is "What Happened to Culture in the Confederacy," and I hope that I shall have something to say that is not hackneyed.

I have worked very hard this summer and early fall, and recently I sent off my manuscript "The Mind of the Old South" (the Fleming Lectures expanded to include nine chapters) to Louisiana State University Press. I have written the second draft of my presidential address of a ~~now~~ now working on my Gettysburg Paper. Also I have accepted an invitation to give the Mead Lecture at Trinity College Hartford Connecticut on Nov 30 so you see, life is not easy for me.

Advance copies of my volume in the New American Nation series have arrived and I am sending an autographed copy to you. May Jesus be with you!

Cordially,
Clement.
