

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Touche Ross Publications

Deloitte Collection

1967

Faces in the news

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

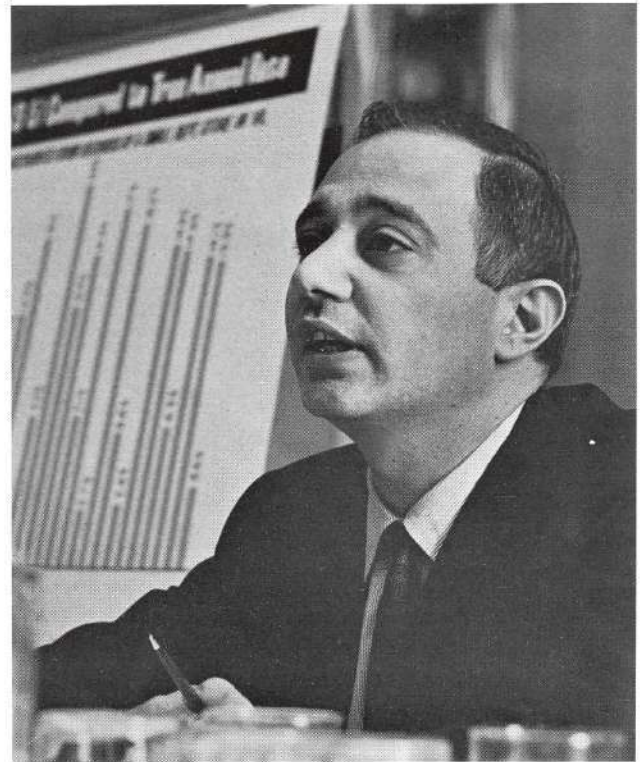

Quarterly, Vol. 13, no. 2 (1967, June), p. 34-35

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Faces in the News

The Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart Foundation recently made a $1500 unrestricted grant to Ohio State University to further the objectives of the accounting department. Shown above are Gregory M. Boni, partner-in-charge of our Cleveland office. Elzy McCullough, chairman of the accounting department at the University, Henry C. Korff, TRB&S director of Recruitment who made the presentation, and Irl C. Wallace, partner-in-charge of our Dayton office.

Milton Leontiades testified before the Subcommittee on Financial Institutions for the Senate Banking Committee when the committee was holding meetings on the Federal truth-in-lending bill. Dr. Leontiades, who is in our New York office, reported on a study prepared by Touche, Ross which was submitted to the Congress by NRMA.

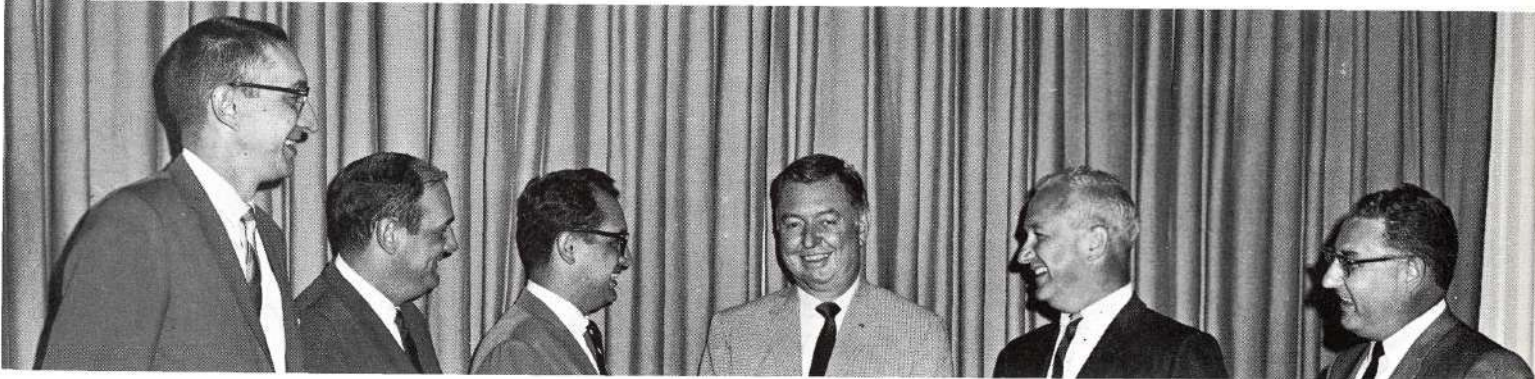

The University of Wisconsin Graduate School of Business, special advisory committee met with representatives of the school's faculty at its spring meeting. Attending this gathering were (left to right, seated): Irwin R. Hansen, 3-M Co., St. Paul; Samuel C. Johnson, S.C. Johnson and Son Inc., Racine; John W. Ullrich of Wipfli, Ullrich and Co., Wausau; Professor E. A. Gaumnitz, dean of school at Madison; Prof. J. Howard Westing; Gerald Stecker, The Trane Co., La Crosse; Robert Beyer, our managing partner; and (standing), Robert P. Gerholz, U.S. Chamber of Commerce; Carl E. Steiger, Deltax Rug Co. Oshkosh, and the UW Board of Regents; Prof. I. V. Fine; William J. Haase, Wisconsin Telephone Co., Milwaukee; Edwin O. Rosten, Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation, Madison; Oscar G. Mayer Jr., Oscar Mayer and Co., Madison; Profs. James B. Bower and W. Donald Knight.

David V. Burchfield, partner in charge of New York management services, was guest lecturer at Harvard for two days in May. His subject was Profitability Accounting.

Jack Adam receives a check for $500 from Irl Wallace, partner in charge in Dayton. Mr. Adam received the award for having the highest passing marks in the state of Ohio in the May 1966 CPA Exam.

(photo A):

(photo B)

Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart has been engaged by a joint airline and travel agent Task Force to perform a nation-wide study of the cost of marketing domestic air travel by both industries. Shown at the signing of the contract are (photo A): George A. Buchanan, executive secretary, Air Traffic Conference; William J. Murdock, AAA World Wide Travel Service; Max F. Sporer, TRB&S, Gordon R. Girvan, president, ASTA; John Stewart, American Express; and Robert J. Hart, Bank of Indiana, representing the Association of Bank Travel Bureaus, (photo B) J. Thomas Presby, TRB&S, Rouvin Feiguine, TWA; Raymond H. Hering, ASTA vice president industry relations; George L. Fichtenbaum, ASTA executive director; and Paul Herman, American Express.