CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE AND ANALYSIS: AN INTEGRAL COMPONENT OF ACCOUNTING EDUCATION IN THE 21st CENTURY

Sponsored by the Academy of Accounting Historians
Atlanta Hilton and Towers—Atlanta, Georgia
December 9-10, 1994

Purpose: The conference will focus on using a historical perspective to add value to accounting education. The conference will provide educators with suggestions and materials so that historical material can be integrated into existing courses.

Conference Structure: The opening session will address the conference theme “using history to add value to accounting education.” This will be followed by sessions on such topics as 1) the incorporation of corporate, firm, and institutional histories into the accounting curriculum, 2) use of history in doctoral education, 3) integration of capital market and regulation history, 4) approaches to integrating history into existing courses, and 5) teaching materials and suggestions for specific courses. Prominent business historians as well as accounting historians will participate as presenters, discussants and hosts so as to increase the scope of the conference to include the relevance of historical perspective to both management and accountability education. Lou Galambos, Professor of History at John Hopkins University, recent past president of the Business History Conference, and current Editor of the Papers of Dwight David Eisenhower, will make the opening address. Manasel Blackford, Professor of History at Ohio State and Historical Perspectives on Business Enterprise Editor, will speak on corporate history.

Submissions: Proposals for papers, panel topics, case materials, teaching material demonstrations [videotape and audiotape] are welcome. The proposals should explain the relevance of the specific item to using historical materials to add value to the learning “experience.” The deadline for submission is July 15, 1994. General information and registration information are available as follows:
