Dear Sir:-

I am informed that you have been elected a delegate to represent your society at the Annual Meeting of the American Association to be held at Atlantic City next October.

I desire to offer the services of my committee in securing hotel accommodations for you and your party, and if you will kindly let me know now or later the possible make-up of same, whether any members of your family will accompany you, and the probable duration of your stay, I shall be very glad to make the necessary reservations for you.

Very truly yours,
