BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Edwin Bennett Ogden, Jr. was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, in 1904. He attended Cathedral High School in Natchez, Mississippi, and became a merchandise broker in his family's company, Ogden & Ogden, which specialized in rice and rice byproducts. As a representative of his company, Ogden moved to Cuba in 1922, where he resided for many years. Ogden also served in the U.S. Army Reserve and as a civilian forage master. In 1936, he married Nancy Allen and they had four children. In 1960, after the Cuban Revolution, Ogden moved back to the United States. At that time, he returned to his family's ancestral home in Natchez. Ogden became an active member of the Republican Party, frequently participating in campaigns and serving in public office. In fact, he was the first Republican elected in Adams County since Reconstruction. Ogden passed away in 1981.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Collection contains correspondence, literature, newspapers, pamphlets, books, and Republican party memorabilia. This material covers a broad range of history and information, but focuses on Cuban and American politics with a special emphasis on the Cuban Revolution and its aftermath as well as American politics and the Republican Party. This collection also contains correspondence between Ogden and some famous individuals, mostly politicians.
