My dear Sir:-

I have the pleasure to send a copy of a letter I have received from the Auditor General of the Audit Department, Perth, Western Australia. Have you a copy of the reports referred to, and can you supply this gentleman with them? If so, I will write him to that effect.

It is interesting to find the Year Book of the Association reaches people in high estate, both far and near.

Yours very truly,

Hubert W. Roberts

Secretary.

ENCL.

C O P Y

Audit Department,

Perth,

3rd February, 1909.

Sir:-

It is noticed in your year book for 1908 that reports have been made by public accountants in connection with Government accounts, viz --

- no forms*
Disbursements # 32
- (a) Treasury Bookkeeping, with classification of accounts and copies of forms.
 - (b) Auditing disbursing officers accounts by check vouchers.
 - (c) Assembling disbursing officers checks and vouchers, and the verification of disbursing officers balances.

I should very much like to get a copy of these reports, and if you could inform me where they are to be had, and cost of same - so that I could remit the money - I should be very much obliged.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(SGD) C. S. TOFFINS

Auditor General
