Faces in the News

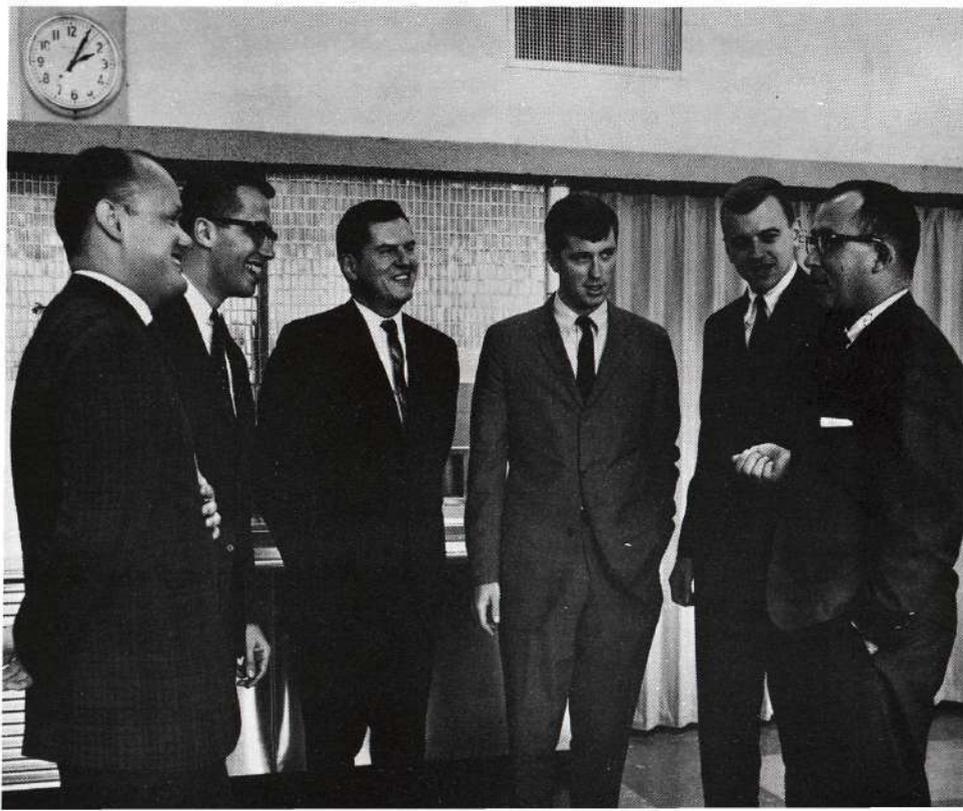

Karney A. Brasfield, partner in charge of our office in Washington, D.C., receives the Robert W. King Medal from Fletcher Lutz, president of the Federal Government Accountants Association. This award is given to one person each year in recognition of service to the organization. FGAA, with thirty-odd chapters organized in 1950, now has 6,000 - plus members. Mr. Brasfield is a founding member and a past national president.

Touche, Ross managing partner Robert Beyer has been a frequent speaker on Management Information Systems in the Space Age during the past few months. His next scheduled appearances will be before National Association of Accountants' chapters in Pittsburgh, Omaha, Buffalo and Worcester.

At the Touche, Ross National Auditing Conference held at the University of Wisconsin, instructors Joseph A. Phillip (Pittsburgh); Stephen A. Findley (Milwaukee) joined with Louis A. Werbaneth, Jr., (partner in charge in Pittsburgh); Phillip B. Foster (Executive office); and instructor Philip R. Vanden Berge (Grand Rapids) in listening to Thomas M. O'Toole (Denver) recounting a humorous experience. Two two-week sessions of this conference were held for new personnel in June.

C. Evans Lawton receives congratulations on his election as president of the New York Chapter of the National Association of Accountants from out-going president, Donald H. Cramer, our national director of personnel. The New York chapter placed third in the Stevenson competition this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Turner, Jr., are shown with the Italian greyhound puppy they purchased at an open auction held by Combined Arts of San Diego, (COMBO), an organization which raises funds for the benefit of the performing and non-performing arts. Mr. Turner is partner in our San Diego office.

Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart verified the awarding of sweepstakes tickets in a recent contest sponsored by Master Consolidated, Inc. in Dayton. Witnessing the drawing for grand prize winner is Herman Olt, partner in our Dayton office, with C.E. Westin, vice president of marketing at Master Consolidated.
