THE ACCOUNTING HISTORIANS JOURNAL

Statement of Policy

The Accounting Historians Journal is an international journal that addresses the development of accounting thought and practice. While the Journal embraces all subject matter related to accounting history, research that provides an historical perspective on, and thus, furthers understanding of contemporary accounting issues is particularly encouraged.

An essential component of the historian's craft is clear and persuasive writing. Accordingly, the editors will consider for publication only well written manuscripts. We encourage authors to use active voice to promote clarity and to highlight the author's responsibility for interpretation of data and conclusions drawn.

Authors may find the following additional guidelines helpful.

1. Authors should provide a clear specification of the research issue or problem addressed and the motivation for the study.

2. Authors should describe the method employed in the research, indicating the extent and manner in which they intend to employ the methodology. The editors encourage manuscripts that draw on a variety of conceptual frameworks and techniques, including those used in other social sciences.

3. Manuscripts that rely on primary sources should contain a statement specifying the original materials or data collected or analyzed and the rationale used in selection of those source materials. We encourage authors to use evidence that is varied, accessible and reliable.

4. Authors who use a critical or new theoretical framework to examine prior historical interpretations of the development of accounting thought or practice should include a brief discussion of the source and rationale for use of that framework in the manuscript.

5. In performing all analyses, authors should be sensitive to and take adequate account of the social, political, economic and cultural conditions of the time period being examined.

6. While historians have long debated the ability to assign causation to particular factors, we encourage authors to address and evaluate the probable influences related to the problems or issues examined.

7. Authors should clearly state all their interpretations of results and conclusions drawn. Interpretations and conclusions should be clearly linked to the research problem and data used in the study. We encourage authors to emphasize the relevance of the study to contemporary practice, education and/or research as appropriate. Authors also should state the implications of the study for future research.
Manuscripts must be in English and of acceptable style and organization for clarity of presentation. Submit three copies, typewritten, double spaced on one side of 8½ x 11 inch (approx. 28.5 cm x 28.0 cm) white paper; paragraphs should be indented. The manuscript should not exceed 7,000 words and margins should be wide enough to facilitate editing and duplication. All pages, including bibliographic pages, should be serially numbered. Manuscripts should be run through a spellcheck software program or similar review prior to submission.

Cover Sheet The cover sheet should state the title of the paper, name(s) of author(s), affiliation(s), the address for future correspondence and the FAX number or EMAIL address (or both) of the author designated as the contact person for the manuscript.

Abstract An abstract of not more than 100 words should accompany the manuscript on a separate page. The title, but not the name(s) of the author(s) should appear on the abstract page and on the first page of the manuscript.

Submission fee A submission fee of $36 (U.S.) for non Academy members or a reduced fee of $15 (U.S.) for Academy members should accompany all submissions. Manuscripts currently under review by other publications should not be submitted.

Major headings within the manuscript should be centered, underlined, and unnumbered with the first letter of major words capitalized. Subheadings should be on a separate line beginning flush with the left margin, and underlined with the first letter of major words capitalized. Third level headings should lead into the paragraph, be underlined, and followed by a period; text should immediately follow on the same line.

Tables, Figures, and Exhibits should be numbered (arabic), titled, and, when appropriate, referenced. Limited use of original documents can be accommodated in the Journal if authors can provide glossy black and white prints at least 5 x 7. Important textual materials may be presented in both the original language and the English translation. Tables and similar items must be discussed in the text and will not be included unless they lend support to the text.
Literature References

Footnotes should not be used for literature references. The work cited should be referenced using the author's name and date of publication in the body of the text, inside square brackets, i.e., Garner [1954, p. 33], [Mills, Fall 1979, p. 52]. If the author's name is mentioned in the text, it need not be repeated, i.e., Garner [1954, p. 33] concluded .... If a reference has more than three authors, only the first name and et al should be used in the text citation. References to statutes, legal treatises or court cases should follow the accepted form of legal citation. All references, whether to direct quotations or to paraphrased material, should contain page numbers.

Content Footnotes

Content footnotes may be used sparingly to expand upon or comment upon the text itself. These should be numbered consecutively throughout the manuscript and should appear at the bottom of page on which the reference appears.

Bibliography

A bibliography of works cited should appear at the end of the manuscript. The works cited should be listed alphabetically according to the surname of the first author. Information about books and journals should include the following information — Books, author(s), title underlined, place of publication, name of publisher, date of publication; Journals, author(s), article title with quotation marks, Journal title underlined, date of issue in parenthesis, page numbers. Multiple works by an author should be listed in chronological order; if multiple works appear in a single year, the suffix, a, b, etc. should be used to identify each work.

For questions of style not covered above, authors should consult a style manual such as Turabian, Kate L., A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, published by the University of Chicago Press.

Diskette When a manuscript has been accepted for publication, authors will be asked to submit a diskette (either 5¼ or 3½) with the final manuscript. The diskette should be prepared in IBM compatible ASCII File format.

Galley proofs will be sent to the author(s) as permitted by scheduling; however, additions of new material must be strictly limited.
Complementary Copies and Reprints

Author(s) will be provided with 3 copies of the Journal issue in which the manuscript is published. Reprints may be ordered from the printer; the minimum order is 100. The printer will establish the price and bill the author(s) directly for the cost of the reprints.

Communications Section

An important purpose of the Journal is to stimulate debate regarding accounting theory and practice. In pursuit of this objective, the editors will consider for publication letters commenting upon or responding to articles or reviews published in the Journal. Letters should be addressed “To the Editor” and should not exceed 1000 words; they will appear in a separate section of the Journal, entitled “Communications.”
