CPA EXAMINATION/MAY 1965

The Firm extends hearty congratulations to more than 80 members of the staff who successfully completed the CPA Examination in May 1965. And we are proud to report that Richard L. Hunt won Honorable Mention in competition for the American Institute's Elijah Watt Sells Awards; John E. Kessler received this distinction in the November 1964 examination, along with two others already named in our last issue. Dick Hunt sat for the examination while he was still in college. He joined our Los Angeles staff in June, when he graduated from Loyola University (L.A.) with a BBA degree. John Kessler spent the summer of 1963 in our Dallas Office after graduating with high honors from the University of Illinois. He returned to Urbana for graduate work, held a teaching assistantship under Professor C. A. Moyer, and came to our Chicago Office with an MAS degree this June.

The Haskins & Sells CPA Examination Study Guide apparently continues to improve substantially a candidate's chances of success. For 12 weeks before the examination it helps him to devote 18 hours a week to systematic preparation, guided by a study director with whom he meets regularly and who reviews with him his answers to practice examinations. The course draws on the Firm's years of experience in helping candidates reach a peak of readiness for passing this first and all-important milestone in their careers.
