Office of the President

165 Broadway, New York City

August 24, 1911.

DEAR SIR:

It is to be hoped very much that you will be able to attend the convention of the American Association of Public Accountants in San Francisco, from September 18th to 22nd. Every possible preparation for an exceedingly enjoyable time has been made by the California Society, and the sessions should prove occasions of great benefit and pleasure.

Full programmes of the arrangements made for us will shortly be sent you, and you have already received information as to routes and rates of fare. Should any information be lacking, it will be supplied gladly, so far as possible.

Hoping that you will be able to attend, and that those who attend may have the pleasure of meeting you and any ladies who may accompany you, I am,

Cordially yours,

EDWARD L. SUFFERN,

President.
