American Association of Public Accountants

Chicago, August 12th, 1912.

To the Members of

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF
PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Committee on Annual Meeting of The American Association of Public Accountants, acting with a like Committee of the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants, have prepared and enclose the official program of the proceedings arranged for the Annual Meeting to be held in Chicago, September 16th to 20th, 1912, and earnestly requests each member to attend and bring the ladies of his family.

In order that the Committee may proceed with the necessary arrangements it is essential that they should know approximately the number of members and their friends who are likely to attend the Convention, and it will therefore be of great assistance to the Committee if you will kindly indicate on the enclosed blank whether or not it is your purpose to be present, and the number you expect will be in your party. The Committee will also be glad to reserve such hotel accommodation as you may require, if you will kindly so indicate. Unless otherwise requested, rooms will be reserved at the Convention Headquarters, the "La Salle Hotel."
