AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

SEPTEMBER 18 TO SEPTEMBER 22, 1911

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, Cal., June 15, 1911

To the Members of the American Association of Public Accountants.

Dear Sirs:

The 1911 Annual Meeting of the Association will be held in San Francisco on September 19th, 20th and 21st at the St. Francis Hotel.

The Annual Meeting Committee, acting in co-operation with the California State Society of Certified Public Accountants, has arranged the following tentative program for the meeting:

Monday, September 18, 1911:

Trustees' Meeting, 10:00 A. M.

Afternoon, 4 to 6, Reception.

Evening—Announcement later.

Tuesday, September 19, 1911:

Forenoon, Business Meeting.

Afternoon, Paper by Mr. John P. Young,
editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, on "Public Accounting in Antiquity."

Paper by Professor H. Rand Hatfield on "Some Variations in Accounting Practice."

Evening, Trip through Golden Gate Park and informal dinner at Cliff House.

Wednesday, September 20, 1911:

Forenoon—Election of officers and completion of business.

Afternoon—Paper by Waldron H. Rand of Boston, Mass.
(Subject to be announced later.)

Evening—Open.

Thursday, September 21, 1911:

Forenoon and Afternoon—Trip to Mt. Tamalpais and Muir Woods, installation of officers at top of Mountain; luncheon at Muir Tavern or in Redwood Canyon.

Evening—Banquet.

Friday, September 22, 1911:

Golf Tournament.

This preliminary announcement is made at this time to remind members of the meeting in September and in the hope that many will now make arrangements so that they can visit the Pacific Coast at that time.

Further announcements will be made later, but if in the meantime any member desires information or suggestions regarding points of interest on the various routes to the Pacific Coast, the Committee will be glad to advise him.
