CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS
1997 VANGERMEERSCH MANUSCRIPT AWARD
THE ACADEMY OF ACCOUNTING HISTORIANS

The Academy of Accounting Historians invites accounting faculty, who hold full-time appointment and received his or her masters/doctorate within seven years previous to date of submission, to submit a historical manuscript on any aspect of accounting for consideration of its 1997 Vangermeersch Manuscript Award. The Academy established this award in 1988 to encourage young academic scholars to pursue historical research.

Manuscripts must conform to the style and length requirements of the Accounting Historians Journal, be the work of one author, and not have been previously published or under review. Six copies of each manuscript should be submitted by June 15, 1997, to:

Professor Donna L. Street
School of Accountancy
College of Business
James Madison University
Harrisburg, VA 22807
Phone: (540) 568-3089
e-mail: streetdl@jmu.edu

A cover letter which identifies the author’s mailing address, date of receiving masters/doctoral degree, and a statement that the manuscript has not been published and is not currently being considered for publication should be included in the submission. Manuscripts are evaluated by the committee using a blind review process. A $500 stipend and a certificate of recognition of achievement in historical research is awarded. The manuscript will be published in the Accounting Historians Journal after an appropriate review.

A SILENT AUCTION

The Academy sponsored a “Silent Auction” of books at the December conference in Cleveland. The purpose of the auction is to provide members and registrants at the conference the opportunity to obtain classic or out-of-print books and publications at a price likely to be below used book dealer prices. Jeanette Sanfilippo has announced that donated materials such as trade books, business, or economics were greatly appreciated.

As it is possible that such events will be continued in the future, she would like to hear from you (314-529-9571) if you are interested or have items which may be donated for such purposes. The Accounting History Research Center has provided a tentative list of available items to be included in the 1997 silent auction. This list, provided below for your information, is expected to be placed on Academy’s web site (http://weatherhead.cwru.edu/Accounting)
