THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE
STATE OF NEW YORK, 20TH OF AUGUST, 1887

Office of the Secretary, 55 Liberty Street, New York.

July 15, 1914.

To the Members of
The American Association of Public Accountants.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the provisions of Article II, section I of the by-laws of the American Association of Public Accountants, I hereby give notice that the regular annual meeting of this association will be held at Washington, D. C., September 15th, 16th and 17th, 1914.

As provided by Article VII, section I of the constitution of this association, I also give notice that at the said annual convention the following suggested amendments to the constitution and by-laws will be submitted for consideration of members:

CONSTITUTION, to wit— Article II, Section 7.

Strike out the third and fourth lines, ending with the word "trustees" and substitute "the Secretary thereof shall report such member to the Secretary of this Association, provided such member shall possess the qualifications necessary for his admission as a fellow to this Association, but not otherwise, unless such member shall himself request that he be admitted as an Associate; and upon his election by the Board of Trustees such member"

BY-LAWS, to wit— Article V, Section 4.

Make the present Section 4 paragraph (a) and add paragraph (b) as follows:

"No dues shall be required to be paid by any state or district society for those of its members who may not be entitled to become Society Fellows of this Association, unless at their own request they shall become Associates of this Association."

Yours very truly,

A. P. RICHARDSON,

Secretary.
