Dr. Joseph Holt,
New Orleans, La.

Dear Sir:-

I have read the articles and letters concerning the death of the brave and gallant Jere Gage on the battlefield of Gettysburg with much interest. In some of the articles the name of "James Howell" appears, he is now living in this town, Ripley, Miss., and remembers every detail of the sad scene. His name, however, is not Howell, but Howell. James C. Howell. He is old and his eyesight is not good but his general health is very good and his mind as clear as a bell. He speaks very tenderly of you and of your great services to the Confederacy. I presume to write you this letter simply because his name was connected with the story and I thought you would like to know that he is still living. I am sending a copy of this letter to Mrs. V. G. Armistead and to the Times-Democrat.

With highest respect, I am yours very truly,

Al Anderson
