OFFICE OF

HENRY R. M. COOK, C. P. A.,
 CHAIRMAN
 141 BROADWAY
 NEW YORK CITY

Dear Sir:—

The Committee on Arrangements desires to remind you that the Annual Convention of the American Association of Public Accountants will be held in New York, commencing Monday, October 17th, 1910, and extending to and including the following Thursday.

The New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants has tendered its hospitalities, and has undertaken a program which should be most pleasing, to all who may attend the Convention.

In view of the fact that the Committee on Arrangements of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Committee on Arrangements of the American Association of Public Accountants are acting jointly, further notices will be issued under the auspices of the Joint Committee. While it is anticipated that the Convention of 1910 will be one of the most successful meetings ever held, in order to secure the accomplishment of our desires, it is necessary to have the full and hearty cooperation of all the members of the Society so that the program adopted may be carried out, and all requisite arrangements made in advance for the comfort and pleasure of those who will be present with us.

Your attention is called to the accompanying communication from the Joint Committee on Arrangements.

Very truly yours,

HENRY R. M. COOK

141 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, August 15th, 1910

Dear Sir:—

The Joint-Committee on Arrangements for the Convention of 1910, representing the consolidated committees on arrangement, appointed by the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the American Association of Public Accountants, takes pleasure in announcing that the Convention will be held in New York, commencing Monday, October 17, extending to and including the following Thursday.

The headquarters of the Convention will be located at the Hotel Astor, which has been chosen by reason of its central situation, admirable facilities, and moderate rates for the best service and accommodation.

The New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, upon being advised of the choice of New York City as the place of Convention, forthwith passed the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants hereby extends a hearty welcome to the American Association of Public Accountants at the Convention to be held in the City of New York, October 1910.”

In addition to the foregoing, arrangements were immediately made for receiving the American Association of Public Accountants, and a special Committee was appointed for the purpose.

The tentative program which has been adopted is as follows:

Monday, October 17, 1910:

11 a. m. Board of Trustees.

4 to 6 p. m. Reception by ladies at Hotel Astor under auspices of the N. Y. State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

8 p. m. Theatre Party.

Tuesday, October 18, 1910:

10:30 a. m. Convention.

Address of Welcome.

Address by Dr. Elmer E. Brown, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

2:30 p. m. Convention.

Address by Mr. W. H. Roberts of Chicago.

7 p. m. "At Home" and Beefsteak Dinner at Healey's, 65th Street
by N. Y. State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Wednesday, October 19, 1910:

10:30 a. m. Convention.

Address by Mr. R. M. Chapman, C. P. A.

2:30 p. m. Convention.

Election of Officers, &c.

Report of the Committee on Terminology and Discussion thereon.

(This evening will be left free so that visiting members may have time for social engagements.)

Thursday, October 20, 1910:

10:30 a. m. Convention.

Meeting of new Board of Trustees.

Election of Executive Committee.

7:30 p. m. Annual Banquet.

The Joint-Committee is extremely desirous that all members of the American Association of Public Accountants shall attend the Convention, if possible, and bring their friends. In order that the number to be cared for may be approximately ascertained and that the necessary arrangements may be perfected, will you please fill out and promptly return the enclosed card, stating whether or not you are likely to be present, and the probable number of your party.

In anticipation of your kind co-operation, we beg to remain,

Very truly yours,
