EXTRACTS FROM CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

(CONSTITUTION) ARTICLE II.

MEMBERS AND THEIR ELECTION.

SECTION 1. "The admission and election of members (other than Honorary) shall be determined by the Board of Trustees, who may, in their absolute discretion, by resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting, refuse to admit or elect any person to either degree of membership whom they may deem unfit and unsuitable; or suspend for future consideration any application for admission for such time as they may deem desirable; they may re-admit to membership any person who has ceased to be a member of the Association by resignation, provided satisfactory causes for such resignation and re-admission be submitted to them."

SEC. 3. The members shall be divided into two classes:—Fellows and Associates.

SEC. 4. The Fellows shall consist of accountants who have been in continuous practice on their own account for three years previous to their admission, and who must pass such examination as to their fitness as shall be prescribed by the Board of Trustees, and who shall be citizens or have declared their intentions to become such.

SEC. 5. The Associates shall consist of Junior Certificated Accountants, clerks in the employment of Members of the Association and of such as are eligible to membership and who apply to be admitted Associates.

(BY-LAWS) ARTICLE VI.
