

University of Mississippi

eGrove

American Institute of Accountants

Deloitte Collection

5-1-1897

I wish you would sign the enclosed form, being an application for membership in the Certified Public Accountants Association

Frank Broaker

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_aia

Part of the Accounting Commons

New York, May 1, 1897.

My Dear Sir:-

For the further advancement of accountancy in the State of New York, and your duty towards the profession and the American Association of Public Accountants, I wish you would sign the enclosed form; being an application for membership in the Certified Public Accountants Association.

As you are now a member of the American Association of Public Accountants in good standing, there will be $1. initiation fee in your case, and no dues to be paid this year; and furthermore the annual dues in the future will not exceed $5.

This association will organize with a membership of between 50 or 60 C. P. A. accountants of the State of New York. Kindly further the same by signing the enclosed blank, and return same promptly to me.

Faithfully yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Frank Brooker". The signature is written in dark ink and is underlined with a thick, dark horizontal stroke.

New York May 1, 1897

Mr Frank Brewster CPA Secum
Organizational Committee

151 Nassau St

For the further advancement of accountancy in the State of New York, and your duty towards the profession and the American

Dear Sir

Association of Public Accountants, I wish you would sign the enclosed form; being an application for membership in the Certified Public Accountants Association. I sign my name to the enclosed register of the Certified Public Accountant Association and the annual dues are understood to be waived for the year and not to be paid for in the future. The association will of course thank you for your kind-ly further the same by signing the enclosed blank, and return same notification of the organization meeting of the Certified Public Accountant Association

~~Very truly yours~~ H W M

Address 6 Broadway

Date May 1st New York N.Y