ARTICLE II.

MEMBERS AND THEIR ELECTION.

SECTION 1. "The admission and election of members (other than Honorary) shall be determined by the Board of Trustees who may in their absolute discretion by resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting refuse to admit or elect any person to either degree of membership, whom they may deem unfit and unsuitable; or suspend for future consideration any application for admission for such time as they may deem desirable; they may re-admit to membership any person who has ceased to be a member of the Association by resignation, provided satisfactory causes for such resignation and re-admission be submitted to them."

SEC. 3. The members shall be divided into four classes:—Resident members who are Certified Public Accountants, Resident Members elected prior to 19th January, 1897, Non-resident Members and Associates.

SEC. 4. The Non-resident Members shall consist of accountants who have been in continuous practice on their own account for three years previous to their admission and who must pass such examination as to their fitness as shall be prescribed by the Board of Trustees, and who shall be citizens or have declared their intentions to become such.

SEC. 5. The Associates shall consist of Junior Certificated Accountants of New York and such others as are clerks in the employment of Members of the Association.

ARTICLE VI.

INITIATION FEES AND DUES.

The following shall be the initiation fees:

SECTION 1. By a Fellow † on admission, without becoming an Associate, $25.00.

SEC. 2. By an Associate on becoming a Fellow, $15.00.

SEC. 3. By an Associate on admission, $10.00.

The following shall be the annual dues:

By each Fellow, $15.00, and by each Associate, $10.00. Such fee, hereinafter styled "The Annual Certificate Fee," shall be due and payable in January of each year, or at the date of a member's election or admission, or beginning to practice, and until payment thereof no annual certificate of membership shall be issued. Such dues to terminate on the 31st day of December of each year, and to be apportioned in the first instance to the end of the fiscal year.

† A "Fellow" must be in practice for himself.
