EDITORIAL

A review of the 1950-1951 activities of AWSCPA and ASWA show that this was a year of great accomplishments. We express our sincere gratitude to the retiring officers of both societies who performed a splendid job during this past year at the cost of much personal time and energy.

To the new officers, who are looking forward to a year of continued growth and success, we pledge our loyal support and co-operation.

The new presidents are introduced on pages 6 and 7. The other officers and directors are introduced below:

AWSCPA

Helen F. McGillicuddy of Chicago, Illinois, first vice-president, served the Society previously as second vice-president, treasurer and director. She is editor of The Woman C.P.A. After graduation from Northwestern University, School of Commerce, she enrolled at De Paul University College of Law, from which school she was graduated. She is on the staff of David Himmelblau & Co., CPA's, and is a lecturer in accounting at Northwestern University. Her membership in professional organizations include the AIA, the Illinois Society of CPA's, Chicago Bar Association, Women's Bar Association of Illinois, and Kappa Beta Pi, international legal sorority.

Rosemary Hoban of Detroit, Michigan, second vice-president, was secretary of AWSCPA during 1949-1950 and 1950-1951. A graduate of the University of Detroit, she is on the staff of Touche, Niven, Bailey & Smart, CPA's. She is a past president of the Detroit Chapter of ASWA, as well as a past national director of ASWA. She is a member of the AIA and the Michigan Society of CPA's.

Elinor Hill of Clifton, New Jersey, secretary, has rendered valuable service to both Societies in the past. She was the national secretary of ASWA during 1949-1950 and a director of AWSCPA for the past year. She is a past president of the New York Chapter of ASWA. A graduate of Rutgers University with a B.S. in Finance, she is a partner in the public accounting firm of H. B. Richardson & Co.

Mary J. McCann of Kansas City, Missouri, treasurer, holds CPA certificates from Kansas and Missouri. She did a splendid job as Chairman of the Membership Committee of AWSCPA for 1949-1950 and 1950-1951. She is vice-president of the Kansas City Chapter of ASWA. She is a graduate of the School of Business of the University of Kansas, and she is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary business society, AIA, Kansas Society of CPA's. She is a staff member of Davey & Rader, CPA's.

mittee. She is on the Taxation Committee of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce. She is a past president of the Seattle Chapter. Engaged in her own public accounting practice, she is a member of the AIA, Washington Society of CPA's, and of the AWSCPA, serving this Society as director during the current year.

Frances H. Sadauskas, CPA, of Chicago, Illinois, second vice-president, previously served the Society as a Director and Chairman of the Research Committee. She is a graduate of the University of Chicago, having received her A.B. degree. She also received her B.S. in Accounting from the Walton School of Commerce. She is a CPA in both Indiana and Illinois. She is a partner in the public accounting firm of J. P. Varkala & Company. She is a past president of the Chicago Chapter. Her professional affiliations include the Illinois Society of CPA's, AWSCPA, and the Chicago Savings and Loan Association.

Hazel Brooks Scott of Los Angeles, California, secretary, is well known to members of both Societies as she formerly served The Woman C.P.A. as its Coast-to-Coast editor. For many years, she was associated with Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery in Los Angeles as a reviewer of accountants' reports and working papers. She previously served the Los Angeles Chapter as a director and as bulletin editor.

Virginia Wood of Atlanta, Georgia is serving her second year as treasurer. Previously she served the Society as director and chairman of the membership committee. She is a graduate of Agnes Scott College, and she has also done graduate work at Emory University and the University of Chicago. She is Security Analyst for the Trust Company of Georgia. She is a member of the Association of Bank Women, and a member of their Board of Directors, Treasurer and Chairman of Business Administration of Atlanta Y.W.C.A., and President of the Atlanta Society, Archaeological Institute of America.

NEW COAST-TO-COAST EDITOR

A sincere expression of gratitude is extended to Hazel Brooks Scott, our retiring Coast-to-Coast editor, who has been elected Secretary of ASWA. We thank her for her fine contributions and co-operation during her term of office.

We introduce with this issue our new Coast-to-Coast editor, Mary Charlotte Tonna of the San Francisco Chapter. She is a senior in the evening division of the University of San Francisco. She is on the staff of LeRoy S. Drake & Co., public accountants in San Francisco. She is serving her ASWA chapter as corresponding secretary for the current year. We welcome her to the editorial staff.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Washington and Richmond Chapters are to be congratulated upon the excellence of the Joint Annual Meeting held October 4-7, 1951 at the Hotel Washington, Washington, D. C.

National Board Meetings were held on Thursday evening. Registration opened on Friday morning, followed by the Joint Business Meeting. Edith Moore, AWSCPA president, presided over this meeting. A welcome greeting was extended by Frances V. Keogh, President of the District of Columbia Chapter and the response was made by Marie Reynolds, President of the San Francisco Chapter. Joint reports were discussed and comments were made from the floor. This meeting was followed by a beautiful luncheon held in the Washington Room. Vera Jean Bobsene presided over the panel discussion which was conducted after the luncheon. The theme of the panel discussion was "The Accountant's Problems Arising From the National Emergency Program." The able speakers on the panel were Shirley T. Moore, Washington, D. C., Marguerite Reimers, Seattle, Wash., and Helen F. McGillicuddy, Chicago, Ill.

The Chapter Presidents' meeting was held on Saturday morning, as well as the individual business meetings of AWSCPA and ASWA. The new boards of both societies held their opening meetings on Saturday afternoon.

Preceding the banquet on Saturday evening, a lovely reception was held on the Sky Terrace. The banquet was a fitting climax to a wonderful meeting. Each of the retiring presidents presented an inspiring message. The address of the evening was made by Miss Helen F. Humphrey, Chairman of the National Enforcement Commission who spoke on "Wage Stabilization: A Weapon in the Battle for Democracy." The presentation of the AWSCPA Award to the San Francisco Chapter was made by Ethleen Lasseter, Award Chairman, and second and third place plaques were presented to the District of Columbia, and Grand Rapids Chapters.

A delightful brunch was held on Sunday morning at the Shoreham Hotel. Everyone left the meeting with the satisfaction of having renewed old acquaintances, made new friendships and with a determination to further the aims of both societies.

OHIO JOINT MEETING

The Ohio Joint Meeting of the ASWA will be held at the Fort Hayes Hotel, Columbus, Ohio on November 10, 1951. Participating chapters will be Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland and Toledo.
