An increasing amount of research in accounting history is being published throughout the world in various books and periodicals other than those published by the Academy. The editors provide this section of The Notebook to identify accounting history research which may be of interest and use by the Academy membership. We encourage readers of The Notebook to advise us of the many such publications in an effort to provide the broadest coverage and recognition of accounting history research.

1999 BUSINESS HISTORY CONFERENCE

The 1999 Business History Conference will be held on March 5-7, at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Gary Previts, Case Western Reserve University, reports that plans have been made to include two sessions on accounting history at the conference. Suggested issues and topics include regional discrepancies in GAAP development, accounting procedures for philanthropic and not-for-profit organizations, and how corporations account for social benefits. Please contact Gary in regard to information on submitting a paper at (216) 368-2074 or Email: gjp@po.cwru.edu.
