FLEISCHMAN RECEIVES THE HOURGLASS

The Academy of Accounting Historians gives annually the Hourglass Award to an individual or individuals who have made significant contributions to accounting history through research and publication. This award is the most prestigious award given by the Academy. The 1999 Hourglass Award was presented to Dr. Richard K. Fleischman of John Carroll University in recognition of his lifetime of contributions to research and publication in accounting history.

Dr. Fleischman has achieved recognition as a preeminent accounting history scholar and an international reputation for his work

Drs. Tom Lee and Richard K. Fleischman

in early British cost accounting practices. Garland Press published a compendium of his research in early British cost accounting in a monograph co-authored with Dr. Lee Parker. He has presented papers all over the world and published in numerous prestigious journals including those of conventional and critical natures. He has served on editorial boards of several history journals and serves as the editor of the Accounting Historians Journal. The Hourglass Award is a tribute to more than a decade of scholarly contributions by Dr. Fleischman to accounting history and service to the Academy of Accounting Historians.

CALL FOR PAPERS • ACCOUNTING HISTORY: INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

The Academy of Accounting Historians and Drexel University are sponsoring an international accounting history colloquium to be held at Drexel University on Sunday, August 13, 2000, prior to the start of the AAA National Meeting in Philadelphia.

All relevant historical papers will be considered (e.g. archival, theoretical, critical, biographical, contemporary history). Send 3 copies of the completed paper, which must include an abstract of not more than 500 words, to:

Professor Alan G. Mayer
Department of Accounting, COBA
P.O. Box 305219
University of North Texas, Denton, TX 76205-5219

The deadline for paper submissions has been extended to April 15, 2000.

The all day colloquium will include plenary and panel sessions that examine historical relevance in international standard setting and international trends in historical research.

Registration materials will be distributed in early 2000. The registration fee for the conference is $10. The conference will qualify for up to six hours of CPE.

TRUSTEES...continued from page 32

- The Academy will consider a request for monetary support of the Archive at its next meeting. It was suggested that a page of the Notebook could be donated to solicit donations from members. It was also suggested that the fund set aside to support researchers using the Centers could be extended to the Chambers Archive.

b. Budget 1999/2000

- Moved that the budget as presented be approved.
  - Moved to amend the budget to reflect the commitment to the 8th World Congress of Accounting Historians ($3,000) and to allow for higher printing costs for the Notebook ($1,000). The amended motion was passed
