Accounting Historians: Presentation of the 1999 Enrique Fernandez Pena Accounting History Award

ture review section of their dissertation.

2. Academy members at doctoral granting institutions should encourage doctoral candidates to write dissertations on accounting history topics, or at the minimum, encourage them to include some coverage of accounting history - relevant to their particular research topic - in the literature review chapter.

Implementation

The Committee is currently in the process of collecting course syllabi from Academy members that either teach an accounting history course or integrate accounting history topics into other accounting courses they teach. The Committee is also in the process of collecting information on resource materials (e.g. articles, books, etc.) that illustrate how accounting history can be integrated into curricula. The collected materials will be organized and posted on the Academy's web page.

PRESENTATION OF THE 1999 ENRIQUE FERNANDEZ PENA ACCOUNTING HISTORY AWARD

The tenth congress of the AECA in Zaragoza, September 23-25, 1999, provided the opportunity to announce the person chosen to receive the Enrique Fernandez Pena Accounting History Award for 1999. A bronze trophy was sculptured by Jose Luis Fernandez based on the drawing named Exacedron Abscisus Vacuus by Leonardo da Vinci to illustrate the work of his good friend, Luca Pacioli. The award was first made in 1995 in honor of the memory of professor and accounting professional, Enrique Fernandez Pena, a founding member of AECA and principal force of the Accounting History Commission. Each year the award is given for a major study of accounting history in any of the Iberian languages published or presented during the year prior to June 30 of the year of the award.

For the fourth edition of the award, nineteen works complied with the requirements.

The selection committee unanimously chose the book, Els orígens de la Banca Pública. Les Taules de Canvi Municipals by Josep Maria Passola. This book provided an extensive and important study, based on primary sources, about the Taules de Canvi of the kingdom of Aragon and especially about Taules de Canvi de Vic. These institutions constituted the first public banks and laws established by the initiative of the city populations were located. The Taula de Canvi of Barcelona was founded in 1401 and served as a model for those established in the mediterranean area.
