in the past. There is some probability that contemplated changes in the Income Tax Law may permit Organization Expense to be written off.

The second accounting procedure is to write this account off over a period of two to five years even though the deduction in valuation is not allowable for tax purposes. This procedure can affect the stockholders to some extent in that Surplus available for dividends is reduced by the charge to the Profit and Loss statements. However, either method appears satisfactory.

A little more determination, a little more pluck, a little more work—that's luck.
