

11-12-1962

Joe to Jim, 12 November 1962

Joe E. Elmore

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_corr

Recommended Citation

Elmore, Joe E., "Joe to Jim, 12 November 1962" (1962). Correspondence. 634.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_corr/634

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the James W. Silver Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

EARLHAM COLLEGE

RICHMOND, INDIANA

November 12, 1962

Mr. James Silver
The University of Mississippi
University, Mississippi

Dear Jim:

Last week was so hectic I barely kept my nose above water, hence I didn't write. Many thanks for the piece on Faulkner. I am having fifty more copies of the "Who Is To Blame" article mimeographed and sent to you.

Many people have expressed to me their appreciation for your visit. And I want to add mine. It was good to have you with us. Incidentally, would you like to do more of this sort of thing? If so, I can pass the word to people I know in colleges in the area and I am confident you would get invitations.

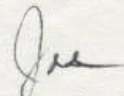

We had a little flurry here after you left as a result of the Palladium-Item's coverage of your speech. Merrill Root wrote a letter to the paper from Connecticut (where he is now living) blasting your statement about him. But it's all blown over now.

I will send you the MS of your paper in the near future.

Glad to hear Duncan Gray is still around.

Best regards to you and Dutch.

Sincerely,

Joe E. Elmore

JEE:nr