Buckmaster Awarded the Hourglass

Each year the Academy of Accounting Historians presents the Hourglass Award to an individual or individuals for contributions to accounting history through research and publication. The Hourglass Award is the most prestigious award given by the Academy. The 2002 Hourglass Award was presented to Dr. Dale A. Buckmaster of the University of Delaware for his recently published monograph, Development of the Income Smoothing Literature, 1893-1998: a Focus on the United States. Dr. Buckmaster is a long-time member of the Academy.

Dr. Dale Buckmaster receives the Hourglass from Dr. William Samson, President of the Academy at the Academy Research Conference on August 13, 2002, in San Antonio, Texas.
