The Hourglass Award

Finley Graves presents Hourglass Award to Dan Guy who accepted the award for Steve Zeff. The Academy of Accounting Historians has established the Hourglass Award which is presented annually to the person or persons who have made a noteworthy contribution to the study of accounting history. In the past award recipients have been authors or editors of books, authors of significant article series and others as appropriate.

Nominations are taken in the summer for presentation at the Academy's annual meeting.

2001 Vangermeersch Manuscript Award

Finley Graves presents the 2001 Vangermeersch Manuscript Award to Maria Macias of St. Louis University in Madrid, Spain for her paper "Privatization and Management Accounting Systems Change: The Case of the 19th Century Spanish Tobacco Monopoly" which she presented at the Academy's annual Meeting. In 1988, The Academy of Accounting Historians established an annual manuscript award to encourage academic scholars new to the field to pursue historical research. An historical manuscript on any aspect of the field of accounting, broadly defined, is appropriate for submission.
