

12-19-1962

Jack to Jim, 19 December 1962

John R. Hubbard

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_corr

Recommended Citation

Hubbard, John R., "Jack to Jim, 19 December 1962" (1962). Correspondence. 651.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jws_corr/651

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the James W. Silver Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

NEWCOMB COLLEGE

Tulane University

NEW ORLEANS 18, LA.

Office of the Dean

December 19, 1962

Dear Jim:

For a long time I have been hoping for and yet dreading your letter, dreading it because I knew you would not write until things became absolutely unbearable. You and Dutch have been much on my mind these last weeks, for I know things must have been ghastly there. Unfortunately, I am not going to be at the Chicago meeting, but with your permission I am making discreet inquiries at the University of Texas, at Rice, and here, and I shall keep you posted on the developments. Of course, as you know, I want you here, but mainly I want you anywhere that you can breathe some fresh air. My motto is "never tire of doing good."

It was good to hear from you, and I will be back in touch with you after the first of the year.

My best to you and Dutch for a happy holiday season.

As ever,

John R. Hubbard
Dean

j.

Professor James Silver
Department of History
The University of Mississippi
University, Miss.