Dear Mr. Meredith,

I have been following
the news reports on your fight to get into Oxford University and I want you to know how much I respect
and admire your courage. I realize that this incident
is one of anguish
for you and your people. I am most happy to see that you are bringing your race to the the white man's level.

II

I am a white person and want you to know that I love, admire and respect your people. I also hope that someday your people will be accepted.

Even now as I watch the Television Newsreel I can see the anguish and misery on your face. I hope too that your fellow students can one day see that a man is made by character and not by the colour of his skin.

Good Luck in your battle for rights.

P.S.

I am with you every step of the way

Very Sincerely,
Patricia Gabriel
