Dear Jim:

I have thought of you more than once recently, and of my other friends in Oxford. And Bill Hamilton and Dick Watson and I have spoken of you.

Thanks for the suggestion. I shall mail off a copy of the Cable book to you, inscribed to James Meredith, and I shall be grateful if you will hand it to him.

Is there justification to believe that great good will come from this after all? I hope so.

Sincerely yours,

Arlin Turner, Chairman
