Dear Mr. Meredith;

I just want to send you a word of encouragement to let you know that there are many people thinking of you and wishing you well in your brave struggle.

Your dignity and courage in the face of all that has been hurled at you is an inspiration to all men everywhere. It is brave men like you who help raise mankind another notch upwards on his climb from the mud to the stars. As you are well aware, Men — both negro and white — are not born equal; but all men are equal in the hearts of some of us.

Bless you and Good Luck.

(Mrs.) Aileen Vincent-Barwood
