Dear Jim:

I will have a paper to deliver and I hope to send a copy to you by December 1. It has proved to be harder than I expected to say something different about NB.

My thoughts have been with you very often in this troublesome fall and also with Duncan and Bill Willis. To have friends with courage and good sense is heartening about the whole world and protects against that most dreadful of enemies cynical despair. I cannot say more without sounding too fulsome but your long and effective efforts have not been a waste.

My love to Dutch and it will be good to see you in Chicago,

Sincerely,
