U.S.A.

Dear Dr. Silver:

Thank you for your help in our telephone conversation recently. I am enclosing a copy of WEEKEND MAGAZINE, which as you can see is similar to THIS WEEK MAGAZINE as published in the United States.

I am also enclosing a photostat of Sheldon Stock' story which we have purchased and hope to run in an early issue. As mentioned on the phone I would greatly appreciate it if you would read the manuscript and let me have your opinion of it.

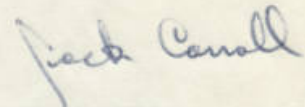

Although it is primarily the story of Sheldon's personal experience, there is possibly the odd reference which is not quite accurate, at this great distance. Our sole interest is to present an accurate, honest account.

My latest advice from my senior editors is that we may leave out entirely the encounter with Melvin Bruce, because it touches on a matter before the courts. You might comment on this.

Because we are close to our publishing deadline, I would much appreciate it if you would read the story and return it air-mail as soon as possible.

With many thanks for your help and interest,

Yours truly,

Jock Carroll,
Associate Editor.
