Dear Jim:

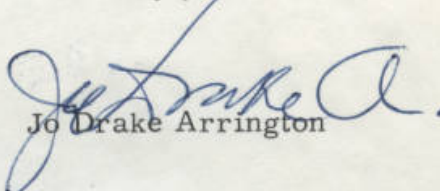

It will be good to see you down here Sunday, April 14th, on Easter day or even on Easter night. I trust you have written George and Owen so they will be expecting you. I told George and may have told Owen that you planned to be down here around Easter time.

If you are going to see Ira Harkey I hope you will go Monday, as that will be a rough day for me as I shall be working on our income tax - I believe I told you that I married money, and therefore I have to make a return. It is the usual fly in the ointment.

Call us when you arrive and let us know where you are staying. I hope you enjoy your trip down here and that Barnett does not instruct the Highway Patrol to escort you into the city as they would probably take you to the jail; and what are we doing out of jail, anyway?

It will be good to see you and Mrs. Silver and Gail, whom we had the pleasure of meeting in Vicksburg.

Sincerely yours,

Jo Drake Arrington
