Dear Professor Silver:

Thank you very much for your note.

Our Executive Committee is most disappointed that you are unable at this time to accept our invitation to address the chapter on May 1. However, we quite understand the reasons for your reluctance and I would, indeed, be grateful if you could communicate with me within the next two or three months if it appears that it might be possible for you to accept.

Thank you for your cordial note.

Sincerely yours,

Jesse Burkhead, President
